At The Corral Gate

Easter is a time to contemplate our place in the Universe. The luminous full moon of Passover, the Advent of nature all around us, and the blessed Resurrection celebration all put us in our proper place, somehow. We are mere specks, but so abundantly blessed by our Father, Creator of all we behold. At my house, a basketful of new kittens is bringing me lots of smiles, and the several colors of iris in my yard and the bluebonnets abloom along the roadside also bring me a sense of beauty and satisfaction. Of course, with the onset of Spring, the mowing, itchy bug bites and suffocating humidity are just a few days away, but on this planet, we must take the good with the bad! Let us enjoy the children hunting Easter eggs, the wonderful tastes of traditional foods prepared by loving hands, and the comforts and conveniences of life we often take for granted. And, as we consider how blessed we are, we can actually count our many blessings one by one in a very personal way, which is the very best way.

First Baptist Church in Sulphur Springs has a new pastor, Jeff Gravens. In fact, his first sermon is on Easter Sunday, April 21, 2019. You can attend classic and contemporary services scheduled at 8:30am and 11am. The Gravens come here from Crawford, Texas, where he was pastor of First Baptist Church there for about ten years. According to Pastor Gravens, the atmosphere of the beautiful downtown district in Sulphur Springs was one of the amenities which influenced his decision to make the move to Sulphur Springs. His wife Katie and two children already love their new home!

First Baptist Church Pastor Jeff Gravens

The Hopkins County Heritage Park and Museum has a brand new building on the grounds, which will serve visitors well for decades to come. The Winniford House is a new multi-purpose structure built from donated money earmarked for the purpose. With it's high ceilings and white walls, it offers a very bright and open look for events booked there. It will seat 100 persons at tables, has a full kitchen and a separate "Bride's Room" which will help facilitate hosting more weddings and other events in the Park. One of the first bookings of Winniford House is The Reilly Springs Jamboree, a historic stage show that fits right in at the historic park. Come to the country and gospel show on Saturday June 15, 2019 with music starting at 6pm. Lovers of traditional country music should plan to be in the audience for a fun, funny and memorable show which appeals to all ages in a smoke and alcohol-free atmosphere. For reservations and ticket information, contact Enola Gay at 903-438-3568 or Roger Reed at 903-348-7114.

Here's a footnote; although the building was constructed due to a generous donation and much donated labor, there is still a need for the tables and chairs necessary to furnish the building. If you would like to help with a donation or as a Table and Chair sponsor, please contact Rick Wilson at 903-335-2752 or Carlie Penson at 903-383-2648 or any member of the Hopkins County Historical Society. Donations are tax-deductible.

Ribbon Cutting at Winniford Place in Heritage Park on April 16, 2019

Til next week, find an occasion or two to stop and contemplate your place in the Universe. Although we are tiny in the grand scheme, our actions and reactions are important. Let's pursue love and leave off hate. I will watch for you at the Corral Gate!

Easter

Easter, which celebrates Jesus Christ's resurrection from the dead, is Christianity's most important holiday. It has been called a moveable feast because it doesn't fall on a set date every year, as most holidays do. We celebrate Easter on the first Sunday following the full moon after the vernal equinox on March 21. Therefore, Easter is observed anywhere between March 22 and April 25 every year.

Enjoy this Easter with your families!

A LEGENDARY DANCE HALL TURNS 65

Tumbleweed Smith

Tumbleweed Smith

Hoyle nix and his brother Ben built a dance hall in Big Spring in 1954. They were country musicians who played out of town on a dance circuit most weeknights. They built the dancehall to give them a place to play close to home on Saturday nights, the only time Hoyle Nix and his West Texas Cowboys performed there. The two brothers named the place THE STAMPEDE because they hoped people would stampede to get to dance there.

The Stampede opened before it was finished. Plans were to improve the looks of the place later, but people going there liked the bare rafters and rough wood, so the finishing touches were never completed. Hoyle said it's not built for looks. It's built for dancing. Hoyle and Ben started the band in 1946 and it became famous over a 300-mile radius of Big Spring. Hoyle said he helped pay for 9 American Legion and VFW Halls across West Texas. "I gave them my word that I would stay with them until they got them paid for," Hoyle told me in 1978.

Hoyle died in 1985. His death was mentioned on NBC's Nightly News and other news outlets. His biography is in several historical and musical publications. One member of Hoyle's band was his son Jody, who started out playing drums. Jody later switched to fiddle and learned to play it left-handed. Jody has been playing at the Stampede 59 of the 65 years the dance hall has been open.

He has planned a big anniversary dance at the Stampede on Saturday, May 11. Jody's circuit is a lot larger than his father's. As a result, the Stampede is only open 4 or 5 Saturday nights a year. Jody has played for United States presidents. He has recorded numerous albums and his music is heard on satellite radio.

The Stampede has been the subject of articles in influential publications. Texas Monthly featured the historic dance hall 3 times. Jody says nearly three quarters of a million people have scooted their boots on the Stampede dance floor. "To me it's a family treasure." Jody was 2 years old when the Stampede opened.

It is a landmark. When residents of Big Spring have out of town company, they take their guests to the Settles Hotel, the newly updated spring complex and the Stampede. Hundreds of people from foreign countries have visited the Stampede. When the international hang gliding championships were in Big Spring a few years ago 120 hang gliding pilots from all over the world made reservations at the Stampede. "They had a blast," says Jody. "They had never seen anything like this. When we stopped playing at midnight like we usually do, the pilots practically begged us to play more. I told the band to get out their instruments and we played another 30 minutes."

The Stampede has been the site of graduation parties and wedding receptions. It's difficult to count the number of people who learned to dance at the Stampede. As Jody says: "One dance hall, one family. 65 years."
