Poole Joins FirstBank

FLORENCE—A veteran local business professional has taken a position as Sr. Mortgage Banker at FirstBank. Debbie Poole is excited to bring three decades of mortgage experience with her to the FirstBank family. Poole is a lifetime resident of Florence. She began her mortgage career in 1988 and understands the ins and outs from both the client side and the mortgage lending side. That perspective enables her to provide great long-term relationships with clients and realtors alike. FirstBank started as Farmers State Bank in 1906. Jim Ayers and his business partner saw that the power of community banking was growing in 1984. Ayers acquired the bank that grew through organic growth and a community banking philosophy. FirstBank now has more than 1400 associates and 75 offices Tennessee, North Alabama, and North Georgia

History's Idea

FLORENCE - Dr. Tom Osborne, Professor Emeritus of History at UNA, brings one of his college courses, the History of Race, to the community through a free series at the Florence-Lauderdale Public Library. This series of classes is about the history of the idea of race. The concept of race has been one of the most consequential ideas for millions of people all over the world in the last several centuries. Yet, it has almost

Westmoreland Like A New Camp

FLORENCE – Camp Westmoreland just outside Florence has been a Boy Scout landmark for generations. However, upgrades and repairs at the facility have not always kept up with need. Consequently, the camp began to show serious deterioration a few years ago. The beautiful reservation land with more than 4,000 ft on Shoal Creek was replete with the aging facilities and maintenance had been largely ignored. The Florence Kiwanis Club stepped up. Initially, they built 10-12 permanent tent shelters. Then they took on the major effort of rebuilding three old Adirondack shelters that had been built in the 1930's. The next year, Kiwanian Ron Paulus started building six new Adirondack shelters of his own design.

These permanent tent shelters with a platform include bunks inside and heavy canvas walls and roof.

Those have since been completed and donated to Camp Westmoreland, providing a total of 81 bunks. A group from Crosspoint Church of Christ added handicapped-accessible ramps on two of those shelters. He also provided an eight-sided pig pen that the Scouts get in and play dodgeball below the knees (termed a GaGa pit), and built 39 bird houses that have been put up on the reservation by the local AKtion Club. Another Kiwanian, Mike Broder, also

UNA Dept Has $25,000 Grant

NASHVILLE — Country Radio Broadcasters, Inc. (CRB) presented a $25,000 scholarship endowment to the UNA Department of Communications during the Country Radio Seminar's opening ceremonies in Nashville last week.

Accredited universities that have a TV/Film/Radio or Music Business program are eligible for the CRB's annual award. Dr. Butler Cain, chair of the Department of Communications, applied last fall and was notified of UNA's selection in January.

"This scholarship endowment will provide our department with a significant opportunity to recruit talented students who want to study mass communication and radio broadcasting in particular," Cain said. "We are grateful to Country Radio Broadcasters, Inc., for recognizing our academic department with this gift and helping us ensure a bright future for audio and radio programming."

According to its website, CRB is a 501c3 non-profit industry service organization created to provide a platform and structure for education and growth for the country music format.

"These types of awards provide invaluable opportunities for our students and help spotlight the work they do every day," said Barbie Terry, UNA interim AVP for Advancement. "A scholarship is often the difference in a student coming to college or not, and CRB is helping us pave the road for more students," she said.

Guaranteed fixed rate with new money deposits of at least $25,000 for an 11-month term.

Both accounts are FDIC-insured up to the maximum allowable limit. Platinum Savings offer available in AL and PA. Fixed Rate CD offer available in AL, AZ, CT, DC, DE, FL, GA, MD, NJ, NM, NV, NY, PA, SC and VA. Portfolio by Wells Fargo® customers are eligible to receive an additional interest rate bonus on these accounts.³

