Pop-up gallery to feature images of disappearing landscape

"Lone Barn" - photograph by Rachel Cain

photographer Rachel Cain will show her images of landscape and architecture at a one-day pop-up gallery at Ripple River Gallery near Bay Lake. The event is set for Saturday, August 3 from 12-5 p.m.

A photographer for over 15 years, Cain's subject matter is varied. "If I fall in love with a subject, it is fair game," she says. She is particularly drawn to old buildings, texture, architecture, landscapes and birds. Traveling the back roads of Minnesota, she captures images of the trappings of bygone eras—stately barns that have fallen victim to changing economies.

Cain, who lives in White Bear Lakes, says her goal with each photograph is to get to the 'essence' of the subject, eliminating distracting details. She enjoys the post-processing part of her work, using it to emphasize essential qualities. Cain has exhibited and earned awards at numerous venues around the region. Some of her images have been published in Capture Minnesota books.

Ripple River Gallery is open 10 a.m. to 5 p.m. Wednesday through Saturday; and from 11 a.m. to 4 p.m. Sundays. The gallery is located five miles south of Deerwood on Highway 6, then 3 miles east of Ruttger's Bay Lake Lodge on County Road 14 to Partridge Avenue; or south of Aitkin on Highway 169 to Bennettville, then 3.2 miles west on County Road 11 to Partridge Avenue.

2019 deer hunting regulations and chronic wasting disease restrictions

Hunters can start planning ahead for significant changes to deer season regulations, including a youth deer season that's expanded statewide, expanded deer feeding and attractant bans, and other updates related to managing chronic wasting disease.

of support for a statewide youth deer hunting season," said Barbara Keller, big game program leader for the Minnesota Department of Natural Resources. "We're excited to make it easier for parents, relatives or trusted adults to share their hunting knowledge and traditions with the next generation of deer hunters."

The 2019 Minnesota Hunting and Trapping regulations handbook is now available on the DNR's deer hunting page at mndnr.gov/ hunting/deer. Hunting licenses went on sale August 1, and are available at any DNR license agent, by telephone at 888-646-6367, or online at mndnr.gov/buyalicense.

The dedicated, statewide youth season runs from Thursday, Oct. 17, through Sunday,

"We heard a lot Oct. 20, for youth hunters expand starting Sept. 1, in ages 10-17. In the past, the youth season was only available in the southeast, northwest and Twin Cities metro permit areas.

> Other significant changes this year include regulations that reflect the DNR's response to chronic wasting disease. In addition to hunters, all Minnesotans in central and southeast Minnesota should pay close attention to the deer feeding and attractant ban rule. The area where deer feeding and using deer attractants is prohibited will areas of central and southeast Minnesota where CWD was detected in farmed or wild

Feeding and attractants increase the risk of disease transmission between animals by bringing them together in close contact, which is a mechanism for CWD spread.

There are several changes to deer permit area numbering this year that will clarify where CWD management and surveillance occurs. Deer permit areas within a CWD management zone, in southeast and north-central east, bordering the CWD Minnesota, will now be part of a 600-series permit areas. The metro deer permit area will be renamed to 701 from

The DNR is, as in previous years, enforcing carcass movement restrictions to limit the spread of disease. Hunters will also need to be aware of mandatory sampling during all deer seasons in the CWD management zones (southeast and north-central), and over the opening weekend of the firearms season in the CWD control zone (southmanagement zone) and in surveillance areas (central). Full details about CWD sampling, including sampling locations, carcass movement restrictions, and management and control zones are available at mndnr.gov/cwd.

For more information on what's new in the regulation changes, and for regularly updated deer hunting information including the DNR's deer permit area mapping tool, visit the DNR's deer hunting webpage, mndnr. gov/hunting/deer.

askdrsmith.com featuring Dr. Murray Smith A second bite of Lyme disease

looked at where Lyme Disease is most commonly found (most likely right where you're reading this), how we get it (from those nasty ticks), and what to do if you find one on you. Now we're going to look briefly at the culprit(s) that cause the problem and explore some common symptoms if you happen to unfortunate enough to get Lyme Disease

Erythema migrans, a bullseye rash, is one of the hallmarks of Lyme disease. Occasionally, some people develop this rash at more than one place on their bodies. It should be noted, though, that not everyone with Lyme Disease develops the rash. Some sources say that less than half of those who contract Lyme Disease actual get the rash. This can make early diagnosis very difficult.

Invading organisms, which are what the tick transmits, have fancy names like Borrelia burgdorferi (the Lyme bacterium), Babesia, and Ehrlichia. The invader is less of an issue than the toxins they excrete which in turn can cause a wide swath of symptoms. To complicate things, the symptoms can depend on where these bad guys set up shop. They pick important areas like the brain and spinal cord, joints, muscles and organs.

