THE CLOSING
 The closing date on the contract is an on or about target date. The closing will be scheduled by your attorney and the banks attorney.
 The property needs to be broom clean and swept condition and all the utilities need to be on. Seller calls the utility company to let them know the buyer will be calling.
 The attorney will go over all the closing statements and once the documents are signed, you are handed the keys and possession is given to you.
