The sun's rays are still harmful during the fall

Submitted

Don't Forget the Sunscreen!
During the fall season filled with outdoor activities, it is easy to forget about the harmful properties of the sun's rays. About 1 million Americans will develop skin cancer each year, according to the National Cancer Institute. That makes skin cancer—not breast cancer, prostate cancer or even lung cancer—the number-one cancer threat.

The American Cancer Society lists skin cancer as the most common type of cancer. With this looming statistic, it is important to be educated on what causes skin cancer and how to lower your risk factor. Ultraviolet (UV) radiation is the leading contributor to contracting melanoma skin cancer. Prolonged or unprotected exposure to these UV Rays damages the DNA of skin cells. When the genes that control skin cell growth are damaged, skin cancer is formed.

Tanning beds use an artificial light source made entirely of UV rays. Risk of contracting melanoma skin cancer increases 4 percentage from the first time a person uses a tanning bed. By cutting out this form of tanning, people significantly decrease their risk factor. There are several alternative ways to get a natural looking tan without subjecting your skin to this harsh method. South Central Dermatology now offers Tan Towels, a product that creates a sunless, healthy looking tan.

The UV rays found in natural sunlight are significantly lesser than those in artificial light, yet can still be hazardous if ignored. Amy Adams, DO, Dermatologist at South Central Dermatology Clinic in Laurel explains.

"It is important when you are outside, to wear sunscreen with at least a SPF of 30 and containing the ingredients titanium and zinc," says Dr. Adams. "The peak hours of UV exposure are from 11 am to 4 pm, so be sure to monitor your time in the direct sunlight during these hours. These simple steps will significantly aid in prevention."

Skin cancer can also be genetic. If your family has a history of skin cancer it is imperative to be extra cautious when enjoying the sun. "We recommend that everyone has a regular screening for pre-existing moles," states Ashlynn Martin, FNP. "Also, it is important to be aware of any new moles you may develop and be sure to notify your dermatologist of these."

When checking moles, remember your "ABCs":

- Asymmetry: One side of the mole does not match the other.
- Border: A mole's outline is jagged or blurry.
- Color: The color is uneven. You may notice different shades of tan, black and brown. Areas of white, gray, red, pink or blue also may be present.

- Diameter: The mole is larger than ¼ inch in diameter—about the size of a pencil eraser.
- Evolving: Be cautious of moles that are changing in any way.

To detect skin cancer at an early stage, get familiar with your moles and birthmarks. Then, every month, check your entire body in the mirror for skin changes, including your back, scalp and feet. A handheld mirror can help ensure a thorough self-exam. Each year it is important to schedule an annual screening with your Dermatologist. Ask your doctor to check out anything that concerns you. These preventative steps are easy, yet skin cancer is still the most common form of cancer. It is important to know the facts about what increases and decreases personal risk for melanoma skin cancer to better combat it. "You can enjoy the sun and get the tan you want while being safe," states Martin. "This season, be aware of your exposure to UV rays and wear sunscreen."

To schedule an appointment for a screening or for more information on skin cancer, please contact South Central Dermatology Clinic at 601-425-4860 or visit scrmc.com. South Central Dermatology is located at 1410 Jefferson Street in Laurel. South Central Dermatology specializes in the following areas of service: MOHS Surgery, Skin Cancer, Skin Infections, Psoriasis, Treatment of Acne and all conditions related to Skin, Hair and Nails. South Central Dermatology is accepting new patients. Medicare, Medicaid and Most Commercial Insurance Plans are accepted.

HANDBAGS and HIGH HEELS

According to the weather, our area is looking at a cool front in the upcoming weeks. I am assuming that means it will be 85 degrees instead of 100, but on the off chance the temperatures really do drop, your closet should be prepared... and then be prepared to go back to 100 degrees. This is South Mississippi, after all.

Navigating the weather here can be tough. Just because we celebrate Labor Day and the upcoming start of fall doesn't mean the temperature automatically changes. But, just because it's warm outside doesn't mean you can still wear summer sandals and sundresses. So, how do you dress for fall but still stay cool in the warm weather? Invest in transition pieces!

