Maybe you have heard of Sky Ranch near Van, Texas. With a Christian core, it is a working ranch that serves as a Retreat property and rodeo school. It is part of a group of ranches located in Texas, Oklahoma and Colorado. These ranches teach, mentor and encourage youngsters who wish to have a summer ranch adventure or who wish to learn the basics of a career in rodeo. Sky Ranch was the dream which became the mission of Mel and Winkie Brewer.

WHAT IS THE SKY RANCH STORY?

During World War II, God laid the foundation of Sky Ranch on the hearts of Mel and Winkie Brewer. Mel was serving the U.S. overseas when he felt the calling to start a children's camp for ministry and encouragement. At the same time, his wife Winkie independently felt herself being called in the same direction. Both Mel and Winkie wrote each other a letter describing their newfound vision. The letters crossed in the mail, and once they reached their destinations, the Brewers knew that Sky Ranch was a mission established by God.

In 1955, Sky Ranch opened its gates for the first time to let campers come and experience our signature program of fun, fellowship and discipleship. Starting with only 66 campers, Sky Ranch had already begun to fulfill the Brewers' dream of becoming a haven for kids to grow and learn separated from the worries of everyday life. As summers passed, the Sky Ranch program continued to influence the lives of children and soon became a tradition for families across Texas. In 1975, to better accommodate demand, Sky Ranch moved from its original location in Denton, TX, to its current location in Van, TX. Mr. Brewer passed away at the age of 91, however, his dream and vision continues. To this day, Sky Ranch continues the legacy of Mel and Winkie Brewer by providing programs that enrich lives and build solid Christian character. Now holding facilities in three states, Texas, Oklahoma and Colorado, Sky Ranches serve over 70,000 individuals each year.

WHAT DO STUDENTS LEARN AT SKY RANCH RODEO SCHOOL?

In addition to spending hours in the practice pen with experienced, professional, and positive instructors, Elite Clinic students participate in classroom sections, with topics such as:

- Rodeo 101 – how to enter, trade, make travel arrangements
- Planning for the Future – rodeo coaches roundtable
- Finances for Rodeo & Beyond

- The Mental Edge – Preparing for competition
 - The Danger of the Rodeo Dog – Health & Fitness for competition
 - Chore Time – Good, solid horse care and information
 - Practice with Champions – See how NFR guys practice firsthand
 - Marketing Yourself – Approaching and securing potential sponsors
- Some of their past instructors include top names in the rodeo world; Stran Smith, Charlie Kingsbury, Blair Burk, David Key, Cash Myers, Joey Bell, Glenn Clark and Rope Myers.

Sky Ranch strives to provide ministry opportunities for the whole family. From children's summer programs, SkyMoms ministry to mothers, family camps, school programs, retreat services, and more. Summer 2018 may be over now, but if you've got a horse-lovin' kid that likes the Western way of life, Sky Ranch is waiting less than an hour away from Hopkins County!

Friends, none of us are too old for the fundamentals. So, let's count our blessings and live by the Cowboy Code: If it's not yours, don't take it. If it's not true, don't say it. If it's not right, don't do it. Til next week, I'll watch for you at the corral gate.

Obituary for Patricia Esslinger (Huchingson)

Patricia Ruth (Patsy) Esslinger, went home to be with the Lord on August 5, 2018, at Mesilla Valley Hospice/La Posada. She passed peacefully to her eternal home surrounded by loving family members and friends who sang her favorite hymns, prayed, read devotions Patsy had written as well as favorite scriptures from the Bible.

Patsy was preceded in death by her husband J.L. Esslinger, Jr.; parents, Robert Earl and Very Bryson

Huchingson; brother, Robert Earl II.

Patsy was born in Sulphur Springs, Texas. She resided there with her widowed mother, Vera, and older brother, Bob, until age 11 when her mother took a job managing the Western Union office in Eastland, Texas. She and her brother were accomplished singers and dancers from an early age and performed throughout East Texas.

While living in Eastland, Patsy, at 13 years of age, taught dance classes, had a radio show with her brother and was the youngest member of the adult choir at the Methodist Church. Her mother was then transferred to Pecos, TX, before finally moving to Las Cruces, New Mexico, the spring of Patsy's senior year. Her mother would manage the Western Union office downtown during the remainder of WWII. Patsy's mother often hand-delivered death notices to close friends in the Las Cruces area.

After Patsy graduated from Las Cruces High, she worked for eight months as tele-type operator at Pyote Air Base home of the B-29 bomber and she often performed at USO shows at the Air Base. She then moved back to Las Cruces and began attending business school and working part-time at the Las Cruces OPA (Office of Price Administrative). It is at this office where she first met the love of her life, J.L., a returning Air Force veteran who came to purchase items for the Esslinger family farm in La Mesa, New Mexico.

