Under the Bed

Because of back problems, each night I lie on the floor and do exercises.

Once when we stopped at a motel, as I started my exercise, something under the bed caught my eye. It was a card, on which was written "Yes, we do clean under here, too."

The Old Man's Physical

A 70-year-old man goes to the doctor's for a physical. The doctor runs some tests and says to the man, "Well, everything seems to be in top condition physically, but what about mentally? How is your connection with God?"

And the man says, "Oh me and God? We're tight. We have a real bond, he's good to me. Every night when I have to get up to go to the bathroom, he turns on the light for me, and then, when I leave, he turns it back off." Well, upon hearing this the doctor was astonished.

He called the man's wife and said, "I'd like to speak to you about your husband's connection with God. He claims that every night when he needs to use the restroom, God turns on the light for him and turns it off for him again when he leaves. Is this true?"

And she says, "That idiot, he's been peeing in the refrigerator!"

Teacher Juror

As a potential juror in an assault-and-battery case, I was sitting in a courtroom, answering questions from both sides. The assistant district attorney asked such questions as: Had I ever been mugged? Did I know the victim or the defendant?

The defense attorney took a different approach, however. "I see you are a teacher," he said. "What do you teach?"

"English and theater," I responded.

"I guess I better watch my grammar," the defense attorney quipped.

"No," I shot back. "You better watch your acting."

When the laughter in the courtroom died down, I was excused from the case.

ARIES (March 21 to April 19) With new facts to work with, you should feel more confident in moving ahead. But continue to do so at an unhurried pace so you can spot details you might otherwise miss.

TAURUS (April 20 to May 20) Taking on that new workplace project could be one of your smarter career moves. Expect a surprising show of support from someone who had always been a critic.

GEMINI (May 21 to June 20) You might feel you're too busy to undertake a new responsibility. But check it out before making any decisions. What you learn could persuade you to change your mind.

CANCER (June 21 to July 22) You feel quite content enjoying all the comforts of home right now. But the urge to travel grows stronger, and by week's end, you could begin packing your bags.

LEO (July 23 to August 22) A hectic period begins to ease up, but that doesn't mean the Fine Feline can do much catnapping these days. You need to finish those old tasks and prepare for new ones.

VIRGO (August 23 to September 22) Expect to get some good news about your financial situation by week's end. But it could still be too early to rush out with a long shopping list of things to buy.

LIBRA (September 23 to October 22) Your management skills make an impression on some workplace VIPs who might be looking for someone like you to take on an upcoming project. Good luck.

SCORPIO (October 23 to November 21) Meeting a former adversary might be unsettling at first. But time has softened hard feelings, and you could be on the brink of starting a new relationship.

SAGITTARIUS (November 22 to December 21) A troubling situation close to home might cause you to change your travel plans. But getting all the facts before you act might cause you to reconsider.

CAPRICORN (December 22 to January 19) You might be quite alone right now in deciding to support a major workplace shift. But others will join you as new information supports your bold move.

AQUARIUS (January 20 to February 18) A former co-worker returns with news that could persuade you to reassess recently made plans. Be sure to consult with a trusted colleague before you act.

PISCES (February 19 to March 20) Your motives behind a recent decision could be called into question by a rival. But once you present the facts, all doubts will be resolved. Enjoy an arts-rich weekend.

BORN THIS WEEK: While you love being the center of attention, your generous heart allows you to share the attention with others.

Strange BUT TRUE

By Samantha Weaver

* You probably won't be surprised to learn that it was Albert Einstein who made the following sage observation: "A clever person solves a problem. A wise person avoids it."

* Ever wonder why blue jeans are blue? When they were first designed by Levi Strauss, the people most likely to wear them were those who did a great deal of manual labor. Strauss rightly assumed the work was likely to be dirty, so he dyed his new trousers indigo to help hide stains.

* Statistics on sporting events show that 17 of the 20 sporting events with the most attendees every year are NASCAR races.

* Before horror author Stephen King became famous for novels such as "Carrie," "The Stand" and "The Shining," he wrote four novels and 60 short stories that failed to be accepted for publication.

* Historians report that Napoleon Bonaparte, when he wasn't busy conquering, enjoyed ice skating.

* Do animals grieve their own? Perhaps so -- at least, some animals. When an elephant dies, other elephants in the herd will cover the body with leaves and branches and often will stay with it for days.

