An Obituary for Common Sense

Today we mourn the passing of a beloved old friend, Common Sense, who has been with us for many years.

No one knows for sure how old he was, since his birth records were long ago lost in bureaucratic red tape.

He will be remembered as having cultivated such valuable lessons as:

- Knowing when to come in out of the rain;
- Why the early bird gets the worm;
- Life isn't always fair;
- and maybe it was my fault.

Common Sense lived by simple, sound financial policies (don't spend more than you can earn) and reliable strategies (adults, not children, are in charge).

His health began to deteriorate rapidly when well-intentioned but overbearing regulations were set in place.

Reports of a 6-year-old boy charged with sexual harassment for kissing a classmate; teens suspended from school for using mouthwash after lunch; and a teacher fired for reprimanding an unruly student, only worsened his condition.

Common Sense lost ground when parents attacked teachers for doing the job that they themselves had failed to do in disciplining their unruly children.

It declined even further when schools were required to get parental consent to administer sun lotion or an aspirin to a student; but could not inform parents when a student became pregnant and wanted to have an abortion.

Common Sense lost the will to live as the churches became businesses; and criminals received better treatment than their victims.

Common Sense took a beating when you couldn't defend yourself from a burglar in your own home and the burglar could sue you for assault.

Common Sense finally gave up the will to live, after a woman failed to realize that a steaming cup of coffee was hot. She spilled a little in her lap, and was promptly awarded a huge settlement.

Common Sense was preceded in death, by his parents, Truth and Trust, by his wife, Discretion, by his daughter, Responsibility, and by his son, Reason.

He is survived by his 4 stepbrothers;
I Know My Rights
I Want It Now
Someone Else Is To Blame
I'm A Victim

Not many attended his funeral because so few realized he was gone.
If you remember him, pass this on.

1. People may not need your product or service today, but they may need it tomorrow.
2. Frequency builds trust.
3. Frequent advertising adds credibility to your message.
4. When an ad is seen frequently, it gets the consumer yearning for your service and they will take action to buy it.
5. Advertising frequently helps put your name out in front of the competition's.
6. Frequency is the best way to get lower advertising rates.
7. Advertising frequently is a lot like repeatedly inviting a friend to come see you. One day, they are bound to visit!
8. Frequent advertising helps you build a steady source of incoming sales.
9. Out of sight, out of mind.
10. You make more money when you do! It's plain and simple.

ARIES (March 21 to April 19) Taking some time out of your usually busy social life could be just what you need to help you focus on putting those finishing touches on your plans for a possible career change.

TAURUS (April 20 to May 20) A misunderstanding about a colleague's suggestions could create a delay in moving on with your proposal. But by week's end, all the confusing points should finally be cleared up.

GEMINI (May 21 to June 20) You might feel overwhelmed by all the tasks you suddenly have to take care of. But just say the magic word -- help! -- and you'll soon find others rushing to offer much-needed assistance.

CANCER (June 21 to July 22) Finishing a current project ahead of schedule leaves you free to deal with other upcoming situations, including a possible workplace change, as well as a demanding personal matter.

LEO (July 23 to August 22) Turn that fine-tuned feline sensitivity radar up to high to help uncover any facts that could influence a decision you might be preparing to make. Devote the weekend to family activities.

VIRGO (August 23 to September 22) A state of confusion is soon cleared up with explanations from the responsible parties. Don't waste time chastising anyone. Instead, move forward with your plans.

LIBRA (September 23 to October 22) You might feel obligated to help work out a dispute between family members. But this is one of those times when you should step aside and let them work out their problems on their own.

SCORPIO (October 23 to November 21) Your ability to resolve an on-the-job problem without leaving too many ruffled feathers earns you kudos from co-workers. You also impress major decision-makers at your workplace.

SAGITTARIUS (November 22 to December 21) Newly made and long-held friendships merge well, with possibly one exception. Take time to listen to the dissenter's explanations. You could learn something important.

CAPRICORN (December 22 to January 19) Be prepared to be flexible about your current travel plans. Although you don't have to take them, at least consider suggestions from the experts in the travel business.

