Priest Twin
Our parish priest suddenly became ill and asked his twin brother, also a priest, to fill in for him and conduct a funeral Mass scheduled for that day. His brother, of course, agreed.

It was not until the brother was accompanying the casket down the aisle, however, that he realized that he had neglected to ask the gender of the deceased. This was information that he would need for his remarks during the service.

Thinking quickly, as he approached the first pew where the deceased's relatives were seated, he nodded toward the casket and whispered to one woman, "Brother or sister?"

"Cousin," she replied.

Excerpts From 6th Grade History Tests

1. The greatest writer of the Renaissance was William Shakespeare. He was born in the 1564, supposedly on his birthday. He never made much money and is famous only because of his plays. He wrote tragedies, comedies, and hysterectomies, all in Islamic pentameter. Romeo and Juliet are an example of a heroic couple.
2. Writing at the same time as Shakespeare was Miguel Cervantes. He wrote Donkey Hote. The next great author was John Milton. Milton wrote Paradise Lost. Then his wife died and he wrote Paradise Regained.
3. Delegates from the original 13 states formed the Contented Congress. Thomas Jefferson, a virgin, and Benjamin Franklin were to 2 singers of the Declaration of Independence. Franklin discovered electricity by rubbing two cats backward and declared, "a horse divided against itself can not stand." Franklin died in 1790 and is still dead.
4. Abraham Lincoln was America's greatest precedent. Lincoln's mother died in infancy, and he was born in a log cabin which he built with his own hands. Abraham Lincoln freed the slaves by signing the Emasculation Proclamation. On the night of April 14, 1865, Lincoln went to the theater and got shot in his seat by one of the actors in the moving picture show. They believe the assinator was John Wilkes Booth, a suposingly insane actor. This ruined Booth's career.
5. Johann Bach wrote a great many musical compositions and had a large number of children. Bach died from 1750 to the present. Bach was the most famous composer in the world and so was Handel. Handel was half German, half Italian, and half English. He was very large.
6. Beethoven wrote music even though he was deaf. He was so deaf he wrote loud music. He took long walks in the forest even when everyone was calling for him. Beethoven expired in 1827 and later died from this.

Don't wash your hair in the shower

(It's so good to finally get a health warning that is useful)

IT INVOLVES THE SHAMPOO WHEN IT RUNS DOWN YOUR BODY WHEN YOU SHOWER WITH IT A WARNING TO US ALL!!!

I don't know WHY I didn't figure this out sooner! I use shampoo in the shower! When I wash my hair, the shampoo runs down my whole body, and printed very clearly on the shampoo label is this warning, "FOR EXTRA BODY AND VOLUME."

No wonder I have been gaining weight! Well, I got rid of that shampoo and I am going to start showering with Dawn dishwashing soap instead. Its label reads, "DISSOLVES FAT THAT IS OTHERWISE DIFFICULT TO REMOVE."

Problem solved!
If I don't answer the phone I'll be in the shower!!!

Salome's Stars

ARIES (March 21 to April 19) You enjoy the attention early in the week, but it might be a good idea to opt for some privacy by week's end so that you can have more time to consider an upcoming decision.

TAURUS (April 20 to May 20) You unearth some surprising facts. Now you need to consider how to use them to your advantage. Meanwhile, it might be best to keep what you've learned secret for now.

GEMINI (May 21 to June 20) A comment by a colleague piques your curiosity to know more. Best advice: You'll find people more likely to offer information if you're discreet when making your inquiries.

CANCER (June 21 to July 22) Your energy levels begin to rise by midweek. This allows you to catch up with your heavy workload and still have plenty of get-up-and-go to go out on the town this weekend.

LEO (July 23 to August 22) You're probably roaring your head off about a perceived slight from a longtime critic. Ignore it. That person might just be trying to goad you into doing something you might later regret.

