SPEAK OUT

Dear "Speak Out,"

Since my last letter, my new Facebook profile went from 0 to 60 friends, which is pretty funny if you know about my love for cars. And if you're one of those 60, you've probably seen what I've stirred up this week: Those horrible Jersey barriers in the State Street plaza. Don't forget the crumbling stucco, trees growing from the awnings, and lamp posts canted to such a degree where safety is a concern. You've also read that I intend to pursue the owners of Mayo Plaza, LLC to have that lot properly rehabilitated.

Have you heard the saying, "Dress for the job you want, not the job you have"?

If we want to attract business to Mount Morris - either retail or otherwise - to create jobs, help raise property values, increase tax revenue and ultimately reduce the rate (the ratio paid to the assessed value of your home) we have to make our village look the part.

Will convincing investors who live far from Western NY to pour money into a property (and subsequently, community) they care nothing about be easy? No. But I'm certain that I can bring our complaint to them in such a way it can't be ignored. It may take time and require pressure on multiple fronts. Please stay tuned: I may ask you to do your part and help at some point.

For now, I ask that the owners of Save-A-Lot and Mun Yuen review their leases to see if the landlords are in violation of contract in any way that would allow recourse, such as withholding rent, etc. until improvements are made. There may be a case on the safety front, which would help compel them through legal pressure - and show unity between the businesses and the community.

During a discussion with former mayor/current trustee Joel Mike, he stated, "I would love to see a whole foods store here, but that's not in our wheelhouse." It may not be, but I challenge Joel and anyone else to operate as if that IS our goal. We have to aim high and hope to land somewhere in the middle, but above where we are now. I believe that all great leaders and innovators become so by having no awareness of limitations - if we accept the world around us as it is - the status quo, then it can become self-fulfilling.

Mount Morris wasn't always this way - it was a slow evolution and the fix could be equally slow. But in my mind, I want to finish what O'Connell started. I may make enemies along the way, but if I'm not, then I'm not trying hard enough.

As always, please join me on Facebook by adding me as a friend. The link is facebook.com/jasonlatona.

PS: Kudos to Edward Kennedy for his excellent letter in last week's Speak Out.

Thank you for your support,

Jason Latona
161 Main Street, Mount Morris, NY

Dear "Speak Out,"

"ENOUGH IS ENOUGH"

My name is Bob Skinner and I have lived in Mount Morris, NY my whole life. As many of you know, I have been circulating a petition regarding the speed thru the Village.

We, the undersigned residents and taxpayers of the Village of Mount Morris DEMAND that you, as elected officials (Mayor and Trustees), address our concern about SPEED within the Village limits IMMEDIATELY. It is your job to provide a safe environment by protecting bicyclists, pedestrians, and motorists by strict enforcement of speed limits. Additionally, the hiring of a "Police Chief" who cannot perform the police duties necessary to assist in reducing speed in designated zones is legally and fiscally irresponsible. Everyone deserves to feel SAFE.

The positive response has been overwhelming and I thank you. Please come to the Village Board meeting on October 15th at 6 p.m. and voice your concerns in person. Together we can make something positive happen. Again, thank you.

Respectfully,
Bob Skinner

Positively Livingston

Historical Society Finds Pieces of History

A very exciting discovery was recently made at the Livingston County Museum in Geneseo. The museum, formerly the District #5 Geneseo Schoolhouse (1838-1932), was in the middle of renovations to prepare for the Big Tree exhibit. While moving several large interior cabinets, volunteers uncovered two chalkboards from the early 1900s.

As seen in the photos, one shows "o" spelling words as well as part of the story of the Myth of Ceres and Proserpine.

The second board relates to "E Spelling" and "D Spelling" and lists student names. Amidst the dust and dirt behind the cabinet, other found items include an 1883 penny, marbles, a paper airplane, and chalk.

The original cobblestone sector was built in 1838 on land donated by the pioneer Wadsworth brothers, who asked that the land remain a site of education. It functioned as an elementary schoolhouse until 1932, when the Newcomb School (now Welles on the SUNY Geneseo campus) opened.

The building promptly turned into the Livingston County Historical Society Museum (after it was purchased for a dollar), consistent with the Wadsworths' wishes.

