Shampoo

I always used my shampoo to wash the rest of my body while in the shower. It was just easier to lather up my hair and use the extra suds on my body instead of soap.

Then I saw the words printed on my shampoo bottle "for extra volume and fullness." No wonder why I can't lose weight!

Now I'm using my dish soap in the shower. It's guaranteed to remove fat and other unwanted deposits that other soaps leave behind!

Driver's License

A friend of a friend of mine was sitting on a lawn sunning and reading, when he was startled by a fairly late model car crashing through a hedge and coming to rest on his lawn. He helped the elderly driver out and sat him on a lawn chair.

"My goodness," he exclaimed. "You are quite old to be driving!"

"Yes," he replied. "I am old enough that I don't need a license anymore. The last time I went to my doctor he examined me and asked if I had a driving license. I told him yes and handed it to him."

Tying a Tie

Shortly after reporting to the 101st Airborne Division, we were ordered to fall out in our dress uniforms. Only problem was, I didn't know how to tie a necktie. So I asked the guy in the next bunk for help.

"Sure," he said. "Lie down."

Confused, I lay down on the bunk and he tied my tie. "Sorry, but this is the only way I know how," he said. "Comes from practicing on my father's clients."

"What does your father do?"

"He's a mortician."

Americanisms

"Never give up, for that is just the place and time that the tide will turn."
— Harriet Beecher Stowe

"He took scissors out of a drawer, cut the license into pieces and threw them in the wastebasket. 'You won't be needing this anymore,' he said."

"So I thanked him and left."

ARIES (March 21 to April 19) Caution dominates the Sheep's monetary aspect this week. Rams and Ewes might want to shear their big spending plans until a more favorable financial picture begins to emerge by week's end.

TAURUS (April 20 to May 20) Thrift counts both at home and at work. So you might want to rethink major purchases or investments. Also, be wary of a so-called revelation about a previous decision.

GEMINI (May 21 to June 20) Both household budgets and workplace accounts might benefit from some judicious trimming of unnecessary expenses. A partnership could lead to an unexpected challenge.

CANCER (June 21 to July 22) A previously overlooked opportunity could re-emerge with a new travel-related matter. Check this out carefully to see if it's what you really want before you decide one way or another.

LEO (July 23 to August 22) This could be the start of a new career-changing phase, so start marking down your many accomplishments for those who need to know how much you have to offer. Good luck.

VIRGO (August 23 to September 22) It's not too early for the sometimes procrastinating Virgo to start making those long-distance travel plans. The sooner you decide where to go, when to go and how to go, the better.

LIBRA (September 23 to October 22) Financial matters once again figure in any major action you might take regarding career, travel or other endeavors. You'll want a ready reserve to help you back up those moves.

SCORPIO (October 23 to November 21) Trying to resolve a problem in a personal relationship could be more difficult than you'd expected. Look into the possibility that someone might be interfering for his or her own reasons.

SAGITTARIUS (November 22 to December 21) A project you once rejected might be more attractive because of changes that you feel you can now work with. The weekend is especially favorable to family matters.

CAPRICORN (December 22 to January 19) This is a good week for the gregarious Goat to enjoy being with people you care for. You might even want to show off those creative kitchen skills you're so adept at.

AQUARIUS (January 20 to February 18) A colleague might think your attitude is patronizing or even outright insulting. True. That might be his or her problem. But you might want to take some reassuring steps anyway.

PISCES (February 19 to March 20) It's a good time to jettison those old concepts about a family matter you might have been holding on to. This will help make room for a new and more enlightened way of dealing with it.

BORN THIS WEEK: You like to analyze a puzzling situation before you try to resolve it. This makes you excel at getting things done the right way.

window of the third-floor apartment was open. Glancing out, he saw his daughter crawling on the narrow ledge. Behind her, creeping on his belly, was Roy. A call was made to the fire department, and the father rushed downstairs to position himself with an outstretched blanket. Roy continued to inch along, until he caught the child's diaper in his mouth. He then cautiously shuffled backwards towards the window. Only after the child was safely inside, did Roy jump in the window, wagging his tail.

Sugar the cat was given away by her owners in 1952 when they moved to a new town 2,000 miles away. One year later, a cat suddenly appeared in the window. She paused for a moment, and then jumped onto the woman's shoulder and purred. When they discovered a congenital hip joint deformity, the owners knew Sugar had come to them. A call to the people they gave her to a year before confirmed that Sugar had disappeared three weeks after she was left with them.

Jack was the signalman, and was given that job when the previous signalman, Edwin, lost both legs in an accident. The new employee quickly learned to operate the correct levers. In his off-hours, Jack pumped water from a well and tended a flower garden. He even pushed Edwin to work in a trolley. For all his loyalty and work, Jack was paid only $.20 a day. Jack was a baboon, owned by Edwin.

* You can rewrap a scratching post with sisal rope fairly easily. The rope usually costs only a couple of dollars, and you can use a drop of hot glue to get started and another at the end. Your cat (and your couch) will thank you.