VIRGO (August 23 to September 22) The early part of the week is open to spontaneity. Then it's time to settle into your usual routine to get all your tasks done. A personal situation could require more attention from you.

LIBRA (September 23 to October 22) A meeting of the minds on a workplace project might well develop into something more personal for Librans looking for romance. Aspects also are favorable for platonic relationships.

SCORPIO (October 23 to November 21) A more-positive mood might be difficult to assume in light of a recent problem involving the health of someone special. But by week's end, your emotional barometer should start to rise.

SAGITTARIUS (November 22 to December 21) Look for a changed attitude from a former adversary once he or she realizes you have your colleagues' full support. Now you can refocus your energies on that workplace project.

CAPRICORN (December 22 to January 19) This time, a difference of opinion might not be resolved in your favor. But be patient. It could all ultimately work out to your advantage, as new information begins to develop.

AQUARIUS (January 20 to February 18) A tug of war develops between the artistic Aquarian's creative aspect and his or her practical side. Best advice: Prioritize your schedule so you can give appropriate time to both.

PISCES (February 19 to March 20) You could be entering a career phase awash with job-related demands. But avoid being swamped by the overflow and, instead, keep treading water as you deal with demands one by one.

BORN THIS WEEK: You are an exceptionally loyal person, and you're respected for your ability to keep the secrets entrusted to you.

PIEDMONT PETS

October 25, 2018
By Paulette Dean

When a snowstorm or freezing temperatures arrive, the time for preparation is past. If you know of an animal that is not being taken care of properly, please call us at 799-0843. We will get the information to the right agency. Cold temperatures and wind chill can threaten a pet's life; the following measures can help ensure your pet will have a comfortable winter:

- Low temperatures are especially hard on short-haired, young, and older animals.
- All cats should be kept inside.
- Salt and chemicals used to melt snow can burn a pet's foot pads and even the mouth when the pet licks the paws. After an outdoor walk, wipe your pet's feet with a damp towel.
- Warm vehicle engines attract cats. Bang on your vehicle hood to scare away any cats before starting the engine.
- Antifreeze is deadly poison, but the sweet taste attracts many animals. Make sure that animals do not have access to the antifreeze.
- When it is snowing, pets can lose the scent of home. Keep pets under close supervision, and make sure your pet wears an identification tag.
- Winter air can dry out animals' skin and make them itchy. Add a small amount of vegetable oil (with your veterinarian's approval) to the pet's diet.
- It is prohibited in the City of Danville to have any companion animal

996 South Boston Rd.,
Danville, VA 24540
Phone: (434) 799-0843

tethered when the temperature is 32 degrees or below.

Most animal welfare organizations urge all dogs to be kept inside, but many are not. For outside dogs, a solid doghouse must be provided. The opening needs to be covered, either with a commercial door or a heavy, fabric flap. The house needs to be raised off the ground at least 2 inches. Cover the floor with cedar shavings to control parasites and to help retain the skin oil. The doghouse should be large enough to allow the dog to enter, turn around, and either sit or lie down comfortably. However, the house needs to be small enough to hold the pet's body heat in.

Owners of outside dogs must provide more food in the winter, because keeping warm depletes energy. Water bowls should be checked frequently to make sure the water has not frozen.

If you know of an animal that does not have adequate protection from the weather, we urge you to call us before conditions are too bad.

KOVELS® Antiques & Collecting

By Terry and Kim Kovel

Halloween Cat

Halloweeniana is now one of the major holiday collecting categories, second only to Christmas. Jack-o'-lanterns, figural candy containers of papier-mache, and crepe paper black cats and skeletons are the oldest. Scarecrows, witches, bats, spiders, spider webs, trick-or-treat bags and zombies are more recent and easier to find. An old orange paper dress with black cats and political symbols from a 1980s presidential election year is one of the more unusual collectibles. Another is a 15-year-old dangling rhinestone skeleton pin to wear to parties.

