At The Corral Gate

Gloria with Enola

It's great to see friends you don't usually get to see too often. Everybody is so busy! I realized that in just one week's time, I had crossed paths with several dear friends and wanted to catch you in the loop! I traveled to Hunt County to attend a Style Show and Luncheon which would benefit the Northeast Texas Children's Museum. Guess who was modeling there, Gloria Mathews of Pioneer Memorials in Sulphur Springs! She's a slim and trim businesswoman who stays busy as a bee! Gloria's business sense springs partially from a deep family background in the stone engraving business which originated in Delta County. Her business success comes from more work than leisure, eating right, staying healthy and never quitting, of course! That's the cowgirl spirit! In fact, not only does she never quit, Gloria never stops smiling!

Karon Weatherman with Enola

Karon Weatherman is the hard-working Director of the Sulphur Springs Senior Citizens Center. She was recognized recently during the Fruit of the Spirit Awards, hosted by Colorblind Ministries. The black-tie event was held at Sulphur Springs High School and featured former Dallas Cowboy Everson Walls as speaker. Nine Fruit of the Spirit awards were bestowed upon deserving local individuals, couples and families.

Karon was presented with the Gentleness Award, and I was privileged to get to present it to her. Several local business and industry individuals were also recognized with Community Support awards. Pastor C.J. Duffey and his wife Cathey founded the Fruit of the Spirit Awards. Providing beautiful gospel music for the event were The Chaffers, Kenya Duffey Chaffer and her husband Charles.

Kenya Duffey Chaffer

Billie Ruth Standbridge, 'Ms. Downtown' is a Hopkins County gal and a friend to all. She was one of the first members of a quilt club formed 21 years ago. B.R. was instrumental in leading the Lone Star Heritage Quilt to found the Quilt Show in 1999, and they've held annual displays since then. 2019 marks the 20th annual Lone Star Heritage Quilt Show, be sure and attend on Friday September 20 and Saturday September 21 at The Roc. You will see over 120 beautiful new and vintage quilts hung for display. Each of these quilts tells a story, whether it be the theme selected, it's designer or the one (or ones) who put in all the tiny, painstaking stitches! Learn some of the stories at this year's Quilt Show, a quality art event recognized across the state and which brings a lot of visitors to town. Thanks to Billie Ruth and Deanna Hasten for your non-stop work in promoting downtown Sulphur Springs!

Billie Ruth with Deanna Hasten

Look for these two ladies leading the way to the Brick Street Vintage Market on Saturday September 21. Marlene DeYong and Judy Heilman are local businesswomen and tireless workers for the Downtown Business Alliance. The exciting outdoor Brick Street Vintage Market brings more than 50 vendors of antiques, handmade and junque finds lining our downtown streets, and along with our retail shops, restaurants, coffeeshops and wineries, providing a tempting destination to discover! So come downtown Sulphur Springs on Saturday September 21 from 8am til 6pm and enjoy the day right here! Market headquarters is The Magic Scoop on Connally Street, and the first 100 shoppers to stop in there receive a keepsake market bag filled with discounts and coupons!!

Marlene DeYong with Judy Heilman

Maw would say 'there's more to do around here than you can shake a stick at' and I agree! Sulphur Springs is one busy town but it's truly the people who make it unique! Come see us soon. Til next week, I'll watch for you at the Corral Gate!