Transition pieces are staples in any wardrobe. They are the pieces you can throw on with a summer outfit to instantly give it a fall vibe. When it does finally cool off, these pieces easily mesh with winter clothing. Think hats, jackets, scarves, boots, etc.

My favorite transition pieces are jackets, blazers and vests. I have approximately 18 different pieces of outerwear hanging in my closet, which probably sounds weird for a Southern girl, but I love them all.

I have written before about my love of a good boyfriend-style blazer. I prefer ones with a little stretch so I can push the sleeves up under my elbow. My favorite one at the moment is a champagne-colored crushed velvet material that is so light, you would never know it's made of velvet. I pair it with simple white t-shirt, dark jeans and black heels to create the perfect fall-ready outfit. When shopping for a transition blazer, look for a breathable material like cotton or rayon to wear in the fall and save the heavy wool for winter. Stay away from linen, which is strictly a summer fabric.

If you aren't a fan of blazers, look for a lightweight jacket instead. Denim is always a popular choice and pairs well with almost any outfit. You can throw it over a casual dress, pair it with cute top and pants, and, depending on the wash of the denim, even wear it with jeans. Monochromatic denim outfits seem to be coming back in style, but I prefer to maintain a contrast and wear a light wash jacket with dark jeans.

Bomber jackets are also a great fall-to-winter piece. Most bomber jackets are made of lightweight polyester, so they give the look of fall without causing a heatstroke. They also add a fun, retro vibe to any outfit. When I wear my maroon bomber, I always joke that I am auditioning for a role in Grease 2, as bombers were the jackets of choice for the Pink Ladies in that movie. If you haven't seen it, go check it out. It's Michelle Pfeiffer's breakout role and features some truly awesome/cringe-worthy musical moments. But back to fashion...

The other transition piece I recommend everyone have is a good pair of booties. You can never have too many booties. Black, brown, maroon (yes, I have two pairs), leather, fringe, wedge, heel... buy them all. Despite the warm weather, resist the urge to slip on a pair of sandals, which scream summer. Booties instantly make your summer outfits more appropriate for cooler temperatures. They look fabulous with denim shorts or a cute dress. When it's time to put away the shorts, pair them with skinny jeans or a denim jacket and a dress.

I've heard many women say they are scared to try booties. If you think they make you look stumpy, buy a lighter color, such as a camel or tan. When wearing a medium wash jean or lighter, dark brown or black boots will draw the eye down to your feet and can make an outfit feel bottom heavy. A lighter, neutral boot elongates the leg and keeps the outfit feeling balanced. Another trick is to cuff your jeans, leaving a part of your ankle exposed between the top of the bootie and the bottom of your jeans. This highlights the skinniest part of your ankle and keeps them from looking too wide.

As I type this, it is 88 degrees outside, which makes it hard to think about putting on a jacket, but the time is coming. Invest in some good pieces now so when the temperature does drop, you will be fashionably prepared. Personally, I can't wait.

Two wrecks on I-59

Moselle, MS -- Moselle and Southwest Jones Volunteer Fire Departments responded to a rollover with entrapment just after 6:00 a.m. on I-59 at mile marker 80 that had traffic backed up on the interstate. The GMC 3500 appeared to be hauling construction materials when it rolled over into the median. Before traffic cleared, a vehicle rear-ended another just south of the scene around 8:00 a.m.

MHP was on both scenes and Emserv transported one patient from the rollover and two patients with minor injuries from the second wreck.

The Community Development Foundation announces the 28th Class of Leadership Jones County

Submitted
 The 2018-2019 Class of Leadership Jones County was introduced during a reception in their honor on Thursday evening, August 16 at Lauren Rogers Museum of Art in Laurel.

Leadership Jones County is a program of the Community Development Foundation open to adults over 21 years old, who live or work in Jones County. This program was developed to identify and prepare the community's future leadership resources. Over the years, this program has provided Jones County with a network of current and emerging leaders who possess the skills and sense of commitment to improving our community.

