This season's Performing Artists Series features an array of music and entertainment in the Hoke Theatre, including:

Neil Berg's "50 Years of Rock & Roll" Tuesday, September 11, 2018 at 7:30 p.m.

With a cast consisting of both stars from Broadway's greatest rock musicals, as well as incredible Rock & Roll singers, Berg shares the often unknown stories from the fifty-year history of the music that changed the world forever. The show shares fascinating stories and groundbreaking music, with tributes to such important and iconic rock stars/groups/ events/genres as Chuck Berry, Little Richard, Elvis Presley, Ray Charles, Buddy Holly, Bob Dylan, Frankie Valli, The Beatles, Beach Boys, Motown, Aretha Franklin, The Who, Janis Joplin, Woodstock, Simon & Garfunkel, Carole King, Led Zeppelin, Elton John, Stevie Wonder, Billy Joel, Aerosmith, Linda Ronstadt, Bruce Springsteen, The Eagles, Fleetwood Mac, Disco, New Wave, Journey and more.

The Midtown Men Four Stars from the Original Broadway Cast of Jersey Boys

Sunday, November 18, 2018 at 7:30 p.m.

They took Broadway by storm in one of the biggest hits of all-time. Now The Midtown Men are bringing their magic to Stocker Arts Center, singing their favorite '60s hits from The Beatles, The Rascals, The Turtles, Motown, The Four Seasons and more. The show reunites Tony Award-winner Christian Hoff, Michael Longoria, Daniel Reichard (who is from Rocky River originally) and Tony Award nominee J. Robert Spencer in this one-of-a-kind concert experience. These talented entertainers shared the Broadway stage for over 1,000 performances in "Jersey Boys." The Midtown Men have thrilled crowds on concert stages across the US, Canada Beijing, Venice and beyond.

Lucky Chops Tuesday, November 27, 2018 at 7:30 p.m.

Redefining what it means to be a brass band, Lucky Chops stormed onto the scene in 2015. With roots in New York's LaGuardia Arts High School, the band started out performing on the streets of New York and in small venues around the city. With a mission to capture the energy of a rock band with the dance-ability of an EDM DJ (electronic dance music DJ), the group took their act to the New York City subway system where they grew a legion of followers. It was one tourist from South America who posted a cell phone video of the band in March of 2015 that changed everything. Within days, millions of people had viewed the video. Lucky Chops found themselves on a European tour which included shows in Denmark and France, further expanding their global fan base. Upon returning to NYC, Lucky Chops went back into the subway and began performing at clubs. Now with a large fan base and over 40 million views on their videos, Lucky Chops is setting out to show the world the pure magic that happens every time they get together.

Raul Midón & Mandy Harvey Wednesday, April 3, 2019 at 7:30 p.m.

Singer-songwriter Harvey was a vocal music education major at Colorado State University when she lost her residual hearing at age 18 due to a connective tissue disorder, and left the program. She pursued several career options, but returned to music in 2008. She has made tremendous impact by way of "America's Got Talent" having reached the finals, was Simon Cowell's Golden Buzzer Winner, and in addition, CNN's "Great Big Story" captured over 10 million hits on social media. Harvey just released her first book "Sensing The Rhythm, Finding My Voice In a World Without Sound," with a message of helping others to realize their dreams and pursue their hopes.

and searching voices – “a one-man band... who is spiritually connected,” according to The New York Times, and “an eclectic adventurer,” in the words of People magazine. The New Mexico native has released eight albums since 1999, including the acclaimed studio productions Don’t Hesitate (Mack Avenue/Artistry, 2014), Synthesis (Decca/Universal, 2009), A World Within a World (Manhattan/EMI, 2007) and State of Mind (Manhattan/EMI, 2005). Midón’s ninth studio album, “Bad Ass and Blind,” which was Grammy-nominated, was released via Mack Avenue/Artistry Music on March 24, 2017.

Masters of Soul

Wednesday, April 24, 2019 at 7:30 p.m.

