* Road-trip organization: Put items you'll need along the way into a laundry basket or two, which can be easily accessed during your trip. There's no need to undo the Tetris-like organization job of the other items, because everything you need to have at hand is in the basket.

* "I love to work in the yard, and I always wash my hands before coming in. I put a bar of soap inside a piece of mesh from a potato sack and tie it with a string; then I tie the string to my water faucet outside. Now I can easily wash my hands with soap before coming in. The sack kind of works as a scrubber as well." -- F.A. in Texas

* "If you want a lighter foundation for summer and sun protection, try mixing a little foundation with a sunblock. It might take a bit of experimenting to find the right ratio for the coverage you want, but I find that the sunblock helps the foundation to glide on, and my face feels moisturized as well." -- T.L. in Georgia

* "I moved to a much smaller house and have very little storage, so now everything I keep must be necessary. I had several banker's boxes of old papers that I had been storing for years. I still think there's a chance I'd need to access the information in them, but I didn't want to devote a lot storage space to boxes of documents. I bought a small scanner that you feed paper into, and I have used it to scan in all my papers. I'm down to a small box of keepsakes and originals that are important, and the rest is there digitally in case I ever need it." -- A.D.F in Florida

Unbutton my blouse..

A successful rancher died and left everything to his devoted wife. She was a very good-looking woman and determined to keep the ranch, but knew very little about ranching, so she decided to place an ad in the newspaper for a ranch hand...

Two cowboys applied for the job. One was gay and the other a drunk. She thought long and hard about it, and when no one else applied she decided to hire the gay guy, figuring it would be safer to have him around the house than the drunk.

He proved to be a hard worker who put in long hours every day and knew a lot about ranching.. For weeks, the two of them worked, and the ranch was doing very well.

Then one day, the rancher's widow said to the hired hand, "You have done a really good job, and the ranch looks great. You should go into town and kick up your heels." The hired hand readily agreed and went into town one Saturday night.

One o'clock came, however, and he didn't return.

Two o'clock and no hired hand.

Finally he returned around two-thirty, and upon entering the room, he found the rancher's widow sitting by the fireplace with a glass of wine, waiting for him.

She quietly called him over to her.. "Unbutton my blouse and take it off," she said.

Trembling, he did as she directed. "Now take off my boots."

He did as she asked, ever so slowly.. "Now take off my socks."

He removed each gently and placed them neatly by her boots.

"Now take off my skirt." He slowly unbuttoned it, constantly watching her eyes in the fire light.

"Now take off my bra.." Again, with trembling hands, he did as he was told and dropped it to the floor.

Then she looked at him and said, "If you ever wear my clothes into town again, you're fired."

ARIES (March 21 to April 19) Your persistence pays off as the information you demanded starts to come through. The pace is slow at first, but it begins to speed up as the week draws to a close.

TAURUS (April 20 to May 20) An unwelcome bit of news jolts the Bovine, who would prefer that things proceed smoothly. But it's at most a momentary setback. A Leo brings more welcome tidings.

GEMINI (May 21 to June 20) You need to pay close attention to the details before making a commitment. Don't accept anything that seems questionable, unless you get an answer that can be backed up.

CANCER (June 21 to July 22) Congratulations on getting that project up and running. But as exciting as it is, don't let it carry you away. Make sure you set aside time to spend with family and friends.

LEO (July 23 to August 22) Be sure you are part of the discussion involving your suggestions. Your presence ensures that you can defend your work, if necessary. It also helps gain your colleagues' support.

VIRGO (August 23 to September 22) A misunderstanding needs to be dealt with, or it can grow and cause more problems later on. Be the bigger person and take the first step to clear the air.

LIBRA (September 23 to October 22) Set some strict guidelines for yourself so your heavier-than-usual work schedule doesn't overwhelm the time you need to spend relaxing with loved ones.

SCORPIO (October 23 to November 21) You might feel a little uncomfortable being among people you hardly know. But remember that today's strangers can become tomorrow's valuable contacts.

SAGITTARIUS (November 22 to December 21) Reward yourself for all that you've accomplished despite some annoying situations that got in your way. Enjoy a well-earned getaway with someone special.

CAPRICORN (December 22 to January 19) Realizing that someone else is taking credit for what you did is bound to get anyone's goat, but especially yours. Be patient. The truth soon comes out.

AQUARIUS (January 20 to February 18) Forget about opposites attracting. What you need is to find someone who thinks like you and will support your ideas, even if others say they're too radical.

PISCES (February 19 to March 20) Workplace problems can affect your financial plans. Be prudent and avoid running up bills or making commitments until things begin to ease up by the 27th.

