The Greatest Thanksgiving

"Are you going grocery shopping today?" my husband, Roy asked when I picked up the telephone.

"I plan to," I answered.

Thanksgiving was only a couple days away. Everyone in our family would be coming to our house. My funds were limited, therefore my box of coupons awaited me in the car. I knew I had to be creative in my shopping that day. I had to stretch every dollar.

For a few seconds, Roy sat silently on the other end of the line. "Why do you ask?" I uttered, fearing what he might say.

"Nancy, there's a family with a half dozen kids that will not have anything to eat for Thanksgiving. The little one is only five-years-old."

"So what are you saying?" I whispered.

"While you're at the store could you possibly buy something for them?" Roy's words echoed in my heart. Groceries, a five-year-old, eight in the family. My head began to spin thinking about the fifty dollars I had reserved for our family's Thanksgiving dinner.

In the back of my mind I counted the hungry guests who would be coming to our house for dinner. I put my head down on my desk, already feeling defeated.

There's no way possible, I thought. But the compassion I heard in my husband's voice struck a nerve inside me.

"Sure," I replied. "But only if God helps."

"Thanks, sweetheart," Roy whispered. "Just do what you can." He then hung up the telephone. I finished my work and prayed all the way to the nearest grocery store.

I entered the parking lot. I noticed a big sign in the grocery store window: Turkeys - 29 cents a pound.

"This is the place, Lord" I whispered. I grabbed my box of coupons, went inside, secured two buggies, and headed to the frozen foods. The turkeys were indeed on sale, but I discovered one big problem. When I read the sign posted on the freezer door my heart sank. "Limit one."

"But I need two," I uttered to myself. I decided to find the manager. I explained the problem. He made an exception.

After tossing a turkey in each buggy, I began my shopping fury. It was amazing how many buy-one, get-one free items were being featured that day. The first item went into one buggy. The free item went in the other. In addition, I had all the right coupons to get exactly what both families needed for a hearty Thanksgiving dinner. I proceeded to the register and held my breath while the cashier rang up my groceries.

To my surprise, I had enough money. I was even able to purchase a package of cookies for the five-year-old who had stolen my heart, even though I had never met her.

Later that afternoon, Roy and I made a special delivery to a home filled with children of all ages. I will never forget the smiles on the six kids' faces, as they made several trips from my car carrying numerous bags of groceries inside.

This event reminded me of a story. Even though He only had a few loaves and fishes, Jesus multiplied them and fed five thousand people. And to top it off, there was food left over. I wondered if God was doing the same thing that day.

By far, that was the greatest Thanksgiving Day of my life. My entire family shared a hearty meal with us. We had plenty to eat. We even had enough food left over for the evening meal.

That afternoon, when I had time to think about what had happened, I imagined a home, not far from where I lived. There was a mother and a father and six children sitting around the kitchen table, laughing and rejoicing. They enjoyed the same meal that our family had shared together that day.

Then I realized that miracles happen when we step out in faith and in steps God. For with us, some things are impossible. But with God, all things are possible.

- With the holidays approaching, now is a good time to run the self-cleaning cycle on your oven. Wipe out any bits first and remove as much grease as you can. Then make sure to open a window to air out fumes.
- To get cloudy glassware sparkling for the holidays, soak in hot vinegar for 15 minutes to clear them up. Wash good crystal by hand only, never in the dishwasher.
- Since you know it's coming anyway, take the opportunity to clean out the fridge a day or two before a big family dinner. It's a good idea to eat up any leftovers for dinner the day before. You'll have plenty to replace them on Thanksgiving, right?
- "If you have one person responsible for putting prep dishes and pots and pans in the dishwasher while you are preparing the bird and side dishes for the table, you will be halfway done with dishes by the time the meal is over." —M.A. in Washington
- "I buy extra supplies for Thanksgiving dinner as items go on sale. We always make extra-large portions of our side dishes and even put in an extra turkey while we're eating! Freeze meals in individual containers for quick dinners throughout the busy weeks from Turkey Day to Christmas.