The program begins later this month with a two-day team-building retreat and concludes in May with a graduation ceremony. Monthly sessions are scheduled in various location throughout Jones County including a session at the State Capitol in Jackson. Session topics include quality of life, local and state government, social issues, education, leadership skills and more.

The 2018-2019 Leadership Jones County participants are; Hillary Bingham, Laurelwood Community Living Center; Deshella Butler, DJ Transit; Jason Caire, Humana; Sylvia Clark, Hunt Southland Refining Company; Norman Hinton, Laurel Machine & Foundry; Nicki Hudson, Community Bank; Terri Knight, The Knight Butcher; Johnson Marcellino, Trustmark Bank; Jeremy McAndrew, Dixie Electric; Kristy McCord, Masonite; Karly McCoy, Howard Industries; Blake Munna, SCRMC; Lorin Pugh, Sanderson Farms; Chataura Sand-

WE'RE NOT JUST FANS. WE'RE HERE TO PLAY!

Learning to trust God in every situation

By Dr. Bill Myers

This is what the Lord says—your redeemer, the Holy One of Israel: ‘I am the Lord your God, who teaches you what is best for you, who directs you in the way you should go.’ (Isaiah 48:17)

When we’re trying to understand God’s will for our lives, this verse confirms that He will not forsake us but will teach and direct us down His path. He won’t give us every selfish desire that crosses our minds, but instead we’ll receive what is “best for us.” He is Jehovah-Jireh, our provider and will bless us beyond imagination if we will trust and believe (that’s your faith operating). If we don’t get the ‘desires of our heart,’ we can be comforted that He will provide something much better than what we originally wanted! I can personally testify that when God said no to me, it was for my good. He either was protecting me, or He had something better for me. I’ve looked back through the years of my life when God would close a door over a situation. My first reaction was to hold a pity party and play the “poor me” game. Yes, I was a champion at this game! But later as I would look back at the situation, I always saw where God had protected me and gave me something better instead! God is good all the time! He is also very patient with His children, especially me!

“I will instruct you and teach you in the way you should go,” says the Lord. (Psalm 32:8) God is always speaking and teaching us. The key is “if” we will listen. Remember, He isn’t teaching us in the way we want to go but instead His way. We can be saved from much heartache and disappointment if we’ll choose to listen and wait on His instruction.

“But they that wait upon the Lord shall renew their strength; they shall mount up with wings as eagles; they shall run, and not be weary; and they shall walk, and not faint.” (Isaiah 40:31)

Honestly, learning to wait on God is a bigger challenge in today’s generation than ever before. Unfortunately, technology keeps us in a fast-paced life of retrieving information instantly. Therefore, waiting on God to answer or prepare us can be a challenge for those who are impatient and want their answers immediately. Friends, we must learn to trust Him and His timing!

“Whether you turn to the right or to the left, your ears will hear a voice behind you saying, “This is the way; walk in it.” (Isaiah 30:21)

Today in our busy schedules, let’s take time to ‘listen’ and follow His voice. Learning to follow His direction and decisions can keep us from heartaches and headaches. There’s tremendous freedom when you listen and do what God says. Let’s choose to follow God with joy and live in peace!

Bulldogs unveil 2018-19 men's basketball schedule

The Mississippi State men's basketball program and fourth-year head coach Ben Howland revealed its 2018-19 schedule on Friday which features a potential of 18 games versus opponents who reached the 20-win mark last season. Howland wanted to challenge his talented roster that is coming off a 2018 NIT Semifinals berth, and the rigorous non-conference schedule is highlighted by nine teams who captured postseason berths coupled with top three conference finishes a season ago.

"Our non-conference schedule is going to be very challenging and a difficult one this year," Howland said. "It will be great preparation for the SEC which also is going to be incredibly challenging and competitive. I'm excited to get really good games against outstanding competition. It will be a great opportunity night in and night out for our team to improve and get better."

