EVC development needs master plan and community involvement

Over the past 5 years our District 8 Community Round Table in Evergreen has been engaging with the San Jose Evergreen Community College District (SJECCD) over its land use and lease plans for the 27 acres adjacent to Evergreen Valley College.

In 2015, when the SJECCD Trustees selected Republic Urban as their development partner, the SJECCD Trustees apologized profusely for their inadequate community outreach effort and committed themselves to doing better.

We have a friendly relationship with the SJECCD Trustees and Chancellor Bryon Breland despite ongoing disagreements over land use, the land lease, governance and the lack of

Molly Cuevas begins her cross-country trek in support of Challenged Athletes Foundation

By William Bellou
Publisher

Molly Cuevas has begun her 3,000 mile, three-month cross-country trek, logging 40 miles per day.

Cuevas, who grew up in Evergreen Valley, is running across the United States from Santa Monica to Montauk, N.Y. to raise funds and awareness for the Challenged Athletes Foundation (CAF), a non-profit based in California that provides opportunities and support for athletes who face physical challenges.

The starting line was the Santa Monica Pier instead of the Bay Area in order to avoid the mountain ranges in Colorado. She first touched the water of the Pacific Ocean.

Now in her 10th day, as the Evergreen Times went to press, Cuevas has logged in nearly 400 miles and is now in Arizona. She has some swelling in her ankles and feet. She also has some stiffness in her legs. Keeping hydrated is also a problem as the weather has been warm.

"My body is definitely not used to training in this type of weather so making sure I'm hydrating enough will continue to be a challenge," Cuevas wrote. "Because of the heat, I've gotten started a bit earlier (6:30 a.m.) the last couple of days. 8 hours under the sun is not easy on my body, mind, or skin, but my inspiration lies with CAF."

Cuevas is currently burning nearly 4,000 calories per day. "Calorie consumption is going to play a big role in getting me through this 3-month journey,"

Cuevas wrote, "Right now, I'm eating a relatively large breakfast and dinner. Because it's in the middle of my run, my lunch tends to be on the lighter side to keep me from running on a full belly. On top of those three meals, I also sleep with a sandwich next to me so that I can eat in the middle of the night."

First running day

Cuevas wrote about her first day of the run in her blog, "I woke up anxious and excited to start my first day of running," said Cuevas. "Friends, Family, CAF staff and athletes gathered around the Santa Monica Pier arch around 9:30 a.m. to help send me on my way. It was so exciting to connect with Adrian Broca and Tracie Garacochea, two CAF athletes that came out not only to show their support but to join me for the first few miles. Meeting them on Day 1 gave me the boost of energy I needed to get going and also reminded me exactly why I'm running across the United States.

Cuevas continued: "I really want to emphasize something. This is not about me. This is about raising awareness and funds for Challenged Athletes Foundation, a non-profit that I am incredibly passionate about. I grew up playing any and every sport that I wanted to, a privilege that I no longer take for granted and I am so grateful for. As I've become more aware of the opportunities that I had as an athlete growing up, it saddens me to think about kids and adults that don't have those same opportunities that I did and still do. There are so many people out there that aren't able to fulfill an athletic dream of theirs or people that can't participate in something that brings them joy because they have physical limitations. I'm doing this for them."

Challenged Athletes Foundation

Challenged Athletes Foundation (CAF) provides opportunities and support to people with physical challenges, so they can pursue an active lifestyle through physical activity and competitive athletics. In 2017, CAF distributed 2,448 grants across 43 countries. The youngest grantee was 5 years old, and the oldest was 83.

"Sports have been a vital part of my life and have made me the hard-working, self-assured, go-getter person I am today," said Cuevas. "Sports create a sense of confidence, community, and empowerment. I believe everyone deserves a chance to participate in such meaningful experiences. CAF gives everyone the chance to participate, and I think more people need to know about this amazing foundation."

Cuevas was a three-time All-American, a four-time Academic All-American, captain and broke nearly every modern-era record the field hockey program had, while also setting some new ones of her own while attending Adelphi University. She is Adelphi's career leader in points (134) and assists (52), Cuevas also ranks second in career goals (41), and appeared in all 80 games the Panthers played in her four years. She led all of NCAA Division II in assists per game twice, and helped lead the team to a pair of NCAA Tournament appearances and four NE10 playoff berths, which included a share of the regular season conference title in 2015.

Molly Cuevas enters Parker, Arizona on her trek across the country.