Since then, the museum operates to discover and preserve the history of the region, offering public displays and teaching kits to local schools. Fourth graders in the area have a curriculum that includes local history, so the museum is a benefit to those classes in particular. Additionally, the museum takes on interns from SUNY Geneseo to encourage experience within a student's chosen field of study.

Since the discovery, members of the museum have been chasing down the identities of the students listed by looking through census records, death records, military records, etc. Especially interesting is that in 1932, when the school had closed down (when many assumed the writings were from), most of these students would have been in their late teens. So it's possible the writings are from earlier. Even then however, a large range of ages is represented on that board, with one kid being 9, and others being 13, 16, 17, 19, etc. Volunteers are a bit perplexed by this since the school only educated children K-4.

Volunteers have been in contact with the Livingston County Historian's office along with a special collections librarian at SUNY Geneseo to try and find more records that might help to elucidate our inconsistent findings, but that's a work in progress.

The family of Nancy M. Vogt wishes to extend our sincere thanks for your many kindnesses, support, care and concern that our Mom received during the six months before her passing on August 31, 2018. Thank you to her sisters Diane, Mary, Janet, Sandie and Carol, for being with us and by her side through all of her life. Thank you for being together with us when she needed her entire family the most. Your love for her and all of us is constant. Thank you to her dear friends Sherry, Annette and Maya for always being with her in person and in spirit. Thank you to Joan Strobel for being by her side as her vacation friend and being so strong. Thank you to Coleen Hopkins for being a dear longtime friend to Mom and all of us. Thank you to Vicki Goll for being a true friend and helping take her to her appointments. Thank you to Sue Dirk and Pete and Sue Piriano for checking in on her and doing the little extras for her. Special thanks to Amanda Hanley for making her happy no matter where she was. Thank you to her Nunda Kiwanis Family, her Red Hat Ladies, her Nunda Food Pantry friends, her MMCS Class of 1957 lunch friends, and her Holy Angels family for always keeping her in your thoughts and prayers. She truly loved belonging and helping in every way she could. She loved being part of such a caring community, and she loved her family and friends with all of her heart. Finally, the words "Thank You" do not begin to say enough to the staff at the Avon Nursing Home. The Men and Woman at the facility truly showed us all every day the commitment and love they had for their job and the people they helped on a daily basis. They are truly the angels among us. Special, special thanks to Sheila, Beth and Jessica "her blue eyed friend".

We truly appreciate everyone that touched our Mom's life in some way.

National Friends of Libraries Week October 21-27, 2018

Did you know that a Mount Morris Library Friends group was formed in 2015 in order to support the growth and maintenance of the library?

The Mount Morris Library Friends hold fundraisers throughout the year and work with the library director and staff to determine where funds are needed most. Past large fundraisers include LuLaRoe clothing sales and a Card Catalog Silent Auction. Funds raised have been used to assist with a new heating/air conditioning unit, a Smart TV, new cushions for existing chairs and for the Children's Summer Reading Program. Adult programs sponsored by the Friends group include a Book Club and a Cookbook Club.

The Mount Morris Library Friends will hold a Book Sale at the Library during regular hours the week of October 22nd. Hours: Monday, Oct. 22, 2-5pm; Tuesday, Oct. 23, 9am-12pm and 2-8pm; Thursday, Oct. 25, 2-8pm; Friday, Oct. 26, 2-5pm and Saturday, Oct. 27, 11am-3pm. Stop in and browse the selection of books.

In December, the Friends transform part of the library into a Christmas Store where families can shop for gently used items in gift giving condition. There are always many treasures to be found.

Please consider joining or supporting your Mount Morris Library Friends group. There are membership brochures available at the circulation desk and you may find information about upcoming events at www.facebook.com/MountMorrisLibraryFriends

Have the doctors done all they know to do?
 Have you exhausted all efforts to get well?
 And still you are not any better?

We met Joe several years ago near Penn Yan. In talking with him, he revealed how he had been diagnosed with brain cancer. Joe was not just concerned about his health, but also about how his family would get along after he passed away. We called upon the name of the Lord for Joe and his family, taking authority over the cancer in the name of Jesus. The following week, the oncologist told Joe there was no more cancer - it was miraculously gone. Four years later we saw Joe, doing very well. God is good. God heals. Nothing is too hard for Him.