The Mississippi State Athletics Ticket Office is selling season tickets for as low as $199. Fans can purchase tickets online at www.HailState.com, in person at the MSU Athletics Ticket Office located at the Bryan Athletic Building or via the phone at (662) 325-2600. Information on single game tickets and mini plans will be announced at a later date by the ticket office.

A MSU squad fueled by all five starters returning from last season's 25-12 team welcomes Austin Peay (Nov. 9) for its season opener to Humphrey Coliseum. The three-game opening homestand concludes with Hartford (Nov. 11) and Long Beach State (Nov. 16), respectively. Howland's squad hits the road for the first time and travels to the MGM Resorts Main Event hosted at the T-Mobile Arena in Las Vegas, Nevada. The Dawgs meet NCAA Tournament participant Arizona State (Nov. 19) followed by either Utah State or Saint Mary's (Nov. 21) two days later. The Gaels ripped off a 30-win campaign and a NIT appearance last season.

A trip to Dayton (Nov. 30) comes between home contests against Alcorn State (Nov. 26) and McNeese State (Dec. 4). Then, MSU faces a challenge close to the non-conference docket sparked by five consecutive teams coming off postseason berths who racked up a combined 126 victories in 2017-18. The five-game stretch opens with back-to-back matchups versus Top 15 foes from last season's final USA Today Coaches Poll. The Bulldogs take on NCAA Sweet 16 participant Clemson (Dec. 8) as part of the Never Forget Tribute Classic in Newark, New Jersey followed by a rematch a week later when defending American Athletic Conference champions Cincinnati (Dec. 15) ventures to the Hump.

Prior to the holiday break, MSU squares off with Wofford (Dec. 19) before a matchup with Wright State (Dec. 22) in Jackson at the Mississippi Coliseum. The Bulldogs face off with BYU (Dec. 29) to conclude the non-conference ledger at the Hump. MSU begins its 18-game SEC schedule with a trip to South Carolina (Jan. 8). The Bulldogs play host to Ole Miss (Jan. 12) in its SEC home opener followed by home tilts against Florida (Jan. 15) and defending SEC regular season co-champion Auburn (Jan. 26). MSU also travels to Vanderbilt (Jan. 19), four-time defending SEC Tournament champion Kentucky (Jan. 22) and Alabama (Jan. 29) in January.

February's schedule features a three-game homestand versus LSU (Feb. 6), Kentucky (Feb. 9) and Alabama (Feb. 12), in addition to home dates with South Carolina (Feb. 23) and Missouri (Feb. 26). The Bulldogs have a return trip to Ole Miss (Feb. 2) along with road meetings against Arkansas (Feb. 16) and Georgia (Feb. 20) in February. MSU wraps up the regular season versus Texas A&M (March 9) after consecutive road matchups with last season's SEC regular co-champions Auburn (March 2) and Tennessee (March 5). The SEC Tournament is set for March 13-17 at the Bridgestone Arena in Nashville, Tennessee. All game times and TV network designations will be announced by the SEC and its television partners at a later date.

Blast From the Past . . .

September 1, 2007

Laurel High School began their 100th year of football with a 23-0 blanking of Collins. The game was called after three periods because of lightning in the area. LHS quarterback Akeem Davis hit Anthony Jackson on a 67-yard TD pass on the game's first play.

August 27, 1988

Tom Lewis recorded his first head coaching win as the Heidelberg Academy Rebels rallied from a 10-point deficit to defeat Live Oak Academy of Moss Point, 34-24. Rory Holder scored on runs of 56, 8 and 1 yards while Ken Fisher added TD runs of 14 and 9 yards.

MSU's Keenum named chair of College Football Playoff Board of Managers

Mississippi State University President Mark E. Keenum has been selected as chair of the College Football Playoff (CFP) Board of Managers. Keenum has served as the Southeastern Conference representative on the board since 2015. Keenum served a term as president of the Southeastern Conference from 2016-2018.

Mark Keenum

"The College Football Playoff has made a name for itself over the past four years as a great way to decide the national champion in college football. That's an important task, and I plan to lead this board in maintaining the integrity of the event," Keenum said. "Working with the representatives of the nation's major athletic conferences, we will work to ensure the continued growth and success of the CFP."

