The Movies

For the first time in many years, a friend of ours traveled from his rural town to the city to attend a movie.

After buying his ticket he stopped at the concession stand to purchase some popcorn. Handing the attendant $1.50, my friend couldn't help but comment, "The last time I came to the movie, popcorn was only 15 cents."

"Well, sir," the attendant replied with a grin, "You're really going to enjoy yourself. We have sound now."

AND...YOU TELL ME TO EXERCISE SO I'LL LIVE LONGER?

Now here's a tip!

by Jo Ann Derson

Getting ready to go back to school? Remember: Kids' backpacks should weigh no more than 20 percent of their body weight, and the child should properly use both shoulder straps for the best fit and least stress on the back.

What's the best way to get a bloodstain out of clothing? Douse the stain with hydrogen peroxide and then wash as usual.

Recipe substitutions: If you need 1 teaspoon of baking powder, use 1/4 teaspoon of baking soda plus 1/2 teaspoon of cream of tartar.

To get outdoor cushions clean before storage, mix warm water, 1 tablespoon of borax and 1 teaspoon of sudsy dish soap in a bucket. Use to scrub your cushions, then rinse with a sprayer hose and allow to dry. We do this at the start of the season as well.

PSA: It's still hurricane season. Be prepared by grabbing a few extra canned goods or a gallon of water on each trip to the grocery. It beats the rush when a tropical storm is on its way.

"The refuse containers that our city provides for street pickup are huge. Their size doesn't stop them from getting stinky like the old smaller ones, but they are harder to clean -- you'd almost have to crawl in there to get the gunk off the bottom. The kids ingeniously decided to use an old broom to clean the bins, coupled with a blast of water on the jet setting." -- C.C. in Florida

Salome's Stars

ARIES (March 21 to April 19) A little "wool-gathering" for the usually productive Lamb is all right if it helps you unwind. But be careful; too much daydreaming can put you behind schedule in your work.

TAURUS (April 20 to May 20) A work problem is close to being resolved. Now you can go ahead and celebrate the week, accepting invitations from friends who enjoy your company.

GEMINI (May 21 to June 20) Getting your new plan accepted won't be a major hassle if you have the facts to back it up. Your supporters are also prepared to help you make your case. Good luck.

CANCER (June 21 to July 22) Dealing with a pesky job problem might be time-consuming but necessary. The sooner you get this situation settled, the sooner you can move on to other matters.

LEO (July 23 to August 22) Career advancement is favored thanks to your impressive work record. On the personal side, you should soon hear some good news about an ailing family member.

VIRGO (August 23 to September 22) There might be mixed signals from a certain someone who doesn't seem all that certain about their intentions. Best to sort it all out before it becomes more confusing.

LIBRA (September 23 to October 22) Get all the facts about that investment "opportunity" before you put even one dollar into it. There could be hidden problems that could prove to be costly.

SCORPIO (October 23 to November 21) Compromising on a matter you feel strongly about not only ends the impasse, but can be a win-win deal for all. Remember: Scorpios do well with change.

SAGITTARIUS (November 22 to December 21) With all the demands you currently have to deal with, accepting the help of family and friends could be the wisest course to take at this time.

CAPRICORN (December 22 to January 19) Recent upsetting incidents might have left you with a big gap in your self-assurance. Refill it by spending time with those who know how worthy you really are.

AQUARIUS (January 20 to February 18) A dispute about money needs to be resolved quickly, before it festers into something more serious. Consider asking an impartial colleague to mediate the matter.

PISCES (February 19 to March 20) A soft approach could be more effective than making a loud demand for the information you need. You might even find yourself with more data than you expected.

BORN THIS WEEK: You're sought out for the wonderful advice you're able to offer to others. And sometimes you even take it yourself.

PIEDMONT PETS

August 23, 2018
By Paulette Dean

996 South Boston Rd.,
Danville, VA 24540
Phone: (434) 799-0843

When one of my nephews, Mark, was a pre-teen, he loved spending Saturdays with me because of my dog, cat, and birds. He also enjoyed volunteering at the shelter. In the early 90s, he spent a lot of time with a guinea pig we had at the shelter and he persuaded me to adopt him.

I did, although I knew that Porky (Mark's choice, not mine) would stay at my house and be my responsibility. I had no idea how wonderful guinea pigs are and how strongly they can bond with a human.

Guinea pigs originally came from South America and are considered a source of protein. I tried not to be too appalled when I learned that a friend of mine who had served a mission to Argentina had actually eaten them.

Although parents must realize that they will be the ones ultimately responsible for the care of any companion animal in the home, guinea pigs may be a good choice of a first pet for older children. They have very specific needs that should be carefully monitored.

