Strange BUT TRUE

By Samantha Weaver

* It was one of the most influential directors in the history of cinema, Alfred Hitchcock -- also known as the "Master of Suspense" -- who made the following sage observation: "The length of a film should be directly related to the endurance of the human bladder."

* In Murfreesboro, Tennessee, it is illegal to keep indoor furniture outdoors.

* The town of Llanfair in Wales is also known by its Welsh name, Llanfairpwllgwyngyllgogerychwyrndrob-wllllantysiliogogoch. Roughly translated, this means, "Saint Mary's Church in a hollow of white hazel, close to a whirlpool and Saint Tysilo's Church and near a red cave." The sign at the railway station that has the town's name is 20 feet long.

* Those who study such things say that cockroaches can run as fast as 3 mph.

* You probably don't realize it -- and you certainly don't notice it -- but experts claim that the Atlantic Ocean is getting about 1 centimeter bigger every year, and the Pacific Ocean is shrinking by the same amount. It's due to continental drift, they say.

* Linguists say that American English has roughly 20 swear words (depending, of course, on how one defines swearing). In contrast, residents of ancient Rome had a lexicon of about 800 so-called "dirty" words to draw upon.

* The tuatara is a lizard that can be found in New Zealand. Its claim to fame? It has a third eye, located on the top of its head.

* If you counted up all the McDonald's, Dunkin' Donuts, Pizza Hut, Burger King, Domino's Pizza, Kentucky Fried Chicken, Wendy's and Taco Bell locations in the United States and added them together, you still wouldn't reach the number of pharmacy locations across the country.

EASTER STORY

A holy man was having a conversation with the Lord one day and said, "Lord, I would like to know what Heaven and Hell are like."

The Lord led the holy man to two doors.

He opened one of the doors and the Holy man looked in.

In the middle of the room was a large round table. In the middle of the table was a large pot of stew, which smelled delicious and made the holy man's mouth water.

The people sitting around the table were thin and sickly. They appeared to be famished. They were holding spoons with very long handles that were strapped to their arms and each found it possible to reach into the pot of stew and take a spoonful. But because the handle was longer than their arms, they could not get the spoons back into their mouths.

The holy man shuddered at the sight of their misery and suffering.

The Lord said, "You have seen Hell."

They went to the next room and opened the door.

It was exactly the same as the first one. There was the large round table with the large pot of stew which made the holy man's mouth water. The people were equipped with the same long-handled spoons, but here the people were well nourished and plump, laughing and talking.

The holy Man said, "I don't understand."

"It is simple," said the Lord. "It requires but one skill. You see, they have learned to feed each other, while the greedy think only of themselves."

"Remember this, when Jesus died on the cross, he was thinking of you."

HAPPY EASTER, EVERYONE!

Steve's Plan For Tax Reform

1. Gather up all of the members of the United States House and Senate.
2. Put them in one large room and lock the doors.
3. Give each "guest" a paper copy of the United States Tax Code, a pencil and plenty of paper. No computers allowed!
4. NOBODY gets to leave the room until EVERY Representative and Senator has completed their own tax returns and PAID their taxes. (Also works for the Secretary of the Treasury)
5. If any member finishes early, he or she may assist another member. Remember, NOBODY leaves until EVERYONE had completed their return and PAID their taxes.
6. Tax reform and simplification will occur during the next session of Congress.

ARIES (March 21 to April 19) You might need to do a bit more investigating before making a career move. You do best when you come armed with the facts. A personal matter still needs tending to.

TAURUS (April 20 to May 20) Your creativity plus your good business sense once more combine to give you an important advantage in a difficult workplace situation. An ally proves his or her loyalty.

GEMINI (May 21 to June 20) Avoid rushing into something just because it offers a break from your usual routine. Take things a step at a time to be sure you're moving in the right direction.

CANCER (June 21 to July 22) Bouncing back from a disappointing incident isn't easy, but you should find a welcome turn of events emerging. Spend the weekend with someone special.