- Potatoes and vegetable casseroles freeze well, and they taste better than microwave dinners from the grocery store." —E.S. in Oregon
- In the fridge, it takes 24 hours of defrosting for every 5 pounds of turkey. When defrosting in water (only birds in a leakproof plastic wrapper), allow 30 minutes per pound and change the water every half-hour.
 - Get kids in on the act of cooking. There's no better time than the holidays to get budding chefs into your family's holiday traditions. Let them help prep, and as they get older, assign cherished side dishes to appropriate-age children.
 - Candles will burn more evenly if you refrigerate them for a few hours before lighting.
 - For a tailgating favorite, make this: Prepare a batch of macaroni and cheese, then add an egg and stir in. Butter the wells of a muffin tin and fill with the mac and cheese. Top with a bit of shredded cheddar and bake for 20 minutes at 400 F. You can even make them super portable by using muffin liners. The gang loves these — no fork necessary!
 - "In my family, you come to a holiday dinner with your own plastic containers for leftovers. If you don't bring your own, you don't go home with tomorrow's lunch. Mom instituted this rule after the first Thanksgiving when all the kids had moved out. We practically cleaned her out of Tupperware!" —E.Y. in New Mexico

PILGRIM SEXY TALK

Where Did I Come From?

One day our Little niece Rita went up to her mother and asked, "Mom, where did I come from?"

My sister in law stammered a bit, but finally got her composure.

She thought it was time her daughter knew the facts of life. So, she told Little Rita how the expression of love resulted in the beginning of life, how life developed in the womb and finally how a child was born. As my sister in law gave the whole story, Rita's eyes got wider and wider.

When She was finished, Little Rita said "Wow, that's really neat. That sure beats what Uncle Rusty told me. He said that he came from Pennsylvania."

Parks and Recreation receives four awards at state conference

L to R – Kyle Autrey, Outdoor Program Coordinator; Russell Carter, Communications Specialist; Jonathon Wilson, Recreation Grant Specialist; Bill Sgrinia, Department Director; Jason Bookheimer, Community Recreation Division Director; Danielle Montague, Health and Wellness Program Coordinator; Emily Ragsdale, Facilities and Services Planner; Gina Craig, Administration Division Director.

DANVILLE – Danville Parks and Recreation recently received four awards during Virginia Parks and Recreation Society’s Annual Conference.

“As always, we are humbled to represent the community so well on such a large stage,” said Department Director Bill Sgrinia. “Our staff work tirelessly to address needs and provide quality services for our community and they are well deserving of these recognitions.”

The statewide awards program honors individuals, departments, and organizations throughout Virginia who have demonstrated excellence during the previous year. This year, departments across the Commonwealth submitted 114 applications in 14 different categories for work completed in 2017.

Best New Special Event, Market Monster Mash

Danville’s Halloween event, Market Monster Mash, drew over 6,000 people to the Community Market in its first year, far exceeding the expected 2,000. Grant funding, community partners, donations, and public support helped create a safe, fun environment for holiday activities including pumpkin carving, bounce houses, make-your-own slime, scarecrow stuffing, a pet-and-kid costume parade and trunk-or-treating.

Best New Program, Rec Mobile

Facing participation barriers such as transportation and income, Department staff created a way to take recreational programming to the communities in the form of Rec Mobile. For five days a week throughout the spring and summer of 2017, a van loaded with play, sports, and fitness equipment visited two sites daily. Over 1,350 students participated in non-elimination active games, health education activities, and self-paced crafts.

Best New Environmental Sustainability, Dan River Twins

The Dan River Twins was a collaborative effort by Danville Parks and Recreation, Danville Public Library, Danville Public Schools, Danville Regional Foundation, History United, and Dan River Basin Association. The program sought to change negative perceptions of the Dan River by telling its story through a fictional tale about two otter siblings competing in the otter frolics. The book highlights North American wildlife and teaches children the importance of environmental stewardship.

