ARIES (March 21 to April 19) A colleague might offer to open a door for you professionally. But before you walk through it, be sure this "favor" isn't attached to an obligation you might find difficult to discharge.

TAURUS (April 20 to May 20) Your creativity, your persistence and your reliability could lead to a major career shift. Be sure to use that other Taurean trait, your practicality, when discussing what the job offers.

GEMINI (May 21 to June 20) A changing situation might require some adjustments you might not have been prepared to make. However, flexibility in this matter could be the best course to follow at this time.

CANCER (June 21 to July 22) You're in a period of fluctuating moods, which is not unusual for the Moon Child. Your emotions stabilize by the 26th. Meanwhile, try to hold off making major decisions until then.

LEO (July 23 to August 22) That keen sense of perception helps you hunt down those minute details that others overlook. And, of course, your Leonine ego will accept the expected praise with good grace.

VIRGO (August 23 to September 22) Be careful not to be confrontational when raising a work-related issue. Better to make a request than a demand. And, of course, be prepared to back up your case with facts.

LIBRA (September 23 to October 22) Your ego might be hurt when a colleague turns down your offer to help. But accept it as a rejection of your offer, not of you. A friend from the past could re-emerge by week's end.

SCORPIO (October 23 to November 21) A flow of positive energy turns a work project you didn't want to do into something you actually love doing. Now, take that attitude into your social, intimate life -- and enjoy what follows.

SAGITTARIUS (November 22 to December 21) Working hard to meet your professional goals is fine. But don't neglect your private life, especially where it concerns your more cherished relationships.

CAPRICORN (December 22 to January 19) "Patience" remains the key word in dealing with an emotionally sensitive situation involving a close friend or family member. Help comes your way by week's end.

AQUARIUS (January 20 to February 18) With new information coming in, it's a good time to rethink some of your goals without taking suggestions from others, no matter how well-meaning they might be.

PISCES (February 19 to March 20) Making progress on your project is relatively easy in the early part of the week. A problem could arise midweek. But all goes swimmingly once it's resolved.

BORN THIS WEEK: Holding fast to your principles, no matter what, inspires others to follow your example.

Near Death Experience

A middle-aged woman had a heart attack and was taken to the hospital.

While on the operating table she had a near death experience.

Seeing God she asked "Is my time up?" God said, "No, you have another 40 years, 2 months and 8 days to live."

Upon recovery, the woman decided to stay in the hospital and have a facelift, liposuction, and a tummy tuck. She even had someone come in and change her hair color. Since she had so much more time to live, she figured she might as well make the most of it.

After her last operation, she was released from the hospital. While crossing the street on her way home, she was killed by an ambulance.

Arriving in front of God (again), she demanded, "I thought you said I had another 40 years. Why didn't you pull me from out of the path of the ambulance?"

God replied, "Sorry about that, I just didn't recognize you!"

Many years ago, our cat adoption policy was changed to require cats adopted from us to be kept strictly inside. We received criticism about it, but now most shelters require the same thing.

It is vital to keep cats inside. Outside cats face many dangers, and their life expectancy is 1-5 years. A cat kept strictly inside has an average life expectancy of 12-18 years.

Contact with other cats outside leads to the risk of disease transmission. Feline leukemia and feline immunodeficiency are transmitted from cat to cat and, once contracted, result in the eventual death of the animal.

Dogs and other wild animals pose a threat to cats; the very real danger is one of exposure to rabies. Outdoor cats can suffer torn ears, cut eyes, abscesses, and other injuries requiring veterinary treatment.

Indoor cats are not generally exposed to fleas, ticks, ear mites, or other parasites that can cause anemia, skin irritations, allergic reactions, and even death.

Outdoor cats are at risk to be poisoned. Neighbors may deliberately poison cats they view as nuisances, but accidental poisonings also occur. Chemically treated lawns, bait left out to kill rats or mice, and antifreeze can all be deadly dangers.

It is a myth that cats are "streetwise." Cats are intelligent and alert, but they stand very little chance against traffic.