Masters of Soul is a celebration of the legendary songs and performers that defined Motown and soul music. The show features stylishly costumed, fully choreographed performances of both male and female groups backed by a live band. For many, Masters of Soul is the ultimate stroll down memory lane. For younger generations, the show offers an opportunity to experience an era in our country’s history that produced many of the greatest music acts ever recorded. Based in Virginia Beach, Virginia, the 10-person cast consists of three lead male vocalists and three lead female vocalists backed by a four-piece band of seasoned musicians who’ve been touring together for decades. Masters of Soul has performed to numerous sold-out audiences and garnered rave reviews across the country. Masters of Soul performs the music of Gladys Knight & The Pips, Marvin Gaye & Tammi Terrell, Smokey Robinson & the Miracles, The Temptations, The Four Tops, Diana Ross & The Supremes, Martha Reeves & The Vandellas, Barry White, Sam & Dave, James Brown and many more.

Rockapella

Wednesday, May 8, 2018 at 7:30 p.m.

They’ve become one of the world’s most sophisticated, lasting and imitated vocal groups around today. Since the early ‘90s when they first achieved national television fame on PBS’s “Where In The World Is Carmen Sandiego?” Rockapella has toured the globe and provided a funky powerful soundtrack to several generations of vocal music fans, while keeping it all fresh along the way. With buckets of catchy original pop songs, and complete contemporary revisions of sparkling Motown, pop, and soul classics, this group has always been the one to watch. As one of the progenitors of the astonishing full-band sound of “contemporary” a cappella, Rockapella has shown every audience the raw power of pure vocal talent and originality. The current Rockapella line-up features Scott Leonard (since 1991, high tenor), Jeff Thacher (1993, vocal percussionist), Calvin Jones (2013, tenor), Mitchell Rains (2016, tenor) and Bryant Vance (2016, bass).

Stocker Arts Center offers dinner prior to the Performing Artists Series shows. Dinners are held in the Norton Culinary Arts Center or Spitzer Conference Center next to Stocker Arts Center and seatings are at 5:45 p.m. or 6:15 p.m. Tickets for dinner are $30 per person.

Studio Sessions Series in the Cirigliano Studio Theatre include:

Lee Murdock – Great Lakes Ghosts

Friday & Saturday,
October 5 and 6, 2018 at 8 p.m.

Lee Murdock returns to the Studio Sessions Series with a special holiday program just in time for Halloween with songs and supernatural legends and spooky tales of ghost ships, haunted lighthouses, and other “unexplained” and “eerie” but “true” tales from Lake Erie and the other Great Lakes. Murdock is well known for plumbing the depths of the Great Lakes for work songs and historic ballads.

Jeff Varga Double CD Release Concert

Friday & Saturday,
October 12 and 13, 2018 at 8 p.m.

Join the singer, songwriter and performer with special musical guests for an evening of original material from Jeff’s two new releases, “One More Hour” and “Leftovers From Tomorrow.” Varga started making music as an all-American, Beatle’s-loving 16-year-old, too young to play Cleveland clubs without a chaperone. After high school, he moved to New York City to attend the American Academy of Dramatic Arts as an actor and started playing open mics and coffee houses in the East Village. After many adventures, Jeff returned home and currently performs on Cleveland-area stages and also does multi-state tours. He scored and performed the theme song for the award winning short film out of Los Angeles, “Burnt.”

A Christmas Cabaret The Musical Theater Project

Friday, December 14, 2018 at 8 p.m.
and Saturday, December 15, 2018
at 2 p.m.

The show isn’t complete until everyone joins in on “White Christmas” - but that’s just one of several dozen songs that appeal to every generation. Host Bill Rudman will be joined by Bridie Carrol, Nancy Maier and Joe Monaghan. The hits range from “Winter Wonderland,” “Let It Snow” and “Have Yourself a Merry Little Christmas”, to Irving Berlin’s 102-year old salute to Santa Claus and our inevitable tributes to Rudolph, Frosty and that mean one, Mr. Grinch.

Alex Bevan

Lake Erie Legacy

Friday, March 1, 2019 at 8 p.m.
*Retro Boy Returns-The Great Ohio
Slide Continues*

Saturday, March 2, 2019 at 8 p.m.