Best Health and Wellness Initiative, Thrive! Challenge

The Thrive! Challenge is a cooperative effort with the Health Collaborative designed to allow participating organizations to tailor programs. The challenge encouraged community members and organizations to create health and wellness opportunities in their daily lifestyles; while some worksites partnered with local gyms, others offered fitness classes and walking challenges to its employees.

“It is noteworthy to point out that these awards include four different service areas and a lot of effort from many members of the community,” Sgrinia said. “We believe our Department and our community is made up of a diverse group of individuals all working to make Danville a great place to live.

“None of these awards would be possible without the hard work and dedication of the community and our staff. While the plaques list Parks and Recreation as award recipients, these designations belong to the individuals of our city.”

OBITUARIES

"For whether we live, we live unto the Lord; and whether we die, we die unto the Lord: whether we live therefore, or die, we are the Lord's." - Romans 14:8

Patsy Elouise (Wall) Pyron

On November 18, 2018, Patsy Elouise Wall Pyron left her physical body and is now in the presence of her Lord and Savior Jesus Christ. Patsy was born on July 7, 1931 to Vessie T. Wall and Nettie Wall.

Patsy leaves behind the love of her life, her "honey" Sonny

Pyron, who she married on December 16, 1950; her beloved daughter's, Elouise Allen and Judy Searce (James); grandchildren, Jay Allen, Penny Manning (Mike), and Amy Jennings (Joshua); four great-grandchildren; four sisters; and two brothers. She was predeceased by four sisters and one brother.

Patsy was a member of Schoolfield Pentecostal Holiness Church and attended Riverview Baptist Church. Throughout her years of life, she taught Sunday school and loved working with the youth and missions. She retired from Dan River Mills and Star Paper Tube Co. Patsy loved to work in the garden, fish, cook, and love on her family.

Patsy known by Sonny as her "honey," by her family as mamma, MaMaw, and Grandma. She will be missed, so much by her family, but her family holds close that we will see her again in heaven. This is not goodbye, but a "see you later."

Graveside services will be held at 11:00 a.m. on Tuesday, November 20, 2018 at Danville Memorial Gardens with Pastor Daniel Custer officiating. Visitation will be held on Monday, November 19, 2018 from 6:00 until 7:00 p.m. at Swicegood Funeral Home.

Swicegood Funeral Home is respectfully serving the Pyron family.

Allison Edwards Durham

October 11, 1966 - November 12, 2018

Allison Edwards Durham, 52, of 3990 Strawberry Road, Chatham, VA went home to be with Lord suddenly on November 12, 2018.

Allison was born on October 11, 1966 in the former Halifax Community Hospital in South Boston, VA, a daughter to Nancy Tucker Edwards and the late Ray Bennett Edwards. She lived most of her life in Pittsylvania County. Allison was a graduate of the Hargrave Military Academy, Class of 1984. She was one of the first group of employees hired by the Nestle Corporation of Danville where she worked for over 27 years. Allison was presently working for Columbia Forest in Chatham, VA, serving as acting supervisor. She was a member of Mt. Olivet United Methodist Church where she attended the Circle of Friends group when possible. She was attending classes offered by Columbia Forest to become an Emergency Medical Technician.

On May 17, 1997, Allison married Gary Thomas Durham, who survives of the residence. She is also survived by her mother, Nancy Tucker Edwards of Danville, three sons, William Ray Durham, Noah Edwards Durham, Garrett Wesley Durham (Sarah Searce), one daughter, Anya Sheree Walker (Jacob), one sister, Holly E. Bailless (Christopher) of Gretna, VA, two grandchildren, Alyssa Walker, Thor Walker and one special nephew who she thought of as her own, Tucker Bailless. Allison was predeceased by her father.

Funeral Services for Allison will be conducted on Friday, November 16, 2018 at 2:00 p.m. from St. Andrews United Methodist Church at Gretna, VA, by Pastor Jimmy Calhoun. Interment will follow in the church cemetery.