We can tell horror stories, and even have the pictures, of outside cats that have been beheaded, scalped, electrocuted, burned, tortured, or starved. A dogfighting investigation seminar I attended a couple of years ago showed actual video of cats and kittens being used to train dogs to kill.

Trees also present hazards for the outside cat. Dogs or loud noises can scare a cat to climb so high, they cannot get down. I have heard repeatedly that a cat can climb down a tree. The reality is, cats cannot easily climb down facing the ground, and they usually do not back down out of a tree. We have had to intervene countless times to get them out of trees.

We have also had to rescue countless cats (kittens, mostly) from the engines of cars. Some survive, and some do not.

The list of hazards for outside cats goes on and on.

Outside cats are at the mercy of the people they encounter, as well as weather conditions and other animals. We encourage everyone to keep their cats inside. It truly is the best life for a cat.

Racehorse Weathervane

The recent hurricane and flooding in the Carolinas show how important weather, rain and wind are to everyday life, both now and in the distant past. Weathervanes told the direction of the wind and aided in forecasting the weather. The earliest known weathervane was used as early as 48 B.C. in Greece. It was in the shape of a god: half man, half fish.

The first American weathervane was used in Albany, New York, in 1656. The best-known early weathervane is the rooster put on a Boston building in 1742. During the mid-1700s, makers created weathervanes in many shapes, including a Native American, banner, rooster and even a dove of peace for President George Washington's home in Mt. Vernon. By the 1800s, weathervanes were featured on many roofs as decorations as well as useful additions. The Goddess Liberty and the American eagle were new designs celebrating the new country. But another favored design was a reminder of a popular sport, the racehorse.

This late 19th-century weathervane is a full-bodied horse with a cast zinc head and a sulky driver with cast head and boots. It was made by Fiske & Co. The 45-inch-long vane sold for over $18,000.

Today, collectors want the factory-made metal weathervanes of the past or the antique flat folk-art copies made from sheet metal. It took $18,150 to buy this Fiske & Co. "American Girl" horse and sulky molded copper weathervane at a James Julia auction. Like many weathervanes, it has a bullet hole made when someone used it for target practice. The weathervane honored a famous thoroughbred that raced from 1868 to 1875. She died in the middle of an important race. The racetrack built a statue of the horse, and the country remembered American Girl as a horse who tried her best in every race.

Q. My friend has her floor-model Enterprise coffee grinder for sale for $600, and I want to know how much it's worth. Is she too high or too low on price? It's in good shape.

A. Enterprise Manufacturing Co. was founded in Philadelphia in 1864. The company's 1904 catalog of "patented hardware specialties" included kitchen utensils like grinders and choppers, apple peelers, cheese knives, cherry pitters, graters, jelly presses, raisin seeders, sad irons and slaw cutters, as well as banks, bung-hole borers, faucets, flag holders, lawn sprinklers, tobacco cutters, traps and more. The company was sold to Silex in 1955. Enterprise's floor-model coffee grinders were made in several sizes. The value of your friend's model depends on condition and size. They usually sell for $500 to over $1,000.

VETERANS POST

by Freddy Groves

New Steps to an Appeal

The Department of Veterans Affairs reached a big goal two weeks early in September: It delivered 81,000 appeals decisions for fiscal 2018. That's 28,000 more decisions on services and disability benefits than it cleared last year. The VA already has hired nearly 200 attorneys and plans to hire 30 more as it implements the Veterans Appeals Improvement and Modernization Act of 2017.

There's a lot to know. If you disagreed with your original claim decision, you have three choices, per the Act: A higher-level review, where you jump up to another decision-making body; a supplemental claim, where new evidence is submitted; or an appeal (Notice of Disagreement) to the board.

If you appeal directly to the board, there are three directions to take: direct review docket, evidence docket and hearing docket. Do you know the difference? This is when having an attorney can help. In the direct review, no new evidence is submitted. In the evidence docket, new evidence is sent. In the hearing docket, new evidence also is introduced.

On the VA.gov blog website there is a chart with the above information, cleverly identified as Simplified Process Gives Veterans Clear Choices. Clear as mud, no?