Entering its fifth season, the CFP determines the national champion of the NCAA Division I Football Bowl Subdivision. Four teams play in two semifinal games, and the semifinal winners advance to the CFP National Championship.

The CFP Board of Managers is the governing board of CFP Administration, LLC, the organization that manages the administrative operations of the College Football Playoff. Members are the 10 FBS conferences (American Athletic, Atlantic Coast, Big Ten, Big 12, Conference USA, Mid-American, Mountain West, Pac-12, Southeastern and Sun Belt) and the University of Notre Dame.

The CFP's business, property and affairs are governed by the board, comprised of the university presidents or chancellors from the 10 FBS conferences and Notre Dame. The board develops, reviews and approves annual budgets, policies and operating guidelines. It also appoints officers of the company. It has authority of overall primary aspects of the CFP's operations.

Southern Miss announces Military Mondays and Seats 4 Soldiers Campaign

The Southern Miss Department of Athletics will sponsor Military Mondays as well as the Seats 4 Soldiers campaign for the 2018-19 academic year.

Military Mondays offer $5 tickets for military members each Monday and will include all ticketed Golden Eagle sports throughout the year. In order to take advantage of this discount, military personnel must come by the Pat Ferlise Center between 8 a.m. and 5 p.m. Football tickets will be located in the upper level of the stadium while all other sporting events will be general admission seating.

All Golden Eagle fans can also take advantage of the Seats 4 Soldiers campaign allowing them to purchase $10 tickets, allowing local soldiers a chance to attend a Southern Miss sporting event. Southern Miss matches all donations, so one $10 donation brings two soldiers to a Southern Miss Football game.

This year, the Southern Miss Athletic Ticket Office is offering rewards for those individuals who participate in the Seats 4 Soldiers program.

Those rewards include:

- 1 ticket or $10: Commemorative Military Wristband
- 20 tickets or $200: Sideline Pass for Halftime Oath of Enlistment Ceremony on Nov. 3

50 tickets or $500: Participation in Eagle Walk on Military Appreciation Day

100 tickets or $1,000: Pre-game On-Field Recognition at Military Appreciation Day

250 tickets or $2,500: Postseason lunch outing with Coach Jay Hopson and Camp Shelby Commander Colonel Bobby M. Ginn and an autographed Southern Miss Football Jersey

For more information on either one of these programs, please contact the Southern Miss Athletic Ticket Office at 601-266-5418 or click here for the Seats 4 Soldiers campaign.

Georgia transfer heads list of new Bobcat quarterbacks

By Shawn Wansley
JCJC Sports Information Director

ELLISVILLE – Jones College will have three new quarterbacks on the roster this fall.

The most highly touted of the trio will Stetson Bennett (Blackshear, Georgia), who is a transfer from the University of Georgia. Bennett is a 6-foot, 185-pound redshirt freshman from Pierce County High School.

“Stetson is really smart and is picking up the offense really well,” said first-year JCJC Quarterbacks/Wide Receivers Coach Brian Hudson. “He is a little more athletic than I thought he would be when he runs the ball. He is everything you want as a leader in the room. He is still a young guy, but he’s the oldest one, by far, in my room.”

Freshman Fred Barnum (Warren Central) will see playing time at quarterback. He is a 5-foot-10, 191-pound freshman.

“Fred has picked up the offense well and is getting a lot of reps,” Hudson said. “He is really smart and throws it really well for the intermediate throws. He will play a lot for us.”

Freshman Brodie King (Biloxi) has been used mostly at wide receiver, but can also play quarterback. He is 5-foot-10, 185 pounds.

“Brodie gives us a third option at quarterback,” Hudson said. “He is a very savvy player.”

Hudson is also in his first season at Jones.

The Oklahoma State University graduate worked under former Southern Miss head coach and current Tampa Bay Buccaneers Offensive Coordinator Todd Monken at Southern Miss. He has known Jones Head Coach Steve Buckley and Offensive Coordinator/Offensive Line Coach Grant Garner for years.

