House of Optical thriving in new Clawson location

The new location is at 250 E. 14 Mile Road, just a block east of Main Street.

PHOTOS BY JOEY YASHINSKY — FOR DIGITAL FIRST MEDIA

By Joey Yashinsky

House of Optical, a family owned Metro Detroit institution, moved one month ago to a 4,000-square-foot building only five blocks from the previous home. The new location can be found at 250 E. 14 Mile Road, just a block east of Main Street.

"All of our equipment is state of the art," said Martin Casey, House of Optical's owner for almost 18 years. "It's a new location for us, but with the same great doctors and friendly staff."

There are three full-time optometrists, including Dr. Robert Feldman, a House of Optical veteran of more than 30 years. He is joined by Dr. Drew Langton and Dr. Mark Simard.

Langton has already noticed an uptick in energy following the move.

"Patients really seem to be enjoying our new place," said Langton. "It's definitely an upgrade and the staff is excited to be here, too."

House of Optical offers a wide range of services, including full comprehensive eye exams, contact lens exams, and medical eye care. The expert staff will help select glasses that not only look and feel great, but also ones that fit within the specific visual needs of each particular patient.

As for the glasses themselves, the selection is plentiful. House of Optical offers racks of gorgeous frames from all the hottest designers, including Prada, Dolce & Gabbana, Burberry, Nike, Oakley, Lacoste, and Versace. There is a large stock of contact lenses available, meaning that patients eager to see with perfect clarity aren't forced to retreat home and wait several weeks for a package to arrive.

At House of Optical, a patient's needs are catered to with speed and accuracy. With an onsite lab, requests for new glasses with a new prescription will often get turned around in less than an hour, a claim very few businesses can boast.

"If you can think it, we can do it," said Langton. Doors are open six days a week, with Sunday being the only time this hard-working staff puts its feet up and takes a well-deserved breather.

There has never been a better time to update your prescription, pick out a fashionable pair of shades, and prepare to enjoy all the world has to offer in exemplary 20-20 vision.

House of Optical is the ideal place to make that dream a reality.

There is still time to use your vision benefits & flex spending