Bevan previously wrote and performed “Skinny Little Boy,” “Grand River Lullaby” and “Have Another Laugh on Cleveland Blues.” Friday night’s show, “Lake Erie Legacy,” is Bevan’s homage to the lake and the islands. Beginning in 1991 with his critically acclaimed disk “Watersongs,” again with “South Shore Serenade,” then finally with “Sweetwater Pete,” Bevan explores the stories, melodies and mythic personas that populate Lake Erie’s historical (and fictional) treasure trove of tales. Saturday’s show, “Retro Boy Returns - The Great Ohio Slide Continues” features his freewheeling romp through the past with a wink to the present. It combines all the old favorites from his performances on the college circuit as well as the WMMS days along with assorted tall tales from “the day.”

Helen Welch-Songwriters Hall of Fame

Friday & Saturday, March 22 and 23, 2019 at 8 p.m.

Within the intimate space of the Cirigliano Studio Theatre, Welch shines the spotlight on the accomplishments of songwriters who have provided us with the words and music that form the soundtrack of our lives including such luminaries as Joni Mitchell, Stevie Wonder, Elton John, Billy Joel, James Taylor, Carole King, Bill Withers, Jimmy Webb, Paul Simon and many more. Internationally acclaimed vocalist, entertainer and producer Helen Welch brings her incredible team of musicians to Stocker Arts Center to honor those songwriters whose work represents a spectrum of the most beloved songs from the world's popular music songbook. With their own unique style of pop, blues and jazz this much loved quartet will celebrate the legacy and work of some of the great songwriters who made their mark in the '50s, '60s, '70s and '80s.

Anne E. DeChant Trio Friday & Saturday, March 29 and 30, 2019 at 8 p.m.

DeChant is an award-winning Nashville recording artist originally from Cleveland, where she was a five-time Singer-Songwriter of the Year. She has shared the stage with performers such as Stevie Nicks, Norah Jones, Joan Armatrading, Sheryl Crow and the Indigo Girls, and has played venues ranging from the Clinton White House to such storied listening rooms as Nashville's Bluebird Cafe, the Evening Muse in Charlotte, Music Box Supper Club in Cleveland, Kimbro's in Franklin, Tennessee, and Frog Pond in Silver Hill, Alabama. Before beginning her solo career, DeChant was the lead singer for the popular rock/Americana band Odd Girl Out, based in Cleveland.

Sisters in Song-Becky Boyd, Rachel Brown, Kristine Jackson and Emma Shook

Friday, May 17, 2019 at 8 p.m.
Sisters In Song began in the spring of 2015.

Elyria native and award-winning musical performer, Jackson, was hosting a concert fundraiser to assist the Leukemia Lymphoma Society at the historic G.A.R. Hall in Peninsula, Ohio. She decided to invite three of her favorite female Cleveland artists to join her to present something special and different to the local scene: Becky Boyd, Rachel Brown and Emma Shook. Each one of these ladies is a powerhouse artist that can host a class-act show on their own, but they combine their artistic sensibilities and deliver a one of kind show when they perform as Sisters In Song. Boyd has been on the scene for 40 plus years, won numerous awards for her vocal skills and usually has the audience in stitches with her stage banter and antics. Brown is Cleveland's piano boogie queen as she complements her unique vocals with a twist of Dolly, Patsy and Linda Ronstadt. Shook is the fourth sister when her schedule allows, she keeps a busy calendar as she performs full-time with the Cleveland Orchestra. The vibe of this show is just good ol' fun.

Austin Walkin' Cane and Kristine Jackson-Blues from the Heart of the Rock & Roll City Saturday, May 18, 2019 at 8 p.m.

Outstanding guitar, slide guitar and Dobro skills with powerhouse vocals and a lot of hootin' and hollerin' have made Walkin' Cane one of "Cleveland's favorite front-man." His placement during the 2009 International Blues Festival has led to invitations to perform at the Blues on Broadband Festival in the Gold Coast and the Himalayan Blues Festival in Nepal. Jackson's early career was as a trumpet player backing up vocalists. Since then she has made a name not only as a guitar player, but also as a studio musician and songwriter. She has opened for B.B. King, Buddy Guy, Mavis Staples and more. The two have been friends for years and join together to share their friendship through a combination of creativity, genuine felt blues, songwriting and a good ol' time.

Tickets for Studio Session events are $20 each or $10 for LCCC students with a valid ID, youth 18 and under, and active duty military with valid ID. Subscriptions are also available for this series. StockerArtsCenter.com

The Henry Ford's Innovation Nation – LIVE!