LEO (July 23 to August 22) An incomplete project needs your attention before someone else takes it over and uses it to his or her advantage. There'll be lots of time for fun and games once you get it done.

VIRGO (August 23 to September 22) Doubts involving a potential career change need to be resolved quickly so they don't get in the way when you feel you're finally ready to make the big move.

LIBRA (September 23 to October 22) Looking to blame someone for a workplace problem could backfire if it turns out you've got the wrong "culprit." Best to get more facts before acting on your assumptions.

SCORPIO (October 23 to November 21) Patience might still be called for until you're sure you finally have the full story that eluded you up till now. A trusted associate could offer valuable guidance.

SAGITTARIUS (November 22 to December 21) Look into your recent behavior to see if you could have caused the coolness you might now be sensing from a loved one. If so, apologize and set things straight.

CAPRICORN (December 22 to January 19) Easing up on your social activities allows you to focus more of your energies on a long-neglected personal matter. You can get back into party mode by the weekend.

AQUARIUS (January 20 to February 18) A dispute with a colleague can be resolved peacefully once you both agree to be more flexible about the positions you've taken and allow for more open-minded discussions.

PISCES (February 19 to March 20) Volunteering to take on added responsibilities could be a risky way to impress the powers-that-be. Do it only if you're sure you won't be swept away by the extra workload.

BORN THIS WEEK: Your sense of self-awareness allows you to make bold moves with confidence.

PIEDMONT PETS
April 18, 2019
By Paulette Dean

At our annual meeting in 2014, our shelter manager, April Hyler Hogan, was given a plaque which had the inscription "In gratitude for twenty years of faithful service. She has gone above and beyond the call of duty".

When April began her employment, she was 18 years old. In those days, we had only one person clean the entire shelter on Sunday. April was the weekend kennel attendant for over a year and, as she likes to remind me on a regular basis, she cleaned the entire shelter by herself every Sunday and most holidays. She was so diligent and careful in her responsibilities that when the weekday kennel attendant position became available, April was promoted. Shortly after that, she became the assistant shelter manager and was now in charge of all the shelter operations on Saturday.

In June of 1997 when the shelter manager made a decision to change careers, April became the shelter manager. One day, she climbed down a ravine to rescue a dog that had been thrown off a bridge. Many times, April has crawled on her stomach in dark crawl spaces to rescue kittens, hurt cats, or injured puppies. I often tell people that April has the grit needed to work at a busy open-admission shelter. She can handle any animal, no matter the species or degree of aggression.

When we receive calls for help in the middle of the night or on Sunday afternoons, April is the person I call.

April has performed mouth-to-nose resuscitation on small puppies suffering from heat strokes. She has held many injured animals that she has rescued from the middle of many streets and highways, as we drive them to a veterinary clinic, hoping all the while we will get them help before they die. She has been the one to organize shelter staff as we have entered many hoarders' homes. She was with me as we walked on what we thought was a dirt floor, only to discover it was a floor made up of petrified feces. I do not even know how many neglected chained dogs have been freed by her.

It would be almost impossible to find a shelter manager who is as dedicated and as skilled as April is. In fact, I hope I never have to find out if it is possible.

April, thank you for your soon-to-be 25 years of service. You have personally helped an unfathomable number of animals. You are the definition of a true friend to animals and to the people who serve beside you.

Offers available in AR, CT, DC, FL, GA, MD, MS, NC, NJ, NY, SC, TX and VA. Portfolio by Wells Fargo® customers are eligible to receive an additional bonus interest rate on these accounts.³