Guinea pigs can live to be about eight years old in a home where their dietary needs are fulfilled. They must have constant access to a high-quality guinea pig food, Timothy hay, and some fruits and vegetables (especially those high in vitamin C). Any fresh food not eaten within 24 hours should be discarded.

Guinea pigs needs to have fresh, clean, chlorine-free water every day in a bottle that is kept clean and sanitary.

The biggest concern we see is the size of a cage. If your guinea pig spends most of the time in a cage, then it needs to be a large one. If a store employee suggests the minimum size, increase that! There must be a solid floor and paper bedding should be used. Cedar shavings are a huge no-no. The cage will quickly smell if not kept clean every day; solid waste should be removed every day and wet spots should also be removed daily.

Guinea pigs love time outside their cage; however, they should never be taken outside and left there. In fact, a hawk would not be bothered by a human standing nearby and can snatch guinea pigs before the owner has time to react. In addition, guinea pigs can also get infested with fleas and other small creatures. There are plenty of ways to let guinea pigs get exercise inside.

If you believe a guinea pig may be a good first pet for your older child, there is a lot of information on-line. And don't forget - animal shelters also have guinea pigs for adoption. There is no need to buy one; a homeless guinea pig may be waiting for you at the shelter!

KOVELS® Antiques & Collecting

Folk-Art Cupboard

Most Americans in the 17th and early 18th centuries had very small houses with no clothes closets and little storage space. Storage consisted of built-in corners, shelf units and chests, often located under eaves or stairs. Odd-shaped cupboards were made to fit into the space. They did not use the wall as part of the cabinet. A piece was made so it could be moved. Folk-art cupboards of all kinds made before Victorian times are popular with collectors. The most efficient cupboard is made from square or rectangular sections. The simple panel door framed by four narrow boards is preferred. Even the sides are made from rectangular panels.

In 2016, Garth's Auctions of Ohio sold an "under-the-stairs" cupboard. It was made of pine and painted a mustard color finish. The three doors in the front are made with applied molding to match the panels on the side. The inside has a red wash. The color and condition made this cabinet a popular auction item. Even though there was no maker's identity, it sold for $1,140, several times estimate. An oddly shaped piece like this often sells for a low price.

Folk-art furniture with the original paint sells for much more than a repainted, stripped or even unpainted piece. This cupboard with original yellow on the outside and red on the inside brought $1,140 at auction, far more than the $250 to $400 estimate.

Moore Circus group about 1990. The juggling clown with polka-dot pants recently sold for $976 at a New York auction. They have come down in price since 2000.

Q. I have a 1969 Polaroid camera. Is it worth anything to a collector?

A. Polaroid was founded in 1937. The first Polaroid Land cameras were sold in 1948. They were named after Edwin Land, who invented the instant camera and demonstrated it in 1947. The name "Land" wasn't used on Polaroid cameras after Edwin Land retired in 1982. Film and batteries for old Polaroid cameras can be bought on Amazon and other sites. A Polaroid 350 model, which was made from 1969 to 1971, in perfect condition, sells online for about $50 to $75.

Q. Could my silver clown pin with enamel decoration really be made by Tiffany & Co.? That is what it says on the back, and I saw a similar pin in an auction ad recently.

A. Yes. Tiffany & Co. made a series of pins as part of the Gene

by Tony Rizzo

HOLLYWOOD — It looks like movie musicals are making a comeback in a big way. With the success of “La La Land,” “Mamma Mia” and its sequel, “Mamma Mia, Here We Go Again” (already over $250 million), the studios are following suit. “Mamma Mia, Here We Go Again” is the feel-good movie of the year. The Los Angeles Times devoted a front page of its Calendar section to say: “The sequel surpassed the original, no doubt thanks in part to the pairing of Cher and Andy Garcia. The young cast is beautiful and the old pros, that returned, really delivered.”

Beyonce

Disney will kick off its musical craze with the live action “Aladdin,” directed by Madonna’s former husband Guy Ritchie (due out May 24, 2019), then it will unleash the CGI and live action version of “The Lion King,” which will have Beyonce as Nala, Donald Glover as Simba, James Earl Jones as his father, Mufasa, and Chiwetel Ejiofor as Scar (coming summer of 2019).

Then come December 2019 we’ll finally see the film version of the blockbuster Broadway show “Wicked.”

Elton John, Tim Rice and Andrew Lloyd Webber will give us an animated “Joseph and the Amazing Technicolor Dreamcoat” and finally a film of Lloyd’s fourth-longest-running show on Broadway, “Cats,” with Oscar-winner Jennifer Hudson as Grizabella, who sings the show-stopping “Memory.” The cast also will boast Taylor Swift, James Corden and Ian McKellen.