Griffin Theatre Company
Saturday, October 13, 2018 at 2 p.m. and 7 p.m. Hoke Theatre

Tickets: $15 for adults;
$10 for youth 18 and under

The two-time Emmy Award winning Saturday morning show comes to life in a brand new production. Like the award-winning television show, the live performance will inspire audiences with entertaining and educational stories about yesterday and today's visionaries and innovators – highlighting major turning points in the past and present that influenced the fields of science, technology, engineering, math, the environment and social justice. The Henry Ford's Innovation Nation is produced in partnership by The Henry Ford and Litton Entertainment, a leading independent production and distribution company. The Griffin Theatre Company production will bring to life the world-changing innovations featured on the television show and preserved in the museum's archives. Like the television show the live show will feature two correspondents (along with other cast members that are featured in various vignettes throughout the show) that will narrate the performance, engage with the audience and bridge between stories of innovators of the past and how they are influencing science, technology, agriculture, design, making and social justice movements of today. Luminaries of the past including Henry Ford, the Wright Brothers and George Washington Carver among others who will jump to life on stage. Their achievements will be highlighted and reflected by showing examples of present day innovations. This is a family show particularly appropriate for children ages 10 and up.

Golden Dragon Acrobats

Sunday, March 10, 2019 at 3 p.m.

Hoke Theatre

Tickets: $15 for adults; $10 for youth 18 and under

The group has toured through all 50 states and in over 65 countries across the world. In 2005, their Broadway debut at the New Victory Theater earned two New York Drama Desk Award nominations (Angela Chang for Best Choreography and Danny Chang for Most Unique Theatrical Experience). The troupe's reputation remains solidly rooted in a commitment to the highest of production values and an attention to artistic details that is unparalleled in the art form. It showcases award-winning acrobatics, traditional dance, spectacular costumes, ancient and contemporary music and theatrical techniques to present a show of breathtaking skill and spellbinding beauty.

Jonathan Kingham and Ryan Shea Smith in Concert

Friday, May 24, 2019 at 7 p.m.

Cirigliano Studio Theatre

Free with tickets available at the Stocker Box Office

With their diverse musical styles, connection to the audience and the songwriters of all ages they write with, this concert will be all about great songs! These Nashville transplants have had long and successful careers as singer/songwriters. Kingham wrote his first song in 1996 and has won 1st place in The Unisong International Song Contest, twice placed in the top five of the John Lennon Song contest, won first place in the USA Songwriting Competition in Folk as well as the Overall Grand Prize out of 33,000 entries, and was awarded First Place in the Gospel category of the ISC songwriting contest. Smith is also a veteran songwriter and recipient of multiple songwriting awards, including his sophomore release "Stay Awhile," which is a John Lennon song contest winner. Jonathan splits his time between touring, writing, recording and producing. He also plays keyboard and steel guitar for Toad the Wet Sprocket. Ryan, who honed his musical skills at the University of Washington and through a steady touring schedule, is known for his incomparable singing voice and his command of keyboard and guitar. Also performing as part of this concert will be our area songwriters who the duo will work with all week on campus. Those interested in participating in the songwriting workshops, contact Janet Herman Barlow at (440) 366-7105.

Danny Chang and his Golden Dragon Acrobats continue their rigorous, 30+ year US touring schedule of a centuries-old Chinese art form, presenting over 200 performances annually. The Golden Dragon Acrobats hail from Cangzhou, Hebei province, in the People's Republic of China and have toured the United States continuously since 1978. Its members are athletes, actors and artists who have studied and trained for their craft since early childhood.

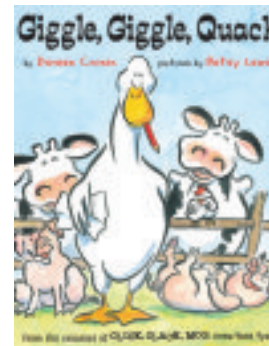

Giggle, Giggle, Quack

Monday, October 8, 2018 at 9:45 a.m.

and 11:45 a.m.

