New Sheriff Dan Guida takes helm in Aitkin County in 2019

Aitkin County Sheriff-elect Dan Guida

By ANN SCHWARTZ
"I felt led to run for the sheriff in Aitkin County," said Dan Guida, 47, sheriff-elect. "I care about the people of Aitkin County and knew I could do a good job."

Guida, originally from rural Crosby, has served about 25 years with the Aitkin County Sheriff's Department, including as sergeant, where 60 percent of his responsibilities were administrative.

He trained in as a deputy under Roy Bruggman and Harold Lucht and has worked in drug enforcement, on all the large cases such as the murder of Evelyn Malin (rural McGregor storekeeper); and has been the boat and water deputy and also found lots of lost souls in the woods.

"I seem to have a knack for going into the woods and finding lost people," said Guida in an interview.

He worked as an undercover drug agent, where he grew his hair long and worked with the Lakes Area Drug Task Force that covers several counties.

"We'll be aggressively pursuing meth and the illegal drug situation in Aitkin County," he noted. "There will be a difference in that."

Realizing that drug problems are a result of addiction, he'd like to see more Teen Challenge involvement in Aitkin County. The successful treatment program's staff visits jail inmates here once a month but he'd like to see that increased and have even more of a drug treatment presence locally.

"We need to help people with their addictions – not just put a band aid on it. I have people shake my hand and thank me because I arrested them 20 years ago and they turned their life around. It is a long process and we need more staff so we can be pro-active and not just re-active."

The sheriff's office is down three to four road deputies – positions he'd like to fill immediately. He's also made an offer to an individual to be his undersheriff but that has not yet been accepted. He'll take office on January 7. He is working closely with incumbent Sheriff Scott Turner, who is retiring, and is attending meetings with Turner and learning the ropes.

"I also reached out to past sheriffs for their support," he said. He was pleased to see, with election returns, that he had support from voters all over the county. Guida has lived in rural McGregor for many years and knows that Hill City, Palisade and McGregor folks will sometimes vote against county-wide candidates who are from Aitkin.

He loves the small population of the county and the way you can develop relationships with a lot of people. He also

Murder-suicide in Aitkin County

The discovery of two dead bodies found Nov. 27 at a home southeast of McGregor in Spalding Township has led officials to rule it as a murder-suicide according to the Aitkin County Sheriff's Department.

The Ramsey County medical examiner identified the bodies as Laura Shingobe-Garbow, 62, and Matthew Garbow, 40, both of McGregor.

The manner and cause of death for Laura Shingobe-Garbow was determined to be homicide by blunt-force trauma injuries to the head. The manner and cause of death for Matthew Garbow was determined to be suicide by multiple sharp-force injuries.

The two bodies were discovered after Aitkin County Sheriff's deputies responded to a request of a welfare check at that residence.

The Minnesota Bureau of Criminal Apprehension is assisting the sheriff's office in the investigation.

READER RIBBETS

Guilty until proven innocent

In the November 28 Courier, the Crosby police leadership commented on the dismissal of a stolen gun charge. The statement indicated the defendant and their attorney failed to provide them with documentation, and if they had, the charges may not have been filed. In other words, when the Crosby police leadership say you're guilty, you must prove you're innocent.

The burden of proof is the responsibility of the Crosby police leadership, history reflects they don't understand that concept.

BMS Case No 17-PA-0260, (read at www.newshopper.net, Crosby Happening Facebook page) BMS Case No 13-

PA-0659, 13-PA-0660 show they lie, distort the truth, conduct prejudiced, biased, and flawed investigations, interview their officers as if they were criminals, alter documents, make 3 ring binders disappear, and when they don't get the results they want, they investigate internally to get the results they desire.

The Crosby police leadership are delusional, they believe you must possess evidence of your innocence before they charge you.

The untruthfulness of a police officer is so egregious, their honesty and integrity shall forever be called into question. Their continued employment is destructive and place a huge burden on the city of Crosby.

Therefore, courts favor, support, and encourage the termination of the officers, but not in Crosby, the city council and Mayor know more than the legal system and must enjoy watching their police leadership attempt to create criminals.

Good thing arbitrators and jurors use the evidence and lack thereof in the correct way to protect you, in Crosby you're guilty until you prove you're innocent so have your evidence ready, good luck in court.

False statements by Crosby Police Chief

I was surprised to read in a local newspaper a statement by the Crosby Police Chief that, if Mr. Hunter, or myself had provided information to the Crosby Police about a gun they claimed was stolen before they charged Mr. Hunter with theft, they might not have charged him.

Mr. Hunter and I had no idea that Mr. Hunter would be charged with a crime in connection with a stolen gun, until he was arrested and charged.

No one from the Crosby Police Department, including the chief contacted him or I, asking about a gun.

The statement by the chief is patently untrue and an attempt to distract from her actions in this matter.

The Crosby Police Lieutenant, under her leadership, has brought three baseless charges against Mr. Hunter, causing great damage to his reputation and business.

Thousands of taxpayer dollars have been spent pursuing Mr. Hunter. One of the charges involved a gun that Mr. Hunter recently purchased that may have been stolen in 1994. How would Mr. Hunter, or anyone know that something they purchased may have been stolen that long ago?

The citizens of Crosby deserve a police department leadership that protects and serves all of their citizens, they do not have that now.

thinks the rural, down-to-earth people of the county are its greatest asset.
“If I had a magic wand, I wish people wouldn’t compare themselves to others, but just be the best they can be for themselves,” he observed.
He and his wife Melanie Turnock both grew up in close-knit families where community service was a priority. Melanie, now an Early Childhood teacher in McGregor, was an Aitkin County Dairy Princess and her parents Darlene and Frank Turnock are very active in the communities east of McGregor.
Guida’s parents, Gary and Becky, still live in the area and are busy volunteering with the Salem West mission, Persian Gulf Support Group and Habitat for Humanity. Guida’s brother Jim is a conservation officer and his other brother David is a lieutenant colonel with the army in Fort Riley, Kansas. Older sister TyAnne Rezak is an educator in Brainerd.
Guida and Melanie have a close-knit family themselves with four school-aged children. The family enjoys hunting and fishing and working on projects together.
Operations will continue as-is at the sheriff’s department. Guida’s other goal is to have more of a police presence in the McGregor and Hill City schools. He said it is helpful for students get to know officers and it also benefits the recruiting of young people to enter the law enforcement field.
He’ll also work very closely with the police departments in Aitkin, Hill City and McGregor.
With the sheriff’s office providing coverage 24 hours a day every day of the year his first priority will be to hire more officers. With Sheriff Turner and Undersheriff John Drahota stepping down through retirement and long-time deputy Chuck Everson resigning, it does leave some holes in the department. But he has two investigators, a top-notch jail staff and experienced administrative staff and deputies to keep the department running smoothly.
