Forgiveness...sage wisdom!

One day, a sage gave his disciple an empty sack and a basket of potatoes. ‘Think of all the people who have done or said something against you in the recent past, especially those you cannot forgive. For each of them, inscribe the name on a potato and put it in the sack.’ The disciple came up quite a few names, and soon his sack was heavy with potatoes. ‘Carry the sack with you wherever you go for a week,’ said the sage. ‘We’ll talk after that.’

At first, the disciple thought nothing of it. Carrying the sack was not particularly difficult. But after a while, it became more of a burden. It sometimes got in the way, and it seemed to require more effort to carry as time went on, even though its weight remained the same.

After a few days, the sack began to smell. The carved potatoes gave off a ripe odor. Not only were they increasingly inconvenient to carry around, they were also becoming rather unpleasant.

Finally, the week was over.

The sage summoned the disciple. ‘Any thoughts about all this?’

‘Yes, Master,’ the disciple replied. ‘When we are unable to forgive others, we carry negative feelings with us everywhere, much like these potatoes. That negativity becomes a burden to us and, after a while, it festers.’

‘Yes, that is exactly what happens when one holds a grudge. So, how can we lighten the load?’

‘We must strive to forgive.’

‘Forgiving someone is the equivalent of removing the corresponding potato from the sack. How many of your transgressors are you able to forgive?’

‘I’ve thought about it quite a bit, Master,’ the disciple said. ‘It required much effort, but I have decided to forgive all of them.’

‘Very well, we can remove all the potatoes. Were there any more people who transgressed against you this last week?’

The disciple thought for a while and admitted there were. Then he felt panic when he realized his empty sack was about to get filled up again.

‘Master,’ he asked, ‘if we continue like this, wouldn’t there always be potatoes in the sack week after week?’

‘Yes, as long as people speak or act against you in some way, you will always have potatoes.’

‘But Master, we can never control what others do. So what good is the Tao in this case?’

‘We’re not at the realm of the Tao yet. Everything we have talked about so far is the conventional approach to forgiveness. It is the same thing that many philosophies and most religions preach – we must constantly strive to forgive, for it is an important virtue. This is not the Tao because there is no striving in the Tao.’

‘Then what is the Tao, Master?’

‘You can figure it out. If the potatoes are negative feelings, then what is the sack?’

‘The sack is... That which allows me to hold on to the negativity. It is something within us that makes us dwell on feeling offended.... Ah, it is my inflated sense of self-importance. ‘

‘And what will happen if you let go of it?’

‘Then... The things that people do or say against me no longer seem like such a major issue.’

‘In that case, you won’t have any names to inscribe on potatoes. That means no more weight to carry around, and no more bad smells.

The Tao of forgiveness is the conscious decision to not just to remove some potatoes... But to relinquish the entire sack.’

* Add a few drops of water to votive cups before adding a candle. The wax will float on the water, and when the candle burns down, it won't get stuck in the votive glass.

* Experts say: For every foot high your tree, you should plan for 9 feet of garland. So, a 7-foot tree would need about 63 feet of garland.

* Dropped a glass ornament? They leave tiny shards, don't they? To get the tiniest bits up, rely on a slice of white bread. Use it to sweep up after the large pieces have been cleared. The soft bread catches it all!

* Got build-up on your battery terminal? Add two tablespoons of baking soda to a large mug of hot water, then stir vigorously. Pour over the corrosion to foam it away, then rinse, rinse, rinse.

* Put on a bracelet with no help, with the aid of a paperclip! Unfold one end to create a long loop. Hook one end on the loop, and hold the other end of the paperclip in your hand, with the bracelet end on your wrist. You have only to loop the bracelet around and hook it.

* Glass doors in the shower can be cleaned with a dryer sheet. Simply wet and rub. In fact, the texture almost gives a scrub.

ARIES (March 21 to April 19) Your Arian pendant for impatience shows, as you consider passing a problem-prone project on to someone else. Best advice: Stay with it and work out those snarls yourself.

TAURUS (April 20 to May 20) Even patient Bovines can be frustrated when carefully made plans go awry. But crank up that "stick-to-it-ivity" you do so well, and you'll soon find that your schedule is back in sync.

GEMINI (May 21 to June 20) Your aspect favors using more resourceful means in dealing with a workplace situation. Some discreet checking around could help shed light on the root cause of the problem.

CANCER (June 21 to July 22) You show an unusually strong streak of stubbornness in rejecting suggestions from friends and/or family members early in the week. But you become more receptive by the week's end.

LEO (July 23 to August 22) The Big Cat might find a gentler approach more effective when dealing with those who resist needed changes. Remember, the word "persuasion" starts with the sound "purr."

