Your reaction matters more than what happens to you

"Once upon a time a daughter complained to her father that her life was miserable and that she didn't know how she was going to make it. She was tired of fighting and struggling all the time. It seemed just as one problem was solved, another one soon followed.

Her father, a chef, took her to the kitchen. He filled three pots with water and placed each on a high fire. Once the three pots began to boil, he placed potatoes in one pot, eggs in the second pot, and ground coffee beans in the third pot.

He then let them sit and boil, without saying a word to his daughter. The daughter, moaned and impatiently waited, wondering what he was doing.

After twenty minutes he turned off the burners. He took the potatoes out of the pot and placed them in a bowl. He pulled the boiled eggs out and placed them in a bowl.

He then ladled the coffee out and placed it in a cup. Turning to her he asked, 'Daughter, what do you see?'

'Potatoes, eggs, and coffee,' she hastily replied.

'Look closer,' he said, 'and touch the potatoes.' She did and noted that they were soft. He then asked her to take an egg and break it. After pulling off the shell, she observed the hard-boiled egg. Finally, he asked her to sip the coffee. Its rich aroma brought a smile to her face.

'Father, what does this mean?' she asked.

He then explained that the potatoes, the eggs and coffee beans had each faced the same adversity- the boiling water.

However, each one reacted differently.

The potato went in strong, hard, and unrelenting, but in boiling water, it became soft and weak.

The egg was fragile, with the thin outer shell protecting its liquid interior until it was put in the boiling water. Then the inside of the egg became hard.

However, the ground coffee beans were unique. After they were exposed to the boiling water, they changed the water and created something new.

'Which are you,' he asked his daughter. 'When adversity knocks on your door, how do you respond? Are you a potato, an egg, or a coffee bean?'

Science and Logic

An American scientist once visited the offices of the great Nobel Prize-winning physicist, Neils Bohr, in Copenhagen, and was amazed to find a horseshoe was nailed to the wall over his desk.

The American said with a nervous laugh, "Surely you don't believe that horseshoe will bring you good luck, do you, Professor Bohr?"

Bohr chuckled. "I believe no such thing, my good friend. Not at all. I am scarcely likely to believe in such foolish nonsense. However, I am told that a horseshoe will bring you good luck whether you believe in it or not! How can one argue with such logic?"

Salome's Stars

ARIES (March 21 to April 19) An offer to help with a stalled project should reassure you that you have a workable plan in spite of the problems in getting it up and running. The week's end brings more positive news.

TAURUS (April 20 to May 20) A past problem about a workplace situation re-emerges early in the week. Talking things out helps ease tensions by midweek, but some hurt feelings could linger a few more days.

GEMINI (May 21 to June 20) Optimistic aspects dominate your efforts. However, expect to confront some criticism, some of which might be valid, so keep an open mind. But overall, it's your views that will count.

CANCER (June 21 to July 22) Social interaction with new people, especially on the job, could be a bit strained in the early part of the week. But the awkwardness passes as you get to know each other better.

LEO (July 23 to August 22) Expect news about a follow-up to a workplace change that could make a difference in your career path. Meanwhile, new friends widen the circle for all you Social Lions who love to party.

VIRGO (August 23 to September 22) Enjoy your well-earned plaudits for a job well done. But be aware that some people might not share your colleagues' admiration, and you might have to work harder to win them over.

LIBRA (September 23 to October 22) It's a good week to recheck your probably already overlong "to do" list and decide what to keep and what to discard. Lose the clutter and focus your energy on what's really important.

SCORPIO (October 23 to November 21) This is a good time to take a new perspective on what you've been offered. Expanding your view could help to uncover any plusses or minuses that weren't apparent at first.

SAGITTARIUS (November 22 to December 21) Applying the usual methods to this week's unique challenges might not work too well. Instead, use your creativity to find a way to resolve any impasse that develops.

CAPRICORN (December 22 to January 19) So what if fate throws some obstacles in your path this week? Just keep in mind that the sure-footed and resolute Goat can get past any barrier by focusing on the goals up ahead.

AQUARIUS (January 20 to February 18) This week calls for better communication with people in both your private life and the workplace. Start by asking questions, and then pay close attention to the answers.

PISCES (February 19 to March 20) Potentially beneficial workplace changes could be closer than you realize. Make sure you know what's going on so that you're not left high and dry when the good things happen.

BORN THIS WEEK: You're not timid about pushing to have your aims realized once you've set your mind to accomplishing your goals.

* Y.L. in North Carolina writes: "I was sorting out tools in the shed and didn't realize that rust had gotten all over my T-shirt and shorts. Any tips?" You can try this, Y.L., and remember never to machine dry an item until the stain is gone, as it may set the stain. For rust, apply lemon juice to the stain, and then sprinkle with cream of tartar from your kitchen and rub it into the fabric. Allow the clothing to sit until the stain is gone, and then launder as usual. Good luck!