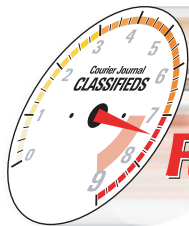

1. To qualify for this offer, you must have a new or existing Platinum Savings account and enroll the account in this offer between 01/21/2019 and 03/22/2019. This offer is subject to change at any time, without notice. This offer is available only to Platinum Savings customers in the following states: AL and PA. In order to earn the Special Interest Rate of 2.08% (Special Rate), you must deposit $25,000 in new money (from sources outside of Wells Fargo Bank, N.A., or its affiliates) to the enrolled savings account and maintain a minimum daily account balance of $25,000 throughout the term of this offer. The corresponding Annual Percentage Yield (APY) for this offer is 2.10%. The Special Rate will be applied to the enrolled savings account for a period of 12 months, starting on the date the account is enrolled in the offer. However, for any day during that 12 month period that the daily account balance is less than the $25,000 minimum, the Special Rate will not apply and the interest rate will revert to the standard interest rate applicable to your Platinum Savings account. As of 12/10/2018, the standard interest rate and APY for a Platinum Savings account in AL with an account balance of $0.01 to $24,999.99 is 0.03% (0.03% APY), $25,000 to $49,999.99 is 0.10% (0.10% APY), $50,000 to $99,999.99 is 0.15% (0.15% APY) and with an account balance of $100,000 and above is 0.20% (0.20% APY); and for Platinum Savings account in PA with an account balance of $0.01 to $49,999.99 is 0.03% (0.03% APY), $50,000 to $99,999.99 is 0.05% (0.05% APY) and with an account balance of $100,000 and above is 0.10% (0.10% APY). Each tier shown reflects the current minimum daily collected balance required to obtain the applicable APY. Interest is compounded daily and paid monthly. The amount of interest earned is based on the daily collected balances in the account. Upon the expiration of the 12 month promotional period, standard interest rates apply. Minimum to open a Platinum Savings account is $25. A monthly service fee of $12 applies in any month the account falls below a $3,500 minimum daily balance. Fees may reduce earnings. Interest rates are variable and subject to change without notice. Wells Fargo may limit the amount you deposit to a Platinum Savings account to an aggregate of $1 million. Offer not available to Private Banking, Wealth, Business Banking or Wholesale customers. 2. Annual Percentage Yield (APY) is effective for accounts opened between 01/21/2019 and 03/22/2019. The 11-month New Dollar CD special requires a minimum of $25,000 brought to Wells Fargo from sources outside of Wells Fargo Bank N.A., or its affiliates to earn the advertised APY. Public Funds and Wholesale accounts are not eligible for this offer. APY assumes interest remains on deposit until maturity. Interest is compounded daily. Payment of interest on CDs is based on term: For terms less than 12 months (365 days), interest may be paid monthly, quarterly, semi-annually, or at maturity (the end of the term). For terms of 12 months or more, interest may be paid monthly, quarterly, semi-annually, or annually. A fee for early withdrawal will be imposed and could reduce earnings on this account. Special Rates are applicable to the initial term of the CD only. At maturity, the Special Rate CD will automatically renew for a term of 6 months, at the interest rate and APY in effect for CDs on renewal date not subject to a Special Rate, unless the Bank has notified you otherwise. Due to the new money requirement, accounts may only be opened at your local branch. Wells Fargo reserves the right to modify or discontinue the offer at any time without notice. Offer cannot be combined with any other consumer deposit offer. Minimum new money deposit requirement of at least $25,000 is for this offer only and cannot be transferred to another account to qualify for any other consumer deposit offer. If you wish to take advantage of another consumer deposit offer requiring a minimum new money deposit, you will be required to do so with another new money deposit as stated in the offer requirements and qualifications. Offer cannot be reproduced, purchased, sold, transferred, or traded. 3. The Portfolio by Wells Fargo program has a $30 monthly service fee, which can be avoided when you have one of the following qualifying balances: $25,000 or more in qualifying linked bank deposit accounts (checking, savings, CDs, FDIC-insured IRAs) or $50,000 or more in any combination of qualifying linked banking, brokerage (available through Wells Fargo Advisors, LLC), and credit balances (including 10% of mortgage balances, certain mortgages not eligible). If the Portfolio by Wells Fargo relationship is terminated, the bonus interest rate on all eligible savings accounts, and discounts or fee waivers on other products and services, will discontinue and revert to the Bank's then-current applicable rate or fee. For bonus interest rates on time accounts, this change will occur upon renewal. If the Portfolio by Wells Fargo relationship is terminated, the remaining unlinked Wells Fargo Portfolio Checking or Wells Fargo Prime Checking account will be converted to another checking product or closed.

built and donated an Adirondack to his design. Both of these individuals plan to build and donate more, and the club is now providing funds to assist. Kiwanis members rebuilt the old trading post in 2017. And the kitchen has been totally updated. Other local volunteers have also been busy painting, clearing campsites, and a multitude of other good things. Last year the NRA awarded a major grant for a new rifle range.

For his efforts, Paulus been honored by the BSA with the highest award given a non Scout - The Heart of an Eagle. However, he shuns any personal credit for the work, insisting that a lot of people with several groups can take pride in the improvements over the past few years.

The important aspect is that a beautifully-restored Westmoreland BSA Reservation is once again available for regular unrestricted use and is easily accessible to the Scouts of Northwest Alabama, Southwest Tennessee, and Northeast Mississippi.

FAME Program...

of paid industry experience. Students will be selected by sponsoring companies.

“The FAME program is not just a trend,” Cologross said during her welcome. “It integrates students directly into our local workforce through our sponsoring companies. This will help the college and our local business and industry partners to work together to produce qualified employees like never before.”