VIRGO (August 23 to September 22) A disappointing experience with someone you felt you could trust can be painful. But there just might be more to this situation than you're aware of. Press for an explanation.

LIBRA (September 23 to October 22) Changing your views about something you believe in isn't easy. But you might reconsider as the facts come in. Keep your mind open, even if you're uneasy about what you might learn.

SCORPIO (October 23 to November 21) You might have to do some serious shifting of gears to get your project back on track. But cheer up. Your hard work starts to produce some positive results by the week's end.

SAGITTARIUS (November 22 to December 21) An unsettling mood at the start of the week soon lifts and gives way to a more positive attitude as you find fun and friendship beginning to dominate your aspect.

CAPRICORN (December 22 to January 19) A delay in firming up holiday plans could work to your advantage. Use this time to scout out possibilities that might be more in line with what those close to you would prefer.

AQUARIUS (January 20 to February 18) Some people might question some of the new friends you've welcomed into your life. But your ability to see beyond the obvious helps you recognize how special they are.

PISCES (February 19 to March 20) Financial matters can be especially tricky this week. It's best to follow a conservative investment path for now, and wait for a more fortuitous time to take a bolder approach.

BORN THIS WEEK: Your warmth, your humor and your genuine concern for others make you someone people love to keep close to their lives.

PIEDMONT PETS

November 29, 2018
By Paulette Dean

When a snowstorm or freezing temperatures arrive, the time for preparation is past. If you know of an animal that is not being taken care of properly, please call us at 799-0843. We will get the information to the right agency. Cold temperatures and wind chill can threaten a pet's life; the following measures can help ensure your pet will have a comfortable winter:

- Low temperatures are especially hard on short-haired, young, and older animals.
- All cats should be kept inside.
- Salt and chemicals used to melt snow can burn a pet's foot pads and even the mouth when the pet licks the paws. After an outdoor walk, wipe your pet's feet with a damp towel.
- Warm vehicle engines attract cats. Bang on your vehicle hood to scare away any cats before starting the engine.
- Antifreeze is deadly poison, but the sweet taste attracts many animals. Make sure that animals do not have access to the antifreeze.
- When it is snowing, pets can lose the scent of home. Keep pets under close supervision, and make sure your pet wears an identification tag.
- Winter air can dry out animals' skin and make them itchy. Add a small amount of vegetable oil (with your veterinarian's approval) to the pet's diet.
- It is prohibited in the City of Danville to have any companion animal tethered when the temperature is 32

Danville, VA 24540
Phone: (434) 799-0843

degrees or below. For outside dogs, a solid doghouse must be provided. The opening needs to be covered, either with a commercial door or a heavy, fabric flap. The house needs to be raised off the ground at least 2 inches. Cover the floor with cedar shavings to control parasites and to help retain the skin oil. The doghouse should be large enough to allow the dog to enter, turn around, and either sit or lie down comfortably. However, the house needs to be small enough to hold the pet's body heat in.

• Outside pets must be provided more food in the winter because keeping warm depletes energy. Water bowls should be checked frequently to make sure the water has not frozen.

If you know of an animal that does not have adequate protection from the weather, we urge you to call us before conditions are too bad.

Coffee Mill

Morning coffee has been a necessity for centuries, and there have been numerous patents for coffee-making machines. The first American patent was given to Thomas Bruff Sr. in 1798. Coffee grinders, also called coffee mills, were needed to grind the coffee beans to cook with water to make coffee. The mills were hand-cranked until 1938, when the first electric models were made.

Most collectors search for early wall-mounted or box-type mills. They were made of wood or glass with a cast iron crank. Coffee-mill companies also used ceramics, plastic or attractive metals later in the 1900s. Most coffee mills had the name of the brand of coffee on the front or at least the word "coffee." "Koffee" is not a misspelling; it is the German word for coffee.

On the back or side of the coffee mill there usually is a serial number that can be dated with the help of information found online or in "The MacMillan Index of Antique Coffee Mills," a book by Joseph E. MacMillan. There also may be colorful pictures like the ones seen on a patriotic coffee mill, which was decorated with a flag and a picture of Theodore Roosevelt on his horse. It recently sold for $265 at a Hess auction.

Q. I have a pair of shoe roller skates with wooden wheels. There is a metal plate on the bottom with the number "5" and "Chicago Roller Skate Co., Ware Bros., Pat. Aug. 15, 1914, Made in U.S.A." What can you tell me about them?

