Jeff Tidholm and Amanda MacDonald dedicate the showboat at a ceremony at the Aitkin County Fairgrounds on July 5. A tremendous cooperative community effort went into the restoration.

By ANN SCHWARTZ

The former Grand Rapids Mississippi Showboat is now a landlubber.

The refurbished boat is firmly ensconced on the terra firma at the Aitkin County Fairgrounds and was dedicated on Thursday, July 5.

The showboat was the host for riverside shows for many years in Grand Rapids. Aitkin took possession of it a couple of years ago and it needed much work. With welding, carpentry, electrical power, painting, landscaping, and more, the regal boat now greets the community at the fairground's entrance -- complete with its own stage. Windows, smokestacks and a dressing room will still be added. Next year, the boat will be ready for family-friendly shows on the stage, holiday lights and more as Aitkin is now indeed a Mississippi Riverboat Town.

Steamer steady on the land as showboat readied for shows

Amanda MacDonald and Jeff Tidholm of the Aitkin County Chamber have led the charge. They said at the dedication that about $40,000 of work was done to refurbish the steamer - much of it inkind donation of labor and materials.

"The community jumped on board with our vision and now Aitkin is a Mississippi Riverboat Town with a riverboat," enthused MacDonald.

Tidholm recited a long list of local contractors and individuals who helped with roofing, welding, moving the boat, carpentry, landscaping, bringing in power, concrete, logistics and more. From

Woolgatherer exhibit of fiber art

"Woolgatherer", an exhibit of fiber art by Lisa Jordan opens at The Crossing Arts Alliance on Friday, July 13, 5:00 to 7:00 p.m. A brief artist talk is at 5:30. An assortment of refreshments will be served, courtesy of The Crossing Arts Alliance Advocacy committee.

The exhibit is open July 13 to August 4 and is free and open to the public.

"Woolgathering": idle or absent-minded indulgence in fantasy; daydream-

The artist's first exhibition at the gallery features a series of organic forms and renderings of natural scenes made of wool and other fibers, often combined with natural materials such as wood and stones.

Drawing from her deep love of nature, especially the odd and overlooked details, and employing both wet and needle felting techniques, Jordan creates pieces that seem at once fantastic and familiar. She asks the viewer to let their minds wander and indulge in a bit of daydreaming while engaging with her works. Jordan will describe her process and the challenges of the medium at the 5:30 p.m. artist talk on July 13.

Visit crossingarts.org or call 218-833-0416 for more information.

The Crossing Arts Alliance is located at 711 Laurel Street in downtown Brainerd.

St. Paul man drowns in Adney Lake

Crow Wing County Sheriff Todd Dahl reported the body of a 60-year-old male from St. Paul was recovered from Adney Lake.

The man has been identified as William James Murray of St. Paul.

Preliminary reports indicate Murray had been swimming near a pontoon with water on July 8 at around 3:03 p.m. Crow Wing County Boat and Water, Dive Team and the UAS Team responded and searched the afternoon and evening until forced off the water due to an incoming storm. The search teams continued the search on July 9 and were able to locate others when he went under the victim in approximately nine feet of water around 1:45 p.m.

Murray's body was transported to the Ramsey County Medical Examiner's Office. The sheriff's office was assisted by the Crosslake Police Department, CRMC Ambulance and the Minnesota DNR Enforcement.

Dump Run registration now open

Early Bird Registration is now open for The Run Dump Quarter Marathon and The Dump Run 5K in Aitkin during Riverboat Days on August 4, 2018 beginning at 8 a.m. Runners and walkers are all welcome!

The quarter marathon course takes participants through a scenic course on pavement and gravel road starting at Pine Lake access. This nostalgic route takes runners by the old dump, past Jim's Water Stop on old Hwy. 169 and then northward to Paubeck's County Market.

The 5K course begins at Paulbeck's and works its way to the bike path crossing the Ripple River and into Aitkin's City Park returning over the same route to the finish line at Paulbeck's.