* You may be surprised to learn that a Boeing 747 jet is longer from wingtip to wingtip than the distance of the Wright Brothers' first airplane flight.

* If you're enjoying summer picnics, you might want to keep in mind the fact that there are 1,500 known species of fleas and 9,500 known species of ants. Then again, that might be a factoid you'd rather forget.

Thought for the Day: "Strike an average between what a woman thinks of her husband a month before she marries him and what she thinks of him a year afterward, and you will have the truth about him." -- H.L. Mencken

40 graduate from first Youth Police Academy

Police Chief Scott Booth and graduating student Anita White

A special class of students – 40 youths ranging in age from 10 to 16 – graduated today from a one-of-a-kind academy – the Danville Youth Police Academy.

The graduation ceremony held at Langston Focus School for this class was the culmination of a three-week program conducted by the Danville Police Department. The academy not only gave the youths something to do for the summer, but also provided an opportunity to build bridges between police officers and youths through positive engagement.

Ryant Washington, deputy secretary of Public Safety and Homeland Security for Virginia, served as the keynote speaker for the ceremony. He told the students that they can make a difference in the future of this community.

“The men and women in uniform here today believe in you.” Washington said. “They believe in you because they are here working with you. .... They want you to continue to build on what they have taught you.”

The academy kicked off on June 25 and featured daily activities and lessons. Officers introduced students to different aspects of law enforcement. Guest speakers told of their life experiences and delivered inspirational stories and messages.

The academy partnered with community organizations which instructed students on topics such as CPR and lifesaving, how to manage finances, and the programs that colleges offer and how to apply for admission.

The academy also offered students the opportunity to have hands-on engagement and build mentoring relationships with police officers while showcasing a choice for a future career.

Police Chief Scott Booth called the first academy a success. He credited the success to the work of youth engagement officer Sylvia Brooks.

“Sylvia had a vision for offering our youth something constructive to do with participation by members of our police department, and she did that with the help and contributions of many of you out here today (attending the ceremony), and she did that with no official budget. It was her vision.”

Earlier this year, Booth created a Community Engagement Unit, which is led by Capt. Tommy Merricks. In April, he named Brooks to the newly-created position of youth engagement officer. In that position, her role is to help the department to reach out to youth by coordinating events for officers to interact with kids.

OBITUARIES

"For whether we live, we live unto the Lord; and whether we die, we die unto the Lord: whether we live therefore, or die, we are the Lord's." - Romans 14:8

Bradley Blake Durrett

Bradley Blake Durrett, age 26, of Keeling, VA, passed away on Thursday, July 12, 2018 in Danville. Bradley was born in Granite City, Illinois on September 10, 1991 to Jon Durrett and Mary Carter Gilbert who survive him. He is also survived by his step-father, Chuck Gilbert. Bradley took his own life after a long, hard battle with depression, anxiety and addiction. If you need help, ask for it. Can it be scary to take that step? No doubt. But you are not alone. Seek to build others up, not tear them down. In little ways every day, we each can try to make a constructive difference. Avoid drama. It does no good. Use your energy more wisely — there is only so much to go around. Recognize small moments of joy, for they happen all the time. We just have to notice. Be kind, my God, just take a moment to be kind.

In addition to his father, mother and step-father, Bradley is survived by his brothers, Edgar Carter (Elizabeth), and Jerry Ingram. Other survivors include his grandparents, Mabel Carter, Bernice Durrett, and step-grandparents, Carolyn Gilbert, Alvis Gilbert, and Anne Gilbert; one niece, Cora Carter, and a number of uncles and aunts. Bradley was preceded in death by his grandfathers, Edgar Carter, Eugene Durrett, and his aunt, Kimberly Gilbert.

A memorial service will be held on Wednesday, July 18, 2018 at 7:00 p.m. at Barker Funeral Home Chapel. The family will receive friends one hour prior to the service.

- Who had a hit with "Run to Him," and when?
- Which artist released the original of the R&B hit "Born Under a Bad Sign"?
- Name the group that released "I Woke Up in Love This Morning."
- Who had an album titled "Abraxas" in 1970?
- Name the song that contains this lyric: "And you read your Emily Dickinson, And I my Robert Frost, And we note our place with bookmarkers That measure what we've lost."

