You Might Be A Pastor If...

- ~ You hesitate to tell people what you do for a living.
- ~ You've ever dreamed you were preaching only to awaken and discover you were.
- ~ You've ever wondered why people couldn't die at more appropriate times.
- ~ You find yourself counting people at a sporting event.
- ~ You're leading the church into the 21st century, but you don't know what you're preaching on Sunday.
- ~ A church picnic is no picnic.
- ~ You jiggle all the commode handles at the church before you leave.
- ~ You've ever spoken for free and were worth every penny of it.
- ~ People sleep while you're talking.
- ~ Instead of getting "ticked off," you get "grieved in your spirit."
- ~ You've ever been tempted to take an offering at a family reunion.
- ~ You read sermons to your kids at night instead of bedtime stories.
- ~ You'd rather talk to people with every head bowed and every eye closed.
- ~ You've ever wanted to "lay hands" around a deacon's neck.
- ~ You often feel like you're herding cats rather than shepherding sheep.
- ~ Your greatest joys have been in the church.

Strange BUT TRUE

By Samantha Weaver

* It was 20th-century British actor George Sewell who made the following sage observation: "Fear is the tax that conscience pays to guilt."

* When someone mentions the band ZZ Top, you probably think of a group of musicians with long beards. They don't all have beards, though; the drummer is clean-shaven as a matter of safety (imagine being in the middle of a drum solo and getting a stick caught in a long beard -- ouch!). Interestingly, the unbearded drummer's name is Frank Beard.

* If you're like most people, you've probably never encountered a tzigonologist. That is, unless you consort with those who study Hungarian gypsies.

* Those who study such things say that the immortal bard, William Shakespeare, used a grand total of 17,677 words in his works. (That must have been a tedious calculation.) They also say that fully one-tenth of those words had never been used in writing before.

* Unless you were around on April 17, 1964, you may not be aware of the hullabaloo caused by the introduction of the Ford Mustang. In Seattle, a truck driver was so distracted by a display of new Mustangs that he crashed his cement truck through the window of the dealership. In Chicago, so many people were trying to crowd into the cars in a showroom that the dealer had to lock all the vehicle doors. A dealer in New Jersey had only one Mustang, so he auctioned it off. The winner of the auction insisted on sleeping in his new car that night, just to make sure nobody else got it before his check cleared.

* By the time he was 5 years old, 19th-century French composer Camille Saint-Saens was already composing waltzes.

Life Support

After the birth of their first child Tom and Sarah decided it was time to write a will and get their affairs in order. They went to a lawyer and outlined for him their ideas about how their estate should be handled.

The lawyer then asked them questions about what medical means should be employed should they become severely injured.

Tom spoke up, "I don't want my life regulated by some machine. I just can't stand the idea of receiving my nourishment from a bottle."

Sarah took Tom's words to heart. When they got home, she cut the TV cord and dumped out all of Tom's beer.

Salome's Stars

ARIES (March 21 to April 19) Take time from your busy schedule to check out what's going on around you. You might find that someone has been secretly trying to pull the wool over those beautiful Sheep's eyes.

TAURUS (April 20 to May 20) Once again, the Bo-vine's boldness pays off in uncovering the source of a disturbing workplace situation. Your personal life calls for patience, as a certain matter plays itself out.

GEMINI (May 21 to June 20) Forget about going all out to impress someone in your personal life. Just being yourself is all that matters. A workplace decision will need more time. Don't rush into it.

CANCER (June 21 to July 22) Some supersensitive Crabs might take offense at what they perceive as a slight. But a closer look points to a simple misunderstanding. The weekend holds a welcome surprise.

LEO (July 23 to August 22) Sure, you can roar your head off over someone's failure to keep a promise. But the wiser course would be to ask why it happened. Be prepared for an answer that might well surprise you.

VIRGO (August 23 to September 22) A developing relationship needs time to find its direction. So please be patient and resist pushing things along. A recently cooled-down workplace situation could heat up again.

LIBRA (September 23 to October 22) Congratulations. Your well-thought-out proposal seems to be working. Someone who hasn't agreed with you on most things in the past could turn out to be one of your major supporters.