BORN THIS WEEK: Your intuition helps you communicate easily with people and understand their needs.

Never Irritate A Woman Who Can Operate A Backhoe

Tarot Cards

A woman visited a psychic of some local repute. In a dark and gloomy room, gazing at the Tarot cards laid out before her, the Tarot reader delivered the bad news: "There is no easy way to say this so I'll just be blunt: Prepare yourself to be a widow. Your husband will die a violent death this year."

Visibly shaken, the woman stared at the psychic's lined face, then at the single flickering candle, then down at her hands. She took a few deep breaths to compose herself. She simply had to know.

She met the Tarot reader's gaze, steadied her voice and asked, "Will I get away with it?"

Farmer Math

A Missouri farmer passed away and left 17 mules to his three sons. The instructions left in the will said that the oldest boy was to get one-half, the second oldest one-third, and the youngest one-ninth. The three sons, recognizing the difficulty of dividing 17 mules into these fractions, began to argue.

Their uncle heard about the argument, hitched up his mule and drove out to settle the matter. He added his mule to the 17, making 18. The oldest therefore got one-half, or nine, the second oldest got one-third, or six, and the youngest son got one-ninth, or two. Adding up 9, 6 and 2 equals 17. The uncle, having settled the argument, hitched up his mule and drove home.

PIEDMONT PETS

The Cycle of Violence
July 28, 2018
By Paulette Dean

The problem of cruelty to animals is not just a problem for people who respect and care for animals. People learn how to abuse, torture, and then ultimately kill humans by practicing on animals.

We received a telephone call several years ago from a woman who had witnessed a man harshly beat two puppies. When we went to his house to speak with him about it, his response was an arrogant and chilling, "I don't beat my puppies any harder than I beat my children."

Research and data support what is actually a matter of common sense; that is, if someone hurts an animal, they will also hurt a human.

In one case, we took two dogs from a man because he had just cut off their ears with box cutters. His girlfriend came to court and testified about how he was such a kind pet owner. Within a month, he had stabbed her to death.

In another case, a young man was accused of putting a small kitten in a mail drop box. His mother defended him and told us what a sweet, gentle person he was. Several months later, the son killed his mother.

Victims of domestic violence can be reluctant to leave an abusive situation because they do not want to put a pet at the mercy of the one who abused them. In cases like this, the City animal shelter is pleased to offer a safe haven for pets at risk when the owners leave home to enter a protection program. It is entirely confidential and free.

If you know of an animal or a human at risk of domestic violence, please let them know we will help relieve their worry for the animals. There is a very real cycle of violence that affects humans and animals.

Weather Vane

Tennis started in the 12th century and was played without a racquet. The ball was hit with the hand. It was not until the 16th century that the game was called "tennis" and players used a racquet. By the 1960s, important tennis matches were open to both amateurs and professionals, and winning players got a large sum of money as a prize. But there are many collectibles from early tennis events as well as equipment from the past 100 years.

Since about 1870, some steins, vases, plates and even figurines pictured players and other tennis scenes. Old balls and racquets, even appropriate tennis clothing, are wanted. One of the most unusual tennis items sold recently is a pre-1950s tennis-racquet weather vane. It was made of copper and included copper-wire racquet strings. The racquet was attached to a mounting rod with a tennis-ball top. The weather vane sold at a James Julia auction for $1,815. It probably will be installed near a tennis court.

Q. I have a tiny bisque doll, which is about four inches tall. It has molded hair, painted brown eyes and rope joints. Marked on the back is "Sarah S. Putnam, Germany." I'd like to know who this is and the age of the doll. It is in perfect condition.

A. Your doll was designed by Grace (not Sarah) S. Putnam. Born in California, Grace Storey Putnam (1877-1947) was divorced and trying to earn some money when she started designing dolls' heads. In 1922, she copyrighted a wax doll's head designed to look like the head of a 3-day-old infant. Within a couple of years, the doll, called "Bye-Lo Baby," went into production, distributed by George Borgfeldt & Co., a New York importer. The first dolls' heads were bisque and made in Germany. Bodies were cloth, made by the K & K Toy Co., a subsidiary of Borgfeldt, which also assembled them. They came in several sizes. Later, heads were composition, wood, vinyl, wax or celluloid, made in Germany or the U.S. Other dolls were all bisque, all composition or a combination. They were sold until 1952. Your doll's value depends on size, condition, age, and head and body type. Your doll was made sometime after 1925 and is worth about $200.

