GENESEE COMMUNITY COLLEGE IS AN EQUAL OPPORTUNITY / AFFIRMATIVE ACTION INSTITUTION

Tips on how to write CLASSIFIED ADS that sell!

- 1 USE A KEY WORD. This immediately tells the reader exactly what you have to sell.
- 2 Make your description CLEAR AND FACTUAL. State the year, make, model, color & size and tell what condition the item is in. Also, state the special features.
- 3 STATE THE PRICE. Successful classified advertisers have learned that the price in an ad helps increase the chances for results.
- 4 IF THERE IS A GENUINE SENSE OF URGENCY, say so. The words "We're moving," or "Must sell fast," suggest that readers respond immediately.
- 5 INCLUDE YOUR PHONE NUMBER. Classifieds get results fast and often generate immediate sales. If you cannot be available to answer the phone at all times, be sure to specify special calling times such as "after 9pm" or "before 11am."

Great Gift for Any Angler!

Stream & Lake Map of New York

Why every angler and boater needs this map

Professor Higbee's® Stream & Lake Map of New York is the first and only highly detailed map of its kind. The 3.5-foot-by-4.5-foot New York map shows 65,000 miles of streams plus lakes.

For a limited time -- get 3 bonuses with each map

BONUS #1 GUIDEBOOK: Pinpoint the best fishing in New York with this valuable guide. Easily locate over 3,000 streams and 1,200 lakes shown on the "Stream & Lake Map." Your map guide will take you to the top 1,123 select water for 19 species of gamefish.

BONUS #2 REPORT: Finding Secret Fishing Spots 47 tips, tactics and tools you can use to find your own secret spot and catch more fish.

BONUS #3 REPORT: How Anglers Stalk and Catch Record Fish The average big fish has evaded capture for over 10 years. Find out which instincts set them apart from smaller fish. Stalking and catching a trophy requires knowledge of their unique habits and those special times when their guard is down. Armed with the information in this new and exclusive 24-page report--you could be in for the fight of your life.

RAVE REVIEWS

"It is in showing where to find out-of-the-way trout streams that makes the map such a treasure to the fisherman."

—Joe Gordon, TRIBUNE-DEMOCRAT, Johnstown, PA

"I have one of the original Higbee's Stream Map of Pennsylvania on my wall behind my desk. It's the best thing available as far as streams are concerned. I use it all the time for reference. I don't know of anything more extensive and it is the most accurate map out there as far as streams are concerned."

—Dave Wolf, PA Fish and Boat Commission

LIMITED TIME OFFER -- 3 BONUSES WITH EACH MAP SHIPPING INCLUDED -- ORDER TODAY!

Available in Folded Paper. ALSO AVAILABLE in heavy gauge LIFETIME GUARANTEED, glass-like, clear-lamination, write-on, wipe-off surface with brass eyelets for hanging.

Obituaries

Percy Wilson Baney, 79, of Monterey, Tenn., passed away March 15, 2019 at home, with family by his side. He was born March 16, 1939 in Sunbury, Pa., son of the late Paul E. Baney and Jennie E. (Loss) Baney. He worked many years at Avon Injected Rubber & Plastics in Albion, and at Lamont's Fruit Farm. He loved to be outdoors hunting, or sitting on the porch feeding the squirrels and birds while drinking instant Maxwell House coffee, and he enjoyed rooting for his favorite football team, the Dallas Cowboys. He is survived by his wife of 55 years, Kathleen (Whiting) Baney; his four children: Tammy (Paul) Ward of St. Cloud, Fla., Marguerite (James) Davies II of Medina, Tanya (Warren) Bradtmuller of Bristol, Vt., and William (Angie) Baney of Monterey, Tenn.; seven grandchildren: Taylor, Audrey, Lea, Cody, Shane, Layla and Justin; brothers and sisters: Grant Baney, Bruce Baney, Ruth Knight and Mildred Thom; brothers- and sisters-in-law: Wayne Whiting, Karen Mrzywka, Suzanne Neal and Valerie Daniels; many nieces, nephews and cousins; and a beloved companion, his cat, "Boots." He was preceded in death by his siblings, Myrtle Smith, Mary Swiercznski, Christabelle Loss, Catherine Ettinger, Emma Baney, Dorothy Keister, John Baney and Raymond Baney; brother-in-law, Roger Whiting; and sister-in-law, Rebecca Stringer. As per Percy's wishes, there will be no calling hours or funeral services. A celebration of Percy's life will take place in July. Please share condolences and memories at Crest Lawn Funeral Home, Cookeville, Tenn.