SCORPIO (October 23 to November 21) Things seem to be going well. However, you can still expect criticism -- some of it pretty heavy. But as long as you can back up your position, you'll be able to rise above it.

SAGITTARIUS (November 22 to December 21) Getting together with people who care for you is a great way to get that ego boost you might feel you need at this time. Things start to look brighter by week's end.

CAPRICORN (December 22 to January 19) You should be able to continue with your plans once you get past those temporary delays. Surprise, surprise. An offer to help comes from a most unlikely source.

AQUARIUS (January 20 to February 18) Prioritizing your tasks is important this week because of all those demands you have to deal with. The pressure eases in time for you to enjoy the weekend.

PISCES (February 19 to March 20) Save your energy and stay focused on what has to be done, despite all those distractions you're likely to face. You should see some evidence of real progress by week's end.

BORN THIS WEEK: You are a generous, giving person who is always ready, willing and more than able to help others in need.

PIEDMONT PETS

February 28, 2019
By Paulette Dean

In 1996, national animal organizations established seven basic policies for every animal shelter. Over twenty years later, I am not sure what organization led the way, but they were printed in the January-February 1996 Animal Sheltering Magazine of The Humane Society of the United States. Shelters were encouraged to consider these the basic essentials of their programs.

They were:

1. Accept every animal brought in.
2. Do not charge a fee for surrendered animals.
3. Maintain a clean, comfortable, safe, and healthy environment for each animal.
4. Hold stray animals for a minimum of five operating days, including a Saturday.
5. Screen prospective adopters using adoption standards.
6. For euthanasia, use sodium pentobarbital administered by well-trained, compassionate individuals.
7. Spay or neuter all animals at time of adoption, or guarantee that all adopted animals are later sterilized.

Things have changed. There are very few true open-admission shelters left. The trend is to decrease the number of animals euthanized by decreasing the number of animals received. We remain open-admission; we do not turn away any animal.

There are very negative consequences for the change in policies. Many shelters have guidelines for the types of animals they accept. Some choose not to accept healthy animals from their owners, to not provide pick-up services for cats (unless the cat is apparently ill or injured), and to not provide euthanasia services of animals for owners who have been told by a veterinarian that the animal is too ill or injured for treatment. Other shelters have waiting lists to accept animals.

Other shelters decide to charge an admission fee. One recent case in Pennsylvania resulted in the death of a cat when the owner urged his dog to attack and kill a cat he had been keeping in his basement. The animal control officers would have charged him $100 to pick up the cat and he could not afford it. That case, sadly, is not the only one. When animals are turned away by shelters, the owners may decide there is no other option other than to kill them or abandon them. News reports have been filled with such incidents. We have a file of such reports.

Every single shelter should work hard to decrease the number of animals euthanized, but it should never come by simply turning animals away or making it too expensive for the owners to seek help. We will not do that; our doors are open.

- In Michael Martin Murphey's "Wildfire," who is Wildfire?
  - Which solo artist released "Touch Me in the Morning"?
  - Who wrote and released "Widescreen," and when?
  - Which artist was responsible for the futuristic disco number "I Feel Love," and when?
  - Name the song that contains this lyric: "It's hard for a backstreet affair to be easy, For each hour of happiness there's two hours of pain."

- Answers
- Wildfire is a wild pony who escaped during a blizzard. The 1975 song went to No. 3 on the Billboard Hot 100 charts.
  - Diana Ross, in 1973. It was her second solo No. 1 single, staying on the charts for a whopping 21 weeks.
  - Rupert Holmes, in 1974 on his album by the same name. Barbra Streisand discovered the album, and Holmes, and his career, were launched.
  - Donna Summer, in 1977. In a shocking move, the Library of Congress added it to the National Recording Registry.
  - "Any Which Way You Can," by Glen Campbell. The song was on the soundtrack for the 1980 film by the same name, the Clint Eastwood sequel to "Every Which Way But Loose." The original role of Clyde the orangutan was played by two fill-ins, C.J. and Buddha.

