SPEAK OUT

Dear "Speak Out,"

During the first week of August the Livingston Highway Department has been grading the side of Creek Road in the towns of Perry and Nunda.

It is my opinion that they have trashed the side of the road and have done a lot of damage to the lawns of landowners on the side of the road. I have no problem with grading the top of the shoulder, but then they removed all the vegetation of the side of the ditch. This looks like crap, is impossible to mow and will erode into the ditch. Since when does mowed grass inhibit the flow of water through it?

The job appears to represent the attitude of the Highway Department to landowners on the side of the road. It is our road and if you don't like what we do to it, too bad.

There were four large dump trucks, one grader, a gadget to remove the soil from the ditch and a road sweeper along with several pickups on the job. Looked like a tremendous waste of money to trash a road to me.

A few years ago the Livingston Highway Department widened the road in violation of the State Environmental Quality Review law. They proceeded with the project without consulting with their engineers about culvert size which had to be repaired. Wonder what they will do this time? If they are so concerned about water ponding on the road, maybe they should fill in the low areas of the road that are always filled with water every time it rains.

Positively Livingston

Veterans Monument is Taking Shape

Livingston County's Hampton Corners complex in Groveland will soon be home to an open-air monument honoring local military veterans. Development of the monument site - located on county-owned land near the intersection of Gypsy Lane and Groveland Station Road - is being undertaken by the Livingston County Highway Department. The monument is slated for completion by this November.

Jason Skinner, Director of Veteran Services for Livingston County and an Army veteran, said, "It has been so exciting to watch the progression of the monument site. I commend the Highway Department for its dedication to this project and its determination to finish it in time to coincide with Veteran's Day on November 11th."

The Highway Department has been intermittently - between rain drops and infrastructure projects - advancing site preparation for the monument since the beginning of the year. To date, the site has been cleared and graded with over 5,000 tons of gravel and crusher run material spread and compacted as a foundation for the monument. Extensive drainage systems have been installed to ensure the integrity of the site over time. A 6-inch-thick concrete pad will serve as the 125.5 ft. x 65 ft. flag-shaped monument. Installation of the monument itself, as well as any hard and soft landscaping, will also be handled by the Highway Department. In order to provide visitors with convenient access to the monument, an adjacent parking lot has been constructed to accommodate vehicular traffic.

The monument, once installed, will display hundreds of swiveling, metal poppies to emulate a waving American flag. The bright red poppies, ranging in height from 1 ft. to 3 ft., have been individually handcrafted by veterans - as well as friends and families of veterans - with help from Olie Olsen, the Metal Trades instructor at the Genesee Valley Educational Partnership in Mount Morris. In addition to the poppy display, the monument will feature multiple flag poles representing military service branches.

"This county project has been wildly popular with our veteran community. It has brought many veterans together and has strengthened their bonds in an already resilient community," said Skinner, who originally pitched the project to the Livingston County Board of Supervisors last November. "In fact, the footprint for the monument had to be expanded as veteran participation continued to grow. Our initial goal was to fill the monument with 100 poppies, and now we have close to 250."

Livingston County's Highway Superintendent Don Higgins, who is a Marine veteran and a leader of the Patriot Guard Riders, is proud to be a part of the monument's development, and said, "This monument has been garnering attention from across the state because of its uniqueness, symbolism, partnerships and public involvement."

Higgins attributes the success of this project to extensive collaboration among Livingston County's leadership, the Highway Department, Veteran Services, Genesee Valley Educational Partnership, the veteran community, and all those who have donated time and materials. "I would especially like to thank County Administrator Ian Coyle and the Board of Supervisors for believing in this project from the very beginning," Higgins said. "Their unwavering support signifies a genuine appreciation for all Livingston County veterans who have served our country."

For additional information on the development of the Veterans Monument, please contact the Livingston County Veteran Services office at 585-243-7960.

September as Hunger Action Month

At its meeting on September 11, 2019, the Board of Supervisors proclaimed September as Hunger Action Month and recognized Foodlink for its service to the community. Foodlink is the Feeding America food bank serving Allegany, Genesee, Livingston, Monroe, Ontario, Orleans, Seneca, Wayne, Wyoming, and Yates counties.