The family will receive friends Thursday night from 6:00 to 7:30 p.m. at the Wrenn-Yeatts Westover Chapel and at other times be at the residence, 3990 Strawberry Road, Chatham, VA 24541. Wrenn-Yeatts Westover Chapel is respectfully serving the Durham family.

"A Sharp Lesson In Thanksgiving"

"I have had dogs all my life, and not once have I ever had to get one out of a tree." Those were the words I was muttering to myself just a few days ago as I stood at the trunk and looked up in the high branches of one of the giant oaks in our front yard. Duchess, our newly acquired kitten of about 8 weeks old, had at some point decided that it would be a brilliant idea to climb that tree, and now she could not get back down.

Our two faithful mutts, grumpy old Riley and blissfully goofy Echo, were mulling about the yard and occasionally looking that way as if to say, "and this is what you thought you needed to bring home for your oldest daughter, the traitorous cat lover?"

"What are we going to do, dad?" Karis asked me with the gravest of concern. "Well, babe, it's like this. When that cat gets hungry, it will come down," I said with confidence. She just gave me "that look" that daughters everywhere are so famous for, and I knew that this would not be the end of the story...

We came home from church that night, and it took my girls approximately .0003 of a second to be under the tree and looking up into the branches. Sure enough, there was a white kitten with gray ears and gray tail still in the branches mewing plaintively down at them as if to say, "Why am I still up here? Please send someone to fetch me, preferably someone with a platter of milk, a toy, and a crown with which to coronate me queen of this place."

I shook my head in frustration and made my way to the basement to retrieve the only ladder I happened to have on the premises at that moment, an 8 foot step ladder. I put that ladder by the base of the tree and my daughter held the base of it, although I suspect her main thought at the moment was being there to catch the cat, should it fall, rather than trying to steady the ladder for what she believes is her invincible father.

I climbed onto the very top, the part that says "Do NOT stand here, NOT a step!" and reached up for the cat. She was within inches of my hand. All she had to do was crawl down just a little...

No dice. After five minutes of standing on a perch saying "Here, kitty kitty," the tone of my voice had gone from Dr. Doolittle to Dr. Jekyll to Mr. Hyde, and I knew I needed another train of thought.

I climbed down the ladder, went and got my son's truck that used to be my truck (funny how that happens), parked it under the tree, and tried again. This got me high enough in the tree for me to reach the cat, which I did. It was then that all of the Garfield cartoons of my youth came rushing back to me, especially the ones where the fireman would retrieve Garfield from the tree, and receive the wounds of a maniacal, sharp clawed whirlwind for his efforts.

That cat put scars across my chest that make me look like I was in the war. If I was the stolen valor type I could show these gashes and plausibly lie about being tortured by the Taliban.

When I got the cat onto firm ground, she raced for the food bowl, and proceeded to ignore every two legged creature who had rescued her or assisted in the rescue. I thought hard about retrieving her from that bowl, carrying her back up the ladder, and putting her back up in the tree, but neither my soft heart nor my cat-person daughter would allow me to long entertain that notion.

If one of my dogs had, somehow, gotten stuck in the tree, it would have licked me in the face to say "thank you" when I rescued it.

This is Thanksgiving week. Truthfully, it is a week that ought to reflect a year long lifestyle for us. Not turkey and dressing and too many desserts, something much more important; an attitude of gratitude. 1 Thessalonians 5:18 says, "In every thing give thanks: for this is the will of God in Christ Jesus concerning you."

In everything give thanks. We may not be able to give thanks FOR everything, but we can certainly give thanks IN everything. No matter the situation, God is always good to us and, truthfully, most people we meet are pretty good to us as well. The reason the jerks stick out like sore thumbs and go viral in videos is because they are the exceptions, not the rule.

People quite often even do extraordinary things for us (see: cat, tree) that we do not even acknowledge, or worse, return evil for good (see: scars across chest). What a shame for people to justly earn the reputation of cats in that manner.