THE COMMUNITY FOUNDATION ACCEPTING GRANT APPLICATIONS; DEADLINE July 30, 2018

(DANVILLE, VA) - The Competitive Grant Cycle is now open for grant proposals from 501c3 organizations and government entities serving Danville, Pittsylvania County and Caswell County. All applications must be submitted online by Monday, July 30, 2018.

This is CFDRR's only call for grant applications for the 2019 cycle. Remember, awards are given in January 2019 therefore proposals should be for projects taking place between January 2019-December 2019.

The Community Foundation of the Dan River Region is an independent, public charity established in September 1996 by a steering committee of local civic leaders to gather permanent funds to support our area.

While the Foundation works with donors to establish funds and scholarships to benefit any geographic area, our primary service area is Danville/Pittsylvania County, Virginia and Caswell County, North Carolina.

Community foundations are established to manage a collection of separate funds created by individuals and corporations – a community of donors – to enhance the quality of life in a local area. These funds are pooled and invested under the direction of a board of directors comprised of community leaders.

The Community Foundation is a fully tax-exempt organization. Individuals, businesses or organizations may establish their own fund or may contribute any amount to existing funds. The Community Foundation may be contacted at 541 Loyal Street, VA 24541, (434) 793-0884 or HYPERLINK "http://www.cfdr.org" www.cfdr.org.

Averett University, SVHEC, NCI collaborate on unique professional development opportunity South Boston, Va. (June 29, 2018) –The Southern Virginia Higher Education Center (SVHEC) and New College Institute (NCI) partnered with Averett University to connect their technical trainers to a unique professional development opportunity.

"We have subject matter experts who are practitioners in the technical areas of our workforce training programs, and we want to help prepare and position them to be highly effective trainers. It is important that we pair technical expertise with exceptional classroom competencies," said Dr. Nettie Simon-Owens, SVHEC Chief Workforce Development Officer.

Averett University responded to this need by developing and delivering a new 10-week, face-to-face program entitled "Instructional Dynamics for Technical Trainers." Designed to build classroom competencies for all levels of technical trainers, the program consisted of 30 instructional hours in five core areas: classroom management, learning principles and styles, using technology in the classroom/lab, assessment and planning.

"We are always thrilled when we have the opportunity to work alongside our partners like the Southern Virginia Higher Education Center and New College Institute on our shared vision of developing a robust and prepared workforce through educational initiatives," said Averett President Dr. Tiffany M. Franks. "This program was built out of our distinguished Education program, which places many teachers throughout the region's school systems and will now equip technical trainers to be strong teachers in their content areas of expertise."

NCI and SVHEC began piloting the "Instructional Dynamics" program this spring, with individuals attending class one evening a week. SVHEC's cohort included full-time workforce development staff, selected part-time trainers and several small business owners who will serve as technical training resources for future program initiatives. NCI's class was comprised of two New College staff members and several full-time employees from industries in the Martinsville/Henry County area.

"The class provided insight into the unique requirements of adult learners as well as practical tips for a purposeful, high quality learning experience. It filled in some knowledge gaps for those of us who do not have an education background," said Kelly Shotwell, SVHEC IT Academy Program Coordinator and Trainer.

"As a person with an extensive background in manufacturing, I have experienced first-hand the challenges of taking an individual from being a highly proficient machinist, to technical trainer.

These Instructional Dynamics courses will help to make that transition a lot easier and give our industry partners the professional tools they need to develop a high performing workforce," said Pamela Carter-Taylor, NCI Coordinator of Advanced Manufacturing.

The pilot of "Instructional Dynamics for Technical Trainers" officially ended on June 28 with a luncheon hosted by Averett University. Program participants were recognized, and received completion certificates. "We're grateful for the partnership and collaboration with Averett University and New College Institute. What has been taught and learned in the modules will help us standardize course materials as appropriate across all of our training programs, and will enable us to prepare our local and regional technical professionals to be better technical trainers," Dr. Simon-Owens stated.

City Council picks Jones to serve as mayor

Mayor Alonzo Jones, right, and Vice Mayor Lee Vogler, left. City Council on Monday elected Councilman Alonzo Jones as mayor and Councilman Lee Vogler as vice mayor. They will serve as mayor and vice mayor for the next two years.

Jones takes over as mayor for Councilman John Gilstrap, who had served as mayor for two years, but earlier this year did not seek re-election to City Council. Jones has been on Council for eight years and served as vice mayor for the past two years. This will be his first term as mayor.

Vogler was first elected to City Council in May 2012, becoming the youngest person ever elected to that position, at age 24. Vogler was re-elected in May 2016. This will be his first term as vice mayor.