After singing in the choir on Sundays at St. Paul's Methodist Church, within weeks after meeting J.L., Patsy was catching the lower valley bus to La Mesa to sit with Mrs. Esslinger (MaMa Marge) and watch J.L. play left field with the La Mesa Bluejays. J.L. claimed he didn't know how young Patsy was when they began dating until Katie Griggs, a close family friend, hosted her eighteenth birthday party at Katy's La Posta Restaurant in Old Mesilla.

Patsy and J.L. were married in 1946, then the young city girl became an amazing farmer/rancher's wife; sold fresh eggs, separated fresh milk daily to sell or barter, became an excellent cook, took care of a large vegetable garden and fruit tree orchard. Her family especially remembers her home-made fried pies filled with home-grown apricots. She ran a "tight ship" around the remodeled old adobe home, and she always managed to be perfectly dressed with her hair fixed, and make-up applied every day. In her "golden years" friends remarked how Patsy always looked elegant with beautiful accessories.

Patsy was a devoted wife and mother to her daughter, Barbara, and son Gary. She was always involved in her children's activities throughout their years at home and was a Den Mother to Cub Scouts, attended countless dance and piano recitals, band concerts, junior rodeos and livestock shows.

Patsy gave many hours of service to different volunteer organizations but was most known for her beautiful singing voice, a talent she shared throughout the Mesilla Valley and El Paso. She performed for different church and social events and regardless of denomination, would sing for weddings, funerals and for special events for over four decades.

While still a young mother, Patsy began reading and studying the Holy Bible. Along with teaching Sunday School for many years, she was leader of the youth and adult choirs at La Mesa Methodist Church. She also taught adult Bible study in their home in La Mesa and later in Las Cruces. Patsy began writing Christian music in the 1970's with over 60 songs being published. She also wrote poems, short stories and numerous Bible studies. Her legacy includes a "teaching faith" (Psalms 25:5), a prolific writing ability, and a passion for music. Her devotion to J.L. for over 60 years is well known. As a couple, they loved to entertain, were volunteers for home-bound children and were avid NMSU Aggie fans. They especially loved to travel with close friends, Chope and Lupe Benavidez and with the Aggie Booster Club.

Patsy out-lived most of her close friends from La Mesa, but she and J.L. quickly made new friends at Morningstar Methodist Church in 1993 when they built their new home in Las Cruces. After J.L.'s passing in 2006, she made more friends at The Village of Northrise, where she participated in numerous activities.

Patsy was so proud of her children, grandchildren and great-grandchildren. They include: Daughter Barbara McKenzie (Mickey); Son, Gary Esslinger (Tina); grandchildren, Mariah McKenzie Pheiffer, Ryan McKenzie (Kathleen K) Tiffany Dudley (Weston), Trisha Esslinger, Tryna Joy Galvan (Marcus) and Devon Esslinger. Also, nine great-grandchildren; Hayden, McKenzie Claire, Christian, Hutch and Liam Pheiffer; Lucy, Michael Anne, and Tess McKenzie; and Hallie Lynn Dudley.

Following a private burial with family members at the Fort Bliss National Cemetery, a "Celebration of Life" service lead by Rev. Ross Whiteaker, will be held at Morningstar UMC on Saturday, September 8th, 2018 at 11:00 am.

In lieu of flowers you may contribute to Morningstar United Methodist Church Memorial Fund, 2941 Morningstar Drive, Las Cruces, New Mexico 88011, Mesilla Valley Hospice, Inc., 299 E Montana Ave., Las Cruces, New Mexico 88005 or the charity of your choice.

The family wishes to thank the loving staff at Mesilla Valley Hospice/ La Posada, Dr. Azhar Zahir and Michael Castillo, and a deep appreciation to Adelaide (Addie) Vaquera who helped with Patsy's variety of needs for the past 12 years. They also wish to thank the many friends who helped with food, visits and prayers, especially members of Morningstar UMC

50 YEARS GO BY IN A HURRY

Tumbleweed Smith

Tumbleweed Smith

I was chopping weeds around our house in the summer of 1969. Many of those weeds were tumbleweeds. I threw down my hoe, ran in the house and told my wife I was going to start a radio program and call it TUMBLEWEED. Ever ready to support me in any way, she went to the piano and created some introductory music. I made a recording of that little ditty and took it over to Dr. PW Malone's house and he recorded a guitarist, Don Tolle, playing the piece on the guitar. I used that theme for years.

I had been doing features for a long time as part of my work as news director of KHEM Radio in Big Spring. Some of those features ended up on NBC Radio. I had been freelancing for that network since 1966. I got five of those features ready, created a little advertising piece and mailed them to 65 radio stations in West Texas. The little advertisement indicated stations could pay me a small sum for the program and sell it for a large sum. One station bought it. KZZN in Littlefield. I had a network of two stations KZZN and KHEM. This was in July of 1969. I got busy and by the end of the year five stations had signed up for the program. I was so encouraged I quit my job to devote fulltime to the program.