The FAME program is ideal for students who have a high interest in a STEM (Science, Technology, Engineering and Math) field or who have participated in activities such as the Best Robotics Competition. Enrollees will begin working with their sponsoring company during the summer prior to the start of their coursework in the fall. Starting wages are very competitive, and students have the potential for performance-based raises and bonuses throughout the program.

“FAME is led by business and industry,” stated Rousseau during his presentation. “We want our companies to take ownership of the program.”

For more information on the FAME program at NW-SCC, email fame@nwsc.edu or contact Leslie Tomlinson at 256-331-8040.

SKILLS TRAINING CENTER

Companies had an opportunity to visit an open house of the new MSSC (Manufacturing Skill Standards Council) Training Center following the FAME kick-off.

The MSSC is an industry-led and federally recognized training, assessment, and certification system focused on the skills and knowledge needed by today’s manufacturing workforce. Through a partnership with the ACCS and MSSC, Alabama students may now be certified as a Certified Production Technician (CPT) through the completion of approved coursework and training.

Tax Holiday for Severe Weather

MONTGOMERY – Alabama will observe its eighth annual Severe Weather Preparedness Sales Tax Holiday this weekend. The Alabama Retail Association encourages Alabamians to restock emergency supplies in homes, workplaces, and vehicles during this three-day tax holiday. Certain emergency preparedness items will be exempt from the state's 4% state sales tax, and in some cities and counties, local taxes are waived on those items as well. Most local cities and towns are participating. It means shoppers can save as much as 10% on these items in some areas of the state.

From 12:01am on Friday, February 22 - midnight Sunday, February 24 the tax-exempt items include the following priced at $60 or less:

Flashlights, lanterns
Battery-powered or hand-crank radio
Batteries
First-aid kits
Cell phone charger
Two-way radios
Manual can openers
Tarps and plastic sheeting
Duct tape
Fire extinguishers
Tie-down kits, bungee cords or rope
Other tax-free items include coolers, ice packs, plywood, window film and smoke/fire/carbon monoxide detectors. Portable generators and power cords costing $1,000 or less are also tax free.

For a full list of tax-free items, go to alabamaretail.org/alabamasalestaxholidays.

Alabama is one of three states with a severe weather preparedness sales tax holiday in 2019. The others are Texas and Virginia.

Alabama Retail recommends having enough supplies in emergency kits to last 72 hours following a disaster. For information on what items to include in emergency kits, as well as steps to take before and after disasters, visit ready.gov.

LADIES AND GENTLEMEN, we may be on the verge of something extraordinary. It is not often that I get to be the first to report such good news. It is my profound privilege to inform you that our government might actually be on the verge of not screwing something up for a change.

Robocalls have been the bane of my office experience for years and they have progressively gotten more irritating and frequent. The phone companies have known this but have refused to do anything about them. Estimates are that by sometime this year, 50% of all calls will be spam or robocalls. I don't know about you, but that is already the case at my office.

Fisher

ROBOCALLS-SHAKEN AND STIRRED

by "The Computer Skeptic"

There was a time when you could screen calls effectively using only your caller ID because caller ID reliably informed you of who was calling. But robocallers, telemarketers, and scammers get around Caller ID defenses with what's called spoofing, which is when a bogus name or number shows up on your Caller ID screen. It's relatively easy to do and very hard to prevent.

Some of us use apps on our smartphones. I wrote about the Hiya app a few months ago. It's very effective and free.

However, there are no "apps" for most office and home phones so those are wide open for exploitation.

That is about to change. In November of last year, the chairman of the Federal Communications Commission (FCC) sent warning letters to all the major carriers telling them to block spam calls or the FCC would start breaking kneecaps. The technology is supposed to roll out sometime this year.

The technology that the FCC wants carriers to implement is called STIR and SHAKEN which stands for Secure Telephony Identity Revisited and Secure Handling of Asserted information using toKENs. I think it's kinda weird that someone sat around and played with acronyms until they found one that makes absolutely no sense at all.

They way this will work gets really complicated, but the down-and-dirty of it is that each caller and answerer will be associated with a "certificate." This is not a certificate that you can hang on your wall. This is a digital certificate generated by the phone companies on your behalf that essentially says, "Hi there! I am a real human!" Those certificates will be stored on a central computer out there in the cloud. If you don't have a verified certificate, you don't get to make a call.

One major problem with this technology is that there are roughly 4,000 phone carriers just in the US. For this thing to work, almost all of them will have to participate. The price tag for implementing this everywhere will be incurred by someone, and that someone is probably you and me. But it is something that has to be done. There's still plenty of time for the FCC to mess this up, but I'm glad they are stepping in.

