Ruttger's Bay Lake Lodge to celebrate Oktoberfest Oct. 19

Sounds of tubas, accordions and revelers will once again fill the fall air as Ruttger's Bay Lake Lodge brings a touch of Bavaria to the Lakes Area with one of the state's most popular and drinks, an arts and crafts fair and much more.

"The reason Oktoberfest at Ruttger's has become an autumn tradition for thousands is simple — it's a great par-

What's new in 2019

Though Oktoberfest at Ruttger's is steeped in tradition, there are a handful of new offerings at this year's event, highlighted by the Cuyuna bonfire pits enjoying s'mores. The biggest benefit is quicker access to beer.

New food and drink will be served this year, including hand-cut French fries, pickles on a stick and pretzel bites. In addition to the traditional Oktoberfest beers, Schell's will be serving an IPA at the outdoor beer gardens, as well as White Claw Hard Seltzer, and special Oktoberfest Bloody Marys. The youngsters will enjoy a spate of new arts and crafts projects in the Kids' Kamp building.

Traditional activities and events

The heart of Oktoberfest is the Arts and Crafts Fair on Saturday, Oct. 19 from 9 a.m. — 4 p.m. This year's fair features more than 160 vendors selling a wide assortment of clothing, art, food and more. In addition to the Arts and Crafts Fair, attendees can enjoy children's activities like a bouncy house and Kids Kraits at the Kids' Kamp Building.

The Entertainment Tent will once again be a hub for parties with an entire day of entertainment and beer on tap (pun intended). Back by popular demand, The Concord Singers, Alpensterne, and the Narren of New Ulm will take the stage beginning at 10:45 a.m. The blessing of the keg and ceremonial keg tapping is scheduled for 11 a.m.

Saturday night is the celebrated Oktoberfest Dinner Buffet, with all the favorite German specialties. Alpensterne will perform during the dinner buffet in Ruby's Dining Room. Reservations are required for the dinner buffets, but Saturday's arts and crafts fair and the daytime events are free admission. For more information or to make your dinner reservation, call Ruttger's Bay Lake Lodge at 218-678-2885.

Oktoberfest celebrations. The party begins at 9 a.m. on Saturday, Oct. 19. Prost!

The festivities mark the 34th year the resort has hosted the traditional German festival that features live entertainment, authentic German food ty," Ruttger's President Chris Ruttger said. "There's something magical about enjoying German beer and food while listening to authentic German festival music. It's hard not to smile while wearing lederhosen."

Fare for All Holiday packs are great deal to help stretch food budgets

By ANN SCHWARTZ
Jerry and Dolores Wickham of Dam Lake in rural Aitkin like to help others – especially their fellow senior citizens. They spend about four hours a month volunteering for the Fare for All program.
As part of a nationwide network of cooperative food purchasing programs, consumers can purchase meat and produce once a month at low prices that stretch their monthly food budgets. There are over 200 sites in Minnesota. Some version of the program has operated in the Aitkin area for over 30 years.

Wickhams stress that now is the time to order holiday food packages. “They cost $30 and include everything – except potatoes – to feed a holiday meal to four or five people,” stressed Dolores.
The Holiday Package induces a nine pound turkey, two pounds of chicken breasts, four Johnsonville sausages, a turkey tenderloin, sage pork sausage, green beans and a pumpkin pie.

November holiday packages must be ordered by Fri., Oct. 25, for pickup on Wed., Oct. 30.
Pickups are always on Wednesdays – most often the first Wednesday at 3:30 p.m. The parking lot of First Lutheran Church in Aitkin, 107 Second St SE, is the pickup spot.

