At The Corral Gate

There's always lots going on in Hopkins County, especially in the Spring! In downtown Sulphur Springs, there's a Ladies Nite Out on Thursday March 14 which may bring you the "Luck O' the Irish" so plan to join in the fun downtown from 5-8pm (watch out for Leprechauns!) ending at 8pm at Rooster Roast Coffee Bar where the Grand Prize will be awarded. Don't miss it! It's compliments of the Downtown Business Alliance.

Hopkins County has Five 4-H and FFA members who competed in the Finals of the Houston Livestock Show and Rodeo Ag Public Speaking Contest. Over 400 youth competed Saturday where 20 juniors and 20 seniors were selected for finals. Pictures left to right are Riley Carroll, Hopkins Co 4-H; Faith Wheeler and Kenna Lane, North Hopkins FFA; Savannah Allen, Sulphur Springs FFA; and Zia Miller, Hopkins County 4-H. Congratulations, ladies for pursuing your interests in Agricultural Science education.

Here's another lady who is in line for congratulations, that's Kenya Duffey Chaffer who along with her husband, Charles Chaffer, has opened a music and performance venue downtown. The couple are professional performers and teachers. Kenya is a singer with remarkable ability and range who sang her first notes in Sulphur Springs, Texas as a child growing up in church. Now, she has returned to town with her husband Charles Chaffer, a musician and composer. As a team, they have opened Chaffer's Place Academy and Arts where vocal and instrumental instruction is being offered.

The ribbon was cut on the new business in January 2019, and on February 1, classes began. Kenya is a certified homeschool teacher and she offer a schedule of classes on weekdays for select local youngsters from second grade to high school senior level. Her classes are similar to a private school offering Christian based instruction. During evenings and Saturdays, teaching turns to music as Charles offers drum instruction and Kenya takes on vocal students from beginner and up.

Chaffer's Place Academy and Arts at 410 Main Street will also serve as a music venue. They will open their doors to the public on March 21 with a "Tribute Thursday" Grand Opening Concert, the first event in the new venue. Plan to attend the Motown, Soul and Rock n Roll Concert on Thursday March 21, 2019. Doors will open at 7pm and the show will start at 7:30 pm, featuring a 13-piece band and tribute singers from the Dallas Metroplex area. Tickets to the Grand Opening Concert with dinner are priced at $10 pre-sale and $15 at the door. You can purchase through ticketstothecity.com and find out more at ckproductions.info. Let's welcome this couple and their new endeavor to town!

The earth is greening up again. Spring is the time for thunderstorms, sometimes with hail, across our part of the country, which makes it an uncertain time for gardeners. But spring rains bring so many blessings, too. "May your troubles all be small ones, and your blessings ten by ten" are lyrics from a beloved country song, remember? So, let's put on a smile and a brave attitude, no matter what problems we may struggle with personally, and be ready to lend a helping hand, or shoulder, to others as the need may be. Until next week, I'll watch for you at the corral gate.

.....and that's a wrap!

We always start with our National Anthem and a prayer from our announcer Don Sapaugh. Gabby Speight, top, and Ryleigh Reid, right.

Local members of The Pilot Club of Sulphur Springs keep a busy schedule through the year, and have just wrapped up one of their most rewarding projects, "Hoop Dreams" basketball for youth with brain related disorders. Over 34 players took part this year, the club's 14th year to sponsor it. Club Treasurer Beverly Owens said "We had members of Teen Court who volunteered as Buddies, members of Lions Club who served as coaches, and the number of spectators was often over 100 at some of the games. Fan support was wonderful. The crowd provided the excitement and energy at these games that any youth deserves when they are playing in team sports". Besides Hoop Dreams, Pilot Club also sponsors the "My Hero" Bowling League for children and youth with brain related disorders. Other annual club sponsorships include a Halloween Bash and a Christmas Party at Our Place, and donations to Shadow Ranch Therapeutic Riding Center, the Hopkins County Special Olympics and Handi-Capable Rodeo.

Gabby added a little excitement this year!

Dylan Jester always our star!

At the club's recent meeting held on Friday, March 8, 2019, in the Fellowship Hall of First Presbyterian Church near downtown Sulphur Springs, a trip to the Texas District Convention in Nacodoches was discussed, and a new slate of officers for 2019/2020 was elected. They are President Debra Evans, Vice-President Brenda Monroe, Secretary Joy Wilson, Treasurer Beverley Owens, PIF Representative Marilyn Holt, Director Connie Newcomb, Fundraising Charlotte Baxter, Membership Monica Crouch and Projects Beverley Owens. Also during the meeting, a need for new members and sponsors was discussed. Donations and dues help fund the many projects the local Pilot Club carries out each year. If you would like to consider joining this group of energetic community-minded women, get in touch with President Marilyn Holt at 903-243-0979 or any member of Pilot Club.

Those tall coaches do come in handy for Ava Oyler and Ky Smith!

Ridge Browning and Steve Clay

Gabby Speight, Courtney Wright and Cheyenne Thompson

Coaches James Van Winkle and Garrett Glass, right.

Special thanks to our coaches from the Lion's Club, our buddies from Teen Court and other volunteers!

Thank you to the SSMS cheerleaders and Willy!

Halftime activities seem to always be their favorite!

Ryleigh Reid and Morgan Deaton

Basketball and music seem to go together!

VETERANS RELAX AT GRANITE RANCH

Tumbleweed Smith

You have to go through the little village of Roosevelt to get to Granite Ranch near Junction. Roosevelt has a post office inside the only store in town and was established in 1887 as a supply point and ranch headquarters. It's named for Theodore Roosevelt.

Ronnie Rains of Odessa owns Granite Ranch, a beautiful 3,000 - acre piece of property overlooking the Llano River. It has a 9-hole lighted golf course, a lake featuring catch and release trophy bass fishing, an old saloon and much more. He opens it up to wounded warriors.

"They sky dive, they kayak, they shoot long range rifles. We have about 20 different species of native and exotics here but we don't do any hired hunts for the public. People want to pay to go hunting on the ranch. We don't do that here. We spend money here. We don't make it. This ranch is for veterans who are somewhat challenged. They've been wounded in wars. They have an opportunity to take some time off here. We have one guy who's a quadriplegic and we rigged up a rifle with mechanism for him to gauge windage and elevation and pull the trigger. He pretty much gets an animal every year."

Ronnie served in Viet Nam with the First Armored Division. Once he was approached by some men while he was at a car auction in Florida. "They introduced themselves and they were with a group called Wounded Warriors Family Support. I'm currently on the board of it and a couple more veterans' organizations. We started going to a place in San Antonio called Center For The Intrepid. I was visiting with some Marines and asked what we could do for them on weekends and they said 'get us outa here.'"

Ronnie makes his living by building gas plants. "I started a little business and turned it into a big business and now I have about 250 employees. We do grass roots design, construction, start-up, pretty much anything to do with the gas and oil business."

He has an impressive car collection on the ranch. "I've got about 90 cars now. Started out just doing Corvettes and developed over into some muscle cars and exotics. I've got Fords, Indy cars, Oldsmobiles, Corvettes, Chevelles, Mustangs, just a pretty good collection. Every spring we do a bluebonnet cruise where veterans take an old car and drive to Luckenbach, drink a beer, then go see if we can find some bluebonnets. It's a lot of fun."

The veterans inspire Ronnie. "Just imagine being 20 years old and you're good at everything you do. You're very athletic and get into special operations and you're fighting Taliban every night. In half a second you went from being a trained warrior to being in a wheelchair. For those guys who go through that without losing their minds I tip my hat to them."