1. To qualify for this offer, you must have a new or existing Platinum Savings account and enroll the account in this offer between 03/25/2019 and 05/31/2019. This offer is subject to change at any time, without notice. This offer is available only to Platinum Savings customers in the following states: AR, CT, DC, FL, GA, MD, MS, NC, NJ, NY, SC, TX and VA. In order to earn the Special Interest Rate of 2.08% (Special Rate), you must deposit $25,000 in new money (from sources outside of Wells Fargo Bank, N.A., or its affiliates) to the enrolled savings account and maintain a minimum daily account balance of $25,000 throughout the term of this offer. The corresponding Annual Percentage Yield (APY) for this offer is 2.10%. The Special Rate will be applied to the enrolled savings account for a period of 12 months, starting on the date the account is enrolled in the offer. However, for any day during that 12 month period that the daily account balance is less than the $25,000 minimum, the Special Rate will not apply, and the interest rate will revert to the standard interest rate applicable to your Platinum Savings account. As of 02/15/2019, the standard interest rate and APY for a Platinum Savings account in AR, CT, DC, FL, GA, MD, MS, NC, NJ, NY, SC, TX and VA with an account balance of $0.01 and above is 0.05% (0.05% APY). Each tier shown reflects the current minimum daily collected balance required to obtain the applicable APY. Interest is compounded daily and paid monthly. The amount of interest earned is based on the daily collected balances in the account. Upon the expiration of the 12 month promotional period, standard interest rates apply. Minimum to open a Platinum Savings account is $25. A monthly service fee of $12 applies in any month the account falls below a $3,500 minimum daily balance. Fees may reduce earnings. Interest rates are variable and subject to change without notice. Wells Fargo may limit the amount you deposit to a Platinum Savings account to an aggregate of $1 million. Offer not available to Private Banking or Wealth customers. 2. Annual Percentage Yield (APY) is effective for accounts opened between 03/25/2019 to 05/31/2019. The 11-month New Dollar CD special requires a minimum of $25,000 brought to Wells Fargo from sources outside of Wells Fargo Bank N.A., or its affiliates to earn the advertised APY. Public Funds and Wholesale accounts are not eligible for this offer. APY assumes interest remains on deposit until maturity. Interest is compounded daily. Payment of interest on CDs is based on term: For terms less than 12 months (365 days), interest may be paid monthly, quarterly, semi-annually, or at maturity (the end of the term). For terms of 12 months or more, interest may be paid monthly, quarterly, semi-annually, or annually. A fee for early withdrawal will be imposed and could reduce earnings on this account. Special Rates are applicable to the initial term of the CD only. At maturity, the Special Rate CD will automatically renew for a term of 6 months, at the interest rate and APY in effect for CDs on renewal date not subject to a Special Rate, unless the Bank has notified you otherwise. 1,2. Due to the new money requirement, accounts may only be opened at your local branch. Wells Fargo reserves the right to modify or discontinue the offer at any time without notice. Minimum new money deposit requirement of at least $25,000 is for this offer only and cannot be transferred to another account to qualify for any other consumer deposit offer. If you wish to take advantage of another consumer deposit offer requiring a minimum new money deposit, you will be required to do so with another new money deposit as stated in the offer requirements and qualifications. Offer cannot be combined with any other consumer deposit offer, except the Portfolio by Wells Fargo $500 offer, available from March 25, 2019 until May 31, 2019. Offer cannot be reproduced, purchased, sold, transferred, or traded. 3. The Portfolio by Wells Fargo program has a $30 monthly service fee, which can be avoided when you have one of the following qualifying balances: $25,000 or more in qualifying linked bank deposit accounts (checking, savings, CDs, FDIC-insured IRAs) or $50,000 or more in any combination of qualifying linked banking, brokerage (available through Wells Fargo Advisors, LLC) and credit balances (including 10% of mortgage balances, certain mortgages not eligible). If the Portfolio by Wells Fargo relationship is terminated, the bonus interest rate on all eligible savings accounts, and discounts or fee waivers on other products and services, will discontinue and revert to the Bank's then-current applicable rate or fee. For bonus interest rates on time accounts, this change will occur upon renewal. If the Portfolio by Wells Fargo relationship is terminated, the remaining unlinked Wells Fargo Portfolio Checking or Wells Fargo Prime Checking account will be converted to another checking product or closed.