If you want to learn more about what the Board of Veterans' Appeals does, go online to www.bva.va.gov. Click the tiny images for expanded information. You'll find sections on what the Board does, what the appeals modernization actually is and how to monitor the status of your appeal.

To check your status, you'll need to sign in using the DS Logon (ID issued by the DOD), your HealtheVet account or your ID.me account. You can create an ID.me account using your HealtheVet account, or Facebook or Google, or even an AARP account. Think carefully before you use any of these last three.

by Tony Rizzo

HOLLYWOOD — James Bond fans can breathe easy now. First, they had to worry if Daniel Craig would return as 007, and happily, he will. Then "Bond 25" was set to premiere in October 2019. Suddenly, director Danny Boyle (Oscar winner for "Slumdog Millionaire") had creative differences and bowed out. A desperate search for a new director began so the film could keep its opening date. Happily, producers found one in Cary Joji Fukunaga, who will be the first American-born director of a Bond film. Fukunaga directed Netflix's "Beast of No Nation" and the current season of "Maniac," with Emma Stone and Jonah Hill. He also gave us the first season of HBO's "True Detective." Sadly, we'll have to wait until Valentine's Day 2020 to get our 007 fix.

Wikimedia

Patrick Stewart

Greenwood and Ewan McGregor as a grown-up Danny Torrance.

Another reboot on its way is "Charlie's Angels," with Kristen Stewart, Naomi Scott and Ella Balinska as the Angels. And you'll never believe this, but Captain Picard from "Star Trek: The Next Generation," Sir Patrick Stewart, will play Bosley. Expect it to arrive Sept. 27, 2019.

Allison Janney, who won an Oscar this year for "I, Tonya" and is continuing to star in the CBS comedy series "Mom," is one busy lady. She's just completed the psych-drama "Ma," with Oscar-winner Octavia Spencer (who did a running character on "Mom") and Luke Evans, as well as "Troupe Zero" with Oscar-winner Viola Davis, comic Jim Gaffigan and Mike Epps. She also will take on the role of attorney Susan Estrich in the movie about disgraced Fox TV head Roger Ailes. Janney plays wacky mothers well, but a straight-laced attorney, now that will be real acting!

© 2018 King Features Synd., Inc.

Die-hard "Downton Abbey" fans who've been clamoring for a movie version of their favorite series have been granted their wish. Hugh Bonneville, Michelle Dockery, Joanne Froggatt, Laura Carmichael, Elizabeth McGovern and yes, even Maggie Smith are on board. The film is set for a Sept. 13, 2019, release.

Chris Hemsworth, who as Thor was one of the stars of the $2 billion-grossing "Avengers: Infinity War," is in the untitled "Avengers" film coming May 3. He's currently starring in "Bad Times at the El Royale," with Jeff Bridges, Dakota Johnson, Jon Hamm and Nick Offerman. Hemsworth also has signed on to be one of "The Men In Black" in the reboot titled "MIB," with Liam Neeson, Rebecca Ferguson and Emma Thompson, arriving June 14.

Also in the works is "Kingsman 3," which so far has Taron Egerton returning, while the rest of the cast hold out for more money, and a sequel to Stephen King's "The Shining," called "Doctor Sleep," starring Bruce

Danville City Public Schools Honored with 2018 School Nutrition Award by No Kid Hungry Virginia

Richmond, VA – Danville City Public Schools and four other new school divisions, along with eight repeat winners, received the second annual Dorothy S. McAuliffe School Nutrition award presented by No Kid Hungry Virginia in September. The Dorothy S. McAuliffe School Nutrition Award celebrates Virginia school divisions that have gone above and beyond by operating all available federal child nutrition programs and achieving stellar participation in the school breakfast program. The award is named in honor of former First Lady of Virginia, Dorothy McAuliffe, in recognition of her efforts to end childhood hunger in the Commonwealth.