“So far, I love it,” he said of his few months at Jones. “Working for Coach Buckley and with Coach Garner has been awesome. Coach Garner is the offensive coordinator, but he is letting me have a say in the pass game, which is great. We went to school together, we were at Southern Miss together as GAs (graduate assistants) and we work really well together.”

Hudson, who coached at the University of Kansas last year, also praised the work of Tight Ends Coach/Recruiting Coordinator/Director of Football Operations Richard Chambliss.

“Coach Chambliss has been a major help with the tight ends and he’s helped me with the wideouts when I’ve focused more on the quarterbacks for part of practice,” he said. “He’s been huge.”

JCJC opened the season at Bobcat Stadium/Sim Cooley Field on Aug. 30 vs. Coahoma and will play Holmes Community College this Thursday at home. Kickoff is at 7 p.m.

Southern Miss signs football coach Jay Hopson to a New Four-Year Contract

Southern Miss Director of Athletics Jon Gilbert announced last week that Golden Eagle football coach Jay Hopson has agreed to a new four-year deal.

"Jay's leadership has brought stability to the football program resulting in winning seasons and bowl games in his first two years," said Gilbert. "The progress seen in this program can be attributed to his passion for teaching and developing our student-athletes which aligns with all that we stand for at Southern Miss."

In two seasons leading the Golden Eagles, Hopson has compiled a 15-11 record and is tied for the most wins in school history for a head coach over his first two seasons, tying Curley Hallman (1988-89).

The Golden Eagles opened the 2018 season Saturday, Sept. 1, when they entertained Jackson State at M.M. Roberts Stadium. The contract runs through January 31, 2022.

Mississippi's Alligator Hunting Season Opens August 31st

JACKSON – The 2018 Public Waters Alligator Hunting Season opens in Mississippi on Friday, August 31, at 12 p.m. The season will be open for ten days and will close at 12 p.m. on Monday, September 10, 2018. A total of 930 permits in seven hunting zones across the state were offered in two random drawings of over 4,000 applicants during the application process in mid-June. This is the 14th year of public waterway hunting opportunity in Mississippi. Ricky Flynt, the Alligator Program Coordinator for the Mississippi Department of Wildlife, Fisheries, and Parks, (MDWFP) is expecting high participation among the hunters. Flynt says, "Alligator hunters should experience good hunting conditions with favorable weather and most river levels being slightly above normal depths for this time of year, which will improve navigation on waterways across most of the state."

All persons, 16 years of age or older, who are in a vessel with or assisting a permit holder, must possess an Alligator Hunting License ($25) and a valid prerequisite hunting license, which includes the following: a Mississippi Sportsman License, All-Game Hunting/Fishing License, Small Game Hunting/Fishing License, Apprentice Sportsman License, Apprentice All Game License, Apprentice Small Game License, Senior Exempt License, or Disabled Exempt License. Lifetime License holders are exempt. Licenses are available on-line at www.mdwfp.com, via the official MDWFP App, at any point of sale location where Mississippi hunting and fishing licenses are sold, or by calling 1-800-5GO-HUNT.

For more information regarding alligator hunting rules and regulations, visit our website at www.mdwfp.com/alligator or call us at 601-432-2199. Follow us on Facebook at www.facebook.com/mdwfp or on Twitter at www.twitter.com/MDWFPonline.

Bobcats rated No. 9 in NJCAA preseason poll

The Greatest Games in the Series - UTSA

Submitted

Who says a game has to be played a long time ago to be considered the greatest in a series?

One only has to look back a year ago to feature the best game of the UTSA series. In that game, the Golden Eagles held on for a 31-29 victory over the Roadrunners at the Alamodome in San Antonio. This summer, Southern Miss athletics has been looking back at the greatest games in each of the playing series of all 12 opponents from its 2018 football schedule, giving Golden Eagle fans a weekly look of what we consider to be the greatest game in history between the two respective programs. We will post these games on social media as well, and ask fans to agree or disagree with our selections as well as share their favorite memory from these games.