Lifeline Theatre

Running a farm is hard work, especially with cows that type, hens on strike, and a duck who's always causing trouble. So Farmer Brown takes off for a well-deserved vacation, leaving his brother Bob, an accountant from the city, in charge. Soon it's no work and all play (and cake, pizza, movies, and bubble baths) as the animals run wild, taking advantage of Bob's lack of experience. Will the animals come clean about their devious tricks, or is there more to Brother Bob than meets the eye? Take a break from the grind with the gang from Farmer Brown's farm with Lifeline Theatre's hit musical adaptation of the 2002 New York Times bestselling book by Doreen Cronin and Betsy Lewin.

Charlotte's Web

Friday, October 19, 2018 at 9:45 a.m.

and 11:45 a.m.

TheaterWorksUSA

This performance is based on E.B. White's loving story of the friendship between a pig named Wilbur and a little gray spider named Charlotte. Wilbur has a problem: how to avoid winding up as pork chops! Charlotte, a fine writer and true friend, hits on a plan to fool Farmer Zuckerman -- she will create a "miracle." Spinning the words "Some Pig" in her web, Charlotte weaves a solution which not only makes Wilbur a prize pig, but ensures his place on the farm forever. This treasured tale, featuring mad-cap and endearing farm animals, explores bravery, selfless love, and the true meaning of friendship.

The Crucible

Monday, October 29, 2018 at 10 a.m.

National Players
By Arthur Miller

No one is safe as a reign of terror rips through 1692 Salem. Led by Abigail Williams, a group of girls who claim to have seen the Devil, hurl out charges of witchcraft, sending those who won't confess to the noose. When the accusing finger points to his wife, John Proctor is forced to confront his past and determine his future. Arthur Miller's searing drama, inspired by the McCarthy era, comes to vivid new life in the National Players' bare-knuckle staging. A piercing look at what can happen when truth is bent to political convenience, The Crucible is a powerful story for our time.

Mysteries of Ancient Egypt

Tuesday, November 13, 2018 at 9:45 a.m. and 11:45 a.m.

Virginia Rep on Tour

Inside a tiny case, two children find an ancient amulet in a neighbor's attic. Before her disappearance, Gama Harriet had been a famed Egyptologist. But what is the meaning of the hieroglyphs inscribed on the amulet, or the scribbled warnings found in Harriet's journal? Before they know it, the children are magically transported back to ancient Egypt in 620 BC where they meet Sema-tawy-tefnakht, a scribe to King Psamtik I. With his guidance, our two heroes unravel their mystery while your audience learns fascinating facts about one of the world's most amazing cultures. They meet princess Shepenwepet, the pharaoh's daughter, and travel with her on a fateful sea journey to Thebes where, with our contemporary heroes' help, she must establish a base of power to protect her father's kingdom. And guess who is waiting for them there. Thrills, dazzling beauty and historic fact combine in this novel melding of child-friendly mystery and accurate cultural exploration.

Amber Brown is Not a Crayon

Tuesday, March 12, 2019 at 9:45 a.m. and 11:45 a.m. (sensory friendly performance)

Artspower

Based on the book, Amber Brown is Not a Crayon, written by Paula Danziger.

Amber Brown is having what may be the worst year of her life. She and Justin Daniels were the perfect team: they laughed at each other's jokes, sat next to each other in class, and stayed best friends when Justin's dad had to move away. But now things are different. Now, Justin's house has been sold and he is going to Alabama; that's too far from New Jersey to think about. ArtsPower's uniquely funny and forthright musical portrays a feisty young girl who refuses to let her problems get the better of her. Amber learns some valuable lessons about the virtues of patience and the meaning of forgiveness.

Doktor Kaboom and the Wheel of Science

Thursday, March 14, 2019 at 9:45 a.m. & 11:45 a.m.

Doktor Kaboom is having trouble picking his favorite science demonstrations, so he's bringing them all! Unfortunately there are way too many to do them all in one show. The solution: The Wheel of Science! Doktor Kaboom has built a great big spinning wheel and labeled it with everything from optical illusions to chemical reactions to a homemade hovercraft, and more! At least a dozen fantastic demonstrations ready to go. Wherever the wheel stops, that's what's next! Will we turn a water bottle into a rocket or catapult bananas across the stage? Electrocute a pickle or create artificial gravity? Who knows? No two shows will be the same. So, step right up, and let's spin that wheel!

Jonathan Kingham & Ryan Shea Smith "Songwriting Made Simple"

Friday, May 24, 2019 at 10 a.m.

