BIG BALLS IN COWTOWN, NOT HAIL TO THE CHIEF

Tumbleweed Smith

Tumbleweed Smith

There's a guy who rides a horse around the Fort Worth Stockyards who looks, talks and acts like John Wayne. He also takes part in a staged gunfight by the Legends of Texas group. His name is Jack Edmondson and he is more than a cowboy. He is a scholarly historian who has portrayed Travis, Bowie, Sam Houston and other state historical figures at The San Jacinto Battlefield, Washington On The Brazos State Historical Site, the Alamo and other places.

He has written perhaps the most definitive book about The Alamo titled THE ALAMO STORY. He has also written the text for a photographic book about the stockyards simply titled THE FORT WORTH STOCKYARDS.

One story Jack wrote about is when President Jimmy Carter went to the Stockyards in 1980 when Billy Bob's nightclub was under construction. Congressman Jim Wright had arranged for President Carter to tour Texas with stops in Houston, Brownsville, San Antonio and Abilene before arriving in Fort Worth. Billy Bob Barnett arranged for Moe Bandy and Jerry Max Lane to provide entertainment.

Along with Jim Wright, others on the president's plane were State Senator Peyton McKnight, US Congressman Henry B Gonzales, Lieutenant Governor Bill Hobby and US Senator Lloyd Bentsen.

The morning of Saturday November 1, 1980, a group of Secret Service men, stockyards leaders and others were in the White Elephant Saloon when the establishment's pay phone rang. It was Air Force One wanting to know if Moe Bandy and Jerry Max Lane could play HAIL TO THE CHIEF. Billy Bob conveyed the question to the entertainers. No, they did not. Barnett sent their response to Air Force One. The person on the plane said, "We'll get back to you."

They called back a short time later. Did the musicians know the song AMERICA? Billy Bob got a negative response from the musicians and sent it to Air Force One. They went through 3 or 4 more songs and the musicians didn't know those either. "We'll get back to you," came the response from Air Force One. Soon the phone rang again. "What song do the musicians know that is upbeat?" When Billy Bob asked the two musicians they quickly replied, BIG BALLS IN COWTOWN. "We'll call you back," said the voice from Air Force one. They called back and said, "You can play BIG BALLS IN COWTOWN but you can't sing it."

The president's plane landed at Meacham Field and he rode in a motorcade to the Stockyards to deliver a speech on the steps of the Exchange Building. Some 30,000 people were there to greet him. He was presented a Stetson hat. So were all the members of his entourage. As instructed, the band played an instrumental version of BIG BALLS IN COWTOWN. But as the President approached the microphone the band defiantly started singing the lyrics.

Hoyle Nix of Big Spring, who wrote the song long ago, would be thrilled

Gold In September

was founded by Annie Bartosz, from Hartland, WI, who lost her twin brother, Jack, to cancer in 2012 and her father, John, in 2016 to the long-term effects of cancer treatments he received when he was in his early twenties. She saw the nation turn pink in October for breast cancer and became determined to unite the country through the color gold in September to raise money for childhood cancer research. Annie knows it will take everyone to join in the fight to bring new and innovative treatments to those who need it most.

The Sulphur Springs Downtown Business Alliance

By Enola Gay Mathews District!

The Sulphur Springs Downtown Business Alliance was created over a decade ago to address the changing needs of downtown merchants and property owners. Downtowns in America have changed drastically since 1900, and even since 2000! Sulphur Springs is an example of that. Over the past 20 years, from a sad image of narrow outdated sidewalks and boring storefronts, Sulphur Springs has evolved into a busy and vibrant district where people come to enjoy food, shopping, leisure and recreation, and even to make it their home! From the historic courthouse and new Veterans Memorial to renewed foot traffic during evenings and nights for food and music, to a variety of new retailers with fresh and unusual ideas for serving customers. In fact, we celebrate the revitalized downtown ambiance so much, we named it Celebration

Along with the City of Sulphur Springs, members of the Downtown Business Alliance have had a huge part in steering the course of our downtown district. These merchant members and interested individuals have been diligent in examining marketing techniques which drive business to their store and in their doors. Networking with other merchants, they have become partners for positive change with a goal to match the changing ways in which the public shops now. "Attending the Downtown Business Alliance meetings has helped me wake up to new possibilities as well as challenge myself to not get too comfortable with my set ways" stated one retail shop owner. "I really do have an advocate as well as a friend who wants my business to be a success". Members and officers meet together monthly on the second Tuesday at 5:30pm, most often at Hope Smith Interior Designs downtown at 115 Gilmer Street. To become a member, you do not have to own a downtown business or even be in business. Individual memberships are also available.

Currently the DBA is working collectively on two major annual projects, the Brick Street Vintage Market on September 21 and The Car Show set for Saturday Nov. 2. If you've heard the phrase, 'it takes a village', well, come to Sulphur Springs and you'll see that concept in action!

The Brick Street Vintage Market is a juried event where vendors are selected from applications.

Pictures from the annual car show.

Categories are vintage antique, repurposed and handmade items, vintage inspired clothing and home decor. Artist and gardeners can also showcase their talents in this vintage style market experience. New this year, enter to win $50 "Best of Show" - Best Dressed Vendor Space, $100 "Best Decorated Bicycle."

The Car Show has been an attraction for a number of years, but after we underwent the improvements to Celebration Plaza, it's gotten even more popular. People like to come to town and spend the day. Many spend the night in our hotels. During Car Show weekend, we even see people lining up to see inside our glass bathrooms! They're still a very popular feature for tourists! On Brick Street Vintage Market weekend, we see a lot of out of towners and the fact that the successful Quilt Show is that same weekend is another draw to downtown Sulphur Springs.

The DBA and local amateur photographers will join the World Wide Photo Walk on Saturday October 5.

The DBA is working on upcoming Fall Decorating Contest and Christmas involvement and planning and working on these DBA events will affect the overall morale of downtown business owners.

The purpose of the Downtown Business Alliance is to develop and maintain a working partnership with city and county governments as well as other advisory boards dedicated to the revitalization of Downtown Sulphur Springs.

To provide support for all merchants and property owners and to encourage community pride in the Downtown Area.

To recreate the charm and relaxed atmosphere of yesteryear. Allowing our local citizens and visitors an enjoyable and diverse place to shop, dine and conduct business.