Evergreen School District names Zamora 2019 Teacher of the Year

Suzanne Zamora, a Language Arts teacher at Bulldog Tech on the campus of LeyVa Middle School in the Evergreen School District, will represent Evergreen as the Santa Clara County Teacher of the Year for 2019-20.

Suzanne was surprised by the news at a school meeting when Asst. Superintendent Dan Deguara and Human Resources Director Carole Schmitt announced it to everyone amidst the cheers of students and staff.

"Without a doubt, I was in complete disbelief when the announcement was made," said Mrs. Zamora. "Once I had time to process, I felt so blessed and thankful to be given the opportunity to represent Bulldog Tech and the Evergreen School District, which is overflowing with so many superb educators. I really am beyond grateful for the professional teaching community I am part of at Bulldog Tech; I learn so much from them daily, and they all deserve to be called Teachers of the Year."

Suzanne Zamora has been a teacher in Evergreen School District for twelve years. She currently teaches at Bulldog Tech but has also taught at Quimby Oak and LeyVa Middle Schools. At Bulldog Tech, a New Tech Network School, she teaches 7th grade Language Arts integrated with Social Studies alongside her teaching partner, Mr. Padilla, and also teaches designed English Language Development to 7th and 8th grade students. Mrs. Zamora has completed advanced professional development through the New Tech Network that allows her to deliver rigorous project-based learning in all of her classes.

One of Mrs. Zamora's favorite projects to coordinate, with her English Language Development students, is Bulldog Winter Holiday. At this affair Kindergartners from Katherine Smith School are invited to celebrate the season. The event was recently recognized by the San Jose City Council for its innovative outreach to the community.

"Mrs. Zamora is the teacher that we all remember when we grow up," said Site Director Randy Hollenkamp. "Students talk about how much she cares for them and how much she loves to teach. She has a constant stream of students coming back to visit her. They all enjoy telling her how much she has helped them to be successful in school and in life. The staff at Bulldog is so grateful to have her as part of our team. She continues to impact so many people every day."

On behalf of Evergreen School District Board of Trustees, Board President Bonnie Mace stated "Suzanne Zamora is an outstanding teacher who cares deeply about each student. We are truly lucky to have her representing LeyVa Bulldog Tech and Evergreen School District."

Mrs. Zamora will be recognized and celebrated at the Santa Clara County Office Of Education Teacher of the Year Celebration in October.

The wonderful meaning of Easter Sunday

By Greg Gates

Senior Pastor of the Point Church

Easter is a day of celebration for all of humanity because it was the day that proved that everything Jesus said was true.

Jesus talked about how he was the sacrificial lamb for the entire world.

Before Jesus, the Jewish Bible taught that when people sin a compensatory price must be paid, usually a lamb. Regardless, they knew that no matter how many sacrifices they made, their sins would always outweigh it.

Thus, they put their hope in a promise that someday God would arrange a sacrifice that was so valuable that it would cover all of humanity's sins, once and for all.

That promise was fulfilled when Jesus died on the cross and the price for your sins is paid today in full when you accept his offer of forgiveness. But, that's not the best part...

A personal relationship

Jesus said that he was starting a new religion out of the old (Judaism). And this religion would not be about keeping rules but would be about a personal relationship with an all loving God. With our sins forgiven there is nothing to separate us from God while we live here on earth. But it gets better...

Jesus talked about a future home in heaven. That if we live our life following Jesus, that when our bodies die our soul will follow him right into heaven. We're getting closer to the best part...

2,000 years ago, 3 days after Jesus died, on a Sunday morning, Jesus overcame our greatest enemy, death, by being resurrected from the grave. Death would never again be the final sentence for the human body.

Resurrection is not to be confused with resuscitation. A resurrected body is a body that is suitable for eternity. Jesus then spent the next 40 days in the same places he did before he died, talking to individuals and crowds, proving that there is life after death. Many of the witnesses of the resurrected Jesus are named in the Bible.

Our bodies will be resurrected

And here is the best part! Easter means that there is a day on God's calendar when our bodies will also be resurrected, just like Jesus'.

There's more, that's the day when God will move to earth and live among us. We will be his people and he will be our God. On that day he will wipe every tear from our eyes and there will be no more death or mourning or crying or pain for the type of world we live in today will end and God will make everything new.

Easter is the reason we worship together on Sundays, to remember the new that's coming. And every day that passes means we are one day closer to the resurrection of our bodies and a new earth. How wonderful!