County Administrator Ian Coyle said, “We are fully committed to working with local health and nutrition-focused organizations to raise awareness of the need to combat hunger throughout Livingston County.”

Foodlink strives to address food insecurity, which refers to: (i) the lack of access to enough food for an active, healthy life for all household members, and (ii) limited or uncertain availability of nutritionally adequate foods. Food insecurity affects approximately 40 million Americans across the nation and 1 out of every 8 people in Foodlink’s 10-county service area. In 2017, the rate of food insecurity among Livingston County’s total population was 11% (almost 7,000 people) while the rate among children in the county was over 18% (over 2,000 children).

On an annual basis, Foodlink provides approximately 19 million pounds of food to vulnerable children, seniors, and adults in its service area. This non-profit organization also collaborates with hundreds of partners – such as food pantries, soup kitchens, and shelters – to alleviate hunger for thousands of individuals.

Here are some ways to get involved in the movement to help end hunger:

- Wear the color orange to raise awareness of Hunger Action Month. Also consider decorating storefronts or illuminating your neighborhood with orange.
- Volunteer with a food bank and food pantries. Common volunteer activities include sorting and packing food, gardening, and educating the community.
- Donate food or organize a food drive. Be sure to plan and coordinate these activities with the regional food bank.

For more information on Foodlink, please visit <https://foodlinkny.org/>. To learn more about Feeding America, click here: <https://www.feedingamerica.org/>.

VA Finger Lakes Healthcare System (Bath and Canandaigua VA Medical Centers)

Recognizes September as Suicide Prevention Month

#BeThere Campaign Urges Our Community to Support Veterans

Bath, NY — In observance of Suicide Prevention Month, VA Finger Lakes Healthcare System is bringing awareness to its #BeThere campaign by encouraging community leaders, colleagues, and Veterans' families and friends to help prevent suicide by showing support for those who may be going through a difficult time.

Suicide is a complex national public health issue that affects communities nationwide, with more than 45,000 Americans, including more than 6,000 Veterans, dying by suicide every year. But suicide is preventable. VA is using a community-driven approach to prevent suicide and finding innovative ways to deliver support and care to all 20 million U.S. Veterans whenever and wherever they need it.

VA Finger Lakes Healthcare System is working hard to end Veteran suicide, but we know that only about a third of Veterans come to VA for health care," said Bruce Tucker, Director VA Finger Lakes Healthcare System. "That's why we need everyone in the community to get involved. This September, and all year, I encourage everyone to take a moment to be there for Veterans in need. One act of thoughtfulness can make a big difference and may even save a life."

You don't need special training to prevent suicide. Everyone can play a role by learning to recognize warning signs, showing compassion and care to Veterans in need, and offering your support. Here are some actions anyone can take to Be There:

- Reach out to the Veterans in your life to show them you care. Send a check-in text, cook them dinner, or simply ask, "How are you?"
- Educate yourself on the warning signs of suicide, found on the Veterans Crisis Line website.
- Watch the free S.A.V.E. training video to equip yourself to respond with care and compassion if someone you know indicates they are having thoughts of suicide.
- Check out VA's Social Media Safety Toolkit to learn how to recognize and respond to social media posts that may indicate emotional distress, feelings of crisis or thoughts of suicide.
- Contact VA's Coaching Into Care program if you are worried about a Veteran loved one. A licensed psychologist or social worker will provide guidance on motivating your loved one to seek support.

Veterans who are in crisis or having thoughts of suicide, and those who know a Veteran in crisis, can call the Veterans Crisis Line for confidential support available 24 hours a day, seven days a week, 365 days a year. Call 1-800-273-8255 and Press 1, text to 838255 or chat online at VeteransCrisisLine.net/Chat.

Reporters covering this issue can download VA's Safe Messaging Best Practices fact sheet or visit www.ReportingOnSuicide.org for important guidance on how to communicate about suicide.

A TESTIMONY ABOUT A PHYSICAL HEALING

We met Joe near Penn Yan.

In talking with him, we discovered that he'd been diagnosed with brain cancer. Joe was very anxious about how his family would get along when he wasn't here any longer. Joe agreed to let us pray with him.

The following week, the oncologist told Joe the cancer was miraculously gone. God had performed a miracle for Joe!