Please, do not lick anyone in the face this week, or any week. But don't scratch or ignore them for their kindnesses either. Be consistently thankful to God and man; nothing makes for a more pleasant day both for the giver and the recipients of that thankfulness.

Strange BUT TRUE

* It was way back in the 19th century that American author and philosopher Henry David Thoreau made the following sage observation: "Men have become the tools of their tools."

* If you were asked to name the U.S. state that is geographically closest to the continent of Africa, you might be tempted to say Florida. You'd be wrong, though; the closest state is actually Maine.

* In 1938, Time magazine featured Adolph Hitler on the cover as its Man of the Year.

* If you're like most parents, at some point you've been shocked by how quickly your kids outgrow things -- especially shoes. What may be an annoyance in a developed country is a major problem in undeveloped areas of the world; Kenton Lee is working on changing that. As a volunteer in an orphanage in Kenya, he noticed that many children had the toes cut out of their shoes just so they could fit in their growing feet. After returning home, Lee developed an adjustable sandal that can grow with a child, increasing up to five sizes using a system of snaps. Although the shoe is only available to nonprofits that send them to organizations in need, domestic demand is increasing. If you're a parent sick of buying seemingly endless pairs of new shoes, you'll be glad to hear that Lee and his team are working on a commercial version.

* It was beloved British author (and, of course, creator of Sherlock Holmes), Sir Arthur Conan Doyle who introduced the sport of skiing to Switzerland, thereby transforming that snowy country into a premier tourist destination.

Thought for the Day: "The reason that adulation is not displeasing is that, though untrue, it shows one to be of consequence enough, in one way or other, to induce people to lie." -- Lord Byron

Talking Turkey

- Turkeys first existed in the eastern U.S. and Mexico, where Aztec Indians were raising them for food as early as 200 B.C.
- The Native American name for turkey is "firkee"
- Wild turkeys can fly for short distances up to 55 mph and can run 20 mph. The modern large-breasted turkey bred for the Thanksgiving table is too heavy to fly under most circumstances.
- The average weight of a turkey purchased at Thanksgiving is 15 pounds and is about 70 percent white meat and 30 percent dark meat. The heaviest turkey ever raised weighed 86 pounds, about the size of a large dog.
- The "turkey trot," a ballroom dance popular in the early 1900s, was named for the short, jerky steps that turkeys take.
- In England, 200 years ago, turkeys were walked to market in herds. They wore booties to protect their feet.
- Age is a determining factor in taste. Old, large Toms (males) are preferable to young Toms, as their meat is stringy. The opposite is true for females: Old hens are the tougher birds.
- A turkey under 16 weeks of age is called a fryer, while a young roaster is five to seven months old.
- Only Tom turkeys gobble, mostly as a mating call.
- Turkeys can see in color, but do not see well at night.
- Wild turkeys often spend the night in trees. They especially like oak trees.
- Turkeys are actually a type of pheasant and are the only breed of poultry native to the Western Hemisphere.
- Henry VIII was the first English king to enjoy turkey, and Edward VII made turkey eating fashionable at Christmas.
- Israelis eat the most turkey: 28 pounds per person. The average American eats almost 17 pounds of turkey annually.

FLASHBACK

POP ROCK & SOUL TRIVIA BY MICHAEL HARPER

1. Who had a hit with "A Thing Called Love"?
2. What singer-songwriter had a big hit in 1977 with "I Go Crazy," which spent a record 40 weeks on the Billboard Hot 100 chart?
3. Name the duo who released "The Closer I Get to You."
4. Who released "Arizona" in 1969, and what does the song's title refer to?
5. Name the song that contains this lyric: "It's been a mystery, And still they try to see, Why somethin' good can hurt so bad."

