Hospice Volunteer Chaplain Retires

Reverend Hotchkiss Retires After 26 Years

Livingston County Hospice has collaborated with many community partners and Livingston County residents to provide services to the community throughout the years. In addition to physical and social support, Hospice provides spiritual support to patients and their families. When it comes time for patients to receive Hospice care, they often start to reflect on life and spiritual needs. The Volunteer Chaplain plays a vital role in assisting the patient and family in exploring and validating the patient's and family's beliefs and values to foster and nourish spiritual well-being.

The Hospice patients and family have been blessed to have Reverend Hotchkiss to rely on for 26 years. His kind words and willingness to share God's grace along with support to every person, no matter their belief, is what has made this man so well respected and trusted.

He has been there to listen to the patients, hear family stories, concerns, and share in their joys because of his belief that there is great healing from being heard. He has supported the patient and their family in making, or moving through difficult decisions, and to help them to better cope with the challenges of end of life.

As a Navy veteran, he can connect with veterans on a personal level. It has been his desire to serve God, family, neighbor, community, and country. Reverend Hotchkiss served in the U.S. Navy. Upon his return from the U.S. Navy in 1956, he became employed at Holcomb Agway. His 22 & 1/2 year employment at Agway allowed Dave to be introduced to and enjoy families from the surrounding area.

In 1978 he made a career change to the ministry which included two Livingston County churches. He served the Scottsburg United Methodist Church for 40 years, along with Conesus United Church for 28 & 1/2 years. In July of 2017, Reverend Hotchkiss officially retired from being appointed to specific churches, however, his ministry continues. He continues to serve on the UMC Genesee Valley District Council and served 26 years as Volunteer Chaplain for Livingston County Hospice. He has been acknowledged for his service, including the Harry Denman Evangelism Award, and Rotary's Paul Harris Fellow.

"Livingston County Hospice is grateful for the kind, compassionate spiritual care that Reverend Hotchkiss has provided to hospice patients and their families over the past 25 years" said Kathy Root, Director of Patient Services and the Hospice Program. "He has touched many lives and for that, we are eternally grateful. Thank you for your service to Hospice and all the families you have touched."

Livingston County Celebrates National County Government Month

Geneseo, NY, April 22, 2019— Livingston County is celebrating National County Government Month (NCGM) in April to showcase how the County connects residents and inspires community pride.

The themes for this year's NCGM is "Connecting the Unconnected," demonstrating how counties deliver "people-centered" services, connect communities and inspire civic pride.

The featured County event offered during the month of April is the Annual Livingston County Community Clean Up on April 27-28. County residents will get a chance to showcase their civic pride by volunteering to clean up public parks, Town and Village Halls and other public spaces.

"Here in Livingston County, we are proud to offer our residents many great programs and services," said County Administrator Ian M. Coyle. "Our efforts, combined with those of Counties across New York State and the nation are helping communities thrive. I encourage all of our residents to take advantage of National County Government Month to learn about all the great programs and services we offer."

Since 1991, the National Association of Counties (NACo) has encouraged counties across the country to raise public awareness and understanding about the roles and responsibilities of counties.

Among the many ways Livingston County strives to "Connect the Unconnected" include:

- ... Preventive health screenings, immunization and mental health services offered by the Department of Health;
- ... Mini Job Fairs and job search assistance through the Office of Workforce Development;
- ... Road patrol and public safety from the Sheriff's Office;
- ... Storm and disaster management from the Office of Emergency Management; and
- ... County-operated ambulance through Emergency Medical Services.

To learn more about the Annual Livingston County Community Clean Up and other programs and services offered by the County, visit: www.livingstoncounty.us.

Be sure to also "like" Livingston County on Facebook and follow on Twitter.

Could You Use a PRAYER OF FAITH?

We met Joe several years ago near Penn Yan. He told us how he had been diagnosed with brain cancer. Joe was not just concerned about his health, but also about how his family would get along without him. He agreed to let us pray for him. We called on the name of the Lord and cursed the cancer in the name of Jesus.

The following week, the cancer doctor told Joe the cancer was miraculously gone.

Four years later, we saw Joe and he was really doing well, and very thankful. Our God is a very good God - He heals. Nothing is too hard for Him.
