An Interesting Funeral

One day all the employees of a very unusual company reached their office and all saw a big sign on the main door which said this . . .

'Yesterday, the person who has been hindering your growth in this company passed away. We invite you to join the funeral in the room that has been prepared in the gym.'

In the beginning, they all got sad for the death of one of their colleagues, but after a while they started getting curious to know who was that person who hindered the growth of their colleagues and the company itself?

The excitement in the gym was such that security agents were ordered to control the crowd within the room. The more people reached the coffin, the more the excitement heated up.

Everyone thought - 'Who is this person who was hindering my progress?'

One by one the intrigued employees got closer to the coffin, and when they looked inside it, they suddenly became speechless.

They all got to stand near the coffin, and all ended up shocked and in silence, as if someone had touched the deepest part of their soul. There was a mirror inside the coffin: everyone who looked inside it could see themselves! There was also a sign next to the mirror that said. . .

'There is only one person who is capable of setting limits to your growth and IT IS YOU!'

Your life does not change when your boss changes, when your friends change, when your parents change, when your husband or wife changes, when your company changes, when your church changes, when your location changes, when your money changes, when your status changes . . .

No, your life changes when YOU change, when you go beyond your limiting beliefs.

Examine yourself, watch yourself. Don't be afraid of difficulties, impossibilities and losses. Be a winner, build yourself and your reality. It's the way you face life itself that makes the difference.

Today's Short Reading From The Bible

From Genesis: "And God promised men that good and obedient wives would be found in all corners of the earth."

Then He made the earth round, and He laughed and laughed and laughed.

* Add these to the list of items to eliminate the odor of cooking cabbage: a heel of bread, a whole walnut or a pinch of baking soda.

* "When nailing into wood, drag your nail through some soap (bar soap is fine) before striking, and it will keep the wood from splitting. The soap helps the nail drive into the wood." -- P.K. in New Jersey

* Grease spills on your fave shirt got you down? Start in the kitchen, and use dish soap to pretreat the stain. Simply wet and gently scrub with dish soap, most of which are designed to cut grease!

* "I purchased a set of cork coasters from a discount store to use as floor protectors for a couple of heavy plant stands I keep inside the house. They were easy to attach with a small piece of double-sided tape, and I was able to use a few together, cut to fit exactly, for the largest ones." -- J.W. in Virginia

* Here's a saltshaker tip: If your salt clumps (too much moisture) or comes out too fast (too many or too-large holes), you can solve it with rice! Simply fill about a quarter of the jar with uncooked white rice, and the rest with salt. It both absorbs excess moisture and keeps the salt from pouring out of the shaker too fast.

* Store plastic wrap in the fridge, as the cold helps it to be more manageable when you tear it off the roll. When you run out, consider glass containers, reusable and washable beeswax wraps, or wax paper to fill your needs rather than using more disposable plastic.

Send your tips to Now Here's a Tip, 628 Virginia Drive, Orlando, FL 32803.

All of my nieces and nephews were taught to respect animals and to treat them with compassion and kindness. My second oldest nephew, Michael, has always had an empathy for animals. When he was a little boy, he was concerned about some bees getting stuck in oil in their driveway; he carefully used toothpicks and soapy water to wash them. An injured baby snake one time was picked up and put on the dining room table so he could bandage the wound; he was very upset when the snake died in spite of the medical attention. He made intricate drawings of how to turn the roof of the house into a helipad so animals could be airlifted out in cases of emergencies.

Michael served a two year mission in Spain for our church and then went to BYU. In 2005, he visited the shelter and fell in love with two very tiny kittens. He especially bonded with the little fuzzy orange male one. The decision was made for the adoption paperwork to be completed, and he named the boy Rebel and the girl Lucy.

As years went on, Michael, Rebel, and Lucy moved to Utah, Washington, and North Carolina. Michael was so diligent about keeping Rebel and Lucy comfortable and safe in the car as they crisscrossed the country with him. Roommates always knew that Michael came with two cats. Rebel definitely fit in with the men and Lucy was always the shy, quiet one.