- Answers
1. Jerry Reed, in 1968. The song was covered by number of artists over the years, including by Elvis Presley. But it was Johnny Cash who took it to No. 1 in 1972.
 2. Paul Davis. Lou Rawls, Will Downing and Barry Manilow later covered the song.
 3. Roberta Flack and Donny Hathaway, in 1978. The was never intended to be a duet, but it was rewritten to include Hathaway, who had suffered from depression.
 4. Mark Lindsay, formerly of Paul Revere and the Raiders. Arizona was the nickname of the singer's hippie girlfriend.
 5. "Who's Crying Now," by Journey in 1981. The song went to No. 4 on the Billboard Hot 100 chart.

 - 1 bunch fresh thyme
 - 1 teaspoon salt
 - 1 teaspoon coarsely ground black pepper
- ### Pan Gravy
1. Heat oven to 325 F. Remove neck from inside turkey; reserve for making pan gravy. Discard giblets and liver or save for another use. Rinse turkey with cold running water; pat dry with paper towels.
 2. Place onion, celery, parsley and 1/2 bunch each of sage and thyme (wrap and refrigerate remaining herbs to garnish platter) inside body and neck cavities of turkey. Fasten neck skin to back with 1 or 2 skewers. With turkey breast-side up, fold wings under back of turkey so they stay in place. If drumsticks are not held by band of skin or a stuffing clamp, tie legs together with string.
 3. Place turkey, breast-side up, on small rack in large (17 by 11 1/2-inch) roasting pan. Rub turkey all over with

- salt and pepper. Insert meat thermometer into thickest part of thigh next to body, being careful that pointed end of thermometer does not touch bone. Cover turkey with a loose tent of foil, letting top of thermometer poke through foil. Roast turkey about 3 3/4 hours; start checking for doneness during last hour of roasting.
4. While turkey is roasting, prepare broth to use in Pan Gravy.
 5. To brown turkey, remove foil during last 1 1/4 hours of roasting time; baste with pan drippings occasionally if you like. Turkey is done when thigh temperature on meat thermometer reaches 175 F to 180 F and breast temperature reaches 165 F. (Internal temperature of turkey will rise 5 degrees to 10 degrees F upon standing.)
 6. When turkey is done, place on large platter; cover with foil to keep warm. Complete gravy.
 7. To serve, garnish platter with remaining herbs. Pass gravy to spoon over turkey. Remove skin from turkey before eating, if you like.
- ### PAN GRAVY
- 1 medium onion, cut in half
 - 1 stalk celery, cut into large chunks
 - 1 bay leaf
 - 4 sprigs parsley
 - Turkey neck
 - 4 cups water

- 1/4 cup all-purpose flour
 - 1/2 teaspoon salt
1. To make the broth: In 3-quart saucepan, place onion, celery, bay leaf, parsley sprigs, turkey neck and water; heat to boiling over high heat. Reduce heat to low and simmer 45 minutes.
 2. Strain broth into large bowl; set aside. Pull meat from neck; discard bones and vegetables. Chop neck meat. If not using right away, cover and refrigerate broth and meat separately up to 2 days.
 3. To make gravy: Remove rack from roasting pan and strain drippings from roasting pan into 8-cup liquid measuring cup or medium bowl. Let stand 1 minute or until fat separates from drippings. Spoon 2 tablespoons fat from drippings into 3-quart saucepan; skim and discard any remaining fat from drippings.
 4. Add 1 cup broth to roasting pan. Place pan over medium-high heat and stir until browned bits are loosened and liquid boils; boil 1 minute. Strain liquid into drippings in measuring cup. Add enough water to meat-juice mixture in cup to equal 3 1/2 cups total.
 5. Stir 1/4 cup all-purpose flour and 1/2 teaspoon salt into fat in saucepan; cook over medium heat until flour turns golden brown, stirring. Gradually stir in drippings mixture and cook until gravy boils and thickens slightly, stirring occasionally. Stir in reserved meat; heat through. Pour gravy into gravy boat or serving bowl. Makes 12 servings.
- TIPS: If using a frozen turkey, make sure it is completely thawed, especially inside the cavity. The rule of thumb for thawing turkey in the refrigerator is 24 hours per 5 pounds.
- Cooking the stuffing separately yields a juicier bird, but if you want to stuff your turkey, to be safe, make sure that the stuffing temperature reaches 165 F on a meat thermometer. And you will need to roast the turkey about 30 minutes longer than the roasting time indicated.

