How you would smile and make up games
I remember through my tears
Some day we will be together
In heaven up above.
But for now my little girl
I send you all my love.

Mrs. Kite passed away November 9, 2018. Emogene was born to the late Harce Willson and Edetha Campbell Bennett on December 22, 1932 in Flintville, TN at the old home place. She was a feisty and precocious child who thought she could do anything her uncles could do - from setting a field on fire to rolling a smoke at the tender age of five. Emogene left Flintville as a young woman to make her mark on the world - going first to Texas and then to Florida. She worked in an exclusive dress boutique and always dressed in the most stylish clothes. Mrs. Kite met the love of her life in Panama City, FL. They married in the wee hours of the morning on November 23, 1955. He was a sailor in the U.S. Navy and they embarked on a series of adventures. They lived in Key West, FL where their first child was born, and were living in Guantanamo Bay, Cuba when their second child was born. Emogene evacuated Cuba during the Bay of Pigs Crisis and was given a 30 minute notice with a three-year-old and being seven months pregnant, and not knowing if she would ever see her husband again. Mrs. Kite was able to return to Guantanamo Bay in December of 1962 where her son was the first child born after the Cuban Missile Crisis. After many years as a military wife, she and her family moved back to Flintville, TN. She loved to garden, enjoyed reading, loved flowers, and was a great cook and seamstress. She was strong, independent, and quite stubborn. Emogene loved and was loved by many, including her late husband, Roy D. Kite; her daughter and son-in-law, Judy and Mike McLeod; and her son, Joseph Kite. Mrs. Kite was most proud to become a Nana to her grandsons, Jonathan Thomas McLeod and Jake Roy Kite, and also loved being called Nana by Ashley and Stephen Yatsko, son and daughter of Eric and Lisa McLeod Yatsko. In addition to her children and grandchildren, survivors include her sister and brother-in-law, Patricia & Danny Bryant; nephews, Ricky Bryant and late wife, Cindy, and Jeffrey and Linda Bryant; niece, Tammy Bryant; great nieces, Amber and Stephen Lindsey, Gabrielle and Edward Mullins; and great nephews, Danny Thomas Bryant, Richard Bryant, and Will Bryant. Riverview Funeral Home with Rev. Mike Ross officiating. Burial in Prosperity Cemetery. Mrs. Watson passed away November 8, 2018. She was born in an old log house in a holler in Lincoln County, TN on March 21, 1936 to wonderful parents, Charlie Hawk and Lena Mae Lemons Swinford. She was one of 18 children that sharecropped on the farms around Yukon, Taft, and Camargo. "Never throw anything away because you are going to need it including old stockings," she'd say. Indeed she would tie up a gutter or her tomato plants. And her closets will attest that she never threw away anything. The woman who took no fashion cues from any person was testy, snappy, feisty, intelligent, and one of the strongest women around, which is what kept her going with kidney disease for many years. She loved to be in her yard with her elevated gardens which she tended from her wheelchair the last 9 years. In the summertime, all her visitors left with fresh tomatoes or yellow peppers. In addition to gardening, she loved bird watching and feeding and caring for wild animals. No one in the world would feed a family of skunks, but she did. "They prefer cat food over dog food," she was heard telling a grandchild. "Just stay in the house and don't disturb them and they will go on about their business when they are full." She was also an amateur paleontologist. She was preceded in death by six sisters; seven brothers; and child, Jackie Taylor. She was also preceded in death by Melody Watson, Melissa Watson, and Henry Watson. Survivors include "her house full of children", Shirley Frazier (the oldest) of Fayetteville, TN, Jeannie Gallant of Murfreesboro, TN, Charlie Payne of Oakland Park, FL, Kenneth Winsett, Jr. of Fayetteville, TN, Trina Nelson of Virginia Beach, VA, and Penny Watson of Fayetteville, TN; 17 grandchildren; 10 great grandchildren; 5 great-great grandchildren; and sisters, Esteria Currin of Fayetteville, TN and Hazel Towry of Taylor, MI. Visitation, 5-8 p.m., Saturday, November 10, 2018 at GALLANT-RIVERVIEW FUNERAL HOME, Fayetteville, TN. (931)433-4511.

Navajo Code Talker

December 6 • 6:00 P.M.

Ninth Grade Academy
900 South Main Ave.
Fayetteville

91 year-old Peter MacDonald, Sr. Navajo Marine Veteran, only one of nine Navajo Code Talkers who remain

Come hear a live presentation from Navajo Code Talker, Peter MacDonald, Sr, President of the Navajo Code Talker Association.

The Navajo Code is a unique World War II legacy, and only nine Navajo Code Talkers remain. The code was used in all WWII Pacific battles to transmit secret messages and is the only military code in modern history never broken by an enemy, and is credited to help shorten the war, and without the code, the US Marines may have never taken Iwo Jima. Mr. MacDonald will discuss factual and personal experiences regarding the inception and use of the code during WWII, as well as the current state of the Navajo Code Talkers.

There will be a Q&A session and an opportunity for photos with Mr. MacDonald after his presentation
