ARIES (March 21 to April 19) Be careful not to allow the backers of a new financial "deal" to pull the wool over the Lamb's eyes. It could hold fewer plusses and more negatives than you were first led to believe.

TAURUS (April 20 to May 20) It's a good idea to finish all incomplete tasks so that you can devote your attention to next week's projects. The weekend could hold surprises for romantic Fernandas and Ferdinands.

GEMINI (May 21 to June 20) A workplace suggestion you made a while ago that you might have forgotten could come back with a request to turn it from idea to reality. Your social life picks up considerably this weekend.

CANCER (June 21 to July 22) Someone from the past could return with an intriguing opportunity for a future project. Check into it, by all means. But don't neglect your current responsibilities in the meantime.

LEO (July 23 to August 22) Keeping your claws sheathed and using good humor instead to counter someone who's bad-mouthing the Big Cat isn't easy. But it's the best way to avoid more problems down the line.

VIRGO (August 23 to September 22) A workplace situation could improve if you're less critical and more supportive of those who are, after all, trying to do their best. Let them know you're there to help when necessary.

LIBRA (September 23 to October 22) A new job offer might not carry all the benefits you're seeking. Make sure you know what you're entitled to, what is off the table and what is negotiable before you make a decision.

SCORPIO (October 23 to November 21) A social obligation you would rather get out of could hold some surprisingly positive aspects. Why not go and see for yourself? A family member makes a curious request.

SAGITTARIUS (November 22 to December 21) Before tackling that new project awaiting you at home or on the job, take time out for some much-deserved pampering to help lift your spirits and restore your energy levels.

CAPRICORN (December 22 to January 19) Your social calendar begins to fill up more quickly than you expected. And that's great. You deserve to enjoy some good fun after so much time spent on serious matters.

AQUARIUS (January 20 to February 18) A domestic situation continues to improve, thanks to all the tender, loving concern you've shown. A colleague makes a questionable move that you might want to check out sooner rather than later.

PISCES (February 19 to March 20) A sudden turn in a romantic relationship calls for both a rational and passionate response. Keep the love level high, but also find out why the problem arose in the first place.

BORN THIS WEEK: You often set high standards for others. But to your credit, you set the same expectations for yourself.

A preacher was making his rounds to his parishioners on a bicycle, when he came upon a little boy trying to sell a lawn mower. "How much do you want for the mower?" asked the preacher.

"I just want enough money to go out and buy me a bicycle," said the little boy.

After a moment of consideration, the preacher asked, "Will you take my bike in trade for it?"

The little boy asked if he could try it out first, and after riding the bike around a little while said, "Mister, you've got yourself a deal."

The preacher took the mower and began to try to crank it. He pulled on the rope a few times with no response from the mower. The preacher called the little boy over and said, "I can't get this mower to start."

The little boy said, "That's because you have to cuss at it to get it started." The preacher said, "I am a minister, and I cannot cuss. It has been so long since I have been saved that I do not even remember how to cuss."

The little boy looked at him happily and said, "Just keep pulling on that rope. It'll come back to ya!"

I go to KFC to get the kids something to eat. They wanted the kids meal with a leg so I said "kids meal with the leg" and the lady says "which side?" Me- *complete silence as I heavily contemplate such an odd decision* 😬😬 "I guess the right side, hell I don't know what the difference is." After several moments of laughter she says "no hunny which side would you like to go with the leg? "Mashed Potatoes or wedges"

August 22, 2019
By Paulette Dean

The first cat I had as an adult was given to me when she was four years-old. I said on more than one occasion that Dusty was the best gift I had ever received. My friends brought her to me on a Saturday afternoon. I worried she would suffer emotional trauma from being in a new home, but Dusty calmly watched them leave. She sat in the middle of the room and licked her paws, and in that instant captured my heart forever. I enthusiastically showed her all the windows she could look out of, and I pointed out all the treats and toys I had bought.

Suddenly, I could not attend family dinners at my parents' house without taking Dusty. I worried about her being alone while I was at work. When we moved to a new apartment or a new house, the furniture had to be arranged so she would have at least two windows to look out of. Only the best of everything was good enough for my Dusty.

Dusty was my faithful companion, and my anchor during many hard and unhappy times. She helped me through three surgeries, and I helped her through her surgery and many health problems.

She moved to Utah with me and lived there for almost three years. I would not have moved there if I had not been able to take her with me. When I moved back to Virginia, of course, my girl came with me.

One day I realized with sadness that, somehow, years had passed and

996 South Boston Rd.,

Phone: (434) 799-0843

Dusty was now ten years old. Her fur was thinner, her eyes cloudy, and she moved slowly. My dear father built carpeted steps for her to be able to get up on the bed.

Another blink of the eye and suddenly Dusty was seventeen. She began to lose weight as old cats will do. She had been a very overweight 14 pounds, and then she weighed 9 pounds, and then 8, then 6.

Lifetime commitment to a pet also means knowing when to say good-bye. So, on one very sad Sunday night in 1997, I thanked her for her companionship, and asked her to rub against my father's leg when she got to heaven. The next morning, I took her to her veterinarian and the look on my face told him why we were there.

Dusty had been my faithful companion for so many years and never left my side. It was my sad honor to be by her side as she entered heaven.