Michael married Evelyn and a few years later, they welcomed McCoy into their family. Rebel and Lucy helped teach him lessons of compassion.

Time marched on, and in what seemed like a mere blink of an eye, Rebel was ten years old. Michael began to talk about how Rebel was slowing down.

Michael blinked again and Rebel was 12, then 13. Rebel lost weight and was put on twice-daily medication for a health condition. Michael and Evelyn were quite diligent about making sure Rebel was taken care of.

Michael knew that end-of-life decisions for a beloved animal companion are the last kindness a human can provide. We had talked for a long time about the sad reality that we generally outlive our pets.

A couple of days ago, the veterinarian told Michael that Rebel's time was short, but he was not in any pain. Michael knew that one last trip to the veterinary clinic would come far sooner than he wanted. On Sunday, he told me he just dreaded the trip.

Monday morning, the news came that the last trip to the clinic would not take place. Rebel had died a few minutes before in Michael's arms. I pictured that in my mind, but then I remembered the first moment they met. My football playing nephew sat in the shelter lobby, holding the tiny little orange kitten in his large, gentle hands that had rescued bees and bandaged a snake.

The two best buddies, man and cat, had comforted each other and had given joy to each other for such a long time. Rebel was always safest and happiest in Michael's arms, from beginning to end. Heaven grew by one big fluffy orange cat that had lived a life I wish for all cats.

Model Train Show Returns to Danville Science Center September 22 and 23

15th Annual Old 97 Rail Days Features New Display

DANVILLE, Va., Sept. 4, 2018 – Danville Science Center will host its annual model train show, Old 97 Rail Days, on Saturday, Sept. 22, from 10 a.m. to 5 p.m. and Sunday, Sept. 23, from 11 a.m. to 2 p.m. The Science Center invites train aficionados, science lovers and history buffs alike to take part in the special event that has grown in scope and attendance over the last 15 years.

Guests will enjoy a diverse collection of more than a dozen individual N-scale model train modules set up to make one giant layout. Families will get an up-close look at tiny towns and intricate scenery – everything from the cows in fields to the loads on the boxcars are to scale! New this year, Old 97 Rail Days will feature a new and improved layout created by the Eastern N Lines Model Railroad Club that showcases multiple trains running simultaneously through miniature landscapes in the Pepsi Building.

“There’s no better place to attend a train event than a working train station!” said Science Center Executive Director Adam Goebel. “Each year Old 97 Rail Days draws more and more people from surrounding regions who are interested in learning about advances in technology and engineering in model railroading. Each club puts countless behind-the-scenes hours and incredible craftsmanship into their display to ensure the final layout will wow guests year after year.”

Old 97 Rail Days is a commemorative event, happening near the anniversary of the Old 97 express train crash in September 1903. The Science Center is located approximately one mile from where that tragic accident occurred, and hosted the first event in 2003 to honor lives lost during that incident. Its Science Station will feature a 5-by-5 miniature stationary model of the Old 97 wreck scene created by a local N-scale model train club to help guests learn about the historical moment.

In addition to walking among the small private-collector displays, guests can stroll along full-size historic train tracks and explore a fully restored 1948 Norfolk and Western caboose. The Science Center’s newest traveling exhibition, Mindbender Mansion, will also be open. This interactive exhibit, developed by the Oregon Museum of Science and Industry, is full of brainteasers and interactive challenges guaranteed to test the visitor’s problem solving skills in a fun and relevant way. Families are also encouraged to stop by the Butterfly Station and Garden to see a variety of host plants and butterflies before the garden closes for the winter season.