Lin-Manuel Miranda reacquired the rights to his 2008 Tony Award-winning hit show “In the Heights” from the Weinstein Company (at least something good came from that scandal) and will produce and star in the show. His mega Broadway hit “Hamilton” will be filmed and released to movie theaters, a rare event.

Disney will utilize the elements of its stage production of “The Little Mermaid” for a live-action film, and we also can expect a remake of the Oscar-winning best picture “Oliver,” with Ice Cube as Fagan and as producer, as well as a film of Eric Idol’s Tony Award-winning best musical “Spamalot.”

For those Carole King fans who missed “Beautiful: The Carole King Musical,” Tom Hanks has come to the rescue and will produce the film, which also will include many of her greatest songs from her songbook that were not in the original production.

And finally, casting calls are up for Steven Spielberg’s reboot of 10-time Oscar winner (including best picture) “West Side Story.” Even though the film had stars Natalie Wood and Richard Beymer, Spielberg intends to use unknowns to re-create the magic of the 1961 film.

This is the first column I’ve ever written that you could hum songs from as you read it.

Go Docs Opens in South Boston

Congratulations to our friends at GoDocs Healthcare on the opening of their new facility located at 3130 Halifax Road in South Boston, VA! The ribbon cutting was held Thursday August 16, 2018 and they are now open and accepting patients.

River District Association announces RDA Dream Launch 2019

The River District Association will be launching a new program for entrepreneurs seeking to open brick and mortar businesses in the River District in Danville, VA beginning in October. Funding for the program was awarded via a competitive grant from the State of Virginia for $45,000, and an additional $50,000 from the City of Danville, with the goal of opening 5 new businesses in the District in Summer 2019.

"The River District Association is thrilled to offer this opportunity to serious entrepreneurs that have dreamed of opening their own business" said Diana Schwartz, Executive Director of the River District Association. "This program goes a step beyond incentivizing good ideas. Those that register for the program will be required to attend all sessions of our 'Entrepreneur Bootcamp', an intensive workshop that will meet once per week for 8 weeks beginning in January to teach participants a full slate of skills and information that business owners need. Opening your own business is hard work, and unfortunately not everyone that starts a business will stay in business. Through this program, we can provide start-ups the tools, information, and assistance to give them the best possible opportunity for success."

Participants that complete bootcamp may then elect to participate in "Pitch Night" to compete for cash and other incentives that total over $100,000. Once the pitch is complete, the entrepreneurs that successfully present the most viable and sustainable plans, including capital investment and job creation, will be chosen to move forward in opening their business. RDA will stay involved with the selected businesses, assist with summer grand openings, and match them with mentors in the community.

Additional community partners in the RDA Dream Launch initiative include the Longwood Small Business Development Center, Carter Bank & Trust, The Launch Place, and Danville Regional Foundation among several others. Participants do not have to be current Danville residents, as long as they agree to the program requirements. The program is also open to current businesses that would like to expand, as well as non-profit ventures or those that would like to audit the courses to prepare for potentially opening a business in the future. There is no cost to participate in the bootcamp or pitch.

The River District Association was organized in 1999 as the Downtown Danville Association. In May 2015, the organization was renamed the River District Association to complement the City's River District brand and is an accredited Virginia and National Main Street Community. The office is currently located at 442 Main St, Danville VA.

Congratulations to Dorothy Kidd on her retirement from Artistic Beauty College after 61 years as a leader in the cosmetology industry. She received her Cosmetology certification in 1957 from the Danville Technical Institute (DTI) and then began her cosmetology career as a stylist in Chatham, VA. She, along with her business partners purchased Artistic Beauty College in 1965, where she remained until August 2018. As the doors of Artistic Beauty College close, she leaves behind a great legacy. Over 2,880 students have been guided by Mrs. Kidd of Artistic Beauty College since 1965. Many of which have gone on to very successful careers in the cosmetology industry both locally and statewide, as well as nationwide.

"Sour Grapes And Custom Cakes"

"Is there only one bakery in Colorado?" Bill Maher, Real Time

The answer to Bill Maher's succinct question is, "No, there are actually plenty of them." But you cannot really tell that to the anti-Christian activists who have their very tiny hearts set on destroying Jack Phillips and the Masterpiece Cakeshop.

Phillips, as you may remember, is the baker who recently won his case before the Supreme Court. He would not design a custom wedding cake for two gay men; to do so would violate his religious convictions. He would sell them anything in the store, including already finished cakes.

