The Family Of

Nellie Ruth Dye Richter

would like to thank everyone who said a prayer, made a phone call, sent food or flowers and expressed sympathy during our loss. It really meant a lot to us.

Special thanks to Comfort Care Hospice, Pine Hill 1st Congregational Methodist Church, Mount Zion Methodist Church, Pastor Matthew Colburn for his comforting words at the service, Heritage Funeral Home for their caring service and Robert Lindsey for the singing.

She was loved and adored by many and will be greatly missed.

A Smooth Beginning

Patsy Armstrong, CPE
(American Electrology Association Certified Professional Electrologist)

Don't let unsightly hair keep you from being and feeling your feminine best!

Other methods are temporary, painful and expensive too! Accept the only recognized permanent method of hair removal. With 17 years experience and the latest equipment you can expect better, faster results with far less discomfort than seen with older machines.

I am accepting new clients and all Nita Rhoads former clients are cordially invited to continue your treatment plans here. CDC guidelines for infection control and equipment sterilization are strictly observed.

SHOP TODAY'S LOW PRICE TAGS:
We have HUNDREDS of non-advertised items marked down throughout our entire store. More savings passed on to our customers. Just look for blue tags on the shelves.

NO LIMITS:
Our competitors also have advertised specials. The difference is, in most cases, they have a limit on how many of an item you can buy at the sale price...we don't have any limits to family shoppers.

A new study in the Journal of the National Cancer Institute finds that higher circulating vitamin D concentrations are significantly associated with lower colorectal cancer risk. This study strengthens the evidence, previously considered inconclusive, for a protective relationship. Optimal vitamin D concentrations for colorectal cancer prevention may be higher than the current National Academy of Medicine recommendations, which are based only on bone health.

Opioids are commonly prescribed in the emergency department (ED) for the treatment of acute pain, but due to the epidemic of opioid misuse, analgesic alternatives are being explored. A new Academic Emergency Medicine analysis of relevant studies found that low-dose ketamine is as effective as opioids for the control of acute pain in the ED.

For people with type 2 diabetes, switching to sulfonylurea drugs to control blood sugar levels is associated with an increased risk of complications compared with staying on the drug metformin, finds a study in The British Medical Journal. Metformin is a "first-line" therapy (the first drug that will be tried) for patients with type 2 diabetes. But sulfonylureas are the most commonly prescribed "second line" treatment, and are often used in combination with metformin. Compared with adding sulfonylureas to metformin treatment, switching to sulfonylureas was associated with a greater risk of heart attack and all-cause mortality, but no differences were found for ischemic stroke, cardiovascular death, or severe hypoglycemia. Saving You MONEY

SHOP TODAY'S LOW PRICE TAGS:
We have HUNDREDS of non-advertised items marked down throughout our entire store. More savings passed on to our customers. Just look for blue tags on the shelves.

NO LIMITS:
Our competitors also have advertised specials. The difference is, in most cases, they have a limit on how many of an item you can buy at the sale price...we don't have any limits to family shoppers.