Answers

- Bobby Vee, in 1961, on his "Take Good Care of My Baby" album. In 1964, Little Eva did a female version, "Run to Her."
- Albert King, in 1967. His version landed on the Rock and Roll Hall of Fame's list of 500 influential songs.
- The Partridge Family, in 1971. The song actually went to No. 13 on the Billboard Hot 100 chart.
- Santana. The Library of Congress put it on their National Recording Registry.
- "The Dangling Conversation" by Simon and Garfunkel, in 1966. This beautiful song describes a relationship in which conversation has failed between two very different people. Amazingly enough, the song did not chart well, only reaching No. 25.

Piedmont Shopper FAVORITE RECIPES

GROUND BEEF PASTA CASSEROLE

INGREDIENTS

- 2 pounds of ground beef
- 1 large onion, chopped
- 1/2 green bell pepper, chopped
- 3 cans of diced tomatoes
- 2 tsp. chili powder
- 1/2 tsp. sugar
- 2 cups uncooked elbow macaroni
- 1 cup mozzarella cheese, shredded
- salt and pepper, to taste

DIRECTIONS

I use my dutch oven for this one. I like that it's deep enough, and with the heavy duty lid, it keeps it nice and hot to steam up the pasta perfectly.

So I add just a bit of olive oil to the bottom of my pan and saute my onions and bell pepper for a minute or two. Then I add the ground beef and cook until it's no longer pink.

After draining the ground beef mixture, I add the tomatoes, chili powder, sugar, and salt and pepper.

I bring it to a boil, then reduce the heat to simmer for a couple of minutes more.

After that, I stir in the macaroni noodles, add a bit more salt and pepper, and cover, simmering until the pasta is tender.

Before serving, I sprinkle the top of the casserole with mozzarella cheese.

* "For gorgeous biscuits, add a bit of sugar to your biscuit mix. They brown well and have lovely golden tops. To add depth to your sausage gravy, add a tablespoon of strong coffee just before serving. My granny did both of these, and her biscuits and gravy were famously good." -- J.R. in Alabama

It's not about safety, since you should be watching your kids every minute. We do this so that the bigger kids -- who like to splash and dive -- don't run into the littler ones who are just floating or practicing swimming." -- W.L. in Florida

So we wouldn't get them mixed up, as soon as we opened the box, I would put a color on the back of all the pieces. Each puzzle had a different color, of course. It saved a of time and energy." -- P.H. in Pennsylvania

SPECIALIZING IN BIRTHDAY & WEDDING CAKES

FAMILY FEATURES

Serving up an outdoor meal is a summertime staple for gatherings of all kinds – barbecues, celebrations, picnics and more. However, with so many options available and different styles for preparing the dishes, it can be a challenge for home chefs to decide what guests will go for.

Instead of racking your brain or spending hours searching for the right main course, consider these versatile options – one dish focused on chicken, one for beef and one for pork – that can send partygoers back for seconds.

Find more recipes perfect for outdoor gatherings at Culinary.net.

Serve Up Skewers

Ideal for simple family meals or full-blown summertime parties, these Honey-Lime Chicken Skewers are an ideal handheld food for outdoor meals. With just a handful of ingredients and an easy grilling method involved, they're tasty and tantalizing without taking your focus off all the fun and festivities. More honey-infused recipes are available at Honey.com.

Honey-Lime Chicken Skewers

Recipe courtesy of The National Honey Board
Servings: 8

- 2 tablespoons honey
- 3 tablespoons soy sauce
- 1 tablespoon olive oil
- 1 lime, juiced
- 1 pound chicken breast strips, skinless and boneless
- bamboo skewers

In small bowl, whisk honey, soy sauce, olive oil and lime juice until completely blended. Pour mixture into re-sealable freezer bag and add chicken strips. Seal bag and gently shake to cover chicken strips. Allow to marinate 2 hours.

Heat grill to medium-high heat. Soak bamboo skewers in water 15 minutes. Remove chicken strips from marinade and skewer onto bamboo sticks. Grill 8 minutes, or until juices are clear and chicken is fully cooked.

Savor Your Summer Soirees

Main dish options for outdoor entertaining

Sweet Summer Refresh

Summer typically brings about both the desire to feel healthier and cravings for sweet, refreshing meals. When you rethink your food and focus on feeling better about your diet and yourself, the two can work hand-in-hand.

Liven up your summer entertaining menu with a delicious touch of reduced-calorie sweetness from Truvia in recipes like this sizzling Java London Broil. Celebrity chef Devin Alexander, featured on "The Biggest Loser," created this succulent recipe with less sugar by using Truvia Brown Sugar Blend, combining stevia sweetener with brown sugar to maintain the taste and texture of brown sugar with 75 percent fewer calories, for her latest book "You Can Have It!"