The December holiday package must be ordered by Friday, Nov. 29, for pickup on Wednesday, Dec. 4 at 3:30.
Orders must be placed and paid in advance. Call Dolores at 218-549-3158. For those in the Crosby area call Mabel Semler at 218-546-6523. The pickup site in Crosby is Immanuel Lutheran Church, 600- 4th St. SW, Crosby.
Other local sites include: Community room at City Hall, 125 Lake Ave. Hill City and Zion Lutheran Church, 207 1st St., McGrath.
During non-holiday times, Fare for All offers a Mega Meat pack for $25 (7-9 meat items); Mini Meat pack $11 (3-5 meats, no pork); and a produce pack for $10 which includes 12-15 pounds of fresh vegetables and fruit. The Combo pack, $20, includes mini meat and produce and saves $1. The Wickhams also charge an additional $1 per family for picking up the food. Orders must be placed and paid the Friday prior to the first Wednesday of the month.
Each first Wednesday, they head down to the Garrison VFW where Chris Jensen, the driver, brings up pallets of food from New Hope.
“We used to have people supply their own cardboard boxes and we had to pack the boxes but now it comes packaged,” explained Jerry. He said that they all work together from the area to get all the food packed into the cars going to different towns. “If we have a small order, we bring our car. For larger orders, we bring our pickup and for really large orders, we bring our trailer if need be.”

There used to be as many as 20 families ordering a month and it has dwindled to about eight. Dolores would like to see more local families taking

This service is open to everyone. In addition to the food packages sold at all other Fare for All locations, individual meats, produce, and dry goods are for sale at the warehouse. Cash, credit, debit and EBT payments are accepted. They are located at 8501 54th Ave North in New advantage of this service.

“Fare for All works hard to make sure our packages contain healthy staples – items like fresh produce and lean meats that are usually the most expensive items at the grocery store,” said the website. Log onto the website, fareforall.org, for tips on making the most of your monthly food package.
Warehouse sales are available on the second Monday of each month at the New Hope (Twin Cities) Warehouse from 9:30 a.m. to 7 p.m.
Hope Enter through the west doors on the right side of the building. Remaining 2019 dates for the warehouse are: October 14, November 11 and December 9.
There are no income requirements or any other restrictions. Everyone may participate. Dolores said that they are happy to help everyone, but they are not able to deliver to individual homes. “If someone forgets to come I’ll try to contact them and they can come to our house and pick it up,” she said.

Missing Outing woman

The Aitkin County Sheriff’s Office is urging area hunters to keep watch for a woman who has been missing for nearly a week.
Michelle Mae, 35, of Outing, Minnesota, had last contact with her family on Wednesday, October 3. Mae is 5’1”, Caucasian, with green eyes, dark-rimmed glasses and short, dark hair. She has several tattoos on her forearms.
A hunter located Mae’s missing 2004 Jeep Liberty on Friday, October 4, in Aitkin County near Swatara, which is southwest of Hill City. The Aitkin County Sheriff’s Office is asking hunters in the area to watch for any signs of Mae. Anyone with information on her whereabouts is urged to contact the sheriff’s office at 218-927-2138 or dial 911.

The Aitkin County Sheriff’s Office is being assisted in its investigation by the Cass County Sheriff’s Office and the Minnesota Bureau of Criminal Apprehension.

featuring Dr. Murray Smith
Overcoming Lyme

In previous articles, we highlighted Lyme and the various aspects of the disease. We also looked at the various ways it can show itself and manifest in life-altering, often debilitating, ways. So, what can we do that heightens our chances of defeating this disease and overcoming the destructive path it leaves behind? Read on for hope.

We're going to assume that comprehensive blood tests for acute and chronic infections were done that cover the wide array of possibilities. If not, find a clinic that does this comprehensive testing.

Next, identify the damage the infection has caused and the specific areas of the body it has affected. Clearing toxins that these organisms secrete, such as ammonia, can help shut down further damage. This often requires specialized testing to find, but can be extremely effective. Identifying the issues that complicate the problem, such as heavy metal and chemical exposure, can help dig deeper into the underlying problem.

Finding the nutritional deficiencies, and giving the body what it needs to recover, is like adding fuel to a car that is out of gas. This is great news because some can feel better within days of starting their nutritional program. Each individual "needs what they need" and the more specific, the better.

Moving on, eliminate Lyme's biofilm, that protective shield that hides it and other organisms. Be aware that this can free up the bad guys hiding out and care should be taken to deal with them. Naturally boosting the immune system, lowering inflammation in body through diet, limiting exposure to molds, and lowering stress can all also help defeat this giant.

Putting it all together can be just the key needed to unlocking a healthier future!