HOLLYWOOD

by Tony Rizzo

HOLLYWOOD — The success of Tom Cruise's "Mission Impossible: Fallout," which grossed nearly $800 million, has prompted Paramount Pictures to announce there will be a seventh and eighth film in the series. As soon as Cruise finishes "Top Gun Maverick," due for a July 2020 release, he'll film both "Mission Impossible" films at age 58 and 59. They'll be released in July 2021 and August 2022, respectively.

And before you think that Tom Cruise must be the oldest action superstar, take a look at 66-year-old Liam Neeson's slate of upcoming films, beyond his recently released "Cold Pursuit." He's joining Chris Hemsworth in "Men In Black: International," arriving June 14; the crime thriller "Honest Thief," with Kate Walsh; and the romance drama, "Normal People."

Hemsworth jumps from "Men In Black: International" right into the Netflix drama "Dhaka," in which he plays a mercenary hired to rescue the kidnapped son of an Indian businessman.

***

If you thought the alleged child molesting controversy over Michael Jackson ended when he died, guess again. A new four-hour, three-part documentary called "Leaving Neverland" may blow the lid off the scandal. Two boys, who were 7 and 11 at the time and later sued his estate (the case was dismissed), claim, "We felt close to Michael with a kind of love for him and wanted to do whatever it took to please him." They also admit they never thought what they were being asked to do was wrong.

***

John Travolta is making a film comeback. His last outing as crime boss (John) "Gotti" cost $10 million and only grossed $4.3 million. Travolta, now 64, hits screens in the heist thriller "Finding Steve McQueen," with Oscar-winner Forest Whitaker, Travis Fimmel and "Mom's" William Fichtner, about a gang planning to steal millions from President Richard Nixon's illegal political slush fund (due March 15). That's quickly followed by "Trading Paint," in which he plays a race driver, with Shania Twain and Michael Madsen (out March 22); the crime thriller "The Poison Rose," with Oscar-winner Morgan Freeman and Brendan Fraser; and the thriller "Moose," in which he's a deranged fan who stalks an action hero and destroys his life. It's based on the true-life experiences of Fred Durst, lead vocalist for rock band Limp Bizkit, who wrote and directs the film.

***

Charlie Sheen, who had that famous public meltdown, saw his last film, "9/11," with Gina Gershon, gross just $192,318. His last TV appearances, in "The Goldbergs" (2017) and the Comedy Central series "Typical Rick" (two episodes in 2017), were hardly memorable either. His misfortune is a top topic at Hollywood parties with the revelation, "Hey, they figured out how much drugs Charlie Sheen did when he flipped out ... enough to kill 'Two and a Half Men'!!!!"

FAVORITE RECIPES

CHICKEN LAZONE

INGREDIENTS

1 pound boneless, skinless chicken breasts, cut crosswise in half
1 tablespoon olive oil
4 tablespoons unsalted butter, divided
1 pound linguine
2 cloves garlic, minced
2 cups half and half*
Kosher salt and freshly ground black pepper, to taste

2 tablespoons chopped fresh parsley leaves

FOR THE SEASONING

2 teaspoons smoked paprika
1/2 teaspoon garlic powder
1/2 teaspoon onion powder
1/2 teaspoon cayenne pepper
1/2 teaspoon dried oregano
1/2 teaspoon dried basil
Kosher salt and freshly ground black pepper, to taste

INSTRUCTIONS

To make the seasoning, combine paprika, garlic powder, onion powder, cayenne pepper, oregano and basil in a small bowl; season with salt and pepper, to taste.

In a gallon size Ziploc bag, add chicken, olive oil and paprika mixture, shaking to coat thoroughly. Melt 2 tablespoons butter in a large skillet over medium high heat. Add chicken and cook, flipping once, until cooked through, about 4-5 minutes on each side. Set aside and keep warm.

In a large pot of boiling salted water, cook pasta according to package instructions; drain well. Melt remaining 2 tablespoons butter in the skillet. Add garlic, and cook, stirring frequently, until fragrant, about 1 minute. Gradually whisk in half and half until slightly thickened, about 4-5 minutes; season with salt and pepper, to taste.

Stir in pasta and gently toss to combine. Serve immediately with chicken, garnished parsley, if desired.