AQUARIUS (January 20 to February 18) A problem with a recent financial transaction could lead to more problems later on unless you resolve it immediately. Get all the proof you need to support your position.

PISCES (February 19 to March 20) Daydreaming makes it difficult to stay focused on what you need to do. But reality sets in by midweek, and you manage to get everything done in time for a relaxing weekend.

BORN THIS WEEK: Your ability to reach out to those in need of spiritual comfort makes you a much-revered, much-loved person in your community.

Me looking for my abs after exercising for an hour

Beautiful

A guy was just waking up from anesthesia after surgery and his wife was sitting by his side.

His eyes fluttered open, he said, "You're beautiful!" and then he fell asleep again.

His wife had never heard him say that so she stayed by his side. A couple minutes later his eyes fluttered open again and he said, "You're cute!"

The wife was disappointed because instead of "beautiful" it was "cute."

She said, "What happened to 'beautiful'?"

His reply was "The drugs are wearing off!"

January 17, 2019
By Paulette Dean

We are thrilled to announce that we have received another grant from The E. Stuart James Grant Charitable Trust to continue our rebate program for helping residents of Danville and Pittsylvania County to spay and neuter their dogs and cats. We will continue the rebates of up to $75 for City residents and up to $50 for County residents. Since 1993, over 30,000 animals have been spayed/neutered through our various programs.

A rebate certificate must be picked up from the shelter at least the day before the animal is taken to the veterinary clinic for the surgery.

The general guidelines are:

1. The money is to be used for residents of Danville and Pittsylvania County. The pets must live with them.
2. Clients will not be able to use our rebate program if you have approved them for use of the grant money.
3. No money can be used to facilitate the adoption of any animal from any other rescue group or shelter.
4. No money can be used for any animal being fostered for another group.
5. The money cannot be used for general trap/neuter/release programs. The exception would be if an individual will take legal responsibility of the feral cat's lifetime care, including providing food, water, shelter, and veterinary care and the cats are released on the person's personal property.

The real math is this: Every minute in the United States, 50 dogs, 50 cats, and 8 humans are born. That means that a family of four must have 25 pets in order for there to be no homeless dogs and cats.

The medical benefits for a spayed/neutered dog or cat are numerous. Neutering males decreases and often eliminates diseases that intact male dogs are prone to later in life, including diseases of the prostate, testicles, and other tissues influenced by male hormones.

Spaying female dogs and cats entirely eliminates diseases of the ovaries and uterus, and if performed before the first heat, greatly reduces the chance of mammary cancer. Behavior is only positively affected by the sterilization surgery. A neutered male cat's territorial spraying is decreased. And spayed or neutered dogs and cats fight less and wander less.

The reality is that larger shelters and more adoptions cannot solve all of the problems with pet overpopulation. Ending the unwanted litters is the only solution; everything else just puts a bandage on the situation.

Military collectibles are more than swords and guns, although there are many antique and vintage weapons at auction. Q. My family has a photograph of a female relative done by the Chicago Portrait Co. This is a photograph, not a painting or drawing. It's in a frame with a domed glass cover. How can I determine the date of the photograph?

A. The Chicago Portrait Co. was in business from 1893 to at least 1940. The company was known for its portraits made from old photographs, which were sold by traveling salesmen. The photographs were enlarged and colored with pastels, watercolor, oil paint, crayon or India ink, or created with sepia tones and then printed on a curved piece of cardboard. The salesman brought the picture back in a domed wood frame, making it more expensive than buying the picture alone. Since the picture was on curved cardboard, it had to be displayed in a domed frame. The salesman made his money by getting the customer to buy the expensive frame. Domed glass frames were popular from about 1880 to 1920.

crafts that were made during free time on ships, land or in prison camps. The earliest ones found in sales and stores today probably are the intricate ship models and other crafts from the 1700s.