“This year’s school division winners are great examples of how to effectively implement and expand nutrition programs so their students have access to the nutrition they need to succeed in the classroom and lead healthy lives” said Mrs. McAuliffe. “Virginia has become a national model for ending childhood hunger and these school divisions are leading the way across the Commonwealth and throughout the country.”

First-time 2018 winners include Danville City Public Schools; Harrisonburg City Public Schools; Pulaski County Public Schools; Southampton County Public Schools and Staunton City Public Schools, where each school division was recognized for their commitment to ensuring no child goes hungry in the Commonwealth. Bristol City Public Schools, Buchanan Public Schools, Colonial Beach Public Schools, Henry County Public Schools, Newport News Public Schools, Richmond City Public Schools, Westmoreland Public Schools and West Point Public Schools were all recognized for the second year in a row and awarded with a certificate for their continued commitment to school nutrition programs.

“No Kid Hungry is excited to award so many new school divisions, as well as recognize divisions that continue to ensure that kids in their communities have access to nutritious meals,” said Claire Mansfield, No Kid Hungry Virginia state director. “Thanks to our strong public-private partnerships and commitment from community members, school leaders, teachers, staff and school nutrition teams, we’ve been able to help connect more schools with federal nutrition programs that help children thrive and make strides toward ending childhood hunger across the Commonwealth.”

To qualify for the award, school divisions must meet the following criteria:

- School Breakfast: At least 70% of students who qualify for free/reduced meals and eat school lunch are also eating school breakfast.
- Afterschool Meals: Division is sponsoring and serving meals/snacks through the At-Risk Afterschool Child and Adult Care Food Program (CACFP), if eligible.
- Summer Meals: Division is sponsoring and serving summer meals through the Summer Food Service Program (SFSP) or National School Lunch Program (NSLP) Seamless Summer Option (SSO), if eligible.

Schools can play a critical role in getting children the nutrition they need to fuel their bodies and their brains. Programs like school breakfast, afterschool meals, and summer meals help feed kids throughout the school day and in the summertime. Parents trust schools to provide healthy, nutritious meals and look to schools as reliable sources of information about community programs.

Schools effectively feeding children and preventing hunger benefit from better attendance, reduced tardiness, fewer visits to the nurse’s office, and better academic performance. Academic success improves the success for the community as a whole.

No Kid Hungry Virginia partners with schools and districts to connect eligible kids to federal nutrition programs. The nonprofit shares best practices via webinars and educational events, along with expanding access to meal programs through grants. Visit va.nokidhungry.org for more information about No Kid Hungry Virginia’s work.

1. Who had a hit with the Curtis Mayfield song "Girls Are Out to Get You"?
2. Name the artist who released "On the Radio."
3. Which group released the Rick James song "In My House"?
4. "Axel F" was used in which 1980s film?
5. Name the song that contains this lyric: "It's not the way you smile that touched my heart. It's not the way you kissed that tears me apart."

- Answers
1. The Fascinations, in 1967. Martha Reeves was in the group but soon left to create Martha and the Vandellas.
 2. Donna Summer, in 1979. Two versions were created: a 7-inch single and a larger 12-inch version that was released to DJs and ran seven minutes.
 3. The Mary Jane Girls, in 1985. The song made it to the 100 Greatest One Hit Wonders of the '80s list and was occasionally called inappropriate because of the lyrics.
 4. The electronic instrumental was the theme in 1984's "Beverly Hills Cop."
 5. "Baby It's You." The Shirelles original was a Top-10 smash in 1961. The Beatles covered it on their first album two years later, and the band Smith took the song to No. 5 in 1969.