Greg Gates is the pastor at The Point Church, located in Evergreen Valley,

3695 Rose Terrasse Circle, San Jose, CA 95148. Services are held Sunday's at 10:30 a.m.; Phone: (408) 270-7646; email: info@thepoint.church The Point Church has been ministering to the people of San Jose since 1907. Worship services are held in five languages, all at 10:30 a.m. on Sundays. Each language service has their own pastor, auditorium and live worship. Evergreen Valley College addressing the critical needs of our students

By Keith Aytch

President, Evergreen Valley College

With our values of equity, opportunity and social justice, Evergreen Valley College provides over 100 different certificates and degrees and many innovative academic support services for our diverse student population.

We have a dedicated group of classified professionals, engaging faculty and student-centered administrators who work as a team to provide an enriching and inspiring college atmosphere for our amazing students.

Many of our students, however, face significant challenges along their path towards career and lifelong success. Imagine how difficult it is to keep up good grades in class or to balance school and work when you don't know where you are going to sleep that night - and when you don't know when your next meal is coming.

I was saddened when I read the Hope Center's results of the #RealCollege survey for California Community Colleges, which came out last month. Nearly 40,000 students from 57 community colleges throughout California participated in the assessment of basic needs security released by the California more meaningful community involvement in master planning the 27 acres together.

The differences relate to the tendency of SJECCD to say one thing and then do something else and the lack of oversight by the SJECCD Trustees and Administration on their relationship with REPUBLIC URBAN and in turn with the community.

In 2016 the SJECCD Trustees and Administration requested that the City change the General Plan on the entire 27 acres to Neighborhood Community

Commercial and a reason the SJECCD gave for doing so was so they could Master Plan the 27 acres.

The SJECCD also clearly told the City that they would not be pursuing housing on the site as part of their and the developer's hard sell to the City Council so that they could gain the Council's approval for the commercial land use change.

The City Council's motion granting the land use change to commercial uses required a Master Planning process for the 27 acres with significant community involvement and that there be no housing.

Land use

Evergreen is also subject to the EVERGREEN EAST HILLS DEVELOPMENT POLICY which limits development in Evergreen in response to inadequate transportation capacity to move residential traffic in and out of Evergreen which is almost entirely a residential community.

In May 2017 the Planning Department wrote to HMH engineers:

Based on the scope and size of the project and direction from the City Council from the General Plan Amendment (GP16-007) discussion, a series of community meetings and outreach would be necessary to discuss this project and how it could affect and/or facilitate the development of the adjacent areas that were also changed to the NCC Neighborhood Community/Commercial General Plan land use. Additionally, coordinate and discussion with staff and the community would be required.

Through an enormous and welcomed effort on the part of Councilwoman Sylvia Arenas and Planning Director Rosalynn Hughey we were able to have the first of what was supposed to be a series of meetings The Council and City Planning Staff required to look at the master planning of the entire 27 acre site instead have been left in limbo waiting to discuss alternative plans and for the series of additional meetings to be articulated and executed.

Despite this lack of follow through SJECCD and REPUBLIC URBAN just submitted to the City a land use plan for 13.6 acres before the Master Planning Meetings for the 27 acres have occurred. Additionally SJECCD has made a decision that they want housing on the rest of the 27 acre site after clearly stating there would be no housing and are on the verge of granting REPUBLIC URBAN an option in the proposed land lease agreement that would include housing.

REPUBLIC keeps saying that the housing has been dropped yet their actions are that they want an option for housing and do not want to master plan the site with the community as is required.

The proposed development submittal on the 13.6 acres is considerably denser than the existing development in Evergreen and would be better suited on a larger site which has the ability to properly mitigate the negative impacts of the proposed development and establish an effective Traffic Circulation for the entire 27 acres as the first portion of the development proceeds.

Because follow through meetings were never scheduled, the community has not been able to work collaboratively on plans with REPUBLIC URBAN and SJECCD through a series of Master Planning Land Use Charrettes which the District 8 Community Round Table requested of Councilwoman Arenas and Planning Director Hughey two years ago.

Community members have made at least three Public Records requests for information on the revised land lease and each time no new information has been provided since the draft land lease was made available over one year ago.

The SJECCD established at the time of selecting REPUBLIC URBAN in 2015 as their development partner that the developer would pay all the costs of getting City approvals and for the demolition and removal of the existing improvements on the site. Instead the SJECCD has decided that SJECCD will incur these costs which are approximately $3,000,000 to $4,000,000.