I drove about 100,000 miles a year selling the program to radio stations and interviewing Texas characters, musicians and storytellers. I reported on interesting places and explored Texas legends. I was not too efficient. I would drive to Amarillo, do some selling and interviewing, then drive to Del Rio and do the same thing. As years progressed, I became more organized. Before I knew it I had done 200 programs and signed up enough stations to make a decent living.

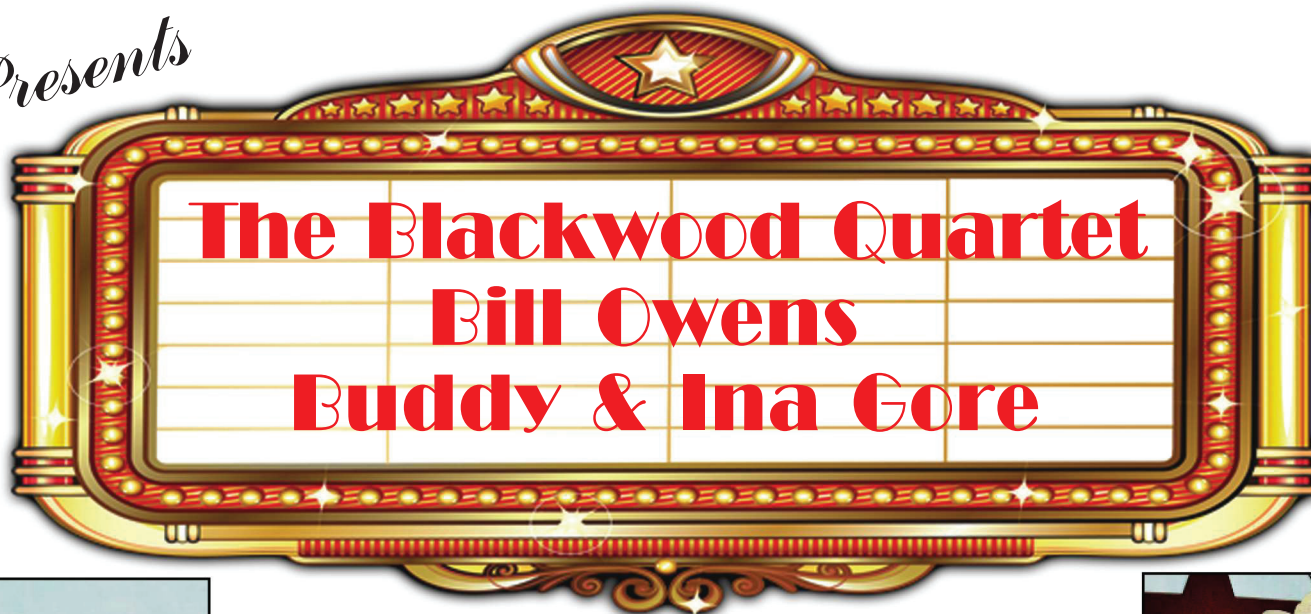

It was a good time to start. We had just experienced a tumultuous decade. We had also just placed a man on the moon and Texas had a lot to do with that. We had a Texan in the White House. The Texas chili culture was emerging, so was the Austin music scene. The folklife festival opened in San Antonio. I wanted to capture the spirit, flavor and character of Texas on tape, covering things that were being overlooked.

My program was more than anything an experiment to see if I could make a living doing what I like doing most: reporting on the fun people and places in Texas. The program went statewide in April of 1970. I changed the name to THE SOUND OF TEXAS and I became Tumbleweed Smith. My middle name is Smith.

August first began my 50th year with the program. I do 260 programs a year. Fifty years worth of programs amounts to 13,000 programs. I feel like I've made 13,000 new friends. My company is Orange House Productions. I was at KHEM looking at a stack of taped programs that came in plain manila envelopes. I thought if I was going to send out programs I would put them in bright colored envelopes, maybe orange, and I would make orange part of the name of the company. Since the programs were produced at home, Orange House Productions was a perfect name for my company. I have used a lot of orange envelopes.

Reilly Springs Jamboree

Presents

The Reilly Springs Jamboree was alive with gospel music, music lovers, great food and fall decor on Saturday night, August 18, 2018. The auditorium was filled on this hot August night in Hopkins County. Kicking the night off, our own Buddy & Ina Gore (Psalm 100) and Bill Owens performed a great variety of gospel songs. Buddy & Ina have recently performed at the 62nd International Country Gospel Music Association show in West Plains, Missouri.

As a part of their 85 year anniversary in gospel music, the Blackwood Quartet drove in from "somewhere USA" to perform "The Gospel Side of Elvis". They lost no time in getting the crowd excited with a series of gospel songs well known to the audience. They immediately had the crowd singing and clapping along. Favorite songs were requested and performed with joy and spirit. The Blackwood Quartet travels our great country year round and have already said they would love to come back to Reilly Springs.

Don't forget, every third Saturday night, the Reilly Springs Jamboree brings great music and talent to the stage!!

*And the producers
Enola Gay Mathews and Roger Reed!*