Like a great mimicker, the symptoms can be as simple as general fatigue, soreness and muscle aches. Fogginess, headaches, sleep

In our last article, we disturbances, and difficulty healing can develop. Other serious problems such as heart complications, hearing loss, paralysis, and memory issues also occur. These are the tip of the iceberg of possible symptoms. With this in mind, it's easy to see why having a experienced health professional in your corner can be extremely helpful.

Next time we'll touch lightly on some of the reasons for the symptoms. We will also get into some of the testing needed and some of the issue surrounding them that add insult to injury.

Let's stand together

I have read all of the guest opinions by Kelly Avelsgard and I have but one question. Why doesn't any of the citizens of Crosby speak up and take their city back?

The Crosby administrator, police chief and mayor are going to be forever increasing our taxes, water and sewer and anything else they can think of to pay for their never ending lawsuits and mistakes.

The City of Crosby is growing and it's evident by the new businesses, murals, bike trails and lodging. In the years to come, we will all be taxed into the poorhouse and forced to sell our homes, because the City of Crosby has no other means to pay for their mistakes. They will be digging deep in our pockets and soon this growing town will become a ghost town, because the citizens of Crosby won't be able to afford to live here.

The fear is real. I've experienced it and lived it for over two years. Knowing you are being watched in everything you do. Knowing that they are waiting for you to make a mistake. The ABUSE OF POWER by the Crosby police leadership is real and it won't stop until we stand together and force their resignation.

It is time to take a stand people. We need to fight for our hard earned money and keep the City Crosby out of our pockets. We need an administration that is more conscientious about where they spend our money. It's easy to spend money that you haven't worked for and it won't stop until we take a stand together. There is power in numbers.

Candi McCartan, A Concerned Citizen of Crosby

Not my mantra

The editor of the Courier continues to print that opinions in the NewsHopper are the mantra of the author, not true. It's the mantra of BMS Case No 17-PA-0260, the mantra of the author is the massive violation of the public trust conducted by the current chief of police. BMS Case No 17-PA-0260, BMS Case No 13-PA-0659, 13-PA-0660, found the police chief lies, distorts the truth, alters documents, conducts biased, prejudiced, flawed investigations, makes three ring binders disappear.

The chief's professional touch has resulted in eight failed attempts to prosecute two former mayors, two wrongful termination lawsuits, the creation of a hostile workplace environment and subjected the city to the first of many potential lawsuits.

This should be the mantra of the city council, mayor, and every citizen in Crosby.

The chief's continued employment is destructive, the destruction is supported by the city administrator, who continues to cost taxpayers with extremely poor judgment and leadership.

The lieutenant hired to replace the chief should be overwhelmed, not by the position or the role they're going to undertake, but by the baggage of the current chief who is now, not retiring, attempting to hire two sergeants, to replace the lieutenant position, where does that leave the current lieutenant? Without a job.

It appears the chief is attempting to eliminate their replacement before they retire, hence, the chief can't retire. The council and mayor are not smart enough to ask the appropriate questions as to why Crosby searched for, hired a great replacement, then allows the chief to lie and not retire as planned.

Crosby really needs to listen to the mantra of the arbitrators, jurors, judges, and immediately terminate the chief.

The Crow Wing County attorney could help — label the chief a Brady/Giglio officer. That office stated if it conducted itself in the manner the chief did, it would be unethical and basically criminal, but that office turns a blind eye and fails to act upon the evidence they have.

The explicit, anonymous, letter to the NewsHopper, telling them what I can do with my opinions are welcomed. Expressing them in person is encouraged. There is nothing more pleasant than listening to ill-informed people discuss something they know nothing about.

The social media postings demeaning and threatening the NewsHopper in any form is stupid.

The Crosby chief of police violated the public trust, that means all our trust, not just mine, everyone's. Everyone should be calling for the termination of the chief and angered by the failure of the council and mayor to act upon the egregious acts.

Kelly Avelsgard Concerned Observer Deerwood

Politician's flock protecting friends

My eternal message this week is simple: BIRDS OF A FEATHER FLOCK TOGETHER. Pigeons, like people, hang amongst their own. They spend their entire existence surrounded by their own kind. Sorta like the Crosby mayor and his pro-tourism cohorts that have brought so many changes here. While he is now cheerleading these changes, he forgets that they aren't all good.

Like pigeons who all come in for the spoils at once, much like those grant given businesses, I remind you they usually leave at the first sign of trouble, leaving their messes behind.

Tourists often have no loyalty or responsibilities here. No taxes to pay, no accountability. They just fly away when the fun is done.

Also Like pigeons, our mayor and his cohort rental property owner council members stick together.

As just one example, I again humbly remind our voters, they pecked away at the concerns of citizens who made up a city sponsored committee and then eventually went against our Planning & Zoning committee's recommendations to start proceeding with a rental ordinance that would have protected our residents.