Bette M. Yaskulski, of Kendall, passed away peacefully on Mon., April 8, 2019 at the age of 69. Predeceased by her parents Robert & Myrtle Marsielje and brother Robert. She is survived by her loving husband, Paul; daughters: Robin (David) Borkholder and Tina (Jason) Requa; grandchildren: Antonia, Taylor, Nathan and Sean; also several nieces and nephews. Bette enjoyed camping with her friends and playing the piano and organ. The family wishes to express their sincere gratitude to the doctors and nurses at Strong Memorial Hospital for their loving care. The family received friends on Sat., April 13 at the Fowler Funeral Home Inc., 340 West Ave., Brockport where a funeral service was held immediately after calling hours. Interment followed in Greenwood Cemetery. In lieu of flowers, those wishing may contribute to the Paws Animal Shelter, 3371 Gaines Basin Rd., Albion, NY 14411 or UR-Finger Lakes Donor Recovery Network, 30 Corporate Woods, Suite 220, Rochester, NY 14623.

NATIONAL PUBLIC SAFETY TELECOMMUNICATORS WEEK
911 APRIL 14 - 20, 2019

ORLEANS COUNTY SHERIFF'S OFFICE RECOGNIZES 911 DISPATCHERS DURING NATIONAL PUBLIC SAFETY TELECOMMUNICATORS WEEK
Public Safety Telecommunicators (911 Dispatchers) are a vital part in an emergency. Through assessment and coordination of each situation, the 911 Dispatcher links callers in distress to the correct emergency services needed for rapid response times. Many lives are saved within the community due to the expertise and coordination of the 911 Dispatcher.
Please join us in recognizing our 911 Dispatchers for their diligence, dedication and service to our community.
Thank you for your support,

OUR CANADA GEESE

By Douglas H. Domedion

What are resident geese?

With the big spring waterfowl migration over, mother nature is concentrating on bringing forth new growth now. The resident geese are settling down to begin their nesting season. We actually have too many resident geese now, but the migrating geese are apparently in trouble as the U.S. Fish and Wildlife Service is reducing the Canada goose daily bag limits in the Atlantic Flyway from three birds to two. At the same time with mallard ducks on the decline, their daily bag limit will be reduced from four birds daily to two birds and only one can be a hen. The USFWS has also approved a reduction of the season length for all states from 45 days to 30 days. This of course will not make the waterfowl hunters happy, but they have always "bit the bullet" and done what is best for the waterfowl when they are in trouble.

So what are these "resident" geese? There are two distinct populations of Canada geese in New York. Canada geese that breed in northern Canada and winter in the southern U.S. area called "migratory." Geese that breed in southern Canada and the U.S. are referred to as "residents" because they spend most of their lives in one area.

Migratory populations of Canada geese have existed for as long as we know, while the resident population is a recent phenomenon. In the early-1900s, only a handful of Canada geese nested in the wild in New York State. These geese were descendants of captive birds released by private individuals in the lower Hudson Valley and on Long Island. Local flocks grew rapidly and spread to other areas. During the 1950s and 1960s, game farm geese were released by the State Conservation Department on wildlife management areas in upstate New York (north and west of Albany) to establish local flocks in huntable areas. These resident populations have grown by leaps and bounds and have now become a nuisance in many areas.

There is a special "early resident" goose hunting season in NYS in September before the migrating geese begin to move down from Canada. When I was into goose hunting heavily in early September, goose hunting had a bag limit of three per day, but their populations and nuisance problems continued to grow. The bag limit now is up to 15 per day and it doesn't seem like that is working very well either.

Resident geese are long-lived, especially in urban-suburban areas. Some will live more than 20 years. Most resident geese begin breeding when they are 2-3 years old and they nest every year for the rest of their lives. They mate for life, but if one member of a pair dies, the remaining goose will mate again. Geese lay an average of five to six eggs per nest, about half of which will hatch and become free-flying birds in the fall. A female goose may produce more than 50 young over her lifetime. After hatching, goose families may move considerable distances from nesting areas to brood-rearing areas, appearing suddenly "out of nowhere" at ponds bordered by lawns.