The SJECCD established a budget of $100,000 for REPUBLIC URBAN to spend on Community Outreach and not much of these funds have been spent on engaging the Evergreen community in the master planning. We continue to request the master planning required, yet SJECCD is attempting to move forward with their submittal to the City without the required community outreach related to master planning.

In 2016 the SJECCD asked San Jose residents to support a $748M School Facilities Construction Bond and now without going back for a vote of San Jose residents the SJECCD Trustees are attempting to use the bond money for housing.

The District 8 Community Round Table supported San Jose's Measure V Affording Housing Bond which clearly stated its intent to San Jose residents.

The SJECCD Trustees are not even requiring REPUBLIC URBAN to build affordable housing in the option for housing in the land lease option agreement. Nor are the Trustees requiring that the $3,000,000 to $4,000,000 the SJECCD now wants to contribute to the commercial development be repaid by REPUBLIC URBAN.

These contradictory actions on the part of the SJECCD are very concerning and do not foster the necessary conditions for Good Neighbor relations between the SJECCD and the Evergreen community.

The District 8 Community Round Table requests that the SJECCD Trustees and Administration make the land lease agreement with REPUBLIC URBAN public for a 2 week review by the community after which the SJECCD Trustees hold a Study Session with the community, and then afterwards the SJECCD Trustees vote on the land lease agreement at a public board meeting.

Evergreen Valley Garden Club meets at Sunrise Villa Senior Living Center

By Frank Shortt
Times staff writer

A great venue for the professional, as well as the amateur gardener is the Evergreen Valley Garden Club.

The club meets at the Sunrise Villa Senior Living in Evergreen on the second Wednesday of the month.

A recent meeting featured Linda Hecht speaking about the planting and care of succulents. About 10 members braved the rain and wind to attend this informative talk.

Linda Hecht, who is a resident of the Villages in Evergreen, stated that, "Succulents are extremely easy to grow, use little water, and provide lovely colors and texture." Linda is a Master Gardener and is knowledgeable on all types of gardening.

The founders of the Evergreen Valley Garden Club were Laura Balaoro and Ruth Eastman. Ruth now lives in the state of Washington. They started the club in 2003 with six members. These were all longtime friends and all but one still live in the area of Evergreen.

Two ladies share the presidency of the club, Vicki Rasmussen and Susie Henderson. Their combined duties are to arrange meeting speakers, have hands on workshops, and facilitate meetings. Vice president, Betty Faultner, arranges field trips, hosts meetings, and dutifully sends out meeting notices, as well as, current events.

Mrs. Faultner says, "We usually have fourteen members attending the meetings but our membership has gone down since we can no longer use the Evergreen library as a meeting space."

Betty further states, "The club provides the community with information on all areas of gardening, free plant give-aways, a social place for neighbors to meet and develop friendships, exchange garden issues, visit neighbors gardens, luncheons, and potlucks. Several of the EVGC members belong to Flowers of Comfort and provide free flower arrangements on a weekly basis to hospice, VA, and convalescent homes in the Evergreen area."

EVGC Meetings are held at the SUNRISE SENIOR LIVING CENTER, 4855 San Felipe Road (across from McDonalds). Meetings are held on the 2nd Wednesday of the month, from 3:15-4:15 (No meetings in July or August) Membership is $20/year or $30 for couples. For further information, please feel free to contact Susie Henderson: susiehenderson@sbcglobal.net or call (408) 532-6602.

President of Evergreen Islamic Center thanks community for support

Dear Evergreen Community,

As the president of Evergreen Islamic Center (EIC) and on behalf of our community, I thank the entire Evergreen Community and my fellow Americans from the bottom of my heart for your steadfast support for Muslim-Americans during the times of difficulty and harrowing challenges. We are a community of law abiding American citizens and are proud residents of the remarkable District-8 of the City of San Jose. We appreciate your continued moral support and love towards our community, whenever we faced existential threats from extremists. We are overwhelmed by the support we received from our friends of all faiths.

During our weekly congregational prayers, worshipers were heartened by the security support very kindly provided by the San Jose Police Department.

What happened at Christchurch, New Zealand, is the worst nightmare of Muslims everywhere, particularly in the West, to be attacked by extremists wielding heavy-duty weapons during the Friday congregational prayers. That's when Muslims, young and old, women and men, gather in large numbers in their local mosques. What happened at Christchurch was a premeditated murder.