Black cats are symbols of Halloween, and this cat even holds a jack-o'-lantern. The rare vintage nodding cat sold for over $4,500.

A rare vintage Halloween clockwork figure sold for $4,575 at a 2016 Morphy auction. The 16-inch-high black cat made of cloth-covered papier-mache is holding a jack-o'-lantern. Its head nods and its eyes move from side to side.

Look for bargain Halloween decorations at house sales and flea markets, and vintage rarities at auctions and shops. Save some of this year's unusual items.

Q.I have a vintage toilet tissue roll, Waldorf brand, in its original wrapping paper, in excellent condition. It was put in storage along with the whole household in 1943 when the family moved out of state. I purchased the estate many years ago. I gave one to our local historical society to be displayed in the museum. Does it have much value?

A. Toilet tissue was first made in China for the Emperor's use in the 1391. It was first made in the United States in 1857 and sold in packs of single sheets. The first toilet paper rolls were made by Scott Paper Co. in 1890. Waldorf toilet tissue was made in 1902 for the Waldorf Hotel. It was the world's best-selling brand in the early 1900s. Scott continued to produce Waldorf toilet paper for several years. We found it pictured in a 1930s ad. Scott Paper Co. was bought by Kimberly-Clark in 1995. The value of a vintage roll of Waldorf toilet tissue, about $35-$40.

- CURRENT PRICES
- Mop wringer*, janitorial tool, iron and wood, Reliance junior model, Lee Chair company, handle, 1906, 25 x 10 inches, $65.
 - Candy container*, Jack-o'-lantern, clear glass pumpkin with orange metal lid, c. 1905, 4 x 4 inches, $205.
 - Platter*, Wedgwood, Peace pattern with dove and olive branch, flaming torch and quiver of feathers, garland border, c. 1880, 17 x 14 inches, $495.
 - Popcorn cornsheller*, cast-iron tool, Right Speedy, flywheel with heart cut-outs, crank, wood handle, Curtis Goddard, 1877, 9 inches, $995.

TIP: Bidders must carefully read the description in an auction catalog, and check the size of the item and other details. There may be extra unexpected value features, like a picture by a famous artist, which will add to the price. The size of the piece usually is not obvious in a catalog picture. A grandfather clock or an antique bed with a large headboard that is too tall to fit in an average room, or a teapot that holds only two cups of breakfast coffee and is not a full-sized 6- to 8-cup pot can be a disappointment you can avoid.

Strange BUT TRUE

By Samantha Weaver

* It was early 20th-century Irish author Robert Wilson Lynd who made the following sage observation: "The belief in the possibility of a short decisive war appears to be one of the most ancient and dangerous of human illusions."

* If you're concerned about the rising cost of groceries, be grateful that you're not a starfish parent. A young starfish eats 10 times its own weight in food every day.

* The first car to offer seat belts -- the Nash Rambler -- rolled off the assembly line in 1950.

* You might be surprised to learn that the British are not the greatest tea drinkers in the world. That honor belongs to the Irish, who consume 1,200 cups per capita every year.

* The final battle of the Napoleonic Wars took place in June 1815 in the United Kingdom of the Netherlands, a site now in present-day Belgium. The Battle of Waterloo, where Napoleon met his final defeat, was delayed because the French emperor -- and battle commander -- couldn't mount his horse. According to historians, Napoleon was suffering from hemorrhoids and couldn't bear to sit in a saddle.

* Sandpaper can sharpen a dull pair of scissors. Fold a piece of sandpaper in half, rough side out, and make repeated cuts until the blades are sharp again.

* Fried lotus leaves are a popular snack in China.

* You're probably aware that hot air is lighter than cold air, but did you know that hot water is heavier than cold water?

* Those who study such things say that Spain has more wildlife than any other European nation.

