Take Hwy 64 to Belvidere, TN, turn off 4 lane onto Kasserra Switch Lane, turn right onto Owl Hollow Road to sale on the right.

Situated on what is known as the "Hillcrest Farm" in Belvidere, Tennessee, this 2-story antebellum brick house was built around 1850. Today, it has 3 large bedrooms, 2 baths, foyer, dining room, kitchen, den, 4 fireplaces, 5 chandeliers, full basement, metal roof (2 yrs old), central heat & air, breaker box, and utility hookups. Also situated on the 10 acres of property is a huge 2-story barn with drive-in loft, separate 2 car garage, and several other agricultural buildings. The property has panoramic views of the mountains that surround Franklin County and is located near Tims Ford Reservoir. Records from the Franklin County Historical Society indicate that this house was the scene of a Civil War skirmish in 1863. Come take advantage of this opportunity to own your own piece of history!