Free • Cirigliano Studio Theatre

With their diverse musical styles, connection to the audience and the songwriters of all ages they write with here at LCCC, this concert will be all about great songs. These Nashville transplants have had long and successful careers as singer/songwriters.

Jonathan Kingham must be doing something right. In his first few years on the scene, he quickly developed into a seasoned performer while sharing the stage with the likes of Shawn Colvin, Joan Osborne, Michael McDonald, Doug Stone, Vanessa Carlton, and Jonatha Brooke. He has toured with such diverse acts as Julio Iglesias Jr. and currently plays keyboard and guitar for the rock band Toad the Wet Sprocket. But it's not only his live performances that are winning him fans and accolades. He took first place honors in the National Telluride Troubadour Songwriting Contest, The Unisong International Song Contest, as well as placing two years in a row in the top five of the John Lennon Song contest. He brought home the First Place Award in the USA Songwriting Competition in the Folk Category as well as the Overall Grand Prize out of a worldwide field of 33,000 entries and was awarded First Place in the Gospel category of the ISC songwriting contest. Based out of Nashville he splits his time between touring the country and writing, recording, producing and conducting songwriting residencies. With a smooth blend of folk, pop, country and jazz, Kingham comes armed with a quick freestyle wit, and has become a favorite on the circuit. www.jonathankingham.com Seattle-native, award-winning singer/songwriter and world class performer, Ryan Shea Smith, serves up soul-stirring lyrics while highlighting his rich, sophisticated voice. His appeal is authentic songwriting craftsmanship with jazz and blues sensibilities. Ryan has a feel and vibe that conveys excitement and spontaneity displaying his confidence and dexterity. Ryan is a veteran songwriter and recipient of multiple songwriting awards, including his sophomore release "Stay Awhile," which was a John Lennon song contest winner. He honed his musical skills at the University of Washington and through a steady touring schedule and is known for his incomparable singing voice and his command of keyboard and guitar.

This concert in the intimate Cirigliano Studio Theatre will feature our area songwriters who the duo has worked with all week on campus. Those interested in participating in the songwriting workshops, contact Janet Herman Barlow at (440) 366-7105.

October 5, 2018 at 7:30 p.m.

The story of the Nazi occupation as seen through the eyes of two young Jewish boys. Joseph and Maurice are 10 and 12, and have no real understanding of the persecution of Jews. These tenacious urchins survive on courage, ingenuity and more than a bit of cunning as they make their way through France hoping to reunite with their family.

Back To Burgundy

October 19, 2018 at 7:30 p.m.

Three siblings reunite at their home in picturesque Burgundy to save the family vineyard in this tender tale of a new generation finding its own unique blend. As seasons and harvests go by, they have to learn to reinvent their relationship and trust in each other as they work to preserve the land that ties them together.

The Fall Film Series continued

Summer 1993

October 26, 2018 at 7:30 p.m.

Punctuated by moments of youthful exuberance and mature ruminations, this autobiographical coming of age drama, set amongst summery hues, is an extraordinarily moving snapshot of being a child in an adult world, anchored by flawless performances by its two young stars.

On The Seventh Day

November 2, 2018 at 7:30 p.m.

On The Seventh Day follows a group of undocumented immigrants living in Sunset Park, Brooklyn over the course of seven days. They work long hours six days a week and then spend Sundays on the soccer fields. When their team makes it to the finals, a wrench is thrown into the celebration when one of the players is told he has to work on Sunday.

Shine

November 9, 2018 at 7:30 p.m.

The true life story of piano virtuoso David Helfgott, Shine captures a remarkable journey in flashback, a personal tale of creative passion and musical achievement, celebrating the ineluctable power of human endearment.

Moonstruck

November 16, 2018 7:30 p.m.

Moonstruck is about a widowed, 37-year-old Italian-American woman who falls in love with her fiancé's estranged, hot-tempered younger brother. A now-classic romantic comedy, it was nominated for six Oscars and won for Best Actress, Best Supporting Actress and Best Original Screenplay.

The film series tickets are $7.

To purchase tickets for any of the shows or to request a season calendar, call the box office at (440) 366-4040. Hours are Monday through Friday from noon to 6 p.m. The box office is also open 90 minutes before ticketed events (60 minutes before Student Matinees). Guests may also purchase tickets online at www.StockerArtsCenter.com.
