Brendan is 14 years old and from Danville Va. He will start his freshman year at Tunstall High School in the fall of 2019. In November of 2018 Brendan was diagnosed with a rare brain tumor known as Pleomorphic Xanthoastrocytoma, or PXA for short. The diagnosis came as a shock to us all as he's always been a happy healthy kid. A first surgery was done in November to remove the tumor and biopsy it. We were told that this was normally a low grade brain tumor that is almost always benign but in his case it came back malignant. 4 months after having his first surgery to remove the tumor his first scans came back showing significant growth for what the tumor was supposed to be. He had a second surgery in March to remove the portion that had grown back, they were able to safely remove all but a small portion that has grown into the main vessel that runs behind his left eye. They made the decision to start radiation on May 6th. We'll be traveling back and forth to Roanoke for the next 6 and a half weeks every day until the first session is over. The financial burden of the stays in the hospital and the drive back and forth everyday have been extremely stressful. We're hoping to raise money to help with expenses and to be able to make sure that Brendan can have an awesome summer after all this is over.

Refrigerator Girl

A young woman is visiting her parents. While helping her mother fix dinner, she opens the refrigerator. On the inside of the door, she sees a spicy picture of a lovely, slender, perfectly built young woman.

"What's this about, Mom?" she asks.

"Oh, I put that up there to remind me not to overeat," the mother answers.

"Is it working?" her daughter asks.

"Yes and no," her mom replies. "I've lost 15 pounds, but your dad has gained 20."

Pregnancy Questions & Answers:

Q: Should I have a baby after 35?
 A: No, 35 children is enough.

Q: I'm two months pregnant now. When will my baby move?
 A: With any luck, right after he finishes college.

Q: What is the most reliable method to determine a baby's sex?
 A: Childbirth.

Q: My childbirth instructor says it's not pain I'll feel during labor, but pressure. Is she right?
 A: Yes, in the same way that a tornado might be called an air current.

Q: When is the best time to get an epidural?
 A: Right after you find out you're pregnant.

Q: Is there anything I should avoid while recovering from childbirth?
 A: Yes, pregnancy.

Q: Do I have to have a baby shower?
 A: Not if you change the baby's diaper very quickly.

Q: Our baby was born last week. When will my wife begin to feel and act normal again?
 A: When the kids are in college.

Q: What is the most common pregnancy craving?
 A: For men to be the ones who get pregnant.

Q: My husband and I are very attractive. I'm sure our baby will be beautiful enough for commercials. Whom should I contact about this?
 A: Your therapist.

Q: How will I know if my vomiting is morning sickness or the flu?
 A: If it's the flu, you'll get better.

Q: My brother tells me that since my husband has a big nose, and genes for big noses are dominant, my baby will have a big nose as well. Is this true?
 A: The odds are greater that your brother will have a fat lip.

Q: Since I became pregnant, My breasts, rear end, and even my feet have grown. Is there anything that gets smaller during pregnancy?
 A: Yes, your bladder.

Q: The more pregnant I get, the more often strangers smile at me. Why?
 A: Because you're fatter than they are.

Q: What's the difference between a nine-months pregnant woman and a Playboy centerfold?
 A: Nothing, if the pregnant woman's husband knows what's good for him.

Q: Does labor cause hemorrhoids?
 A: Labor causes anything you want to blame it for.

Q: What happens to disposable diapers after they're thrown away?
 A: They are stored in a silo in the Midwest, in the event of global chemical warfare.

Q: What is colic?
 A: A reminder for new parents to use birth control.

Relax, we'll do the housework.

ARIES (March 21 to April 19) Try using that Aries charm to warm up the usual set of workplace naysayers, and then back it up with a solid block of facts and figures to sell your idea to your colleagues.

TAURUS (April 20 to May 20) While nothing can deter a determined Bovine from following a course you believe in, it helps to have some supporting data and statements by trusted colleagues to make your case.

GEMINI (May 21 to June 20) Take advantage of new information that could help make your career transition easier. The weekend is a good time to re-establish relationships with people you haven't seen in a while.

CANCER (June 21 to July 22) Personal matters demand your attention as onces-table situations begin to shift. Quick action to shore things up is called for in order to avoid more problems down the line.