He did not bar them from his business or treat them unkindly, he simply would not make that cake. Nor would he make other cakes that violate his convictions, such as a Halloween cake, or a cake that celebrates divorce.

Religious bigot? Hardly; he also will not make cakes that disparage LGBT individuals.

The Supreme Court found for him 7 to 2, and ruled against the Colorado Civil Rights Commission in the process, finding that they had exhibited animus against him and against his beliefs.

One would think that would settle the issue.

But now he is being targeted yet again. This time a Colorado attorney has "requested" that Phillips design a custom cake to celebrate a gender transition. There never really was any question as to how Phillips would respond to such a request. Anyone not living in a cave, not a cave on earth, mind you, but a cave on Mars or farther, knows he will not do such a thing. That being the case, Maher's question really does answer itself. The fact that any of a number of other bakeries would do so without hesitation, yet Masterpiece is the baker the attorney chose, says that this is an intentional assault on Phillips. Till the day he capitulates or dies, these "requests" will keep on coming, with the full blessing of the utterly misnamed Colorado Civil Rights Commission.

Michael Farris, writing in the Denver Post, says, "It defies reasonable belief that the attorney was anything less than fully aware of Jack Phillips's religious convictions. Not merely because the attorney called the shop on the day the media announced that the case was accepted by the Supreme Court, or because the attorney lives and works in Colorado. But because the attorney admittedly "take[s] great pride" in suing businesses that allegedly "discriminate against lesbian, gay, bisexual, and transgender people and serving them their just desserts." <https://www.denverpost.com/2018/08/19/colorado-against-masterpiece-cakeshop-jack-phillips/>

In other words, we have a clear case of sour grapes and custom cakes.

In Romans 12:18, Paul said, "If it be possible, as much as lieth in you, live peaceably with all men." It is abundantly clear, though, that some vocal and aggressive activists have no thoughts of or desire for peace. If they did, they could easily achieve that goal simply by leaving Jack Phillips alone and going to any of a thousand other cake shops to get their cakes.

In other words, the political and societal left seems to have a bit of a bully problem in their midst. I would surmise that each side of politics and society does; bullies somehow seem to pop up during junior high school, and some of them never grow out of that tendency. So how exactly should they be dealt with? If my dim recollections of junior high serve me correctly, I believe that the victims of bullying generally eventually banded together, formed a pimple-laden vigilante group, and delivered a nuclear wedgie to the offender. This generally served as enough of a deterrent to discourage the bully from stealing anyone else's lunch money or giving some helpless kid any more toilet swirlies.

But, alas, I am told that giving bullies nuclear wedgies is generally frowned upon in the adult world. The good news, I suppose, is that questions like "Is there only one bakery in Colorado?" from people like Bill Maher serve much the same purpose. Public shaming over bullying, I suspect, will do far more to deter anti-Christian bullies than any wedgie, noogie, or swirlie would ever do, and no one gets hurt in the process, a true win/win.

And so I, a Christian, send my sincere thanks to Bill Maher, and my prayers and best wishes to Jack Phillips. And I also pray that anyone continuing to bully him gets junior high level pimples to go along with their junior high level behavior. Bless their hearts...

* It was American author, journalist and psychoanalysis researcher Judith Viorst who made the following sage observation: "Infatuation is when you think that he's as sexy as Robert Redford, as smart as Henry Kissinger, as noble as Ralph Nader, as funny as Woody Allen, and as athletic as Jimmy Connors. Love is when you realize he's as sexy as Woody Allen, as smart as Jimmy Connors, as funny as Ralph Nader, as athletic as Henry Kissinger and nothing like Robert Redford -- but you'll take him anyway."

1. What group wrote and released the 1979 song "Tragedy"?
2. Which duo released "Rainy Days and Mondays"?
3. Name the artist who co-wrote and released "You Ought to Be with Me."
4. Who released "Runaway Child, Running Wild"?
5. Name the song that contains this lyric: "Some people go around the world for love, But they may never find what they dream of."

- Answers
1. The Bee Gees. The song went to No. 1 in the U.K. and then did the same a month later in the U.S.
 2. The Carpenters, in 1971. The song was penned by then unknowns Paul Williams and Roger Nichols, who went on to write hits for many artists.
 3. Al Green, in 1972, from his "Call Me" album. The song topped the R&B chart and sold over a million copies.
 4. The Temptations, in 1969. The song describes a young boy, alone and frightened on the streets, and tells the boy to go home.
 5. "What You Won't Do for Love," by Bobby Caldwell, in 1978. Caldwell's record company went out of its way to hide the fact that he was a blue-eyed soul singer and released the record to R&B stations. The secret came out, however, when Caldwell started performing in public.

