Salome's Stars

ARIES (March 21 to April 19) Technology snafus tax your patience. But before you throw that computer or other hardware into the trash, take a deep breath and call someone knowledgeable for help.

TAURUS (April 20 to May 20) Don't be too upset if your generosity goes unappreciated. These things happen, and rather than brood over it, move on. A new friend could open up some exciting new possibilities.

GEMINI (May 21 to June 20) A loved one helps you get through an especially difficult emotional situation. Spend the weekend immersed in the body and soul restorative powers of music and the other arts.

CANCER (June 21 to July 22) You are pretty much in charge of what you want to do this week. However, it might be a good idea to keep an open mind regarding suggestions from people you know you can trust.

LEO (July 23 to August 22) Another chance to shine (something always dear to the Lion's heart) might be resented by others. But you earned it, so enjoy it. The weekend brings news about a family member.

VIRGO (August 23 to September 22) A suggestion that never took off could become viable again. Dust it off, update it if necessary, and resubmit it. In your personal life, a new relationship takes an "interesting" turn.

LIBRA (September 23 to October 22) Confronting a new challenge to your stated position could work to your advantage by settling all doubts once you're able to present a solid defense backed up by equally solid facts.

SCORPIO (October 23 to November 21) You enjoy doing nice things for others. But this is a good time to do something nice for yourself as well. You might want to start by planning a super-special getaway weekend.

SAGITTARIUS (November 22 to December 21) Some changes you feel you need to make might be reasonable and appropriate. But others might lead to new problems. Think things through carefully before you act.

CAPRICORN (December 22 to January 19) Good instincts usually keep the sure-footed Goat on the right path. So, what others might see as stubbornness on your part, in fact reflects your good sense of what is worth supporting.

AQUARIUS (January 20 to February 18) A period of introspection could lead to some surprising conclusions -- and also equally surprising changes -- involving a number of your long-held positions on several issues.

PISCES (February 19 to March 20) The financially practical Pisces might want to take a sensible approach to spending as well as investing. Being prudent now pays off later. A romantic situation moves into another phase.

BORN THIS WEEK: Your sense of curiosity keeps you continually alert for what's new about people, places and things.

FLASHBACK

1. What is Bachman-Turner Overdrive's 1974 song "Let It Ride" about?
2. Name the album that bounced Michael Jackson's "Thriller" off the top of the charts after 17 straight weeks.
3. Who sang "Love Won't Let Me Wait" in 1975?
4. Which group released "Everybody Wants to Rule the World" in 1985?
5. Name the song that contains this lyric: "I realize the way your eyes deceived me, With tender looks that I mistook for love."

Answers

1. Getting stuck in traffic. The band was in a tour bus when they got hemmed in by trucks on the highway. They faced off with the truckers at a rest stop and were told to "let it ride."
2. "Flashdance," the soundtrack from the 1983 film. It won a Grammy for Best Album of Original Score.
3. Major Harris. Other hits followed, but never reached the No. 1 chart slot.
4. Tears for Fears. The video showed their bass player cruising in a vintage Austin Healy.
5. "Paper Roses," by Anita Bryant in 1960 and Marie Osmond in 1973. The song was Bryant's biggest hit, but for Osmond, it was the launch of a career. It topped the country chart when she was just 14.

IT'S A SOUTHERN THING

The Water Hole

A motorist, after being bogged down in a muddy road, paid a passing farmer twenty-five dollars to pull him out with his tractor. After he was back on dry ground, he said to the farmer, "At those prices, I should think you would be pulling people out of the mud day and night."

"Can't," replied the farmer. "At night I haul water for the hole."

PIEDMONT PETS

July 25, 2019
By Paulette Dean

In this day of instant information sharing, many things are considered to be fact. There are a few myths about our adoption guidelines that are widely believed.

Adoption Myth #1 We require fenced-in yards for all adoptions.

We know why this has spread. In 2004, a man applied for a cat. He was asked to provide the name of his veterinarian and refused. Within a couple of days, another man applied to adopt a dog to roam freely. Somehow, the two stories merged in television and newspaper reports. The man who wanted the cat turned to face the camera and said, "I was turned down because I do not have a fenced-in yard, even though I want an inside cat."

The truth is, we do not allow adopted dogs to roam freely. If a person wants an outside dog, they must have a fence or a lot. If a person wants an inside dog, they do not have to have a fence or lot. They must supervise the dog while the dog is outside. We do not require entire farms to be fenced in, nor do we require fenced-in yards for inside cats.

Adoption Myth #2 We turn down people for no good reason.

The truth is, sometimes, people may meet all the criteria on an adoption questionnaire, but an adoption still does not result. There may be many reasons for this. Occasionally, the animal is claimed by the owner before the stray holding period is up. Sometimes, the landlord refuses to let them have a pet. In other cases, we may not feel the animal is a good match (for example, if a person has a snake pet, we usually will not let them adopt a guinea pig or other small "pocket pet.") In one case, a couple filled out a flawless questionnaire, but they were obviously drunk. Another time, a family filled out a questionnaire that looked wonderful. However, the man kept hitting the wife the entire time she was filling out the questionnaire. Other times, people make comments to employees that give us reason to decline a questionnaire. For example, a man was declined a few years ago because he had told an employee that he had choked his previous dog to death.

Our adoption decisions are based on guidelines with the overriding thought that the shelter animals deserve the best home possible.

Now here's a tip!
by Jo Ann Derson

See y'all next week!

* To test the seals on your refrigerator and freezer, close a piece of paper in the door. If you can pull it out easily, it's likely that your seal is loose. Clean or replace door gaskets for a better seal.

* To clean the microwave, try adding the juice of half a lemon to a cup of water and setting to boil (four minutes) in the microwave. Let the steam circulate for an additional four minutes, then remove the cup and wipe down all sides of interior. Use the cut lemon to clean a wooden cutting board. Sprinkle with salt and scrub, then rinse and dry.

* Use a seam ripper, meant for sewing, to remove hair that is wrapped around the beater bar of your vacuum.

* "To keep plywood or thin materials from splitting, I tape my cut line with low-tack masking tape. It keeps my cut sharp, reduces the fraying and it's easy to remove when I'm done." -- G.S. in Minnesota

* "Old flowerpots can be brought back to new life with a good scrub, a coat of paint and a healthy dose of sealant. This works especially well on pots with some detailing. The new paint and seal really bring out the decoration, and you can make a group of mishmash pots have a cohesive look." -- M.W. in Oregon

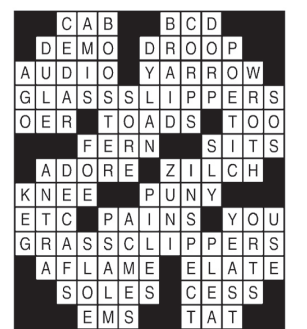

* Packing small jewelry for a trip? Consider using a pill milder -- the plastic storage bins with seven days or more that are used to organize medicine. These work very well.