Dr. Jacqueline M. Gill Hired as President of Danville Community College

RICHMOND – Dr. Glenn DuBois, chancellor of Virginia's Community Colleges, announced today that Dr. Jacqueline M. Gill, currently of Lee's Summit, Missouri, has been hired as the next permanent president of Danville Community College. She will assume the role at the beginning of July. Gill's selection caps off a national search that attracted 80 applicants.

"Along with her energy and passion for the community college mission, Jacqueline Gill brings with her a tremendous background in workforce development," said DuBois. "Further, I'm impressed with her experience working in multiple states. The Danville region is experiencing a renaissance and I'm excited to see what role the college can play in that with her as its president."

Gill has worked in higher education for more than 20 years. She began her career as the director of continuing education for the NE Campus of Tarrant County College in Hurst, Texas. In 2010, she became the college's vice president of Academic Affairs & Community & Industry Education.

Gill moved to Kansas City, Missouri in 2016 where she became the president of Metropolitan Community College. Prior to working in higher education, she worked for seven years as a social worker in the greater Dallas Fort Worth metropolitan area, including two years of recruiting candidates from underserved populations into healthcare career fields for the Dallas Fort Worth Area Health Education Center in Irving, Texas.

Gill earned a doctorate, master's degree and bachelor's degree from Texas A&M University, and a separate master's degree from the University of Texas at Arlington.

"We are delighted to welcome Dr. Gill as the new President of Danville Community College. Having once been a community college student herself, Dr. Gill understands the value it holds for its students and the community it serves," said Chris Eastwood, chair of the Danville Community College local board. "She has an extensive background in workforce development and is committed to student success whether building skills for a technical trade or for further academic study. We look forward to the passion and energy Dr. Gill will bring to the collaborative effort to continue the economic transformation of the Dan River Region."

Gill succeeds Dr. Bruce Scism, the college's fifth president, who retired at the end of 2018 after serving in that role for five years. Dr. Betty Jo Foster has served as the college's interim president since January.

Founded in 1966, Danville Community College serves the City of Danville, Pittsylvania County, and Halifax County. For more information about the college's more than 100 programs of study, visit www.danville.edu.

'Stamping Out Hunger' One Can at a Time

It's time to start collecting your non-perishable food items for the annual Letter Carrier's 'Stamp Out Hunger' food drive. The event, which benefits God's Storehouse, will be held Saturday, May 11th.

"One of the great things about the Danville/Pittsylvania County community is that they are always so great about supporting us, and our efforts," said Karen Harris, Executive Director of God's Storehouse. "I am constantly amazed and overwhelmed by the generosity of this city."

Residents are asked to place non-perishable food items at their mailboxes prior to mail delivery. These items will be collected by local post office workers or volunteers and taken to the main Post Office for weighing and sorting. At the end of the day, all of the donated food will be brought back to God's Storehouse to be distributed to the needy. For a list of food items needed visit God's Storehouse's website at www.godsstorehouse.org.

God's Storehouse greatly depends on this food drive to stock its shelves for the summer when donations traditionally decrease. In addition, many of their customers depend more on food distribution during the summer months, especially those who have children out of school.

Last year's food drive was one of the most successful with more than 36,600 pounds of food collected.

The food drive is sponsored by the National Association of Letter Carriers, Rural Letter Carriers and the U.S. Post Office.

All proceeds benefit God's Storehouse and the thousands of families served through this food pantry each year. For more information, please visit godsstorehouse.org, call God's Storehouse (434) 793-3663, or email info@godsstorehouse.org

City launches official 'Danville VA' mobile app

The City of Danville today announced a new free mobile app is available that puts city hall at the fingertips of residents and visitors.

The official "Danville, VA" app, which is available in the Apple iTunes app store and the Android Google Play store, is full of features allowing citizens to access city officials and services, report a variety of non-emergency issues, and keep abreast of the latest happenings through social media engagement.

"Each year, the number of smartphone users is steadily climbing, and this app allows these users to reach us from where they are," Inez Rodenburg, director of information technology, said Tuesday.