During the Napoleonic Wars (1793-1815), over 120,000 French prisoners were held in camps in England. There was nothing to do, so they began making all sorts of things from materials at hand, like straw, wood and bones from pigs and mutton eaten at dinner, and ivory from whales. The prisoners were not volunteers; they had been conscripted and left lives as carpenters, farmers and tradespeople with many skills. The British let the prisoners sell their handiwork and keep the money. Gifts for children were popular, and games like dominoes and cribbage were easy to make from square or rectangular pieces of bone. They were then given markings needed for the game.

One such set of dominoes seemed to be a collection of different nonmatching dominoes, perhaps using parts of other partial sets. The box holding the dominoes and a cribbage board had a

Things to look for in a new job

Change plays a big role as people ring in a new year. At the dawn of a new year, some people resolve to live healthier in the months ahead while others might make financial resolutions in an attempt to improve their bottom lines.

The decision to change jobs is another popular resolution at the dawn of a new year. Professionals change jobs for various reasons. But regardless of what's behind a career change, many people can benefit by looking for things in a new job that can make them happy both professionally and personally.

- Salary: Of course everyone would love to earn more money when changing jobs, but there is more to changing jobs than just improving your bottom line. As you begin your job search, consider how much you currently earn and if that allows you to live a life you love. If so, don't overemphasize finding a new job that pays considerably more than your currently earn. On the flip side, young professionals who want to start a family in the years ahead should consider the costs associated with such a decision and how the salaries they earn at their next jobs may affect what they want down the road.

- Work/life balance: Before beginning your search for a new job, think about why you want to switch careers or companies. Long hours often leads to burnout. If you're looking for a new job because you're burned out, try to find a job that affords you a better work/life balance. A study from the Happiness Research Institute in Copenhagen found that, with the curious exception of people who work more than 55 hours per week, stress rises accordingly with the numbers of hours worked each week. Keep that in mind if your goal is to find a job that affords you a better work/life balance.

- Satisfaction: When attempting to achieve a better work/life balance, it can be easy to overlook satisfaction at work in exchange for more time at home. But studies have shown that feeling satisfied by what you do can have a profound impact on your overall happiness. It's possible to find an engaging career that still affords you time away from work, and such a career can ultimately pave the way toward a happier life.

- Commute: Bending over backwards simply to get to work and then get home from work can have an incredibly negative impact on your life. A study from the Office of National Statistics in the United Kingdom found that commuters, especially those who spend between 60 and 90 minutes commuting to work, have lower life satisfaction and lower levels of happiness compared to people who don't commute. Before accepting a job offer, estimate your commute time to and from the new office and try to determine the impact of that commute on your quality of life. Many people aspire to find a new job at the dawn of a new year. Job seekers should consider a host of factors before switching jobs to make sure they make the best decisions.

Light Show draws 10,000, donates almost $9,000 back to community

DANVILLE – Despite a snowy start to the 2018 Community Holiday Light Show, the 17-night event attracted an estimated 10,500 people to historic Ballou Park.

“After that first weekend, we didn’t really know what to expect,” said Danville Parks and Recreation’s Taylor Roberts. “Once the show got rolling, we had nights where we had 3-400 cars. As always, the community support for this event is amazing.”

On opening night, the Light Show got off to a record-breaking start with over 200 vehicles; however, an early December snowstorm forced staff to close the event for the next three days. Organizers were concerned opening later than usual, and an unprecedented rainy two weeks, attendance numbers would be down; however, after the final tally, 2,523 cars and 24 buses drove through the show.

“Our staff and team of volunteers worked incredibly hard to keep the show going this year,” said Parks and Recreation Department Director Bill Sgrinia. “Unfortunately, clear and dry nights were few and far between this year, but the wet weather could not dampen the spirits of the Light Show crew or the community who helped make our fifth year another one for the books.”

As a result, this year’s Light Show reinvested almost $9,000 back into the community, $5,707.49 to the organizations that volunteered to work the gates and $3,200 to the top five displays receiving best in show votes.

