LONELINESS
Do you experience loneliness?

Are you surrounded by people, even people who love you, but loneliness still overwhelms you? Your loneliness can be overcome by knowing the promise that God will never leave you nor forsake you. He made this promise over and over again to the Israelites in the Old Testament, and this promise translates into the New Testament when He offered His Son on the cross for our sins.

He sent Jesus into the world to live as a human. He felt loneliness when he was left alone in the garden by His apostles just before He was arrested and when one apostle betrayed Him, a second denied Him, and the others scattered from Him.

Even as He hung on the cross alone, He looked up to His Father in heaven and commended His spirit to Him in complete faith and trust, knowing that He would always be there when He needed Him. We can have that faith and hope too by simply choosing to believe His promise.

Come visit Manchester Church of Christ and meet others who have also experienced this sense of loneliness. We can help each other with His help.