After nesting, geese undergo an annual "molt," a four- to five-week flightless period when they shed and re-grow their outer wing feathers. Molting occurs between mid-June and late July, and the birds resume flight by August. During the molt, geese congregate at ponds or lakes that provide a safe place to rest, feed, and escape danger. Severe conflicts with people often occur at this time of year because the geese concentrate on lawns next to water and cannot leave during that period. Before the molt, some geese without young travel many miles to favored molting areas. These "molt migrations" account for the disappearance or arrival of some local goose flocks in early June.

Resident geese are very smart birds with often many years of being hunted behind them. What I see now as compared to the earlier "resident" goose hunts is that the birds have learned to "get out of Dodge" when the shooting starts. They head to the urban/suburban and other areas to feed where hunting is not allowed and then they become REAL nuisance problems!

A word of caution here about geese with young. They can be very aggressive and nasty if you get to close.

The ospreys have returned and we will be discussing them next week. My contact information is 585-798-4022 or woodduck2020@yahoo.com

P.S. Someone lost a small spotting scope last weekend at the INWR at the Ringneck Marsh Overlook. I have it so call me and describe it to get it back.

YOU

BY NATHAN D. PACE
ATTORNEY AT LAW
ALL IN THE EXECUTION

Those appointed executors of estates must abide by certain laws, regulations, standards, and guidelines while probating the estate of the deceased who appointed them. While the process is not necessarily complex, it helps to have some knowledge and experience when filing a petition in probate court to have the deceased's will validated, notifying creditors, and closing off the estate by filing the necessary papers before making distributions to beneficiaries. Because one small error can set the whole process back, most people tend to engage the services of a lawyer to assist them with the probate process. Having someone on the executor's side who has encountered just about every conceivable problem can help greatly to speed the process along.

Our attorneys are knowledgeable about probate and estates law and practice. For more than 40 years, we have handled large and small estate throughout several counties in Western New York. We strive to settle and close the estates we handle as soon as is reasonably possible. To schedule a free consultation, please call the Law Office of MACK & PACE at (585)798-1000. We can provide you with an honest, straightforward assessment of how to resolve your legal issues.

DONOGHUE-JOHNSON ENGAGEMENT

Mark and Shan Donoghue are proud to announce the engagement of their daughter Megan Christi Donoghue all of Rochester, N.Y., to Steven Paul Johnson, Jr., son of Steven and Sharon Johnson, all of Holley, N.Y.

The bride is a 2014 graduate of Northstar Christian Academy. She earned her Teacher's Assistant Certification from Monroe Community College in 2018. Megan works as a YMCA Before and After School Site Coordinator.

The groom, a 2013 Holley High School graduate, is employed as a lifeguard at Palm Island Indoor Waterpark High Sierra Pool.

The couple plan to wed in October 2021 at Disciples United Methodist Church. 🍷

Did You Know?

A wedding is a tough time to experience a bad hair day. Clothing styles, time of day and weather all can dictate a wedding hairstyle, but ultimately one of the most important factors in a wedding hairstyle is finding a stylist who understands you and can exercise your vision. A patient, understanding stylist who is open to viewing different photographs and drawing inspiration from various places, as well as running through a few trial styles, can help brides (and grooms) look their best. In fact, trials are a must to ensure that a chosen style will work with your hair texture. If you plan to get your hair colored, professionals recommend doing so about three weeks in advance of the big day so it looks natural and any potential snafus can be remedied beforehand. Your stylist may suggest a light trim prior to the wedding so that the ends are fresh and healthy. And since you're putting your faith in a qualified stylist, trust their expertise and vision. Keep an open mind to their suggestions. You may fall in love with one of the options you hadn't considered. ■

REAL ESTATE GUIDE

5 Ways to Get Acquainted with a New Neighborhood

Across the country, people are packing boxes, hiring trucks and moving short and long distances. The U.S. Census Bureau says that around 12 percent of the population moves each year. According to a survey by DuProprio, a Quebec-based real estate advice site, 28 percent of Canadians feel the need to move every five years. Surprisingly, DuProprio also found that 14 percent of owners wish they could move every year.

The main reasons people move are expansion of the family, a career change, retirement, empty nest situations, or when moving is more practical than large-scale home renovations. While some people stick close to previous home locations, a 2015 American Community Survey found approximately 16.9 million people moved to a different county in 2015.

Whether a move is across county lines or overseas, it can take some time to acclimate to a new neighborhood. These tips can help anyone get acquainted with their new surroundings and make friends in the process.

1. Host a housewarming party. Get to know immediate neighbors by hosting a party. After some unpacking is done, host a simple get-together for people who live nearby. Ask if neighbors can help out by bringing chairs. Offer light refreshments and some type of activities for children. The event doesn't have to be extensive, just long enough to engage in some conversation and introduce yourself.