- ### 3-INGREDIENT SAUSAGE-CREAM CHEESE CRESCENT BUNDLES
- #### Ingredients
- 1/2 lb bulk hot pork sausage
 - 1/2 cup spicy jalapeño cream cheese spread (from 8-oz container)
 - 1 can (8 oz) Pillsbury™ refrigerated crescent dough sheet or 1 can (8 oz) Pillsbury™ refrigerated crescent rolls
- #### Steps
- 1 Heat oven to 375°F. In 10-inch nonstick skillet, cook sausage over medium-high heat 4 to 5 minutes, stirring frequently, until no longer pink; drain.
 - 2 Unroll dough on work surface. Press into 12x9-inch rectangle. If using crescent roll dough, firmly press perforations to seal. With pizza cutter or sharp knife, cut into 6 rows by 4 rows to make 24 squares.
 - 3 Place about 1 rounded teaspoon sausage on center of each dough square. Top with about 1 teaspoon cream cheese. Bring 4 corners together to overlap slightly in center at top of each bundle. Twist and pinch to seal, leaving small gaps between seams. Place on ungreased cookie sheets.
 - 4 Bake 10 to 14 minutes or until golden brown. Serve warm.

ARIES (March 21 to April 19) Keep your feelings to yourself as you work through an awkward circumstance. Complaining is useless, and also unwise since your words could come back to haunt you.

TAURUS (April 20 to May 20) A sudden flash of Bovine practicality shows you how you might be able to turn your artistic pursuits into a profitable venture. A spouse or partner offers some sage advice.

GEMINI (May 21 to June 20) Be prepared with several "Plan Bs" that you might have to use as backups just in case you encounter some troublesome complications with your carefully constructed schedule.

CANCER (June 21 to July 22) You might think you'll never have a free moment again with the demands of the workplace piling on. Cheer up. The pressure eases as holiday time nears. An old friend brings good news.

LEO (July 23 to August 22) Your Leonine pride might make it difficult to offer an apology to a co-worker you unintentionally offended. But a quick and sincere "I'm sorry" could prevent problems down the line.

VIRGO (August 23 to September 22) This is a good time to tackle those backed-up chores that have kept you from moving into other and potentially more worthwhile projects. A personal matter needs your attention.

LIBRA (September 23 to October 22) You usually have no problem rushing to the defense of someone you perceive as being treated unjustly. But perceptions could be deceiving this week. Check the facts before you act.

SCORPIO (October 23 to November 21) Before you point fingers at who might be to blame for the unexpected change in your plans, take a few moments to reflect on how this turn of events might be a blessing in disguise.

SAGITTARIUS (November 22 to December 21) You seek out advice in the first part of the week. But be careful not to let counsel from others overshadow your own sense of perception. Things become clearer by the week's end.

CAPRICORN (December 22 to January 19) The trusted colleagues you relied on earlier continue to offer support with your project. But you take more control, and by the week's end, you should be in full command.

AQUARIUS (January 20 to February 18) Rely on your practical side while exploring investment possibilities. Caution is still your watchword in these matters. Your social life takes a gratifying turn by the week's end.

PISCES (February 19 to March 20) An already confusing situation appears to grow murkier during the first part of the week. But it all starts to clear by the week's end. Plan to spend the weekend with someone special.

BORN THIS WEEK: You have a passion for life that inspires others to follow your example. You could be a motivational speaker.

1. Who holds the major-league record for most consecutive games reaching base safely at least twice per game?
2. Which of the following major-league players known for their longevity pitched in the fewest major-league seasons: Tommy John, Jim Kaat, Jesse Orosco or Nolan Ryan?