We at the Evergreen Islamic Center stand with our fellow-Americans – Jews, Christians, Hindus, Buddhists and all other people - against any act of violence that threatens the sanctity of human lives. At the same time, we will never let despair overcome hope even as we remain vigilant against extremists contemplating or carrying out random acts of carnage and cruelty in our minds.

Let us work together with love and harmony to create an inclusive society for all.

Sincere regards,
Akbar Syed
President of EIC

Bunny Butt Cupcakes

Recipe courtesy of Amanda Rettke of "I am baker"

Prep time: 45 minutes

Cook time: 20 minutes

Servings: 24

- 1 2-layer size white cake mix
- 1 tablespoon, plus 2 teaspoons, McCormick Pure Lemon Extract, divided
- 1 tablespoon McCormick Pure Vanilla Extract
- 3/4 cup white chocolate chips
- 2 sticks butter, softened
- 16 ounces confectioners' sugar
- 2 tablespoons milk
- 10 drops McCormick Green Food Color
- 1-2 drops McCormick Red Food Color
- 12 large marshmallows, halved crosswise
- 3 tablespoons white nonpareil sprinkles

Prepare cake mix as directed on package, adding 1 tablespoon lemon extract and vanilla. Spoon 3 tablespoons batter into 24 paper-lined muffin cups. Bake as directed on package for cupcakes. Cool cupcakes on wire rack.

To make bunny feet: In medium, microwave-safe bowl, microwave white chocolate chips on high 30 seconds. Stir until completely melted and smooth. Spoon into pastry bag or re-sealable plastic bag. Snip small corner from bag. Pipe 24 pairs of bunny feet onto parchment or wax paper-lined cookie sheet. Use toothpick to smooth out bumps or rough edges, and gently tap cookie sheet on counter to help settle. Allow to harden 2 minutes in freezer or 15 minutes in refrigerator.

To make frosting: In large bowl, beat butter and remaining lemon extract until light and fluffy. Gradually add confectioners' sugar, beating well after each addition and scraping sides and bottom of bowl frequently. Add milk; beat until light and fluffy. Remove half the frosting and place in medium bowl. Add green food color; mix until evenly blended. Spoon into pastry bag fitted with grass decorating tip. Set aside. Remove half the remaining frosting into small bowl. Add red food color; mix until light pink. Spoon into another pastry bag.

Using pink frosting, pipe three toes and padding on each bunny foot. Once frosting has set (about 1 hour) gently press down on pink frosting to create smoother look.

To assemble cupcakes: Pipe green frosting onto each cupcake in series of short motions to create individual grass spots. Cover top of each cupcake completely.

To make bunny butts: Place cut sides of marshmallow halves onto each frosted cupcake, leaving room for bunny feet. Shape remaining white frosting into dime-sized balls then roll with white sprinkles to cover. Pipe small drop of remaining pink or white frosting onto top of each marshmallow. Press bunny tail on top.

Place both bunny feet against base of marshmallow with toes facing down.

Welch Park Community Center grand opening a success

City services return to community center for first time in decades

Councilmember Sylvia Arenas and the San Jose Parks Department hosted Mayor Sam Liccardo and State Sen. Jim Beall for the Grand Opening of the Welch Park Community Center on Saturday March 30 which was a great success..

The grand opening was a free, family-friendly event attracting several hundred people to culminate years of advocacy from the neighboring community to revitalize Welch Park and ensure it remains a safe, vibrant space for every family to enjoy.

This celebration included food, music, demonstrations of upcoming recreation classes, carnival games, SJPD ice cream truck, and guest speakers from elected officials and community partners including Mayor Sam Liccardo.

The event follows the completion of building renovations, including the instillation of air conditioning. In recent years the shuttered building and park had become a hotspot for blight and crime.

The Welch Park Community Center will begin offering classes this month after decades without any city services. New recreational classes for children will start soon.

Welch Park is located at Clarice Dr. and Kenesta Way, San Jose, CA 95122.

Surprising health benefits of pet ownership

By Dr. Raj SinghSpecial to the Times*

You may not think so when you get a heart-stopping veterinarian bill or when all your pet does is lay on the couch and watch TV with you, but pet ownership actually can provide a variety of health benefits.

Anecdotal and scientific evidence have shown that pet owners tend to be healthier than the average person. Here are health benefits that living with a dog or a cat might offer to keep you healthy.

1. They can help you improve heart health

Pets don't just fill your heart; they actually make it stronger. Studies show that having a pet companion is linked to lower blood pressure, reduced cholesterol, and decreased triglyceride levels, which contribute to better overall cardiovascular health and fewer heart attacks. What's more, pet owners who do have heart attacks have better survival rates following the events.