2. Walk and drive around. Scout out the area by driving around and making note of shopping centers, parks and places of interest. Schedule times when you will get out of the car and walk around on foot, which makes it easier to take everything in. Use a website like Walkscore.com to find places within walking distance of your new home. Bring the dog along. Dogs can be great ice breakers with new neighbors.

3. Check out community blotters. Community events may be posted in print and distributed through a local newspaper and also on municipal websites. Find out where the locals go on weekends or during the week. Communities may take pride in certain activities. It's easier to get a feel for the neighborhood by spending time with the locals.

4. Become active in the community. Find a volunteer organization or join a local house of worship. Check with the local chamber of commerce for ways to get involved or clubs to join. Like-minded people can make living in a new locale more enjoyable.

5. Dine out once a week. If budget allows, try a new neighborhood eating establishment each week to get a lay of the land. You'll identify hot spots and hidden gems and will also be able to mingle with the community. An app such as Open Table can help you find places to eat nearby. ■

Networking Strategies for the Digital Age

Networking has long been a way for men and women to expand their professional horizons. Networking can keep professionals abreast of the latest goings-on in their industries and provide both immediate and long-term benefits.

Like many things in the business world, how people network has changed in the digital age. Embracing that change and making it work for you will likely involve changing how you network.

• Embrace professional social media. Social media may not have been around the last time you looked for a job, but professional social media sites such as LinkedIn are a vital component of networking in the digital age. If you haven't done so already, establish a LinkedIn profile so you can begin connecting with other professionals in your field.

• Personalize your connections. The days of sharing a post-work drink with a colleague may be over. But networking in the digital age need not be impersonal. When using professional networking sites such as LinkedIn, personalize the messages you send to other professionals when inviting them to join your network. Use the message to briefly introduce yourself and explain your connection before explaining why you want the person to become part of your network. Welcome any questions and warmly thank them for their time. This personal touch can make you stand out in a digital sea of people, many of whom simply want to add other professionals to their network without necessarily making genuine connections.

• Get out of the house. Digital age networking is not limited to digital connections. Meetup.com encourages like-minded men and women to get together with real people in real life, using the internet to facilitate such connections. Men and women who sign up can use Meetup.com to connect with local professionals in their industries, attend industry-specific events and even establish their own meetup groups. A medium such as Meetup.com is great for individuals of all ages, but it might be especially valuable to established professionals looking to combine digital age networking with the more traditional networking they're accustomed to.

• Be mindful of decorum. The internet is a largely informal "place," but professionals should be mindful of decorum when networking online. Resist the temptation to use shorthand, slang or less formal language when contacting other professionals, as doing so can make you appear unprofessional. In addition, avoid making potentially controversial or contentious comments on social media platforms like Facebook and Twitter.

Networking in the digital age may intimidate working professionals accustomed to more traditional networking strategies. But while the methods may be different, effective digital age networking is not all that different from the networking strategies of yesteryear. ■

HOROSCOPES

• THIRD WEEK OF APRIL •

ARIES – Mar 21/Apr 20

Aries, take a few tentative steps forward first before diving wholeheartedly into a situation. It is a good idea to test the waters on any big project before fully submerging.

TAURUS – Apr 21/May 21

Taurus, don't abandon caring for yourself if your to-do list is a mile long. Figure out a way to devote some attention to yourself and reap the rewards.

GEMINI – May 22/June 21

Gemini, a new outlook can help you overcome a problem that's puzzled you. Shift your perspective for a bit, or even embrace some distractions to clear your mind.

CANCER – June 22/July 22

Powerful connections seem to be turning up in all you do lately, Cancer. These influential people can help you in your career or personal life if you play the right hand.

LEO – July 23/Aug 23

Don't apologize for putting yourself first this week, Leo. People will respect you more when you set clear boundaries and are forthcoming in your interactions.

VIRGO – Aug 24/Sept 22

Honesty is one of your foremost qualities, Virgo. Others appreciate this and will look to you for guidance. Express your thoughts while keeping others in mind.

LIBRA – Sept 23/Oct 23

Libra, it's only been a few months but you are on track to meet long-term goals. Keep up the good work and don't be surprised when others notice and acknowledge your progress.

SCORPIO – Oct 24/Nov 22

Everyone wants a piece of you this week, Scorpio. You might feel like you're getting pulled in a million different directions. Embrace this, but make sure you don't get swept away.