 Thought for the Day: "The true measure of a man is how he treats someone who can do him absolutely no good." -- Samuel Johnson

 by Tony Rizzo

HOLLYWOOD — Steven Spielberg has found his Tony for "West Side Story." Ansel Elgort hit with "The Fault in Our Stars" (2014), the "Divergent" trilogy (2014-16) and "Baby Driver" (2017), but can he sing? In the original, Richard Beymer (Tony) and Natalie Wood (Maria) were both dubbed by other singers. However, Elgort performed in "Hairspray" and "Guys & Dolls" at LaGuardia High School of the Performing Arts in New York and has had two singles released, "Thief" (2017) and "Supernova" (2018), which were well-received. Before he shoots "West Side Story" next summer, we'll probably see him as President John F. Kennedy in the thriller "Mayday 109"; with Jake Gyllenhaal and Zendaya in "Finest Kind"; and in an original musical from "Wicked" creator Stephen Schwartz in which Elgort plays Hans Christian Andersen.

Hugh Jackman is following his hit musical "The Greatest Showman" with the non-musical comedy-drama "Bad Education," co-starring "I, Tonya" Oscar-winner Allison Janney and "Everybody Loves Raymond's" Ray Romano.

Are you ready for a musical adaptation of "Tootsie"? It received great reviews at the Cadillac Palace Theater in Chicago and is headed for Broadway.

Before we see Gal Gadot in "Wonder Woman 1984" (due November 2019), she'll star with Kenneth Branagh in his "Murder on the Orient Express" sequel "Death on the Nile," with Armie Hammer.

Two-time Oscar-winner Hilary Swank has been in Australia making "I Am Mother," with Clara Rugaard. The film is about a teenage girl raised by a robot mother designed to repopulate Earth following an extinction event. Her recent film "55 Steps," with Helena Bonham Carter and Jeffrey Tambor, premiered last month at The Toronto International Film Festival.

Matt Damon has been filming in California; New Orleans; Atlanta;

Wilson Webb/Tristar Pictures

Ansel Elgort in "Baby Driver"

Savannah, Georgia; and in Le Mans, France, for his latest film, "Ford v. Ferrari," based on the book "Go Like Hell: Ford, Ferrari, and Their Battle for Speed and Glory at Le Mans," by A.J. Baime. The $100 million budget should ensure lots of racing action as he and Christian Bale compete for glory at Le Mans. The racing thrills hit screens June 28.

Shirley MaLaine, one of the last movie stars from the golden age of Hollywood, is still going strong at 84. She's a four-time Oscar nominee, for "Irma La Deuce" (1964), as a director of "The Other Half of the Sky: A China Memoir" (1975), "The Turning Point" (1978) and "Terms of Endearment," for which she won a best-supporting Oscar in 1984. Shirley recently did Netflix's "The Little Mermaid," with William Moseley ("The Chronicles of Narnia"), and has just completed the Disney Fantasy Christmas comedy "Noelle," for Disney's streaming service. Shirley has written umpteen books about her reincarnations, and if she's lived before, she may have been through the studio system more than once!

"Maybe The Door Isn't Supposed To Open"

I truly enjoy the new church building we built just a few years ago. It has given us plenty of room to grow, areas to fellowship, and offices that do not double as hallways. Coming from our old building of 4000 square feet that used to be a fish camp, our 10,000 square foot facility feels like heaven. The Hope Center, our new gymnasium/family life center beside it, has made things even nicer for us still.

But all of that square footage has come with a whole bunch of one particular item: doors. Between Sunday school rooms and offices and nurseries and different wings, we have doors doors and more doors. And one of those particular doors, the door to the office wing, became a reminder recently of a great spiritual truth.

The particular door in question, for a good while, had not latched properly. But a thing so small truly does fall way down on my priority list of things to fix. So for many months my children learned that they could walk down the hallway and, without ever even turning the handle, push the door open and come back into the office area.