LEO (July 23 to August 22) Although your financial picture begins to brighten, "thrift" and "caution" are still the watchwords for fiscally astute Leos and Leonas to live by. Expect news about a family matter.

VIRGO (August 23 to September 22) Before you try to blame a colleague for a workplace problem, make sure you have the proof to back you up. Make some quiet inquiries on your own to try to solicit more information.

LIBRA (September 23 to October 22) Trying to cheer up a depressed friend or downcast family member can be difficult. But keep at it, and your efforts should soon pay off in ways you might have never expected.

SCORPIO (October 23 to November 21) Taking a new look at an old and frequently recurring problem might lead you to consider making some surprising changes in the way you had been handling it up till now.

SAGITTARIUS (November 22 to December 21) Despite what the naysayers might say, setting your sights on a new goal could be one of the smartest things the typically sagacious Sagittarian has done in a long time.

CAPRICORN (December 22 to January 19) Rebuilding an unraveling relationship won't be easy. But you can do it, if you really want to. Just remember to keep the lines of communication open between the two of you.

AQUARIUS (January 20 to February 18) A new friendship could develop into a close relationship. Meanwhile, reassure an old friend who might be feeling neglected that he or she is still an important part of your life.

PISCES (February 19 to March 20) You might be feeling that you're still in over your head as you continue trying to adjust to your new situation. But the pressures ease by week's end, giving you time to come up for air.

BORN THIS WEEK: You have a gift for sensing the feelings of others. You might consider a career in some aspect of counseling.

PIEDMONT PETS

May 30, 2019
By Paulette Dean

Most visitors to the shelter are greeted with a sweet greeting from Buddy, our umbrella cockatoo. His sweet voice gets firmer if he does not receive an answer in return!

In February of 2007, we heard of the closure of a large bird breeding facility in Greensboro. About 600 birds were going to be auctioned off. The advertisement of the closing and auction offended many people by calling the birds "proven factory money-makers."

Bird activists from all over the country started collecting money to save as many birds as possible from being sold to those who would continue to just use them for the pet bird industry. Since Danville is so close to Greensboro, many groups sent us money to bid.

We looked over the auction list repeatedly and had a list of the most pitiful ones we wanted to bid on. Because of controversy, the auction was changed to an on-line event.

The day of the auction was hard. We went by our list and were able to win most of the ones we were interested in. On the list was a single Umbrella cockatoo that looked healthy so we did not include him our list to bid on. At the last minute, we bid $400 and won, even though the Umbrellas were being sold for over $1,000.

This bird became a favorite of the shelter staff. We named him Buddy. He was supposed to go to a sanctuary in Indiana, but we just could not let him go.

996 South Boston Rd.,
Danville, VA 24540
Phone: (434) 799-0843

We bought him a huge cage and told him his troubles were truly over.

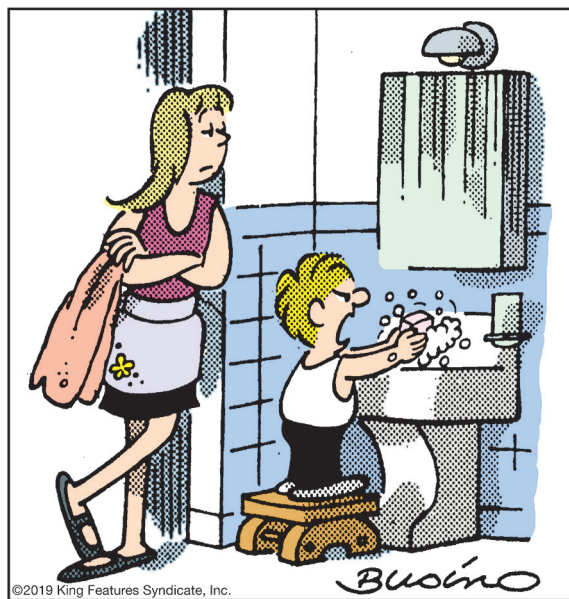

Buddy, through the years, has fallen in love with April, the shelter manager. He calls her name incessantly.

Buddy stays on top of his cage all day when the shelter is open, but does enjoy walks down the hall and visits to the front office. We love his dances and his "songs". He knows that on Fridays he will receive a peanut butter treat from Rachel, a faithful volunteer. He can destroy his huge, expensive toys in less time than it takes us to get them out of the Amazon box! His life is a full, happy one.