2. Keep you fit and active

Health experts recommend that adults get about 2 hours and 30 minutes worth of moderate exercise per week. Dog owners are way more likely to hit that goal. "People love to be outside to walk their dog, and be with their dog. It helps them be more active.

In turn, that activity helps us maintain mobility into our 70s and 80s. Studies have found that older adults who walked dogs experienced "lower body mass index, fewer activities of daily living limitations, fewer doctor visits, and more frequent moderate and vigorous exercise."

3. Help you lose weight

This is perhaps no surprise to pet owners that frequently walk or exercise with their dogs. After all, dogs are more likely to beg for a walk or a game of fetch than other house pets. Daily dog walks help you lose weight, since they force you into moderate physical activity for 10, 20, and even 30 minutes at a time. In fact, in 2010, one small study discovered public housing residents who walked "loaner" dogs five times a week lost an average of 14.4 pounds over the course of a year. The best part: Participants considered it a responsibility to the dog, rather than exercise. ("They need us to walk them.")

4. Improve your social life

As we age, it becomes harder to get out and meet people. Not so for dog owners. Research has found that about 40 percent make friends more easily, possibly because the vast majority speak with other dog owners during walks. Dog owners in particular tend to be a little more extroverted, or outgoing. "When you start to engage them about their companion animal, people tend to open up and really blossom. They want to share stories about their favorite friend."

5. Reduce stress

There's a reason therapy dogs are so effective: Spending just a few minutes with a pet can lower anxiety and blood pressure, and increase levels of neurochemicals that play big roles in calm and wellbeing. People performing stressful tasks do better when there's a dog around, too, and studies show pets ease tension both at the office and between married couples.

6. Add meaning and purpose

As we grow older—especially after we retire—it can be difficult to find structure and meaning day in and day out. Pets take care of that, they force people to continue to do things. So, even if you're not feeling well emotionally or physically, the pets don't care. I mean, they care, but they still want you to feed them and take them for a walk.

Pets help prevent loneliness and isolation, which is key in staving off cognitive decline and disease. It helps us to not just focus on our needs. It gives us a reason to really get up in the morning. "I need to get up and take care of my friend here."

7. Fight off depression

It's widely believed that pet owners are less prone to depression than the pet-less, largely because they seem to help in so many other areas of health and wellbeing. Certain pet owners—including isolated elderly women suffer less from depression than those without pets.

That said, therapy pets have been shown to be effective in easing depression for a variety of people, old and young, sick and healthy.

8. Reduce doctor visits

If you're over 65 and own a pet, odds are you seek medical help about 30 percent less often than people who don't have a pet. Animal-owning seniors on Medicare "reported fewer doctor contacts over the 1-year period than respondents who did not own pets." And while cats, birds, and other animals were helpful, owners of dogs, in particular, had less impact from stressful life events requiring physician utilization.

9. Battle disease and injury

It's believed that owning a dog can help detect, treat, and manage a variety of illnesses and debilitations. A few examples:

- Some dogs have been trained to sniff out skin, kidney, bladder, and prostate cancer, among others.
- Service animals are known to benefit people with everything from traumatic brain injury to autism to rheumatoid arthritis, increasing mobility and promoting independence.
- Alzheimer's patients are soothed by pets, whose companionship also seems to mitigate emotional flare-ups and aggression.

10. Rehabilitate from illness

In fact, that is the concept behind many pet visitation programs at hospitals and rehabilitation centers. Therapy dogs can encourage mobility, interpersonal contact and socialization among patients. Pets act as "social catalysts," leading to greater interaction between people and alleviating feelings of loneliness, especially among elderly patients with physical disabilities.

Evergreen Pops Concert a great success at Evergreen middle schools

By Johanna Villareal
Special to the Times

Evergreen School District's 2nd annual Pops concert was a great success.

"One Band One Sound!" is composed of top band students from all three Evergreen School District Middle Schools, Chaboya, Leyva, and Quimby Oak. These talented musicians were directed by Mrs. Karen Kolber, Mr. David Bakken and Mr. Gary Ortega.

This year's concert theme was "Super Heroes of the Silver Screen. Though super heroes inspire us, we are reminded: not all super heroes wear capes. Many super heroes are cancer survivors, single parents, women, men, or trauma-survivors. Anyone can be a super hero," said Kolber.