So like pigeons, the whole safety in numbers reigned true and our mayor's flock protected the pocketbooks of friends and fellow landlords. That smelled almost as bad as the pigeon pens on property owned by a council member that is less than two hundred feet away from a new restaurant's deck.

This politician's words are as slippery as pigeon poop. The mayors back peddling, denial and out-of-touch rhetoric is as gassy and toxic as the stuff that hits the sidewalk. The actual poop is easier to hose off, but the next election is in sight and so is the flushing.

The tourists, who join in conversation with our mayor, may adore our town and even pat him lovingly on the back for his efforts in bringing in this phantom hotel and exciting new businesses, but the locals that put up with bad roads, lack of accountability, non transparency, ridiculous water bills, concerns about the 2021 road construction, dangerous bicyclists, favoritism, etc. aren't real impressed. But when one lives in denial, things are seen differently. Thankfully denial, like other disfunctions older men suffer, is curable.

Chris Ryan, Crosby (Member of both the original Hwy 210 & Economic Development Committees of Crosby & Planning & Zoning)

Legislators respond to calls The claims by metro legis- our companies to high stan- state and our companies to high stan-

lators and anti-mining groups about PolyMet Mining are downright fabrications. It is very disappointing that people don't know or don't care what our strong rules and regulations require, and that the media continues to perpetuate the misinformation. The people of the Iron Range deserve better. The people of the state of Minnesota deserve better. There is no scandal. The agencies have done their jobs. The letter of the law was followed to a "T". Enough of the fake news already. Here are the facts:

Fact: Our DNR required Poly-Met Mining to post bankruptcy proof of financial assurance (only accessible by the DNR) before they even issued Poly-Met's permit to mine. It doesn't matter who or what the ownership looks like the resources needed to close the mine if the company went bankrupt are currently in place and only the state can release the funds.

Fact: PolyMet has undergone the most thorough and transparent environmental review and permitting process more than any other project ever in our state. Extra-long public review periods, with thousands of public comments, all of which were responded to, and extra meetings were held around the state including the Twin Cities. When was the last time a project in the Twin Cities was required to hold public meetings on the Iron Range?

Fact: We live in a state with a long mining history. We know how to mine safely; we hold our companies to high standards. Note: According to the Environmental Quality Board's report card on Minnesota water, we have the only clean water in the state. PolyMet's tailings design is an enhanced version of what all but one of our taconite mining companies currently use and have been using for over 50 years of operation. We have never had a dam failure in Minnesota. And based on the level of scrutiny and multilevel independent review of the Poly-Met project, we fully expect the PolyMet tailings basin to be no different.

These letters containing fabricated information to Governor Walz and to Attorney General Ellison are frustrating, but let's call them what they are: desperate last-ditch efforts by anti-mining folks to stop an important project for Northeastern Minnesota, because their efforts to stop the project through the multi state and federal agency environmental review and permitting process, a process they put into law, failed.

PolyMet has spent over 14 years diligently following and complying with every required state and federal process to legally permit and operate a mine. They have shown their project meets state and federal environmental standards and meets or exceeds all factors of safety. As lawmakers we should be celebrating this monumental accomplishment not perpetuating lies and misinformation manufactured by anti-mining groups.

It's time for long awaited good-paying jobs on the Iron Range. Jobs that will contribute to our new economy of wind-mills, solar panels, electric cars, cell phones, computers and whatever our future brings.

It's time to mine.

Pushing political prosecution

In March of this year, [Former Crosby Mayor] Jim Hunter was acquitted a third time by a Crow Wing County Jury. Three separate juries heard the evidence from both sides, and found Mr. Hunter not guilty on different charges. The remaining charges not resolved by the juries were dismissed by the Crow Wing County Attorney's Office in April of this year, finally bringing over two years of prosecution of Mr. Hunter, costing taxpayers tens of thousands of dollars, and untold hardship to Mr. Hunter, to an end.

As if this was not enough, a Crosby newspaper has taken upon itself to retry the case in the paper. The lead reporter for the paper works for the Crosby Police Department, and has had a personal interest in the case from the start. She was overheard saying an expletive in response to the first not guilty verdict coming in.

Unfortunately, there is no law requiring media outlets to be objective in covering a case, but, I think most of us expect our media sources to make an effort to be fair, and to not become personally involved in the cases they cover.

The juries in all three trials heard several days worth of testimony and evidence about the case, and heard arguments from the County Attorney's Office, and from myself ,Mr. Hunter's attorney. The jurors were in a better position than anyone to judge Mr. Hunter.

The rules of Court do not allow certain materials to be presented to the jury.