We love people to visit Buddy, but ask that he not be touched. He bites, like most birds do. It is also healthier for him not to be touched by too many people.

It has been a fun, happy 12 years for our Mr. Buddy Man.

A RHYMING RIDDLE!

"What does a man love more than life?
Hate more than death or mortal strife?
That which contented men desire,
The poor have, the rich require;
The miser spends, the spendthrift saves,
And all men carry to their graves."

THE JOLLY JESTER asks many questions, all of which have the same answer. You have three minutes to solve.

A JUICY PROBLEM! Without cutting them, how would you divide six oranges among six boys and still have one left in the box?

LEAD ON TO WORD POWER! All these words get longer as they march on, and they all end in LED. The following hints should help:

1. Led (in place).
2. What they did to get away.
3. What they did with the hay.
4. What they did with the rope.
5. What they did with the steak.
6. What they did to the prisoner.

DAHS Awards Scholarship in Memory of Gretna Woman

The family of the late Margot Richter Mayhew and the Danville Area Humane Society presented a check to the first recipient of the Margot Richter Mayhew Scholarship for Professional Studies on Thursday, May 23. Pictured, from left, are Debra Roach, Laurie Roach, Jacob Hancock, Ceilidh Hicks, Barbara Hancock, Bobby Allen Roach, Roger Mayhew, scholarship recipient Deborah Tung, and DAHS Executive Director Paulette Dean. The $500 scholarship is awarded through an annual donation from Margot's family along with a match from DAHS.

Danville, Va., May 24, 2019 – The Danville Area Humane Society (DAHS) presented its first scholarship this week along with the family of Margot Richter Mayhew for the award that bears her name.

The Margot Richter Mayhew Scholarship for Professional Studies was established earlier this year through a partnership between Mayhew's family and DAHS, as she progressed into the final stages of glioblastoma, an aggressive and terminal form of brain cancer. Mayhew passed away at her home in Gretna on May 2.

"Losing the matriarch of our family is a pain like no other," said Margot's grandson, Bobby Allen Roach. "Noni was so much more to the people in her life than a friend or a grandmother or a fellow member of a church congregation. She spread love through all of her actions and, through her fellowship and witnessing, she led many people to the Lord in addition to bringing so much peace and grace to the world through her steadily positive outlook on the wonderful things that life has to offer. I know her genuine fascination with life and every experience she had lives on through my own love for living and my family's diverse contributions to the community. It is our hope that this scholarship will perpetuate that curiosity and passion for making the world a better, more loving place."

Deborah Tung, a resident of Chatham attending Bluefield College, received the award, which was presented jointly by Margot's husband, Roger, a United States Army veteran, and DAHS Executive Director Paulette Dean on Thursday, May 23, joined by other representatives from Margot's family: Her second-eldest daughter Debra Roach, her youngest daughter Barbara Hancock, three of her grandchildren, Laurie Roach, Bobby Allen Roach, and Jacob Hancock, and one of her great-granddaughters, Ceilidh Hicks.

"I am so appreciative and grateful for this opportunity," Tung said. "I offer my deepest condolences to Mrs. Mayhew's family. She has definitely impacted the community and left a lasting legacy and positive imprint."

Tung plans to pursue a career in animal welfare and she has plans this summer to begin an internship in her field.

Paulette Dean, director of DAHS, said, "We are thrilled to be a part of ensuring that the animals in this area will have advocates in the future. We are grateful for our partnership with Mrs. Mayhew's family, and we offer our sincere condolences for the loss of their beloved matriarch."

The $500 scholarship will be awarded annually to a resident of Pittsylvania County.

"The scholarship would not be possible without the generosity of the Danville Area Humane Society and Paulette Dean," Roach said. "Their support through a 100 percent match of our family's annual contribution reinforces what I have always known about DAHS: They are caring and loving to both people and animals. We were blessed to be able to tell my grandmother about the scholarship while she was alive and could understand, and she was so honored and so happy that she, as an immigrant from Germany who didn't speak fluent English when she moved to the United States, would be known for making education more accessible for the community that she loved so dearly. Knowing that the scholarship brought such joy and comfort to her in her final days means more to me and my family than words could ever accurately convey. We thank the Danville Area Humane Society for making this possible and for all that they do to make the lives of animals in our community better, safer, and happier."