Old 97 Rail Days is included in exhibit admission, which is $7 with $1 discounts for children 4-12 and 60+. On Saturday, Sept. 22, only, gallery admission is 50 percent off. ## Just Like Cats & Dogs

by Dave T. Phipps

ARIES (March 21 to April 19) You might need to get more facts to help you work out those problems with your new project. As always, a friendly approach shows the charming Arian at his or her persuasive best.

TAURUS (April 20 to May 20) Information is what energizes ambition, and this is a good time for the ambitious Bovine to expand his or her range of knowledge and to be ready for the challenges that lie ahead.

GEMINI (May 21 to June 20) This is a good time to consider making some long-overdue decorating changes at home or in your workplace. A splash of color can help raise spirits, even on the grayest day.

CANCER (June 21 to July 22) Learn more. Earn more. That's the formula for Moon Children looking to expand their career horizons. Investigate the best places to get those training courses you'll need.

LEO (July 23 to August 22) Your creative side helps gain attention for many of your ideas. But don't neglect the practical aspects involved in implementing their move from paper to production. Good luck.

VIRGO (August 23 to September 22) A health problem should not be ignored. The sooner you check it out, the sooner you can deal with it and then move on. Some job advice comes from an unlikely source.

LIBRA (September 23 to October 22) A relationship takes an unexpected shift that could leave you puzzled and hurt. Asking for an explanation could help uncover the reason for this sudden turn of events.

SCORPIO (October 23 to November 21) Your busy schedule has drawn down much of your energy levels. Restore them by spending a well-earned time out enjoying the arts -- perhaps with that special someone.

SAGITTARIUS (November 22 to December 21) Make that presentation with confidence. Remember: When you show you believe in yourself, it helps persuade others that you truly know what you're doing.

CAPRICORN (December 22 to January 19) Although you usually prefer doing things on your own, a group effort might be advisable at this time. Try to keep an open mind about suggestions from colleagues.

AQUARIUS (January 20 to February 18) This could be a good time to reassess some of your recent decisions and see if any adjustments should be made based on facts that you might have just uncovered.

PISCES (February 19 to March 20) An emotionally charged situation creates uncertainty about the future of your relationship. Best advice: Talk things out while there's still time to reach a new understanding.

BORN THIS WEEK: You tend to act on matters of principle despite what others might advise.

FAVORITE RECIPES

CHICKEN AND BROCCOLI STIR FRY

Ingredients

- 1 pound boneless skinless chicken breast cut into 1 inch pieces
- 1 tablespoon + 1 teaspoon vegetable oil
- 2 cups small broccoli florets
- 1 cup sliced mushrooms if you don't like mushrooms you can add more broccoli instead
- 2 teaspoons minced fresh ginger
- 1 teaspoon minced garlic
- 1/4 cup oyster sauce
- 1/4 cup low sodium chicken broth or water
- 1 teaspoon sugar
- 2 teaspoons toasted sesame oil
- 1 teaspoon soy sauce
- 1 teaspoon cornstarch
- salt and pepper to taste

Instructions

Heat 1 teaspoon of oil in a large frying pan over medium heat. Add the broccoli and mushrooms and cook for approximately 4 minutes or until vegetables are tender.

Add the ginger and garlic to the pan and cook for 30 seconds more.

Remove the vegetables from the pan; place them on a plate and cover.

Wipe the pan clean with a paper towel and turn the heat to high. Add the remaining tablespoon of oil.

Season the chicken pieces with salt and pepper and add them to the pan in a single layer - you may need to do this step in batches. Cook for 3-4 minutes on each side until golden brown and cooked through.

Add the vegetables back to the pan and cook for 2 more minutes or until the vegetables are warmed through.

In a bowl whisk together the oyster sauce, chicken broth, sugar, sesame oil and soy sauce. In a small bowl mix the cornstarch with a tablespoon of cold water.

Pour the oyster sauce mixture over the chicken and vegetables; cook for 30 seconds. Add the cornstarch and bring to a boil; cook for 1 more minute or until sauce has just started to thicken.

Serve immediately, with rice if desired.