BEST CROCK POT BEEF STEW RECIPE

- INGREDIENTS:
- 4 TBSP olive oil
 - 2 tsp minced garlic
 - 2 lbs trimmed beef chuck, cut into 1-2-inch cubes
 - 1/4 cup of flour, tossed with meat to coat (OPTIONAL: add 1/2 tsp seasoned meat tenderizer)
 - 5-10 red potatoes, diced
 - 1 medium onion, chopped
 - 2 cups sliced carrots, about 3-4
 - 2 cups sliced celery, 3-4 stalks
 - 1 cup of red cooking wine
 - 1 cup beef stock or canned beef broth
 - 1 can diced tomatoes, drained [14.5 oz]
 - 1 bay leaf
 - 1/2 tsp dried thyme
 - 1 tsp dried parsley
 - 1/2 tsp allspice
 - 8-oz container of sliced mushrooms [optional]
 - 2 tsp cornstarch
 - salt & pepper, to taste

QUICK METHOD:
Turn crockpot on low. Toss all vegetables and meat in the crockpot. Combine spices [except bay leaf], oil, cooking wine, beef broth and whisk lightly to combine. Pour over meat and vegetables. Add in bay leaf.
Give it stew a light stir, cover and cook on low for 9-10 hours, medium 7-8 hours, high 6-7 hours. To thicken stew, about 30 minutes prior to serving, ladle out about 1/2 cup of liquid from the stew. Whisk in 2 tsp cornstarch and add it back to the stew, stirring gently to combine.
MORE DEVELOPED FLAVOR METHOD: takes 15-20 additional minutes
As I said before, this just gives the stew a better, more developed flavor. It's really not difficult, just a few extra steps but it goes fast.
Put potatoes, tomatoes, carrots and celery in the crockpot. Have the beef broth and cooking wine measured out and ready.
Heat a frying pan up on high. Add in 2 TBSP oil. Add garlic. Once pan is hot, add beef. Sear beef for about 2 minutes on each side. Transfer beef out of pan after 5 minutes.
Do not wash the pan! The technical term here is deglazing- we're going to add liquid that will help loosen up and remove the flavorful meat remnants on the bottom of the pan. Return pan to hot stove top and add remaining 2 TBSP of oil. Once oil is hot, add in the onions. Wait about 3-4 minutes until the onions are beginning to be translucent and are sizzling. Add in cooking wine and beef broth. Once the liquid begins to boil, turn off the heat and pour entire mixture into the crockpot. Add spices and seasonings, mushrooms and bay leaf. Stir lightly to combine.
Cook on low for 9-10 hours, medium 7-8 hours, high 6-7 hours.
About 30 minutes prior to serving, ladle out about 1/2 cup of liquid from the stew. Whisk in 2 tsp cornstarch and add it back to the stew, stirring gently to combine. This helps thicken it up! If you want it even thicker, you can repeat this process once, waiting about 15 minutes between to double check thickness.
If you don't have or don't like cooking with wine, you can use grape juice, apple juice or simply increase the beef broth to 2 cups instead.

Strange BUT TRUE

By Samantha Weaver

* It was 17th-century French author Francois de La Rochefoucauld who made the following sage observation: "Some people with great virtues are disagreeable, while others with great vices are delightful."

* If you wanted to dig to the center of the earth, you'd have to go down about 4,000 miles.

* If you're a fan of fishing, here's a cautionary tale regarding the weather: A 48-year-old Colombian man named Felipe Ortiz (for reasons unknown) decided to go out fishing in a raging storm. He cast his line into a strong wind, but the line blew back and caused the baited hook to lodge in his throat, killing him.

* Are you a dipsomaniac? The root of the word is from the Greek "dipso," meaning "thirst" -- and we're all familiar with the "mania" part. "Dipsomaniac" is just a fancy name for a drunk.

* Feeling pressed by ever-increasing postage rates? Well, consider this: To send mail by Pony Express originally cost $5 per ounce -- the equivalent of more than $150 in today's dollars.

* At one time the game of checkers was known as "chess for ladies."

* Unless you're a professional dairy farmer who milks cows on a daily basis, it's unlikely that you're aware of the fact that it takes, on average, 350 squirts to get a gallon of milk.

* Jewelry lovers, pay attention: Oysters aren't the only creatures with the capability to make pearls. Pearls can come from any mollusk that makes a shell, including mussels, clams, conchs and even land snails.

Thought for the Day: "I like an escalator because an escalator can never break, it can only become stairs. There would never be an escalator temporarily out of order sign, only an escalator temporarily stairs. Sorry for the convenience." -- Mitch Hedberg