“This event’s ability to give back to the community that supports it so well is what sets it apart as a true community event,” said Special Recreation Division Director Lisa Ferguson. “Since we started in 2014, a grand total of $39,396 has been donated either to organizations that have volunteered to work the gates or to organizations on behalf of displays built in their honor.”

This year’s winners included:

- 1st - Trophy & Sign Center decorating for God’s Pit Crew; $1,200
- 2nd - Old Dutch - West Main Street decorating for St. Jude Children’s Research Hospital - $900
- 3rd - Goodyear decorating for Danville United Way - $600
- 4th - Riverbend Volunteer Fire Department Station decorating for Riverbend VFD - $300
- 5th - Danville Register and Bee decorating for God’s Storehouse - $200

This year’s show also drew visitors from Delaware, Maryland, Washington D.C., Illinois, Ohio, West Virginia, Tennessee, South Carolina, Georgia, Florida, Mississippi, Louisiana, Texas, New Mexico, and Colorado along with visitors from Danville, Pittsylvania County, Halifax, Henry County, Martinsville and right across the border in North Carolina.

“The Community Holiday Light Show continues to impact Danville in so many positive ways,” Sgrinia said. “Words cannot express our sincerest gratitude to everyone involved, from the individuals who drive through with their families and children to the organizations that give their time and abilities to help us put it on every December.”

Plans are already underway for the 2019 Light Show. Interested individuals and organizations can contact the Danville Welcome Center at 434-793-4636. There is no cost to participate.

USDA Plan Provides for the Early Release of February Benefits for SNAP Recipients

Richmond, VA (January 14, 2019) - Virginia’s Supplemental Nutrition Assistance Program (SNAP) recipients will receive their February food benefits early due to the federal government shutdown. This change will affect all SNAP recipients in Virginia scheduled to receive benefits during the first week of February, regardless of case number or usual issuance date. The early issuance will occur on January 17, 2019.

“Families having access to food and children going to school without being hungry is a basic and critical need that transcends politics,” said Virginia Department of Social Services (VDSS) Commissioner Duke Storen. “The SNAP program ensures food security for many of our nation’s most vulnerable citizens, and we are pleased to be able to provide benefits to our clients for the month of February.”

Individuals who have already been determined eligible for benefits do not have to take any action, as February’s benefits will automatically be loaded to their SNAP Electronic Benefits Transfer (EBT) cards. Individuals who have filed new applications for benefits or are in the process of renewing their benefits are encouraged to submit all documents to their local department of social services as soon as possible.

“This early issuance of food benefits is still intended to sustain households throughout the month of February,” said VDSS Director of Benefit Programs Toni Blue Washington. “SNAP recipients are encouraged to proactively plan their food shopping for the month of February using these early funds.”

The status of future benefits beginning in March is unknown at this time, pending decisions by the United States Congress and the President. EBT cards remain active and unaffected by these changes.

SNAP recipients are encouraged to contact the Enterprise Customer Service Center at 1-855-635-4370 or their local department of social services with any questions related to their benefits. For additional resources, recipients may call 2-1-1 or visit www.211virginia.org. A trained professional will suggest sources of help using one of the largest databases of health and human services in their community and statewide.

Community Health Needs Assessment Plan Receives Approval by Centra Board of Directors

The Community Health Needs Assessment (CHNA), a continuous process for evaluating the health needs of the Central Virginia region, has completed its findings, and received approval to move forward by Centra’s four Boards of Directors.

Data collection was completed in June, through the thoughtful work of the “Partnership for Healthy Communities”. The Partnership for Healthy Communities is an initiative led by Centra, Centra Foundation, Community Access Network and the Central Virginia and Piedmont Health Districts in collaboration with the Bedford Community Health Foundation, Greater Lynchburg Community Foundation and the United Way of Central Virginia. This partnership, which also includes many key nonprofits and community leaders in the region, continues to be committed to aligning the communities’ needs to elicit change while improving the health of those who live there.

Centra and these local community partners will begin implementation planning based on the prioritization of the needs uncovered in the assessment. Across Centra’s three service areas, access to affordable healthcare, access to affordable housing, access to healthy foods, and access to mental health services emerged as some of the top needs to be addressed in the next three years.