The Establishment Press:
What They Are Not Telling You About the Border

I flew to El Paso, Texas to see for myself what was going on at the border at the height of the partial government shutdown standoff between Pelosi/Schumer and President Donald Trump. I wanted to interview those on the ground who really knew; thus, bypassing entirely the Republican presses that said we were in a border crisis and the Democrat presses that said we weren't and that we do not need a wall. El Paso, over 800,000 population, and Juarez, Mexico, over 1,400,000, one north of the border, the other south, seemed to be an ideal location to ask the experts.

This is what I learned. Mexican cartels rather than the Mexican government control entry into the United States. They are the de facto government south of the border. Cartels have carved up the important crossing locations, and migrants do not get into the United States without first paying at least $100 per person to the controlling cartel. They enforce their rules. Agents do not seek out illegal aliens as they once did. Aliens come to them. Perhaps 80%

They participated in the Alabama Council on Human Relations, a bi-racial group that worked to solve discrimination issues calmly. Great Area Support

Editor:

I am writing to thank Shoals area residents for sharing the true meaning of Christmas with children in need this past holiday season. Because of the generosity of donors in northwest Alabama and across the United States, Operation Christmas Child, a project of Samaritan's Purse, collected more than 8.8 million shoe boxes in 2018. Combined with those collected from other partnering countries in 2018, the ministry is now sending more than 10.6 million shoe box gifts to children suffering from poverty, natural disasters, war, disease and famine. These simple gifts bring smiles to the faces of children around the world. Packed with fun toys, school supplies and hygiene items, these gifts bring joy and are a tangible expression of God's love. Operation Christmas Child has collected and delivered more than 157 million gift-filled shoe boxes to children in more than 160 countries and territories since 1993. Although drop-off locations serving Florence shoe box packers are closed until November 2019, it's not too late for people to make a difference. Anyone can still pack a personalized shoe box gift online at samaritanspurse.org/buildonline. Information about year-round volunteer opportunities can also be found at samaritanspurse.org/volunteerwithOCC. Thank you again to everyone who participated in this global project. There are many who do so year after year. These simple gifts send a message to children worldwide that they are loved and not forgotten.

EDITOR'S NOTE - The following article references an "Ask the Attorney" column dated November 28, 2018 that we at the Courier Journal selected to rerun as a fill-in piece over the Thanksgiving holidays. The piece was several years old and unfortunately had some outdated information. The law is updated here. We apologize for any inconvenience.

ASK THE ATTORNEY

CORRECTION

Thomas McCutcheon

Ask the Attorney is sponsored by local attorneys, McCutcheon & Hamner, PC, as a service to the residents of NW Alabama.

A few weeks ago while I was out of town an old article that I had written some years ago concerning retirement benefits and divorce actions was reprinted.

A good friend of mine who practices divorce law informed me that the law had changed. Turns out they were right.

The article concerned widow's benefits and social security and that rule did not change. Basically, a widow who was married for more than 10 years and meets the disability requirements can draw off her husband's earnings record.

However, the law used to be in Alabama that retirement benefits were not subject to the jurisdiction of the court. In the early to mid '90s that law changed and the court recognized "Qualified Domestic Relations Orders" otherwise known as a QUDRO, pronounced QUADRO. These are very detailed documents that specify a division of retirement benefits by amount or percentage as of a certain date.

In the article that I wrote before 2017, the law was that before retirement benefits could be divisible in Alabama a marriage had to exist for a period of 10 or more years. After the law changed in 2017, effective January 1, 2018, the rules eliminated the requirement that a marriage last at least 10 years. This means that any type of retirement benefits could be included in the marital estate unless expressly excluded by federal or state law.

I thank my learned friend for pointing out this change in the law as it is important to domestic relations lawyers. Thank you all for taking the time to read my column.

Buckle up, drive safely and as always, your referrals are appreciated! 256-764-0112

Solid Steel Jacks

Cat & Kids

by Cathy Turner

“Knitting”

So my husband excitedly told me that he had signed us up for The Great Smoky Mountains Marriage Retreat. When I reminded him that I was really busy at work, he told me about the marvelous riverside condo that he had already booked in Pigeon Forge. He talked right over me – he was ready to go. So I got ready to go.

We have been to this retreat before and it was excellent – with great speakers. Dozens of topics. The previous retreat seemed to focus mostly on young marriages, but this one had quite a few sessions devoted to empty-nesters, parents of married children and grandparents. One a week or so before the retreat, in the middle of the day, my husband sent me a text that said, “How can we get closer?” Truly, I thought to myself, “If we were any closer, we would be in the same skin.” But if he meant to find a way to get closer, then I’d say that he did. This retreat was so deep. There were sayings that made me cry about not panicking at change, closing one chapter and writing another, about taking pride in making it this far, accepting your children’s timing, being older and wiser, filling life with each other and God, embracing the opportunities that lay ahead while you have more money! I cried a couple of times. Accepting change.

