GLOW Women's March Comes to Batavia

This January, the GLOW region aims to prove that not every activist lives in a city.

Many women in Genesee, Orleans, Livingston, and Wyoming counties have been a part of the political scene going back centuries, and more have joined movements and causes since the 2016 election. A large number attended an event for the first-ever Women's March, the largest protest event in world history. But while they might have marched in D.C., Seneca Falls, Rochester or Buffalo in past years, this year the March is coming to GLOW.

On Saturday, January 19, 2019, women and allies will gather at Jackson Square in Batavia at 10 a.m. Following remarks and performances, marchers will embark on a short route down Center, Ellicott and Liberty streets, crossing Main and ending at the Mall at Batavia City Center for more speakers and nonprofit vendor tables with information on local causes and resources.

This march is only the beginning of a larger ongoing effort to bring awareness to the unique challenges faced by rural women – rural women of any race, religion, sexual orientation, economic status, citizenship status, including transgender women as well. Marchers aim to encourage women to take a seat at the tables of local legislative bodies, and support the efforts of pro-women (or rather, pro-human) causes—including reproductive rights, LGBTQ+ rights, sexual and domestic violence prevention, gun violence prevention, racial justice, immigration reform, and climate change awareness, among others. These endeavors crisscross the many intersections of our lives, and by uplifting each other our entire community succeeds.

Marching in January is a demonstration of solidarity with our sisters, daughters, mothers, partners and friends for a future of equality, justice and compassion for all.

For more information, find GLOW.WomenMarch on Facebook and Instagram.

Could You Use a Prayer of Faith?

Is Your Sickness Chronic and the doctors can only treat symptoms? Do you have to live with illness or pain the rest of your life?

Reach out right now to the One who can save and heal. Gen 18:14 says, "Is anything too hard for the Lord?" And of course the answer is 'NO'. Matt 19:26 says, "...but with God, all things are possible." It does not matter how bad a situation is. All things means all things, including the healing of your sickness.

At Healing Rooms on the Genesee, our desire is to bring the healing power of God into the lives of those who are sick. We follow the commandment of Jesus in Mk 16:18, "...they will lay hands on the sick and they will recover."

Give Us A Call,
We'd Love To Come Pray For You!