This is the 31st anniversary of The Dump Run and this community event serves as the kickoff to Riverboat Days. Register on-line at "The Dump Run in Aitkin" or Aitkin.com. For questions, call the Aitkin Chamber of Commerce at 218-927-2316. This event is sponsored by Paulbeck's County Market.

Area youth awarded camp scholarships

Nine area youth will attend Camp Needlepoint, a week-long, summer outdoor camp on the St. Croix River in Hudson, WI, for youngsters with diabetes, thanks to funds raised through Crosby's Because of Brandon event. Youth ages 9 to 17 from Pequot, Merrifield, Aitkin, Emily, Crosslake, Baxter, Palisade and Tamarack all received scholarships for this summer's camps and additional applications are outstanding.

Since Because of Brandon was established two years ago, more than $100,000 has been raised to fund youth diabetes camps, patient travel expenses, and educational events. Most of the funds provide scholarships for the camp which lets children have a great time participating in traditional activities while connecting with others with diabetes. Healthcare professionals oversee daily diabetes care and help campers learn to manage and live successfully with their disease.

More than 20,000 youth are diagnosed with type 1 diabetes every year, a life-changing disease that requires 24/7 control for the rest of their lives. Children with diabetes and their families walk a tightrope to keep blood glucose levels not too low and not too high. To do this, they must inject insulin multiple times each day, monitor blood glucose throughout the day and night, treat severe headaches and nausea, and seek emergency help for life-threatening complications. Camp Needlepoint is designed to facilitate a traditional summer camp experience in a medically-safe environment, while creating opportunities for children to forge lifelong relationships, overcome feelings of isolation and gain self-confidence.

"My son, Brandon, was only 13 when he was diagnosed with type 1 diabetes," said event Chair Doug Houge. "Despite excellent care and his best efforts, complications arose and Brandon passed away in December 2015 at the age of 27. We miss him every day and still cry over losing him. But, we are determined to help others avoid the same loss. Please help us honor his memory by supporting this fun event."

The third annual Because of Brandon event is Saturday, July 28, at the Crosby Bar & Grill. The benefit for Cuyuna Regional Medical Center's Diabetes Education Department includes a beer and wine tasting, silent auction, barbecue, ATV ride, raffle and street dance. All proceeds fund youth diabetes camps, patient travel expenses, and educational events. The raffle is for a 2018 Alterra 500 ATV from Brothers Motor Sports ($4,999 value), Ruttger's weekend with meals and golf ($1,150 value), .22 LR Barracuda gun donated by Magnum Research ($840 value), $150, and $50. Tickets are $10 each and are available at CRMC's Cuyuna Lakes Pharmacy, the Crosby Bar & Grill, Culver's in Baxter and numerous other community locations.

Don't blame the messenger

It's human nature to react to bad news by blaming the messenger. The truth is often unpleasant. As the citizen wrote in the July 4th, 2018 edition of the Courier, entitled: "Don't let smear campaign influence you," he stated, "the only people who might benefit from the replacement of our current police leadership are the criminals they have arrested or are investigating."

Again, someone else sees my point. If he read the independent third-party arbitration report, he would see it's impossible to continue to trust the leadership, since those findings were published. Not once, but twice, the leadership lied. Once is "just cause" for termination, twice is a frightening pattern of behavior, which destroys the confidence needed for them to continue and taints everything they have done and will do. The consequences of those lies are a huge monetary loss to the citizens of Crosby. Part of the issue of being the messenger, is managing the right perspective of the message. This is not a smear campaign, slanderous, or character assassination. Although, the characters involved assassinated their careers, future, the public trust, and your checkbook. Before you kill the messenger, take the time to read the documents. Warning, vou will be shocked.

It is time for the officers who lied to be terminated. Like their actions, found by the arbitrator to lack a moral compass, they don't possess the moral fortitude to resign on their own, a clear indication they don't care about your best interests.

A little more truth, I admire and respect the men and women who choose the police profession. But when they choose to lie and cost you thousands of dollars, violate the public trust, they deserve to lose their jobs. Reward loyalty with loyalty, disloyalty with distance. Our respect and admiration are not tainted for all, just those two.