We also had fun. We laughed at the emcee, a 71 year-old preacher who could do stand-up comedy if he wanted. He tells annually about the gifts that his children give him. One year it was a stun gun, but this year it was a key finder. You put the clip on your keys and when you press the clicker, the clip beeps. He demonstrated it, and then added that he was quite sure that this was the present you get right before they take the keys away.

It was fun to have fun. We saw people that we had not seen in years. But it was also good to discuss ideas and topics – things that the presenters brought up – things that I had forgotten were on my mind and in my heart. My husband and I had moments of closeness when our souls touched. This has always been my definition of intimacy. One speaker at the former retreat, I remember, well defined intimacy as “in-to-me-you-see”. But this year’s presenter, Eric Owens, spoke of souls being knit together and loving your mate as you love your own soul. He gave a list of things to do to cultivate intimacy which included spending time together, not holding grudges, making an effort, being kind, having open communication, and thinking of the other’s well-being. After all of the discussion, I was once again thankful that I am close to my husband. Sometimes I take that for granted. It is a rare commodity – intimacy – closeness. About the time that I was having these thoughts, the speaker shared the lyrics to a Meghan Trainor song:

“So I’m gonna love you like I’m gonna lose you/I’m gonna love you like I’m gonna lose you//In the blink of an eye/Just a whisper of smoke/You could lose everything/The truth is you never know//So I’ll kiss you longer baby/Any chance that I get/I’ll make the most of the minutes/And love with no regrets/Let’s take our time to say what we want/Here’s what we got before it’s all gone/Cause no, we’re not promised tomorrow//So I’m gonna love you like I’m gonna lose you I’m gonna hold you like I’m saying goodbye/I won’t take you for granted/Cause we’ll never know when, when we’ll run out of time// So I’m gonna love you like I’m gonna lose you/ I’m gonna love you like I’m gonna lose you.”

So, get ready to go.

Medicare Minute

Medicare Part A and B

Before we begin talking about Medicare Part B I would like to clear up something that was in last week's article concerning Medicare Part A. As I stated in the article Part A has a deductible of $1,364 per benefit period. I also stated that if you paid into Medicare for 40 quarters that Part A was free to you. I was referring to the fact that you would not have to pay a premium to Medicare for Part A, not that it would exclude you from paying the deductible.

Medicare Part B is the part of Medicare that is billed when you receive services as an outpatient by a Medicare approved provider, such as your primary care physician (PCP) or specialist. Although a visit to your doctor is the primary way that you will use Medicare Part B, it also covers many other services. We will discuss the other services in next week's article.

If you are turning 65 in 2019, Medicare Part B will have a premium of $135.50/mo. Because there is a premium attached to Medicare Part B this coverage is optional. This means you are not required to enroll in Medicare Part B. There are two important things to remember about Part B being optional. First, if you opt out of Part B you will have no coverage under Medicare for your outpatient services. Second, if you decide at a later date to enroll in Part B there can be a late enrollment penalty applied that will last as long as you live and have Part B. There are exceptions to the late enrollment penalty that we will discuss in future articles.

If you have questions regarding any aspect of Medicare or Medicare health plans feel free call us at Alabama Health Guidance (256-648-5710), stop by our office at 885 Florence Blvd (Four Lane Shopping Center) or email me at ikey@alabamahealthguidance.com. Border...

of illegals are referred to as OTM's (Other Than Mexican). When Mexicans are caught, they are simply returned to Mexico. However, the OTM's have the right to have a judge hear their cases. Thus, they remain until that happens. Caravans are a new phenomenon. We were told these are financed by billionaire George Soros. His groups organize and instruct perspective migrants in their rights. After crossing Mexico, these people approach the border in small groups of nine to twenty and immediately seek a border patrol vehicle to approach and surrender, "Here I am!" They know that they will be taken to a holding center and cared for. These centers designed for 80-90 migrants now hold 200-250. They are so crowded that there exists virtually no room between migrants.

They know they will be released into the general population after receiving an NTA (Notice to Appear) before a judge. However, they also know not to appear as 90% will be sent home because they do not qualify for asylum. But now that they are in the United States, the game changes to "hide and seek" until the United States changes its laws. Why? One officer told us that they were awaiting the expected "paradigm shift." He did not explain what he meant, but I inferred that Trump will be removed from power and their group enormity will force a path to full citizenship. He added, "When this hope of being able to stay is removed—this incentive—the flood will end."