Angel Capital Association Regional Event brings Active Angel Investors to the Triangle

The Angel Capital Association (ACA), the world's largest professional organization for accredited investors, in partnership with RTP Capital Associates, Inc. and The Launch Place, will host a two-day conference from September 10th to 11th for accredited investors that will focus on building and growing investment and entrepreneurial ecosystems. The 2019 ACA Southeast Regional Meeting will take place in Research Triangle Park, North Carolina. Immediately following the regional meeting, The Launch Place will hold its 6th annual Big Launch Challenge pitch competition.

This year's agenda focuses on "Taking Good Deeds to the Bank: Making Angel Investing Pay Off". The meeting includes deep dive sessions on building an entrepreneurial ecosystem and key investment topics such as syndication, valuation, due diligence, and portfolio diversification. Ted Zoller, T.W. Lewis Clinical Professor of Strategy and Entrepreneurship and Director of the Entrepreneurship Center of the University of North Carolina will deliver the keynote. Two ACA Education sessions are included in the conference—Fundamentals of Angel Investing and Term Sheet Basics.

Active angel investors representing over 25 southeastern ACA member groups have already registered. The conference allows attendees to connect with other key investors to share expertise and deals.

"ACA regional meetings have always provided value for angel investors, whether new or more experienced," said Elaine Bolle, RTP Capital Investment Committee Chair, ACA board member and conference co-chair. "It's an excellent opportunity for experienced investors to connect with other angel networks, key industry leaders, or if new to angel investing, simply learn and network with other regional investors."

Pat Gouhin, CEO of the ACA, added "we know that angel investors are a critical piece to the successful growth of an innovation ecosystem. The Angel Capital Association is pleased to work with RTP Capital Associates and The Launch Place to provide this unique opportunity for new and active investors to connect with smart investment practices rooted in the Southeast market. Most angels invest in companies near to them or alongside trusted co-investors and this event is an opportunity for angels to build important connections with like-minded regional investors."

Attendees will hear panels packed with peer investors where they will share experiences in angel investing. Panelists will discuss examples of entrepreneurial ecosystems in their respective communities, as well as compare the differences between large cities, rural communities, and university driven localities to see how entities such as angels, accelerators, economic development organizations, venture capitalists and other entrepreneurial support organizations have come together.

RTP Capital Associates, the largest private angel network in the Triangle, is actively involved in growing angel investing in the region. "We are thrilled to be hosting angel investors from throughout the southeast for this event," indicates RTP Capital President and conference co-chair Mark Friedman. "We're proud to be part of the ecosystem that's developed in the Triangle region and are looking forward to hearing many of the ways other southeastern groups have developed ecosystems in their areas, learn from each other and enhance the way we all work together in the future."

"We are excited to be co-hosting this year's regional meeting," said Eva Doss, The Launch Place President & CEO and conference co-chair. "This experience helps The Launch Place build our network of investors. The connections made at events like this are invaluable and the information shared will help drive the entrepreneurial ecosystem."

The Launch Place's 6th annual Big Launch Challenge is a pitch competition where aspiring startups could win up to $15,000 for their company, as well as training, networking opportunities and mentorship for the entrepreneurs. This event immediately follows the regional conference, beginning at 1:30pm on September 11th. Not only does the competition offer entrepreneurs exposure for their brands, but it provides constructive feedback on their ideas and builds lasting and valuable connections. The pitch competition is free and open to the public to attend. Registration can be found at www.thelaunchplace.org/big-launch-challenge.

SAFE STREETS INITIATIVE NETS OVER 200 ARRESTS

Operation Safe Streets Southside, a joint local and state law enforcement public safety initiative, led to 97 arrests on felony charges, 76 arrests on misdemeanor charges, and 35 arrests of fugitives over a 10-week period, Danville Police reported Tuesday.

From May 2 through July 25, the Danville Police Department, Virginia State Police and Pittsylvania County Sheriff's Office also seized 21 illegal firearms, 698 grams of illegal drugs with a combined street value of $49,276, and $15,125 in U.S. currency. Illegal drugs seized included cocaine, ecstasy, heroin, marijuana, methamphetamine, and synthetic marijuana.

"Our objective was to get illegal guns and drugs off the street and to reduce crime – specifically violent crime," Danville Police Chief Scott Booth said at a news conference today.

Year-to-date statistics show significant declines in violent crime and burglaries as compared to the same period a year ago. The numbers reported Tuesday are as follows:

- Robberies down 75 percent.
  - Aggravated assaults involving use of firearms down 65 percent.
  - Aggravated assaults (all weapons) down 53 percent.
  - Burglaries down 26 percent.
- There have been six homicides this year. That number is unchanged from the same period a year ago.

"The only one that I am not happy with – even though we work at it tirelessly and will continue – is the number of homicides in our community," Booth said. "As I have said before, even one is too much."

Booth said crime reduction is a community effort. "We could not do this with just the Danville Police Department," Booth said. "It's about partnerships, whether it is partnerships with other law enforcement agencies, with faith-based leaders, with our elected officials, or with our community members."

The Safe Streets Southside initiative employed many strategies, including working with confidential informants, parcel interdiction, buy/bust operations, traffic stops, street-level interdiction of illegal drugs and guns, and roundup coordination.

The Virginia State Police provided troopers and assistance from its tactical and counter criminal interdiction teams, and its high tech crimes unit. Virginia Fusion Center analysts also assisted.

Additional partners in this initiative included the United States Attorney's Office and the City of Danville Commonwealth's Attorney's Office.