For more summertime recipe ideas, visit Truvia.com.

Java London Broil

Recipe courtesy of Devin Alexander from "You Can Have It!," copyright American Diabetes Association
Servings: 6

- 2 teaspoons freshly ground coffee
- 1/2 tablespoon Truvia Brown Sugar Blend
- 2 teaspoons freshly ground black pepper
- 1 teaspoon ground coriander
- 1/2 teaspoon dried oregano
- 1/4 teaspoon sea salt
- 1 London broil (1 1/2 pounds, preferably grass fed)
- 1 teaspoon extra-virgin olive oil

Heat grill to high.

In small bowl, add coffee, brown sugar blend, black pepper, coriander, oregano and salt; mix well.

Place London broil on cutting board or large plate. Drizzle 1/2 teaspoon of olive oil on each side of meat then rub all over. Sprinkle seasoning mixture over roast and rub in to evenly cover meat.

Grill London broil to desired doneness, about 3-5 minutes per side for medium rare. Tent meat with foil for 5 minutes then slice into thin slices, cutting at an angle against the grain.

Sweet and Savory Ribs

By starting these Grilled Sticky Ribs in the oven before finishing them off on the grill with a sweet chili glaze, home cooks can help make summer festivities stand out without spending hours at the grill or smoker. The Asian-inspired finish of the glaze gives guests a unique taste to savor while soaking in the summer sun. Visit verybestbaking.com for more recipes from Nestlé.

Grilled Sticky Ribs

Recipe courtesy of Nestlé
Prep time: 20 minutes
Total time: 3 hours, 35 minutes
Servings: 5-6

- 2 racks (about 4 pounds) baby back ribs
- garlic salt
- ground black pepper
- 1/2 cup water
- 1 tablespoon vegetable oil

- 1/4 cup finely chopped red onion
- 1 teaspoon finely chopped garlic
- 1 teaspoon grated fresh ginger
- 3/4 cup sweet chili sauce
- 1/2 cup Apple Nestlé Juicy Juice 100% Juice
- 1 tablespoon rice wine (mirin)

Heat oven to 300 F. Using knife, remove membrane from bone side of ribs. Pat ribs dry with paper towel; season both sides liberally with garlic salt and pepper. Place ribs in large roasting pan, overlapping as needed. Add water to pan. Cover tightly with aluminum foil.

Bake about 3 hours, or until meat is tender but not quite falling off bones.

In small saucepan over medium-high heat, heat oil. Add onion; cook, stirring occasionally, 2-3 minutes, or until soft. Stir in garlic and ginger; cook 1 minute. Stir in sweet chili sauce, apple juice and rice wine. Reduce heat to low; cook 8 minutes, or until sauce is reduced to about 1 cup.

Heat grill to medium heat. Brush glaze over tops of ribs. Grill 4-5 minutes, or until sauce caramelizes. Serve with remaining glaze.

The Suicide Report

The newly released National Suicide Data Report shows that the number of veterans who commit suicide is unchanged. The report covers the years 2005 to 2015, which is a big concern. That time period ended three years ago. What is going on right now? The report is full of data manipulated in various ways, with subpopulations, unadjusted rates, age-adjusted rates, by race, by branch of service, by era ... and more. It's loaded with charts with rates versus percentage versus real numbers. The number of veterans has gone down, by 15.2 percent. The percentage of veterans using Department of Veterans Affairs health care has gone up. Suicides went down among the group using VA health care. The biggest rate of increase category is female veterans who did not use VA health care services -- but males in VA health care had the largest actual number. The next biggest category is all veterans, male and female, who did and didn't use VA health care services. The smallest category is for female veterans who used those services. In the "unadjusted" chart breaking down age, there is not a single group with smaller numbers in 2015 than there were in 2005. Let me repeat that: Every single category, male female, all ages, saw bigger numbers from 2005 to 2015. Unless you were a statistics major in college, these charts and graphs will boggle the mind, with nothing making sense. The only graph that spells out the truth in an understandable way is the one showing that the number of veteran suicides from 2008 to 2015 has remained steady at 20 per day. If you want a more comprehensive understanding, wade through the 48-page VA National Suicide Data Report 2005-2015.