Agents invited us to visit three unsecured areas within thirty miles of where we were. One was Mount Cristo Rey located between the two cities but a good distance within the U.S. side. It was identified as a place of danger. The sign posted on the 12-foot-wide well-trod trail going up the hill to the statue warned, "If you're going to tour Mt. Cristo Rey, please contact police department at (575) 589-6600 or at 1000 McNutt Rd." Why would an area within the country and close to Border Patrol headquarters be too dangerous for Americans to visit without first notifying police? Because it is also a corridor for drug and human trafficking between the two countries and you might disappear, be raped, or robbed.

A second was a construction site on the U.S. side of the border accessed by an opening in an 18 foot-tall border wall with no visibly mounted cameras through which construction trucks and workers frequently passed. An almost dry Rio Grande River just south of the construction site had no barrier of any kind to prevent a crossing from either side and then through this opening.

A third site was some 25 miles west of El Paso. This was the connecting point between a high fence, perhaps 18 feet, and a four or five-feet high fence thereafter. The much shorter fence was designed to stop only automobiles and Mexico was easily accessed from both sides over the top or sliding under it. I had one foot in Mexico and another in the United States simultaneously. Picture very large steel X's every ten feet with three horizontal cross beams connecting them. This fence was said to continue this way for some distance west but replaced with mere barbed wire thereafter.

The fence was marked as having been built in 2008, but it was no barrier to drug or human trafficking, or to coming across unnoticed at will. We were totally alone for a solid hour before we saw a helicopter flying the line. There was no evidence of technology either, and we were but 20 miles from one of the most populated areas on the entire border.

We also learned that often the countries from which immigrants come do not want them back as they were happy to rid themselves of their impoverished or criminal class. Twenty years ago the border could be controlled by 5,000 agents, and now 35,000 agents are required. Even U.S. troops are needed to assist.

No one argued that this was not a very serious crisis, nor that a border wall was not critical in ending it. Border patrol agents confirmed, "there is no border security outside a wall."

DAVE Says

by DAVE RAMSEY

ZERO PERCENT INTEREST?

Dear Dave, I know you're against financing purchases. However, is it okay to finance things like furniture at zero percent interest?

Detrick

Dear Detrick, We just finished an extensive study of more than 10,000 millionaires. Not a single one of these folks said they became rich by borrowing money to buy things at zero percent interest. Since none of those millionaires gave credit for their wealth to zero percent interest financing, and since we know banks charge interest on loans, how is it you think these people are loaning money at "zero percent interest?"

Is it possible the pricing of the item has the interest rate built into it? I think the chances of that are pretty high. If not that, companies offering this kind of financing have very accurate and highly researched data that tells them the vast majority of people who take out zero-percent loans don't pay off the loans in the specified period of time. Do you know what happens if you don't live up to the terms of those contracts? It becomes a regular loan, and they back charge you for the interest.

So, on average you're paying for it all. I don't know why you'd want to play with snakes, Detrick. Snakes bite, and some of them can kill you. Avoid debt like the plague. It destroys your most powerful wealth-building tool—your income.

—Dave

EXPLAINING THE ENVELOPES

Dear Dave, I've listened to you for a little while, but I was wondering about the envelope system you recommend. How does it work?

Danielle

Dear Danielle, Don't let the word "system" intimidate you. It's just grandma's old-fashioned, common sense way of budgeting money.

Back in the day, many people were paid in cash at their jobs. Then, they would take the money home and divide it up into different envelopes. The envelopes held cash for different categories in their budgets—food, clothes, rent, and other bills and such. When a particular envelope was empty they stopped buying that item, because the money budgeted for that category was gone. If you wanted a dress, but the clothing envelope was empty, you didn't buy a dress that month.

It's just a simple cash system that, combined with doing a written monthly budget, will help keep you from overspending!

Beware Of Covetousness

Luke 12:15 "And he said unto them, Take heed, and beware of covetousness: for a man's life consisteth not in the abundance of the things which he possesseth." It's wanting something that you don't have that someone else does and you are willing to give up or do whatever it takes to get it. It may cost you your home, family, marriage and maybe your life. We see about Achan in: Joshua 7:21 "When I saw among the spoils a goodly Babylonish garment, and two hundred shekels of silver, and a wedge of gold of fifty shekels weight, then I coveted them, and took them; and, behold, they are hid in the earth in the midst of my tent, and the silver under it." Achan and his family's end: Joshua 7:24-25 "And Joshua, and all Israel with him, took Achan the son of Zerah, and the silver, and the garment, and the wedge of gold, and his sons, and his daughters, and his oxen, and his asses, and his sheep, and his tent, and all that he had: and they brought them unto the valley of Achor. And Joshua said, Why hast thou troubled us? the LORD shall trouble thee this day. And all Israel stoned him with stones, and burned them with fire, after they had stoned them with stones." What a price to pay for stuff that we all will leave behind.