Assistant Superintendent Dan Deguara and Board President Bonnie Mace attended the concert and expressed their gratitude for the hard work and dedication of the band students, and support from their parents and family members.

A huge thank you was expressed by those in attendance to the band teachers and directors for tirelessly working with these amazing musicians, and for making this concert a great success.

Evergreen Elementary School team wins first place in the Odyssey of the Mind competition

By Mahika Gupta and Nithin Lokesh
Special to the Times

We, the OOTM team from Evergreen Elementary School have won first place in the Odyssey of the Mind (OOTM) competition held in Santa Rosa on March 30, beating half of the schools in California at the competition. Go Eagles!

The Evergreen School team, called the "Spontamaniacs", is now qualified to participate in the OOTM World Championship which will be held at Michigan State University, May 22 – May 25, 2019.

What is OOTM? Odyssey of the Mind is a competition where a problem is given to a team and they have to create an innovative solution and present it with a skit.

Our team is made up of seven members, Adit Agarwal, Ananya Mujoo, Lakshanya Ranjith, Mahika Gupta, Nithin Lokesh, Niya Shenoy, and Tarun Dinesh working under the expert guidance of our coaches Rajani Sankarappan and Vishakha Mujoo.

Each member of the team brings their own characteristics and collaborates with each other to fit the pieces and make a beautiful puzzle. We also have to make use of quick-thinking, as judges present us with a problem at the competition and we have to come up with the most creative, humorous and logical solution.

The "Spontaneous" problems come in many forms. For example, the team may have to create a tower that can hold a certain amount of weight, or make a story (the judges provide the beginning of the story) right on the spot.

Our team has been participating in OOTM since Kindergarten and it has changed many lives. We not only learned many different skills, but also bonded together because of these magical experiences.

This hard-working team set their minds to the problem, thinking "how can we solve this?" or "how will we make a story out of this?" After making a plot, the team had to bring it to life by making props, scripts and more. The unique element our team brings to the table is the jingles written, composed and choreographed by Mahika Gupta, Nithin Lokesh and Niya Shenoy.

After five months of preparation, we went to the regional competition. There were tough times during the competition, but we stuck together and waited to hear the names of qualifying schools being called to go on to the State Competition. We heard the announcer call our team's name for winning second place. A rush of joy filled the team and it sure felt amazing.

That wasn't all though; we continued to practice harder, perfecting every single nuance associated with solving problems. Though none of us said it aloud, everyone on the team had just one thought racing through their heads, "We will win this!"

A month later the date of the state championship arrived. The team loaded our props into five vans and traveled to Santa Rosa, CA in the early hours of March 30th. As we drove in, the sight of hundreds of young people pouring in set the tone for the competition ahead. As the day went by, it was our turn to perform.

We set off to a great start, faced an unexpected challenge during our final performance that made us nervous but we pulled our best work together on the spot.

East Side Alliance receives 2019 Glenn W. Hoffmann Award

The Santa Clara County School Boards Association (SCCS-BA) announced the 2019 winners of its prestigious Glenn W. Hoffmann Awards.

The award is in its 35th year that celebrates school and school district programs that significantly impact student success in the local region.

This year, four programs received the award. One of which, was the East Side Alliance program - a collaborative effort of the Alum Rock Union School District, Berryessa Union School District, East Side Union High School District, Evergreen School District, Franklin-McKinley School District, Mount Pleasant School District, Oak Grove School District, Orchard School District, and Silicon Valley Educational Foundation.

These awards honor Glenn W. Hoffmann, who served as the Superintendent of Santa Clara County schools from 1967 to 1984. Hoffmann believed that leadership is a key factor in educational reform.

A committee of school administrators and school board members scores entries from Santa Clara County school programs. This year, 18 program applications were submitted from districts across the county, and only those programs that received the highest scores were awarded.

ELK COME TO GRAZE – Tule Elk came down to graze on the northwest side of Silver Creek Valley Road recently. The elk's antlers are beginning to grow back. The heard is as large as more than100. OOTM and completed our challenge on time.

We put our best foot forward and then patiently spent the afternoon waiting for results. Some of us lost hope and some of us stayed cheerful. When the Awards Ceremony finally began the auditorium filled with hundreds of people was silent.

As the announcement of awards came, the team became nervous and anxious.

The announcer's loud voice rang through the auditorium, as the anxiety level rose and as we waited with bated breath, he finally said, "Going to the World Championship in First place "EVERGREEN ELEMENTARY SCHOOL!"