A. Ralph and Walter Ware bought The Chicago Roller Skate Co. in 1905. Their brother, Robert, joined the business in 1909. Roller skating was a popular pastime, and Chicago had several roller rinks. Skates with wooden wheels were made to skate on the wood floor in roller rinks. The company also made racing skates, clamp-on skates for skating on sidewalks, parts for skates, lawn sprinklers and a few other products. Your shoe skates probably were made between 1914 and 1920. The company was bought by National Sporting Goods in the 1990s. Vintage shoe skates like yours sell for under $200.

Strange BUT TRUE

By Samantha Weaver

* It was Hungarian psychiatrist Thomas Stephen Szasz who made the following sage observation: "If you talk to God, you are praying. If God talks to you, you have schizophrenia."

* You might be surprised to learn that David Duchovny, best known for his role as Agent Fox Mulder in "The X-Files," was just a dissertation away from being awarded a doctorate in English literature.

* Did you know that the world's most popular fruit is the banana? It's true: In the United States, people consume more bananas than apples and oranges put together.

* In 2009, a Saudi couple who had spent their honeymoon in Malaysia encountered difficulty on the return flight home. It seems that the groom felt the bride was taking too long in the airport restroom, so he boarded the flight back to Saudi Arabia before she did. When he allowed the plane to leave without her, she insisted on an immediate divorce.

* Most people don't realize that in 1938, Time magazine featured Adolph Hitler on the cover as its Man of the Year.

* Removing one's wedding ring is considered to be a no-no by many. However, one superstition holds that doing so is perfectly acceptable -- as long as the ring is being used to ward off a witch.

* Ever wonder why magazine publisher Hugh Hefner chose a rabbit as the symbol of his Playboy magazine? Evidently, when the mogul was a small boy one of his treasured possessions was a blanket with bunnies all over it.

Thought for the Day: "I myself have never been able to find out precisely what feminism is: I only know that people call me a feminist whenever I express sentiments that differentiate me from a doormat." -- Rebecca West, author and journalist

HOLLYWOOD by Tony Rizzo

HOLLYWOOD — "Breaking Bad," considered one of the best series of all time, is becoming a film franchise for 20th Century Fox. Creator and executive producer Vince Gilligan will direct the original cast, which also will include characters from the prequel "Better Call Saul." The series starring Brian Cranston ran from 2008-2013 and won 16 Emmy Awards.

Does Sylvester Stallone sleep? In addition to the just released "Creed II," which reunites him with Michael B. Jordan, and "Back Trace," with Matthew Modine and Christopher McDonald (due Dec. 14), he's creating "Rambo V: Last Blood" (coming in 2019) and starring in "Escape Plan 3: Devil's Station," with Dave Bautista and Curtis "50 Cent" Jackson.

"The Theory of Everything" Oscar-winner Eddie Redmayne will play Tom Hayden (activist, founder of Students for a Democratic Society and former husband of Jane Fonda, when she was an activist). Aaron Sorokin wrote and will direct Redmayne and Sasha Baron Cohen, who plays Abby Hoffman.

The Christmas push begins Nov. 30 with the new animated holiday film "Elliott: The Littlest Reindeer," about a reindeer who sets out to replace the retiring Blitzen in Santa's reindeer crew. Voices include Josh Hutcherson, John Cleese, Martin Short, Jeff Dunham and Samantha Bee.

A different kind of holiday offering drops Dec. 7. "Ben Is Back" is about a yule homecoming, with Julia Roberts as the mother of Lucas Hedges, who is fighting substance abuse. Peter Hedges, who wrote "What's Eating Gilbert Grape" and "About a Boy," among other films, directs Julia, Courtney B. Vance and his son, Lucas.

Former star of TV series "Hercules," Kevin Sorbo, who seemed to disappear from TV and films, is co-starring with his wife, Sam, and Patrick Muldoon, as they tell the story of a 9-year-old girl and her 11-year-old brother as they try to save a secret beach and reunite a dolphin with its family.

The CBS series "Alice" (1976-85), which starred Linda Lavin, who took over for Ellen Burstyn in her Oscar-winning role in "Alice Doesn't Live Here Anymore" (1974), is being rebooted by Fox TV. "Juno" Oscar-winning screenwriter Diablo Cody and Liz Astrof of "2 Broke Girls" will write and exec produce the series.

The landmark CBS Television City is up for sale for a mere $700 million. Among the shows that taped there were "All In the Family," "The Carol Burnett Show," the soap operas "The Young and the Restless" and "The Bold and the Beautiful," as well as "Sonny & Cher," "The Price Is Right" and currently "The Late, Late Show With James Corden" and HBO's "Real Time With Bill Maher," to name some. Are we going to get malled again? ... there goes the neighborhood!