But then I found myself with a rare few minutes with nothing pressing to do, and my mind for some reason gravitated toward that door. I kept a tool set in my office, and so, with a small chiseling tool, a screwdriver, and five minutes time, I had the door working perfectly.

It was then that we had our unexpected fun for the day.

A few minutes after the door was fixed I heard a firm "thud." Then another one. Just as it dawned on me what the noise was, the handle turned, and my daughter came into the office and in bewilderment blurted out "Dad! There's something wrong with the door!"

Let the irony of that sink in.

For all the months that the handle would not latch and the door could be pushed open by anyone at any time, no one complained that there was something wrong with the door. But within five minutes of it not automatically opening at the slightest push, someone proclaimed that it was defective.

The door was, and is, working just as it is supposed to. Doors are designed to be able to be opened at times, and not to be able to be opened at others. They are designed to be either locked or unlocked. They are designed to allow access at some times, and restrict access at others.

And this is where God immediately focused my mind on a spiritual truth concerning the will of God. Our human nature always wants what we want when we want it. But the Creator, the God of heaven and earth, often "closes doors to us." Sometimes He does so by saying "Thou shalt not." Other times He does so by arranging circumstances in such a way that we cannot do what we try to do. Sometimes, as in Acts 16:7, the Holy Spirit speaks to our hearts so firmly that we know God is telling us no.

Joseph, unjustly imprisoned over a false accusation of rape, doubtless prayed for God to open the door and set him free, but for a very long time that prayer went unanswered. Mary, watching her son crucified, doubtless prayed for God the Father to intervene, but He did not do so. David wanted to build God a temple, but God reserved that honor for his son Solomon instead.

People often claim that they prayed, but God did not answer their prayer. What they really mean is "I prayed, and God did not say yes." You see, "yes" is an answer, but so is "no" and so is "not right now."

It may be that there is a desire of your heart that God has not yet said yes to. If that is the case, remember that the door is not broken; it is working just exactly as it is intended to.

4. "I Will" appeared on which Beatles album?

Answers

1. Smokie (originally spelled Smokey), in 1977. The song was first released by the Australian group New World in 1972, but made its way around the world, ending up on the Billboard 100 list.
2. The 1988 Summer Olympics held in Seoul, South Korea. Whitney Houston sang it at the opening ceremony.
3. Elton John, in 1995 on his "Made in England" album. The song was to be released as a single, but its six-minute length made it unsuitable for radio.
4. The Beatles, in 1968. The double LP is better known as "The White Album."
5. "Devil with a Blue Dress On," by Shorty Long (1964) and Mitch Ryder and The Detroit Wheels (1966). Songwriter Long's version didn't chart, but Mitch Ryder's version soared to No. 14.

* Keep your cute collared shirt separate from your pullover sweater by adding a third layer in between. A tighter-fitting tank keeps the shirt in place and not bunching up, allowing the sweater to move freely.

* "Use a black permanent marker (like a Sharpie) to fix a small bleach spot on a black cotton top. As long as you have the right color match, you could do the same with any color top. I sometimes get small bleach spots on a shirt from cleaning." -- J.J. in Florida

* Working hard at your job but not really getting anywhere? If your work ethic is impeccable but your client list or productivity leaves something to be desired, you might be in the wrong career. Take stock of your personal and professional strengths, then check in with a career coach. Experts say it's never too late to find the right fit.

* "Keep old toothbrushes for cleaning and crafting (and makeup applications). But to make sure you know the difference between used and not, wrap the end with a small piece of duct tape." -- E.L. in Arizona

* On a diet and quit soda? Here's a fabulous use for it: Pour a can in the toilet and close the lid. Come back for a quick scrub 30 minutes later, and you may find that the cola has eaten away at the hard-water mineral buildup. It'll change the way you look at soda!

* This bears repeating now that the holiday season is approaching and we'll all be out on the roads: Make sure your tires are properly inflated and your car's air filter is clean. Both can drastically reduce your fuel efficiency.