That was one of the most exhilarating moments for all of the members of the team!

Everyone felt a huge rush of emotions, just as during the regionals, but this time the happiest fireworks were bursting inside each one of us. We must've jumped at least a foot high in the air when we heard our name! Picking up the trophy, pictures and a celebration soon ensued. With our hearts full of joy, we went home completely satisfied for a job well done by our team.

And now the team can shout out, "OOTM – World Championship, here we come!"

College

Community Colleges Chancellor's Office and The Hope Center for College, Community, and Justice.

The survey revealed that system-wide 50% of students recently experienced food insecurity, 60% of students experienced housing insecurity, and 19% of students experienced homelessness.

At Evergreen Valley College:

- 44.8% of our students experienced food insecurity
- 59.6% experienced housing insecurity and
- 15.4% experienced homelessness.

The study's authors also drew a strong correlation between food and housing challenges and academic success. For example, students having trouble affording a meal had grades at a C or below at higher rates than students who did not experience food insecurity. You can definitely see the connection.

Here is the bottom line: If you don't know when or how you will be able to eat next or if you are unsure of where you are sleeping that very night, how can anyone be set up for academic success? It is an enormous burden on any individual.

This is an area we have been focusing on to best support our students beyond the academics. This is about life and enabling our student population to survive and then thrive. So, here are some of the things Evergreen Valley College is doing...

Food Pantry: It began in 2016 with the EVC Associated Student Government (ASG) creating a line item in their annual budget to support students in need to fund hygiene items, and to purchase snacks and testing supplies. In 2018, with the assistance of CalWorks, EVC became a designated "School Pantry Site" in partnership with Second Harvest Food Bank as its first sponsor, and then followed by New Seasons Market. Today, the EVC Food Hawk Pantry is open for 20 hours a week. In its first week of operation, it served 83 unduplicated students. The following month it served 418 unduplicated students and then 531 the next month. Since December, the pantry has distributed nearly 13,000 pounds of food - courtesy of Second Harvest and New Seasons

Market, and we distribute 2,000 pounds of food each and every week.

Monthly Food Distribution: The first Friday of every month, both students and community are invited and welcome to come to the lower parking lot for our large scale food distribution. Each month we serve roughly 3,000 pounds of food, thanks again to our partners at 2nd Harvest Food Bank of Santa Clara and San Mateo Counties.

Grand Opening of the EVC Career Closet: This month, we will officially open the doors to the new EVC Career Closet. This space, located inside the cafeteria near the ATMs, will provide professional clothes for both men and women for job interviews and to ensure our students have clean clothes to wear. There will also be hygiene kits and other toiletries available for any student that needs them.

To begin to address some of the issues around housing insecurity, there is new legislation in the form of a new bill in the Legislature, AB 302, introduced by Assemblyman Marc Berman (D-Palo Alto). This bill would require community colleges to allow homeless students who are living in vehicles to park overnight in campus parking facilities. The students would have to be enrolled in classes and in good standing at the college.

One of our students, Angelica, recently spoke to KQED in support of this bill. She is a part-time student who is juggling three different jobs. She is also homeless and has been living in her car for the past 7 months. Each night, she drives around looking for a safe place to park...and sleep. Unfortunately, she is not the only student in this situation.

The bottom line is... there is no "silver bullet solution" to address the hunger and housing needs of our students. But, every bit helps and the more we can come together as a community we can help provide our students with some basic needs so they can focus on looking forward, on their classes, on their careers, and on their futures. They depend on us plain and simple. It's our responsibility and our honor to help them however we can.

Gas prices heading for $4 per gallon in San Jose

The annual shift to cleaner burning summer gasoline and some refinery problems and an increase in oil prices reaching $63 per barrel is sending gas prices to $4 per gallon or more in California.

A number of service stations in Evergreen Valley have already hit the $4 mark this week for premium fuel.

Patrick DeHaan, head of petroleum analysis at GasBuddy.com, said California's state average currently stands at $3.78 per gallon. "Motorists in California have been hit hard with surging gas prices in the last month, but the situation is about to get worse," he warned in an email. "GasBuddy is predicting that the average price for gasoline will soon rise to the highest level since 2015."

"Refinery problems have plagued the state and the entire West Coast as gasoline supply remains tight due to the change-over to summer gasoline," he wrote. "That has meant refineries must start building inventories from scratch to meet seasonally stringent specifications for gasoline. In addition, several California refineries are also in the midst of planned maintenance, further tightening supply."