SAGITTARIUS – Nov 23/Dec 21

Sagittarius, without an efficient system in place, you may seem like you're spinning in too many directions. You might need to outsource some work.

CAPRICORN – Dec 22/Jan 20

The truth shall set you free, Capricorn. It could take a while to get to the heart of the matter, but all of your effort will prove well worth it in the long run.

AQUARIUS – Jan 21/Feb 18

Aquarius, try new things and embrace activities even if it means going out of your comfort zone. It can be scary to break out of routine, but you'll be glad once you do.

PISCES – Feb 19/Mar 20

Pisces, find a way to unwind in the days ahead. A hectic schedule is just about to clear up, and you have earned some much-needed rest and relaxation.

Espresso-Chocolate Chip Angel Food Cake

Serves 10 to 12.

- 2 teaspoons instant espresso powder
- 1 1/3 cups cake flour, sifted
- 1/8 teaspoon kosher salt
- 1 3/4 cups (about 12 large) egg whites
- 1 teaspoon cream of tartar
- 1 3/4 cups granulated sugar
- 1 1/2 teaspoons vanilla extract
- 1 1/4 teaspoons freshly squeezed lemon juice
- 3/4 cup bittersweet chocolate chips, coarsely chopped

Preheat the oven to 350 F. Have ready an ungreased 10-inch nonstick angel food cake pan.

Sift together the espresso powder and flour onto a piece of parchment paper or into a bowl. Add the salt and set aside.

Put the egg whites in the large bowl of a stand mixer fitted with the whip attachment and whip on medium speed until frothy. Add the cream of tartar, increase the speed to high and continue whipping while slowly pouring in the sugar until the whites are firm and satiny, about 3 minutes.

Reduce the speed to low, add the vanilla and lemon juice and then add the dry ingredients. When the flour mixture is almost completely incorporated, remove the bowl from the mixer stand and fold in the chocolate chips with a spatula. Make sure that the chips are spread evenly throughout the batter and that the flour mixture is evenly incorporated. But be careful not to overmix, or you will deflate the batter and the cake will not rise fully in the oven.

Pour the batter into the cake pan. Cut through the batter a few times with a table knife to break up any air pockets. Bake until a skewer inserted into the center comes out clean, 40 to 45 minutes. Invert the cake and let cool completely upside down in the pan. (If the pan does not have feet, balance the inverted pan on the neck of a bottle or rest the edge of the pan rim on 3 or 4 ramekins.)

To unmold the cake, run a long knife around the inside edge of the pan. Then, holding the center tube, free the cake from the pan sides. Slip a knife between the cake and the bottom of the pan to loosen the cake and gently flip the cake over, letting it fall onto a platter. (If the pan does not have a removable bottom, release the sides with the knife, then place a platter on top of the cake. Gently invert the platter and the cake together. Lift off the pan.) To server, cut into slices with a serrated knife, using a gentle sawing motion.

Planning ahead: The cake may be made a day in advance. Wrap in plastic wrap and store at room temperature. ■

Michael C. ★★★★★

I purchased this vehicle with out ever visiting the dealership. I actually live 200 miles away and found the car at Orleans Ford listed through a popular online service. Charlene was a cheerful and responsive sales representative who really knew her product and communicated via text, phone and email until the I was satisfied and deal was done and then some. Adam and Charley delivered my gently used 2015 Lincoln Navigator to my driveway and helped me sign the sales agreement at my kitchen table in about 15 minutes while enjoying some laughs and a cup-o-java. Best car buying experience ever. I'll be back!

Dawn B. ★★★★★

Just bought another Dodge Grand Caravan. My 2007 had 172837 miles on it. Spent several months and several miles looking for a replacement. So many dealerships that we walked away from. I didn't get my hopes up that this one would work out. Salesman, Mike, was pleasant. I went though the van quite extensively. Joked about putting it on a lift to look at the underside, Mike said 'we can do that if you want'. I felt comfortable and not pressured to buy 'extras' I didn't want. We agreed on a reasonable price and I am happy.

Chris H. ★★★★★

I want to give a quick shout out to Jamie and the service team at Orleans Ford for great service and support. They were with me through the warranty process and fixed my F-150 in a reasonable amount of time. They made sure it was good to go (which took an extra day) and followed up a day later to make sure all is well. I appreciated both efforts since I live 45 min away. I purchased my F-150 at Orleans in 2014 and when service is needed, they are definitely worth the drive. I highly recommend Orleans Ford!