Their selection as mayor and vice mayor took place during an organizational meeting. The meeting is held every two years for the public swearing-in of winners of the City Council election held in May, selection of a mayor and vice mayor and issuance of seat assignments for each Council meeting.

The mayor and vice mayor positions are elected by sitting City Council members to serve two-year terms.

Councilman James Buckner nominated Jones as mayor. Jones was elected by a unanimous vote.

Councilman Adam Tomer nominated Vogler as vice mayor. Vogler also was elected by a unanimous vote.

City Council is the governing body of the City of Danville. It is composed of nine people, elected at large for four-year staggered terms.

In May of this year, Jones, Buckner and Dr. Gary Miller won re-election. They were joined in taking the oath of office on Monday by Tomer, who won election in May for his third term on Council. Tomer served on City Council from 2006 to 2014, but did not seek re-election in 2014.

Jones, Buckner, Miller and Tomer will serve as council members to June 30, 2022.

Vogler and the other members of Council – L. G. “Larry” Campbell Jr., Sherman Saunders, Fred Shanks and Madison Whittle – will serve to June 30, 2020.

Following the election of mayor and vice mayor, seating positions for every council member except the mayor was determined Monday by a random drawing. Council members must maintain the positions drawn for each meeting until the next inaugural meeting in two years.

Sixteen Graduate from Sovah Medical Residency Program

Sovah Health hosts graduation for medical residents

Danville, Virginia (June 29, 2018) – Sovah Health announced today that the Sovah Medical Residency Program hosted its graduation for medical residents on Friday, June 22 at the Institute of Advanced Learning and Research in Danville. Sixteen physicians were recognized for completing their three-year residency in Family Medicine or Internal Medicine at Sovah Health in 2018. Several physicians and employees were also honored with awards for their commitment to training medical students and for their dedication to their profession.

“I am so proud of our graduates and all they have accomplished in their three years here in Danville,” said Dr. Amber Fedin, DO, FACFP, Director of Medical Education. “We estimate that over a thirty year career, this year’s graduating class will treat 2.5 million patients, demonstrating the extensive impact our program has on healthcare – here locally and across the nation.

The 2018 Family Medicine graduates included: Garrett Beatty, DO; Ausma Memon Farooq, DO; Jenessa C. Hill, DO; John Cody Lee, DO, MBA, MPH; and Noah Isadore Wallace, DO. The 2018 Internal Medicine graduates were: Oladapo Adefeso, MD, DO; Richard V. Castle, DO, MS; Nikhil Bhargava Chinmaya, DO; Corey Sanders Deuso, DO; Carole Nganku Hall, DO; Adam C. Hughes, DO, MBA; William Clay Lancaster III, DO; Kinali Narendra Patel, DO; Brent James Portz, DO; Savannah Catherine Schultz, DO; and Geoffrey Thomas Scott, DO.

Several residents and physicians were honored with individual awards.

The Dr. Michael Moore Excellence in Education Awards, presented to physicians who exemplify academic excellence and passion in teaching and for passing on knowledge to the next generation of physicians, were presented to Kimberly Bird, MD (Internal Medicine) and Amber Stephens, DO (Family Medicine).

The MVP Clinical Staff Awards, awarded to the Most Valuable Players on the healthcare team who demonstrate excellence and genuine compassion for patients, were presented to Iya Kassa (Internal Medicine) and Phyllis Cash (Family Medicine).

The MVP Staff Awards, awarded to most valuable players who go above and beyond in assisting resident physicians, were presented to Laurie Galvez (Internal Medicine) and Sara Lankford (Family Medicine).

Dr. Saad Syed and Dr. Asia Zierle Ghosh (Family Medicine) and Dr. Brent Portz (Internal Medicine) were recognized as Residents of the Year for demonstrating excellence and genuine compassion for patients, a strong work ethic, effective leadership and supervision, and a positive attitude and interaction with staff, faculty and peers.

Dr. Kevin David (Family Medicine) and Dr. Samuel Lazoff (Internal Medicine) received the Servant’s Heart Award, for going above and beyond to serve the needs of patients, colleagues, and the residency program.

“Sovah Health’s medical residency program has experienced many major milestones over the past year including our recent ACGME accreditation. Our graduation gives us a chance to celebrate those milestones as well as the individual accomplishments of our physicians and all they have contributed to Sovah Health and our community during their residency,” said Ross Taylor, MD, Chief Medical Officer at Sovah Health. “Congratulations and best wishes to our new graduates and welcome to our new interns.”