Achan, like Eve in the garden of Eden, had eye trouble, and he went against the rules of engagement set down before the battle by Joshua and the lord. Notice in: 1 Timothy 6:7 "For we brought nothing into this world, and it is certain we can carry nothing out." 1 Timothy 6:10 "For the love of money is the root of all evil: which while some coveted after, they have erred from the faith, and pierced themselves through with many sorrows." Notice it's not the money, but the love for it. This sin is another one of the devil's snares. We leave all at the grave. We all will give an account to God for what he has given us and the opportunities we had. No coming back and doing life over. Only what we have done with and for the Lord Jesus Christ will last. At judgment, the bottle, the high, the dope and the sin all will be a witness against you. You had better get saved, now.

life case of Willie Francis – a young black man wrongly convicted of murder and sentenced to death in the segregated American South. The story takes place in the fictional town of Bayonne, Louisiana. It is narrated by Grant Wiggins, an African-American teacher from the local plantation school.

The audience will be given a glimpse into pre-Civil Rights' education, segregation, and social expectations.

"We wanted a play that would educate the audience and the cast," said Charlton James, Artistic Director of the UNA Theatre program. "I saw the world premiere at the Alabama Shakespeare Festival. For a long time, I felt the story was one that needed to be told, but I had to wait for the right cast. This year's group of actors are right for this play, and they're ready for it. This production has brought to the forefront the depth of talent and dedication the theatre students have at UNA."

First-year theatre major, TaShauna Jenkins, has been completely immersed by the process of bringing A Lesson Before Dying to the stage.

"Performing this play has felt like we're telling the stories of people who didn't get a chance to tell their stories. It won't be like watching a play, it'll be like watching somebody's life," Jenkins said.

The performance is made possible by the University of North Alabama Theatre program, School of the Arts and the Department of Entertainment Industry.

Tickets can be purchased at una.edu/theatre, by contacting the Department of Entertainment Industry at 256-765-4342, or by stopping by the School of the Arts Box Office on 126 W. Tombigbee St. – Mondays, Tuesdays, Thursdays, and Fridays 1-7pm.

Tickets are $15 for adults and $5 for 17 and under and UNA students/faculty/staff/alumni.

This production includes adult language and content and is recommended for an audience of high school age or older.

of children from the adults claiming to be their parents at the border for processing. They then ignore the fact that many of those children are not with their parents, but are being brought to the US by criminals for immoral purposes.

Timothy Ballard, an ex-Dept. of Homeland Security agent, who is now founder and CEO of Operation Underground Railroad, an organization dedicated to rescuing children from sex trafficking, said, "Human trafficking is the fastest growing criminal enterprise on the planet with millions of child victims in its clutches."

His organization rescued a young girl who was 13 when she was kidnapped from her village in Central America. She was then trafficked to New York City where she was raped 30-40 times a day. According to Ballard, "The U.S. is one of the highest, if not the highest, consumer of child sex. As such, traffickers know they will become very wealthy by getting their enslaved children into our country. We do these traffickers a great favor by leaving our border virtually wide open."

I wonder how many of those politicians who resist the President's efforts to control the illegal entry through the border are themselves consumers of the child sex trade.

The Southern Female University had problems and became vacant in 1892. It reopened in 1908 as the Florence University For Women. A fire three years later completely destroyed the building. Today it surprises people to learn that a five story building 220 feet long occupied the block, south of the old water tower, where today one finds a residential area of one story homes.

Savvy SENIOR

Do I Need to File a Tax Return This Year?

Dear Savvy Senior,
What are the IRS income tax filing requirements for retirees this tax season? My income dropped way down when I had to retire last year, so I'm wondering if I need to file a tax return this year.

Retired Ron

Dear Ron,
Whether or not you are required to file a federal income tax return this year actually depends on several factors: how much you earned last year (in 2018); the source of that income; your age; and your filing status.

Here's a rundown of this tax season's IRS tax filing requirement thresholds. For most people, this is pretty straightforward. If your 2018 gross income – which includes all taxable income, not counting your Social Security benefits, unless you are married and filing separately – was below the threshold for your filing status and age, you may not have to file. But if it's over, you will.

- Single: $12,000 ($13,600 if you're 65 or older by Jan. 1, 2019).
- Married filing jointly: $24,000 ($25,300 if you or your spouse is 65 or older; or $26,600 if you're both over 65).
- Married filing separately: $5 at any age.
- Head of household: $18,000 ($19,600 if age 65 or older).
- Qualifying widow(er) with dependent child: $24,000 ($25,300 if age 65 or older).

To get a detailed breakdown on federal filing requirements, along with information on taxable and nontaxable income, call the IRS at 800-829-3676 and ask them to mail you a free copy of the "Tax Guide for Seniors" (publication 554) or see IRS.gov/pub/irs-pdf/p554.pdf.