The finished product belongs to the community and the report for each geography is posted in its entirety on Centra’s website. (www.CentraHealth.com/CHNA) Once the implementation plans are complete, they too will be uploaded to this website for viewing and grant funding/planning.

DANVILLE PUBLIC SCHOOLS ENROLLS WITH STOPit TO EMPOWER AND PROTECT STUDENTS

STOPit App empowers students to stand up against bullying

Danville, VA - January 15, 2019: Danville Public Schools (DPS) has enrolled with STOPit, the leading technology platform for schools that deters and controls harmful or inappropriate conduct. STOPit empowers students with an easy app to safely and anonymously report anything of concern to school officials – from cyberbullying to threats of violence or self-harm. STOPit empowers students to stand up for themselves and others while giving our schools the insight we need to keep students safe.

“Safety and security are top priorities for Danville Public Schools,” stated William Chaney, Safety and Security Coordinator for DPS. “The STOPit app gives students the power to protect themselves and stand up for others. STOPit allows schools to create a culture of acceptance and safety throughout the school community.”

With STOPit, students can submit anonymous reports containing text, photos, or video. Administrators are then able to manage incidents in a backend management system called STOPit Admin. STOPit Admin provides efficient and powerful investigative tools to our staff, including the ability to message with the reporter, which will allow us to address issues instantly. STOPit does more than just help schools address incidents and mitigate risk. STOPit will also help us go beyond reacting to bullying and inappropriate behavior, and instead start deterring it. As young people continue to engage more with technology every day, we are taking a proactive step to empower our students to become upstanding citizens in our community in the way that they feel most comfortable. We believe our adoption of STOPit is an important step in our continued effort to provide a positive school climate and a safe learning environment for our students. The DPS STOPit program launched on Monday, January 14, 2019. The program is available to all middle and high school students. Flyers have been posted in each school giving students step-by-step instructions on using the App.

About STOPit: STOPit is the leading technology company providing software and services that mitigate, deter and control inappropriate conduct. The STOPit solutions are available to schools, universities, workplaces and governments around the world. Anonymous and configurable reporting is available by mobile app, web app and phone tip line empowering individuals to protect themselves and stand up for others as well as reporting safety and crime issues. STOPit provides valuable services to administrators including monitoring their incidents, content about issues and resolutions, training and monitoring services, and investigation tools to help get in front of issues and manage risks. ROADSIDE SOBRIETY TESTS ARE GETTING RIDICULOUS. LAST NIGHT I HAD TO FOLD A FITTED SHEET...

* Create a spa-like soap dish by adding a handful of pebbles to a deep saucer. Place your bar soap on top of it so that the water (and associated goop) runs off.

* "Add a solar-powered, motion-activated light to your patio, porch, garden, front door, etc., or anywhere you do not want animals to hang out at night. This has kept neighborhood cats from messing around in my garden during the summer, and because it's solar powered, I moved it to near my back door for the winter months." -- I.C. in Nebraska

* "To ensure your dishwasher or clothes washer is doing the best possible job of cleaning, turn on a nearby hot water faucet. Run the water until it turns warm, then start the washer. It will start with hot water and do a better job of cleaning." -- D.C. in Minnesota

* Here's a tip for hamster owners out there: "If your dwarf hamster makes too much noise when running in its wheel (especially metal wheels), just lube it with a little olive oil. Just a drop or two will make the wheel turn so smoothly and silently, without posing any harm to the little ones in case they lick it." -- C., via email

* How to hang a gallery wall: Arrange your frames on the ground on top of a large piece of gift wrap (the back, blank side) or other blank paper. When you get the arrangement you want, outline each frame on the paper with a thick marker. Also note where the nail must go in order to hang each frame. Then simply tape the paper to the wall and drive in the nails at the noted spots. Rip the paper off the wall (gift wrap tears easily) and hang the frames on the nails left behind.

Send your tips to Now Here's a Tip, 628 Virginia Drive, Orlando, FL 32803.
