At The Corral Gate

I love being outside at this time of year. You can use all five senses to enjoy Hopkins County in the Autumn! You can smell stew cooking over wood fires, see colorful leaves falling and hear the laughter of children playing outside. Tasting Texas chili is another delight, not to mention the delicious tastes of Thanksgiving that we anticipate. And, the touch of loved ones handshakes and hugs as they greet our arrival or bid us goodbye is something we should never take for granted. Especially dear, those older ones in the family are a treasure, so spend some quality time listening to them, and get those stories they tell documented in some way for future generations in your family.

Speaking of family traditions, my friend Mike Rushin puts on a "chili" at his place every Fall. Usually, he sets up both pots in the cooking area in the yard, splits and stacks the wood, sets up tables and chairs, and invites all his friends and neighbors. Mike always did it all for the first few decades, cooking the pot of chili plus a pot of stew by himself, but in recent years he's opened it up to some of the younger men who want to learn the craft. From the taste of the chili, Team Donald and John have got the recipe just about right !!

Back during the summer, a casting call went out for local actors interested in roles for a video to be filmed in Sulphur Springs. The video would promote a new book by a local author. Well, the video has now been released, and it sends a powerful message about resisting and reporting domestic abuse, bullying and sexual assault. Author C.J. Davidson is a young woman who has courageously stepped out front to speak for victims of these acts, and to send a message that there is hope and ways to free oneself. Some of the characters in her book "A Daughter's Curse" reflect her experiences and her courage. An original song "I am Not Nothing" was written for her book and is embedded in the video. The video, released on October 29, 2018, can be seen on YouTube, and is going global. Thank you, C.J., for your foresight, courage and wisdom beyond your years. You may see some familiar faces when you view the video on facebook at c.j.davidson

AUTHOR C.J. DAVIDSON

Some youthful talent out of Austin, Texas will be featured at the next Reilly Springs Jamboree, set for Saturday November 17, 2018. The show will start at 6pm. On the lineup are The Jean Wranglers, a 5-piece blues and folk band.... a Hopkins County historical characterization by Paula Altenbaumer of early pioneer, bear hunter, Indian fighter, Texas Ranger and elected official Henry Stout....an acoustic gospel set by Roger Reed and Enola Gay....a Country Store with Christmas shopping and Thanksgiving goodies...plus a pot of Hopkins County Stew cooked outside and served in the Reilly Springs Kitchen. Come for "Thanksgiving in the Country" and some genuine hospitality at the original music venue since 1956, the historic Reilly Springs Jamboree, 109 CR 1439.

Til next week, let's count our blessings and enjoy the Fall weather. I will watch for you at the corral gate.

Lola McFadden, 83, of Sulphur Springs, TX. was called home to be with her Heavenly Father on Monday, November 5, 2018. Lola was born on September 26, 1935 in Miller Grove, TX. While attending Church, she met and later married Don D. McFadden with whom she shared almost 50 years of marriage. They celebrated and nurtured three beloved daughters. Lola was a devout Christian and active member of Davis Street Baptist Church for 73 years. She embodied the spirit of Christ's teachings as she served her church and community, putting others' needs before her own. She and friends regularly visited with nursing home residents and were quick to help wherever needed.

She loved to travel with her friends and just last July fulfilled her dream of visiting the Holy Land.

Lola is survived by daughters, Vicki McFadden, Louann McFadden, Kelly Wood and son-in-law Mike Wood.

Also surviving are her beloved grandchildren, Haley Harmon, Jace and Lori Wood and Jillian Wood; great grandchildren, Jaxon Coulter and Lola Wood. Cecil Clem, Lola's brother also survives.

She was preceded in death by husband, Don, parents, Joel James and Cliffie Ann Clem, four brothers, Olen, Lovell, Leonard, Travis and one sister Dessie.

Visitation will be held at West Oaks Funeral Home on Friday, November 9 at 10:00 a.m., followed by services at 11:00 a.m.

Burial will follow at Restlawn Cemetery.

Memorials may be made to Davis Street Baptist Church at 427 Gilmer St, Sulphur Springs, TX 75482. Arrangements are under the direction of West Oaks Funeral Home.

THE COURTHOUSE RESTROOM AUTHORITY

Tumbleweed Smith

Tumbleweed Smith

Brad Bush of Waco travels all over the state selling agricultural supplies. He's in a lot of small towns. Sometimes restrooms are hard to find.

"Years ago traveling the little pig trails of Texas we didn't have as many Hampton Inns or Holiday Inns where they had inside bathrooms, but county courthouses did," says Brad. "The courthouse bathrooms are always neat and clean, well maintained, so they're nice places to stop. When I needed to use a restroom, that's where I went. My first one was in Post, Texas."

He thought he might be on to something and considered it a good travel tip to pass along to people who spend a lot of time on the road.

"I had told some of my business colleagues about my experiences and they ridiculed me and made fun of me. That hurt. So I got serious about it and spent a year going around the state and photographing and making a list of best and worst county courthouse restrooms. I made a power point presentation and gave it at a national meeting. It was met with great acclaim I might add. Some members of the audience told me in private that they did the same thing."

Burnet County has a nice one.

"Of course it's in the hill country where there's granite all over the place. They had granite stalls from floor to ceiling. Totally enclosed, totally private. It's a nice facility there in Burnet, Texas."

He says the number one best courthouse restroom is in Giddings, the county seat of Lee County.

"It's down in the basement and had both an entry and an exit door which you rarely see. Windows provide natural light. That made it very pleasant."

In his presentation he showed the Atascosa County courthouse in Pleasanton with a lot of cars around it.

"That's the first dead giveaway that you shouldn't stop because there's going to be too many people there. You don't want to stop on court day." He says the absolute worst is in Hallettsville, county seat of Lavaca County. "Those are wonderful people who live there but they didn't design the men's bathroom very well. It's right across the hall from the main courtroom. There was tremendous activity with people coming and going and they just had a swinging door for the stall. You couldn't lock it. It was not pleasant at all."

He says when you're in a courthouse it's best to look like you have some specific legal purpose in mind other than going to rate the restroom. Brad never uses truck stops or rest stops. He sticks with courthouses. For an upscale event he'll stop at a Buc-ee's.

A Salute To Our Veterans....

On the 11th hour of the 11th day of the 11th month of 1918, an armistice, or temporary cessation of hostilities, was declared between the Allied nations and Germany in the First World War, then known as "the Great War." Commemorated as Armistice Day beginning the following year, November 11th became a legal federal holiday in the United States in 1938. In the aftermath of World War II and the Korean War, Armistice Day became Veterans Day, a holiday dedicated to American veterans of all wars.