Formed in 2010, the Sovah Medical Residency Program recently received institutional and program accreditation from the Accreditation Council for Graduate Medical Education (ACGME). The program continues to grow through a recent partnership with Liberty University College of Osteopathic Medicine (Lynchburg, VA) and through an affiliation with the Edward Via College of Osteopathic Medicine (VCOM). Resident physicians and medical students live in Danville and rotate through local physician practices and Sovah Health. Each resident receives nearly 9,000 hours of training during their three-year residency. During a year’s time, the residents see over 100,000 patients across the region and contribute approximately $1.5 million to the local economy.

The Spats by Jeff Pickering

by Tony Rizzo

HOLLYWOOD — Talks are on between “Roseanne” producers (who include actress Sara Gilbert) and ABC to breathe new life into the recently canceled “Roseanne.” The main catch is that ABC says it would only proceed with a spin-off if Roseanne Barr has absolutely no involvement creatively, financially or otherwise. Barr has always had a creative credit and ownership of the original series. Now lawyers have to figure out if she has creative or financial entitlement of spin-offs because the show is based on the titled character she created. In anticipation of working this out, ABC is holding the timeslot open for the spin-off, which probably will be called “The Connors.”

Chris Pine in “Wonder Woman”

At the end of “Wonder Woman,” we were led to believe that Steve Trevor, played by Chris Pine, had died. However, now that “Wonder Women 1984” is in production with Gal Gadot, Kristen Wiig and possibly, as rumored, TV “Wonder Woman” Linda Carter, Chris Pine is returning, and you can be sure not in flashbacks or as a ghost. It’s set for a November 2019 release.

Tim Burton — who gave us such classics as “Beetlejuice” (1988), “Edward Scissorhands” (1990), three “Batman” films, “Planet of the Apes” (2001), “Charlie & the Chocolate Factory” (2005) and the epic “Alice in Wonderland” (2010) — is unveiling his live-action epic remake of “Dumbo,” with Danny DeVito, Colin Farrell, Michael Keaton, Eva Green and Alan Arkin, in March. One of the major changes made to the classic animated film was shifting the crowning moment, when Dumbo makes his first flight, from the end of the film to the beginning. Sure sounds like fun.

Barbra Streisand was nominated for an Emmy for her recent Netflix special “Barbra: The Music ... The Mem’ries ... The Magic!,” which she now says could well be her last live concert ... EVER! She has been working on her memoirs for more than three years and is five songs into completing her next album. She has not given up on starring in a remake of “Gypsy,” which she feels would be the perfect way to bookend her movie career, having starred in “Funny Girl,” which was written by Jule Styne, who also composed the music for “Gypsy.” So what would the 76-year-old superstar do besides being Mrs. James Brolin, a star in his own right as one of the leads of the hit CBS series “Life in Pieces”? “Well,” she says, “I just want to direct,” and as the only female director to win a Golden Globe as best director, why not?

Finally, Ben Affleck’s next film is called “The Has Been,” which he almost became after the colossal flop “Gigli,” with Jennifer Lopez, which cost $75 million and made only $7 million!

CHEESY PULL-APART BREAD

INGREDIENTS:
1 large loaf or boule-style Italian bread (Sourdough or French could also work)
½ cup butter (unsalted or salted is fine), melted
1 clove garlic, minced
1 bunch scallions, trimmed and thinly sliced
8 ounces sharp Cheddar cheese, shredded (about 2 cups)
8 ounces Monterey Jack cheese, shredded (about 2 cups)
Chopped fresh parsley, to garnish (optional)

DIRECTIONS:
Preheat oven to 350 degrees F. Spray a sheet of heavy-duty foil with non-stick cooking spray and set aside.
Cut a cross-hatch pattern into the top of the bread by slicing ½-inch grid lines into the bread, stopping about ¼-inch from the bottom of the bread so that it stays together. Place the bread on the piece of foil that has been sprayed.
Stir together the melted butter, garlic and scallions. Gently separate the bread with your fingers, then spoon the butter mixture in all of the seams, making sure it is evenly distributed among the whole loaf. Wrap the loaf up in the foil and place on a baking stone or directly on the oven rack and bake for 10 minutes.
Remove from the oven and increase the oven temperature to 425 degrees F.
Open the foil and sprinkle the shredded cheese on top of the bread. There will be a lot of cheese, so try to push down as much as you can in between all of the crevices in the bread. Leave the foil open and return it to the oven. Bake until the cheese is completely melted, bubbling and starting to brown on top, about 15 minutes. Let stand for 5 minutes before serving, then sprinkle with parsley (if desired) and dig in!