The app provides handy access to hotline numbers for power outages and water or gas emergencies, as well as contact information for other urgent matters such as trees and debris blocking streets, blocked storm drains, and inoperative traffic signals.

Also at one's easy disposal is tourism information, featuring quick links to museums, parks and trails, and other attractions.

Discover the unique heritage of the city through storybook maps, and learn about the services the city government offers.

Using the app, residents, and visitors can report damaged curb/sidewalks, dead animal pick-up, graffiti, potholes, street sign repairs, and unsafe/blighted buildings. They can snap photos of the issue and send them directly to the City of Danville staff. The issues are tracked, with notifications sent as progress is made on the issue reported.

"Our residents and visitors will be our eyes on the street using their mobile devices to report issues in an interactive, easy-to-use manner," Rodenburg said. "While phone lines and other options for reporting issues remain open, this mobile tool makes it even easier, and it provides real-time feedback to citizens who submit reports."

HOLLYWOOD
by Tony Rizzo

HOLLYWOOD — Matt Damon has completed "Ford v. Ferrari," with Christian Bale (for Nov. 15 release) and has turned his attention to being executive producer for the Netflix six-episode comedy-anthology series "Green Beret's Guide to Surviving the Apocalypse," starring Daril Fannin and Shawn Vance, and the Showtime psychological horror film "City on a Hill," starring Kevin Bacon. Bacon has just completed filming "You Should Have Left," with Amanda Seyfried.

With "Cats" and "Wicked" headed for the big screen, Tristar Pictures has announced its remake of the 1950 MGM musical "Guys & Dolls," which starred Marlon Brando, Frank Sinatra, Jean Simmons (of "Spartacus" not "Kiss") and Vivian Blaine. The original 1950 Broadway show won five Tony Awards and the 1992 revival, with Nathan Lane, was a big hit. Trouble is, the plotline was already dated when they made the 1955 film, and where will they ever find stars of the caliber of the original?

Also getting a reboot is "Fantasy Island," with Michael Pena assuming the Ricardo Montalban role of "Mr. Rourke." Also on board are "Designated Survivor's" Maggie Q, "Pretty Little Liars'" Lucy Hall and "Reign's" Prince Henri, Nick Slater.

TV legend Carol Burnett is joining forces with Tina Fey, Eric Guri-an and Steven Rogers to co-produce a film of her 2013 bestselling book, "Carrie And Me: A Mother-Daughter Love Story." Carol once introduced me to Carrie, and she was sweet, bright and very talented. She overcame an addiction to drugs only to succumb to cancer in 2002 at age 38.

Zac Efron, fresh from playing serial killer Jeffrey Dahmer in Netflix's "Extremely Wicked, Shockingly Evil and Vile," is getting a change of pace in the animated reboot of the Scooby-Doo feature film, "Scoob," with Efron as the voice of Fred, Amanda Seyfried as Daphne, Will Forte as Shaggy and Gina Rodriguez as Velma, due May 2020. Veteran voice actor

Carol Burnett

Frank Welker will be Scooby-Doo.

Former series stars making pilots to return to series on ABC TV are "Parenthood's" Dax Shepard and "Boston Legal's" Lake Bell in "Bless the Mess"; "Veeps" Matt Walsh, "Reba's" JoAnna Garcia and "Ugly Betty's" Vanessa Williams in "Happy Accident"; and "Married With Children's" Katey Sagal in "Nana." "Dr. Ken" Ken Jeong will become "The Emperor of Malibu," while "Grey's Anatomy's" Katherine Heigl takes on "Our House."

Meanwhile, now that Rami Malek is a best-actor Oscar winner for "Bohemian Rhapsody," the USA Network has given his "Mr. Robot" the pink slip.

Another series becoming a feature film is "Deadwood," which ran on HBO from 2004-06 and was nominated for 28 Emmy awards, winning eight. The story reunites Ian McShane, Timothy Olyphant, Brad Dourif and Gerald McRaney 10 years after the series ended. Guess it wasn't such "Deadwood" after all!