- The jurors in Mr. Hunter's trial did not hear about the arbitration proceedings involving a former Crosby Police Officer, who was fired by the Chief and Lieutenant, who also initiated the charges against Mr. Hunter.
- The jurors did not hear that the arbitrator ruled against the Chief and former Lieutenant, and found that they were not credible witnesses in the arbitration case.
- The jurors did not hear that the State's lead witness in the first trial, Thomas McCartan had a history of harassing Mr. Hunter, confronting him in the street, velling at Mr. Hunter while grabbing his crotch. Mr. Hunter obtained a restraining order against Mr. McCartan, which Mr. McCartan violated, the jurors did not hear about that either.
- In the assault case, the jurors did not hear that Nick McCartan, Thomas McCartan's son, confronted Mr. Hunter in the parking lot of a restaurant, and only left when Mr. Hunter threatened to call the police, shortly after Mr. Hunter supposedly assaulted Nick McCartan.
- In the gambling fraud case, the jurors did not hear that one of the prosecutions lead witnesses owed thousands of dollars to Mr. Hunter for the purchase of a car she had not been making payments on for some time.

• Most important, the jurors did not hear that it is extremely unusual for the local police to investigate their own elected official, the normal practice is to have another police department from outside the city investigate an elected official accused of a crime.

These are only a few examples of what the jurors were not allowed to hear. What they were allowed to hear gives anyone plenty of reason to believe that Mr. Hunter was not guilty of a crime.

Instead of that Crosby newspaper retrying the case against Mr. Hunter over and over again in successive weekly issues and second guessing three juries, they should be asking why the Crosby Police were allowed to waste tens of thousands of dollars trying to convict a political opponent and then sitting Mayor, Mr. Hunter, of a crime.

Instead of looking back, the concern now should be restoring the rule of law to Crosby, removing the officials who pushed a political prosecution, and allowing all Crosby citizens to run for office and speak out without fear of reprisal.

Lakes Area Music offers inspiring education and French fascination

Internationally renowned soloist, Sonora Slocum.

In a barn-busting opening weekend, the Lakes Area Music Festival offers unprecedented educational concerts on Saturday, August 3 at 7:30 p.m. and Sunday, August 4 at 2 p.m. at Tornstrom Auditorium, Brainerd. Both concerts will feature Edwin Outwater (formerly of the San Francisco Symphony) leading the Festival orchestra and guiding the audience through the music.

Saturday night's concert is geared toward adults and is entitled "Brahms' First." Maestro Outwater will discuss Johannes Brahms' 20plus year journey to writing his first symphony and lead the orchestra in examples from pieces that influenced Brahms in his own work.

Sunday afternoon will be a rollicking good time for kids of all ages. The students of Explore Music! (LAMF's kid's day camp) will offer an informal presentation of their musical skills at 1:30 p.m., followed by a mixed orchestral program of Beethoven and Gershwin, where attendees are welcome to dance, shout and play in the isles. Following the concert, LAMF will host an instrument petting zoo on the lawn outside of Tornstrom, where young folks can try out orchestral instruments for the first time.

On Wednesday, August 7 at 7:30 p.m. at Tornstrom Auditorium, the Lakes Area Music Festival will present "France Nouvelle," featuring three internationally renowned soloists. Sonora Slocum, principal flute of the Milwaukee Symphony will open the concert with Paris-based tenor Zachary Wilder, will make his Lakes Area Music Festival debut.

Claude Debussy's haunting Syrinx. Kitty Cheung, Hong Kong-based violinist will perform the Meditation from Jules Massenet's Thaïs. Both Slocum and Cheung are long-time Festival favorites, but another artist, Paris-based tenor Zachary Wilder, will make his Lakes Area Music Festival debut in Massenet's sweeping song cycle Poème d'avril. Wilder returns to the Festival stage later this summer as Paris in The Beautiful Helen of Troy by Jacques Offenbach.

Each summer, the Lakes Area Music Festival brings more than 185 all-star artists from top orchestras and opera companies around the world to perform three weeks of classical music performances in the Brainerd Lakes Area. From chamber music and symphonic orchestra, to productions of opera and ballet that draw thousands of attendees each year, LAMF has become one of the most significant summertime destinations for classical music in the Midwest. We've been building our renewable energy portfolio since 2002. To date, we've invested more than $6 billion in renewable energy and power transmission projects either in operation or under construction.

Our green energy investments include wind farms, solar farms, geothermal facilities and waste heat recovery plants across North America and Europe—which, collectively, produce enough zero-emission energy to power 700,000 homes.

In Minnesota, our Bemidji office is powered by a solar energy system, through a partnership with local Native Americanowned businesses.

All forms of energy sources—crude oil, natural gas and renewables—are needed to meet rising global energy demand.

At Enbridge, we are working towards the future of energy and sustainability, and our portfolio of renewable energy assets is a prime example.
