I'VE BEEN BANNED FROM TRACTOR SUPPLY...

Yesterday I was at my local TSC store buying a large bag of my dog's food for my loyal livestock guard dog and was in the checkout, when a woman behind me asked if I had a dog?

What did she think I had an elephant? So, since I'm retired and have little to do, on impulse I told her that no, I didn't have a dog, I was starting the Dog Diet again. I added that I probably shouldn't, because I ended up in hospital last time, but I'd lost 10 pounds before I woke up in intensive care with tubes coming out of most of my orifices and IVs in both arms.

I told her that it was essentially a perfect diet and that the way that it works is to load your pockets with dog nuggets and simply eat one or two every time you feel hungry. The food is nutritionally complete so it works well and I was going to try it again. (I have to mention here that practically everyone in line was now enthralled with my story.)

Horrified, she asked me if I ended up in intensive care because the dog food poisoned me. I told her no, I stepped off the curb to sniff an Irish Setter's rear end and a car hit me.

I thought the guy behind her was going to have a heart attack he was laughing so hard. I'm now banned from Tractor Supply.

Better watch what you ask retired people. They have all the time in the world to think of things to say.

Salome's Stars

ARIES (March 21 to April 19) An unexpected development could change the Arian's perspective on a potential investment. Keep an open mind. Ignore the double talk and act only on the facts.

TAURUS (April 20 to May 20) A surge of support helps you keep your long-standing commitment to colleagues who rely on you for guidance. Ignore any attempts to get you to ease up on your efforts.

GEMINI (May 21 to June 20) Family continues to be the dominant factor, but career matters also take on new importance. You might even be able to combine elements of the two in some surprising, productive way.

CANCER (June 21 to July 22) A realistic view of a workplace or personal situation helps you deal with it more constructively once you know where the truth lies. Reserve the weekend for someone special.

LEO (July 23 to August 22) As much as you Leos or Leonas might be intrigued by the "sunny" prospects touted for a potential investment, be careful that you don't allow the glare to blind you to its essential details.

VIRGO (August 23 to September 22) A friend's problem brings out the Virgo's nurturing nature in full force. However, don't go it alone. Allow others to pitch in and help share the responsibilities you've assumed.

LIBRA (September 23 to October 22) A business decision might need to be put off until a colleague's personal matter is resolved. Use this time to work on another business matter that you've been anxious to get to.

SCORPIO (October 23 to November 21) Relationships (personal or professional) might appear to be stalled because of details that keep cropping up and that need tending to. Be patient. A path begins to clear soon.

SAGITTARIUS (November 22 to December 21) A promotion could cause resentment among envious colleagues. But others recognize how hard you worked to earn it, and will be there to support you if you need them.

CAPRICORN (December 22 to January 19) Handling a delicate personal matter needs both your wisdom and your warmth. Expect some setbacks, but stay with it. The outcome will more than justify your efforts.

AQUARIUS (January 20 to February 18) Resist the temptation to cut corners just because time is short. Best to move ahead step by step so you don't overlook anything that might later create time-wasting complications.

PISCES (February 19 to March 20) Use the good will you recently earned with that well-received project to pitch your ideas for a new project. Expect some tough competition, though, from an unlikely source.

BORN THIS WEEK: Your love of family extends beyond your personal life to include others to whom you generously extend your care and affection.

PIEDMONT PETS
May 16, 2019
By Paulette Dean

In this social media world, farm animals are getting the attention they deserve. Even people who eat meat are concerned by the pictures of the immense factory farms, by the sights of the trucks carrying poultry and pigs to slaughterhouses, and by the news reports of the millions of farm animals who become victims of natural disasters or fires.

I became a vegetarian when I was in my late teens, almost fifty years ago, but I had wanted to become one when I was eleven years old. At that time, we were living in Baumholder, Germany, where my soldier father was stationed. One night, Mother fixed veal for supper. I looked at it and asked where veal came from. Mother told me baby cows, which greatly upset me. Then, when I was about to put my first bite in my mouth, my mother said, "Mama, mama" in a sweet little calf-type voice. I refused to eat the veal, and have never had a mouthful of it. That supper started me really thinking about where our meals came from, and my parents told me that when I was a little older, I could make the decision to stop eating meat if I still wanted to. They probably thought I would never think about it again.

I first gave up the red meats and pork, but quickly gave up poultry and fish. Vegetarian choices are so much easier now. Most grocery stores carry soy milk, meat substitutes, and even eggs from free-range chickens (although there are many problems with even those).

There are many types of vegetarians. Some eat dairy products and eggs, some do not, and some do not eat gelatin. (I researched how gelatin is made, so I gave up Jell-O, marshmallows, etc.). Veganism is also gaining in popularity.

One only has to look at the difference in the condition of animals on factory farms from those living in good sanctuaries to know that they are intelligent, emotional animals. Even people who are confirmed meat-eaters acknowledge that the factory farms of today are cruel.

If you would like to learn more about farm animals, we invite you to visit Ziggy's Refuge Farm Sanctuary on Facebook and learn more about the animals they serve.

OBITUARIES

"For whether we live, we live unto the Lord; and whether we die, we die unto the Lord: whether we live therefore, or die, we are the Lord's." - Romans 14:8

Nancy (Moore) Lewis

Nancy Moore Lewis, 93, passed away at her home peacefully on Wednesday, May 8, 2019. Born March 4, 1926 in Pittsylvania County, she was the daughter of the late William Lester and Ellen Soyars Moore.

She lived most her life in Danville. Until declining health prevented, she was a very active member at Woodberry Hills Baptist Church. Her greatest love was for her family and her Lord and Savior. She spent many years devoted to Sunday School as Superintendent and loved her church family dearly. She graduated from University of Richmond - West Hampton College in 1946 as valedictorian and started teaching with a focus in Math. She taught school for over 40 years and enjoyed her students and they loved her as well. She was such a special kind caring soul and shared her love with all that knew her.

She is survived by her four loving children, Carl M. Lewis Jr. (Julie Vause) Danville, Richard Lester Lewis (Kim Law Lewis) Chatham, Mary Lewis Dixon (Predeceased Mike Dixon) Summerfield, NC, and Ruth Ann Lewis Evans of the residence. Special deepest love and appreciation to Ruth Ann who devoted the last few years of her life as Mama's full time caregiver which we are all so grateful.

Her 5 grandchildren and 3 great-grandchildren brought so much joy to her life. They all cherished their Nana! Elizabeth Lewis Morris (Husband - James, children- Natalie, Thad and Lucas), Josh and Jessica Dixon, Karley Lewis and predeceased by Jacob Lewis who we all are sure he is so happy to see his "Tance" and holding her close.

In addition she is survived by sister in law Delores Moore and special "just like a sister" cousin, Becky Moore as well as many nieces, nephews, cousins and friends.

She is predeceased by Carl M. Lewis and her three brothers and one sister: William (Bill) P. Moore, Robert (Bobby) H. Moore /Lila, Johnny C. Moore/Margaret and Mary (Tommie) Moore Scruggs/Richard.
