Thank You

to everyone for their thoughts, prayers, condolences, cards, phone calls and food following the passing of our beloved mother, grandmother and Nonny...Marie Bishop. Thanks also to my coworkers at Lakeview and Walnut for the cards and well wishes.

Marie loved her family and friends and was devoted to her family. She was a truly special lady who was loved in return by so many in her community and she will be sadly missed.

Happy Birthday, Ma! (September 23rd)

One in every seven men will be diagnosed with prostate cancer during his lifetime. Prostate cancer is cancer that starts in the prostate and is the second leading cause of cancer-related deaths among men in New York State. Black men are one and a half times more likely to get prostate cancer than White men. Making healthier food choices, exercising, not using tobacco products, and getting screened regularly can help prevent prostate cancer. There are many options for treating prostate cancer. Talk with your doctor if you have a strong family history of this disease or have symptoms, such as: frequent urination, trouble stopping or starting urine flow, blood in the urine, or have constant pain in the lower back, pelvis, or upper thighs. September is Baby Safety Month

According to the New York State Department of Health, injuries are the leading cause of death among children. Unintentional injuries such as motor vehicle accidents, falls, and burns represent the greatest threat to your child's health. Children are more likely to die from injuries than from all other causes combined. Fortunately, many of the childhood injuries are preventable. The key to preventing childhood injuries is to make your home and car as safe as possible.

The Government Traffic Safety Committee states, "Motor vehicle crashes are the leading cause of unintentional injury-related death among children ages 14 and under. Most parents believe they are using child safety seats properly, but it is estimated that four out of five children are not properly restrained." Make sure that the child safety seat you are using is the proper type for your child. Child safety seats should be based on your child's weight and height and on the compatibility with your vehicle. Weight and height guidelines can be found on the child safety seat and in the seat's instruction manual. New York State's Occupant Restraint Law states:

- In the front seat, the driver and each passenger must wear a seat belt, one person per belt. The driver and front-seat passengers aged 16 or older can be fined up to $50 each for failure to buckle up.
- Every occupant, regardless of age or seating position, of a motor vehicle being operated by the holder of a Class-DJ Learner Permit, a Limited Class-DJ, or Class-DJ Driver License must be restrained by a safety restraint.
- Each passenger under age 16 must wear a seat belt or use an appropriate child safety restraint system. The restraint system must comply with the child height and weight recommendations determined by the manufacturer. Depending on the size of the child, the restraint system may be a safety seat or a booster seat used in combination with a lap and shoulder belt.
- The driver must make sure that each passenger under age 16 obeys the law. The driver can be fined $25 to $100 and receive three driver license penalty points for each violation.
- Seat belt use is not required in emergency vehicles, 1964 or older vehicles, or by passengers in buses other than school buses (seat belt use may be required by the school district). Rural letter Carriers are also exempt while they are delivering mail.
- Effective November 1, 2017, the driver and each front seat passenger aged 16 or older must wear a seat belt in taxi and livery vehicles. The directions for child safety seats are not always clear, so to be sure that your seat is installed properly, contact the Cornell Cooperative Extension's Traffic Safety Program at (585) 991-5420 or (585) 335-1752 or visit www.ccelivingstoncounty.org to locate a child safety seat inspection station near you.

In addition to motor vehicle accidents, children often get injured in their own homes. Childproofing your home is very important, especially if there are infants in the home. Parents should examine every room for potential hazards. All stairways should be blocked by a baby gate both at the top and bottom of the stairs. Doors that lead to the outside or down steps should be locked. Windows are especially dangerous when left opened because babies can fall through the screen from higher heights. If it is necessary for windows to be opened, open them from the top rather than bottom.

Burns to babies are very common because we tend to let them explore while we are cooking, or giving them a bath. While cooking, you should use the back burners of the stove with the pot handles facing inwards. This will prevent children from tipping hot water onto themselves. Bathwater temperature also needs to be checked to avoid burns. Children should never be left unattended in the bathtub. Children can drown in as little as one inch of water.

For more information or questions on baby safety please call the Livingston County Department of Health at 243-7299 or visit our website at www.livingstoncounty.us/doh.htm.

Have the doctors done all they know to do?
 Have you exhausted all efforts to get well?
 And still you are not any better?

Give us a call at 585-319-6471. We will come to you and pray for you. In Mark 16:17,18, Jesus told His followers to go out and lay hands on the sick, and when they did they would see the sick recover. Since starting the Healing Rooms in September of last year we have seen Father God touch many. He is not just able to heal, He is willing and wants to heal. Give us a call.

Until we find a new home for the HR in Mount Morris, we will come to you. Call us at 585-319-6471 and we'll set something up.