Check Here Too
There are, however, some other financial situations that can require you to file a tax return, even if your gross income falls below the IRS filing requirements. For example, if you earned more than $400 from self-employment in 2018, owe any special taxes like an alternative minimum tax, or get premium tax credits because you, your spouse or a dependent is enrolled in a Health Insurance Marketplace (Obamacare) plan, you'll need to file.

You'll also need to file if you're receiving Social Security benefits, and one-half of your benefits plus your other gross income and any tax-exempt interest exceeds $25,000, or $32,000 if you're married and filing jointly.
To figure all this out, the IRS offers an interactive tax assistant tool on their website that asks a series of questions that will help you determine if you're required to file, or if you should file because you're due a refund. It takes less than 15 minutes to complete.
You can access this tool at IRS.gov/filing – click on "Do I Need to File?" Or, you can get assistance over the phone by calling the IRS helpline at 800-829-1040. You can also get face-to-face help at a Taxpayer Assistance Center. See IRS.gov/localcontacts or call 800-829-1040 to locate a center near you.

Check Your State
Even if you're not required to file a federal tax return this year, don't assume that you're also excused from filing state income taxes. The rules for your state might be very different. Check with your state tax agency before concluding that you're entirely in the clear. For links to state tax agencies see Taxadmin.org/state-tax-agencies.

Tax Preparation Help
If you find that you do need to file a tax return this year, you can get help through the Tax Counseling for the Elderly (or TCE) program. Sponsored by the IRS, TEC provides free tax preparation and counseling to middle and low-income taxpayers, age 60 and older. Call 800-906-9887 or visit IRS.treasury.gov/freetaxprep to locate a service near you.

Also check with AARP, a participant in the TCE program that provides free tax preparation at around 5,000 sites nationwide. To locate an AARP Tax-Aide site call 888-227-7669 or visit AARP.org/findtaxhelp. You don't have to be an AARP member to use this service.

exactly who He is and what His followers should believe.

Scriptural review indicates several instances where God is noted as being unchangeable (Numbers 12:19; 1Samuel 15:29; Psalm 55:19; Malachi 3:6). If God were changeable, His promises would be unreliable. Since Jesus Christ was also God, His words are also unimpeachable. Therefore, anything in Scripture appearing different from Jesus' own words either is being misrepresented or misunderstood.

There are those who teach one can lose their salvation. The very foundation of that teaching is hinged on the 6th chapter of Hebrews, teaching one can truly be saved and then lose that salvation. For those who disbelieve "Once saved, always saved," I have a few questions: How do they get their souls out of Jesus' and God's hands and their names erased from heaven? Can those individuals repent and be saved again without crucifying Jesus again as Scripture teaches would have to happen?

In John 14:6 Jesus plainly states, "I am the way, the truth, and the life. No one comes to the Father except through me." And in John 10:28-29, Jesus states, "I give them eternal life, and they will never perish. No one can snatch them out of my hand. My Father, who has given them to me, is greater than all. No one is able to snatch them out of the Father's hand." Therefore, if I have truly repented of my sin, and I have, and I backslide into sin, as I and all others have, we have not lost our salvation. We have put ourselves in a position to be continually reminded by Holy Spirit of our sins, to lose much of the joy of our salvation, and to find our reward in heaven lessened, but not lost.

1 John 2:19 refers to those "who leave us were never with us" meaning they were never saved and were hypocrites all along.

Therefore, my opinion continues to be "once saved, always saved" because of Jesus' promise.

A Bright Future Through AOSF

Editor:

When we moved to Birmingham from Talladega County in 1993, my son attended a Birmingham public school where he was bullied. Because I could not afford to move or to send him to a private school, he had to continuously endure the bullying. As a result, he dropped out of school in the 12th grade. Because he didn't have a high school diploma, he struggled to find a job.

A few years later I got custody of my grandson and granddaughter. My grandson also attended a Birmingham public school and he was bullied just as my son was years earlier. I decided to move from my home which I was purchasing to an apartment in Homewood so that my grandchildren could attend school in a better environment.

After becoming disabled in 2012, I had to move back to the neighborhood I left. Someone told me about the Alabama Opportunity Scholarship Fund and thank God they did. I applied and my granddaughter was accepted into the program to attend Central Park Christian School.

For the past five years, she has been thriving in a school where she is encouraged to get the best education possible. The scholarship has made it possible for my granddaughter to receive an education that will allow her to soar into the future.

My Granddaughter is only one of many students who rely on this scholarship to open doors to better educational opportunities that will lead them to a better future.

I encourage every legislator and supporter of this program to continue to support the scholarship program so that our children can get a quality education. We are educating our next governor, mayor, senator, lawyer, doctor, nurse, police officer, educator and even President. So, let's give them the best foundation we can. Their future depends on it!