This week, the focus is on UTSA, who the Golden Eagles are set to play at The Rock, Saturday, Oct. 20, at 6 p.m., in the school's annual homecoming contest.

In last year's game, the Golden Eagles pull off an old-fashioned flea-flicker for one of three touchdowns they scored in a span of 3 minutes, 27 seconds in the late third quarter/early fourth quarter as they rolled up 458 yards total offense.

Running back Ito Smith capped off the game-changing, three-touchdown scoring binge with the longest touchdown run in the football program's history. Smith burst up the middle and outraced the Roadrunners for an 89-yard score to cap a 21-point rally that erased a 13-7 UTSA halftime lead and left the Golden Eagles up 28-13.

UTSA rallied on Jared Sackett's third field goal of the game and a pair of touchdown passes from Dalton Sturm to Marquez McNair, the second on coming with just 48 seconds to play. But Sturm's potential, game-tying two-point conversion pass was incomplete as Cornell Armstrong made a nice defensive play.

UTSA's on-side kick attempt went out of bounds and USM just needed a couple snaps to run out the clock.

After an end zone interception and 61-yard return by Curtis Mikell, Keon Howard capped a 39-yard drive with a 20-yard touchdown pass to Korey Robertson that lifted Southern Miss into a 14-13 lead. Southern Miss forced a three-and-out, and got the ball back at the UTSA 48. On the first play, the Golden Eagles pulled off a flea flicker, with Howard finding Quez Watkins for a 48-yard touchdown and a 21-13 lead.

Southern Miss forced another UTSA punt, and got the ball back at its own 11-yard line. On first down, Smith found a big hole up the middle and simply outran defenders for an 89-yard touchdown run and a 28-13 lead. After being limited to 38 yards in the first half, Smith finished with 178 yards on 17 carries, averaging 10.8 yards a carry. Sturm got the Roadrunners back within 28-20 on a 28-yard pass to McNair. Howard was then stripped from behind and UTSA recovered at Southern Miss' 32-yard line. But the Golden Eagles forced the Roadrunners to settle for a 44-yard field goal by Sackett that cut the lead to 28-23 with 7:33 left to play.

But Southern Miss went 69 yards on 12 plays, taking 5:37 off the clock, as Parker Shaunfield pushed the lead back to eight points with a 24-yard field goal with just 1:56 to play. After a 46-yard kickoff return, Sturm sped UTSA 53 yards, capping the drive with a 24-yard pass to McNair with 48 seconds to play and getting the Roadrunners within a two-point conversion to tie the game. But Sturm's pass on the conversion was low, falling incomplete.

Southern Miss WBB announces schedule

Head Coach Joye Lee-McNelis announced the schedule for the 2018-2019 season for the Lady Eagles on Monday.

Coach McNelis

"Our non-conference schedule is challenging as we face four teams that were a part of postseason play. Two of those teams advanced in the final four of their respective tournaments, including Mississippi State which played in the National Championship game. This challenging non-conference schedule will give us an opportunity to better prepare ourselves for our conference games. For a team that has six newcomers, we have set high expectations for ourselves. However, it is important to realize that only seven on our team of 13 have seen minutes of Division I basketball. It is going to be important that we evaluate ourselves after every practice to make sure that we are accomplishing the things we need to accomplish to have a successful season."

What's to Come

The Lady Eagle basketball team will play 18 games at Reed Green Coliseum this season, which includes 10 non-conference games and eight conference games. They will be on the road for 11 games. In November, Southern Miss will be hosting its annual Lady Eagle Thanksgiving Classic which this year includes Sam Houston State, Mississippi Valley State, and Troy. First up for the Lady Eagles will be William Carey on Nov. 6 in Reed Green Coliseum.

By the Numbers

- 18 home games, 11 away games
- 13 non-conference, 16 conference
- November: 9 games
- December: 6 games
- January: 9 games
- February: 5 games
- March: 2 games