* "Oh, that grease buildup on top of the cabinets is terrible. But you can make cleaning up a snap with this tip: All you need to do to keep the tops of your cabinets clean is line them with waxed paper. Some people use newspaper, but I like waxed paper." -- W.T. in Kentucky

* "When you shop for shoes, go in the evening. Feet swell and expand throughout the day, so if you buy shoes in the morning, the fit might not feel too good later in the day." -- A.T. in Louisiana

* Can't seem to get organized in the kitchen? Start with baby steps. For instance, every time you put away groceries, check your fridge and freezer to see if there are any expired items that are ready for the refuse bin. Also, pull items from the freezer that have been in there for a while, and defrost them. Now, that's what's for dinner!

* "To give rooms the illusion of extra height, hang curtains from a spot very near the ceiling. The long vertical lines of the fabric draw the eye up. It can be enough to make a very small room look and feel a little more spacious." -- R.

Watching videos of former military dogs being reunited with their soldier never grows old. The soldier is usually nervous about the dog not recognizing them, but that simply never happens.

It is just unfathomable for me to think about the military dogs that served loyally during the Viet Nam conflict. When we left, we left them behind to fend themselves. That thought is horrifying to me.

Now, military dogs too old to work are allowed to be adopted instead of being euthanized. This became law 20 years ago during the Clinton presidency and was a bipartisan effort.

The Defense Department had caged and euthanized the dogs that became too old or sick to work, according to Rep. Roscoe Bartlett, R-Md., who introduced the bill. Retired dogs could be released to civilian law enforcement agencies, but not to members of the public to avoid claims of government liability if the dog were to injure someone. Nobody who receives a working military dog is required to agree not to hold the government responsible for damage, injury, or other losses after transfer of ownership.

The use of dogs by a military force is not a new idea. The Greeks and Romans actually began equipping large dogs with spike collars and sending them forward to attack the enemy. During the Middle Ages, war dogs were outfitted with armor and were used to defend caravans. Russian used ambulance dogs during the Russo-Japanese War and the Italians employed dogs as sentries. Dogs were used in large numbers during World War I, mostly by the Germans, French, and Belgians, mostly for ambulance and messenger service.

Before Pearl Harbor was attacked, the sled dog was the only working dog in the Army. However, the attack upon Pearl Harbor and the sudden entry of the United States into war stimulated interest in the use of dogs for sentry duty. By 1944, 10,425 dogs had been trained at war dog centers. Nearly 9,300 of these dogs were used for sentry duty.

The wonderful characteristics dogs have - devotion to man, acute senses and speed - proved to be of great value for the military. A number of war dogs established outstanding records overseas during World War II. At least one canine member of the military was awarded the Silver Star and the Purple Heart. Both awards were later revoked as contrary to Army policy. However, in January of 1944 the War Department permitted commendations to be granted.

Countless American lives were saved by the service of these dogs during World War II, and dogs were also used to protect American troops during the Korean Conflict, Viet Nam War, and Operation Desert Storm. They are trained to recognize booby traps, mines, and weapons caches. They have warned troops about ambushes, and they have dragged wounded soldiers to safety. Tragically, many of the dogs were killed during the wars. Yet, after the conflicts, many of the dogs were declared "surplus armaments" and were euthanized.

It is good to know that these canine heroes now have a chance at a happy retirement.

A classic car show is a highlight and a Corn Hole Tournament a $500 first prize will be held too. The children will enjoy the Farm Olympics, petting zoo, magic show, face painting, Smokey the Bear on fire safety plus other fun activities. Two stages of entertainment to include Iris Hester, Matt Crowder, Megan Doss, Cruize Control, Cat 5 Band, Jus' Cause and Rock Steady. Artisans and regional crafters will be on The Square and many local festival foods will be available.

Ready, Set, Grill! DCC VP Serves Up Gourmet Recipe in National Cook-off

Danville Community College Vice President of Academic and Student Services Dr. Debra Holley traded her day planner for a chef's hat last week after being selected as one of 20 semifinalists in the Sutter Home Build a Better Burger contest from 520 competitors nationwide. The 20 semifinalists competed in five groups of four contestants at locations across the country. On Wednesday, August 28, she faced off against three other regional semifinalists in Detroit and, while she didn't emerge victorious, she did gain some new friends and may or may not have swapped a few recipes before returning to campus. Dr. Holley's entry was her bacon burger with braised kale, brie, and chocolate-Cabernet sauce. She didn't leave empty-handed, either: The pans, bowls, and utensils provided in the competition were hers to keep. Each contestant had one hour to cook for the four judges and invited guests before the Detroit Tigers game that day. The winner from each regional semifinal competition will head to California's Sutter Home Vineyards in October for the final cook-off, with the grand prize winner receiving $25,000.