VETERANS POST

by Freddy Groves

Education Benefits Expanded Yet Again

The Forever GI Bill has expanded again, this time by 15 provisions, adding to the 13 from last year. The bill, aka The Harry W. Colmery Veterans Educational Assistance Act of 2017, provides an increasing number of education benefits to veterans, active duty, their families and survivors. Here are some of the provisions that have just taken effect:

- * Veteran and military families who have lost a family member who was getting education benefits can reallocate those benefits.
- * Additional Guard and Reserve service now counts toward eligibility.
- * The Yellow Ribbon Program is expanded, making more funds available for more students.
- * Housing allowance is available for days not on active duty.
- * Purple Heart recipients after Sept. 11, 2001 are eligible for benefits for 36 months.
- * The Department of Veterans Affairs is developing a pilot program for high-tech training and skills.
- * The Survivors' and Dependents' program is expanding from 36 to 45 months, and the monthly allowance is going up, starting in October.
- * In addition, there are changes to monthly housing based on ZIP code, and restoration of benefits when schools close or a course of study is canceled. Found on the VA's benefits Twitter page [@VAVet-Benefits]: "For VA benefits eligibility purposes, the Gulf War period is still in effect, which means that Gulf War Veterans may be eligible for a wide variety of VA benefits." If you have questions, call the Education Call Center at 888-442-4551. Also see the whole list of education benefits at www.benefits.va.gov/GIBILL/FGIBSummaries.asp.

And in case you wondered, the Colmery in the bill's name was a national commander of the American Legion who drafted the original GI Bill of Rights in 1944. Legend says he wrote the draft on some hotel stationery. We have him to thank for a lot of things.

Back-to-School Meals in Minutes

Mexican menu ideas for simple family dinners

FAMILY FEATURES

When the school year is back in full swing, families often find themselves battling the mealtime crunch. Mexican-inspired meals bursting with flavor are known family-friendly picks that can be easily prepared and put on the table on those frenzied weeknights.

These simple ideas from the experts at Ortega can help make “taco night” and other Mexican meals better than ever.

Encourage kids to get hands-on. It’s no secret that kids like finger foods, and many Mexican dishes are best enjoyed by hand. Tacos are an obvious favorite, but other options like quesadillas, taquitos and Ortega Fiesta Flats are also easy to enjoy sans silverware.

Step outside of tradition. If you’re looking for something that makes mealtime feel extra special, skip the basic taco and choose a meal kit that lets you serve up a restaurant-style experience at home. For example, Ortega’s Bakeable Tortilla Bowl Kits bring a new and simple way to change up your Mexican meals. Just bake and fill with your favorite ingredients.

Offer a variety of ingredients. One of the benefits of a Mexican meal is all the ways each family member can customize plates to their own tastes. Try setting out a wide range of ingredients and encourage the kids to experiment with toppings they may not have tried before, like olives and guacamole.

Don’t forget the sauce. Taco sauces can bring unique, unexpected flavor to recipes. One to try is Ortega’s line of bold and creamy Flavor Craver Taco Sauces. Varieties include Taco Ranch, Chipotle and Jalapeno Lime, all perfect for tacos, taco salads, dips, burgers and more.

Find more recipes and ideas to add a unique twist to any Mexican meal at Ortega.com.

Stock Your Pantry for Mexican Cooking

You can enjoy the flavors of a Mexican cantina in your kitchen anytime if you’re stocked up with the right goods.

Pantry and Dry Goods

1. Keep dried or canned chiles of all sorts on-hand. Dried chiles include ancho, chipotle, guajillo, negro and mulato.
2. Expand your spice rack with Mexican staples like chili powder, cayenne pepper and paprika, as well as oregano and cumin.

3. Buy white rice in bulk so you can create Spanish rice to accompany any dish.
4. Stock up on canned refried beans, black beans and pinto beans for use in your favorite Mexican dishes.

Refrigerator and Produce

1. Keep ready-made salsa and spicy sauces chilled and serve them alongside chips, tacos and other Mexican dishes.

2. Always have garlic, onions and fresh cilantro handy. Keep lemons and limes within reach to add bright flavor to your dishes. Also, buy fresh chiles like jalapeno and pasilla to spice up a variety of dishes. If possible, grow them yourself.
3. Store flour and corn tortillas in your cupboard or refrigerator to create burritos, tacos, enchiladas and wraps.
4. Keep Monterey Jack, queso fresco and cotija cheese on-hand to include in enchiladas and burritos.