* "I've been trying to make better choices about the packaging on items I purchase, and I've stopped using plastic wrap and baggies for the most part. But there are some items that wax paper or parchment bags can't handle. But I found a solution: beeswax wrap. It works just like cling wrap, and you can wash it easily. It's pretty cool and reusable over and over." -- K.G. in Florida

* Add a few tablespoons of milk to water that you use to cook cauliflower. It will help it retain its whiteness.

* Remove a lettuce core with this swift trick: Set the head of lettuce core side down on a hard surface. Bring the lettuce up and then down swiftly, crushing the core. Turn it over and the core should be easy to remove. Slice as needed.

* "I use the wide rubber band from a head of broccoli to keep my dusting cloth attached to my bottle of furniture polish. I have a microfiber cloth that I use several times before washing. I tuck it under the band, and the two items stay together under the sink." -- B. in Oklahoma

* "Someone brought a bag of temporary tattoos to a tailgate and the kids (and some of the adults, if I'm being honest) went overboard. We used baby oil to get the residue off the next day. It came off without a fight, thank goodness." -- J.J. in Georgia

In the grid above, there's room for six words pertaining to the haunted house. The following definitions should help:

1. They live in the house.
2. Noises you hear in the house.
3. Type of passages in the house.
4. What you might hear in the house.
5. What might block your way.
6. Coldest, darkest part of the house.

There is a dark frame around one of the columns in our grid. If you correctly solve the puzzle, the letters in the frame, top to bottom, will spell out what you "feel" at midnight in the house.

Answers: 1. Ghosts, 2. Creaks, 3. Secret, 4. Scream, 5. Cobweb, 6. Cellar. The dark frame column spells "Terror."

The most important thing on our schedule is your mammogram.

October is Breast Cancer Awareness month but for us, fighting breast cancer is on the calendar every day. We know early detection of breast cancer is key. One of the best methods of early detection is an annual mammogram. If you're 40 or over, the American Cancer Society recommends scheduling one every year. Put this screening on your calendar and enjoy the peace-of-mind that an annual mammogram brings.

Reduce your risk. Call to schedule your 3D mammogram today.

HOLLYWOOD—Brandon Routh, star of "Superman Returns" (2006), will return again to play the Man of Steel in The CW's "Crisis on Infinite Earths" crossover event, which unites some famous DC comic book superheroes — a la "Avengers: Endgame." Routh's Superman, now graying at the temples, will fly through "Supergirl" (Sunday, Dec. 8), "Batwoman" (Dec. 9), "The Flash" (Dec. 10) and "Arrow" (Jan. 14), followed by the finale, "DC's Legends of Tomorrow" (also Jan. 14). Along the way, Tom Welling ("Smallville") and Tyler Hoechlin ("Arrow") also will appear.

At long last, Glenn Close will re-create her 1994 Tony Award-winning performance as Norma Desmond in Andrew Lloyd Webber's musical "Sunset Boulevard." Close was 47 when she first played the forgotten film star, and 69 when it was revived on Broadway in 2016. Now 72, Close has grown into the role and is "Ready for my close-up, Mr. DeMille." Prior to starting "Sunset Boulevard," Close has completed "Four Good Days," with Mila Kunis, and Ron Howard's Netflix film "Hillbilly Elegy," with Amy Adams.

Mel Gibson's sequel, "The Passion of the Christ: Resurrection," with Jim Caviezel again as Christ, is due December 2020. Mel should reconsider his release date because director Terrence Malick is shooting "The Last Planet," also about the life of Christ, with Geza Rohrig (of "Son of Saul") as Jesus and Mark Rylance as four versions of Satan, plus Ben Kingsley, Joseph Fiennes and Douglas Booth. Mel has completed shooting the sci-fi thriller "Boss Level," with Frank Grillo and Naomi Watts, playing a man trapped in a never ending time loop, and "Waldo," with Charlie Hunnam.

Clint Eastwood's latest directorial effort is "Richard Jewell," about the security guard at the Centennial Olympic Park who discovered a plot to bomb the 1996 Olympics. Despite trying to evacuate civilians, he was considered a prime suspect. In the title role is Paul Walter Hauser, an actor and stand-up comedian best known as Shawn in "I, Tonya," Ivanhoe in "BlacKkKlansman" and the TV series "Kingdom." Hauser is aided and abetted by Sam Rockwell, Kathy Bates, Olivia Wilde and Jon Hamm. "Richard Jewell" drops Dec. 13.

Tom Hanks, already receiving Oscar nomination talk for playing Mr. (Fred) Rogers in "A Beautiful Day in the Neighborhood" (out Nov. 22), also has completed the war film "Greyhound," with Elisabeth Shue (due May 8); "BIOS," a sci-fi film with Hanks as the last man on Earth, who builds a robot for company; and the Wild West drama "News of the World" (opening Dec. 25, 2020). Hanks has starred in 62 films, directed 26 films, written five films, produced three films, won two Oscars, eight Emmys, four Golden Globes, a Kennedy Center Honors, the Presidential Medal of Freedom and the French Legion of Honor. What do you do in your spare time? Hanks for the memories.

Can Nothing be Done for Severe Back Pain?

DEAR DR. ROACH: I have severe lower back pain and can't stand up straight or walk very well. I saw a back specialist, and he took X-rays and reviewed an MRI. He informed me nothing could be done for me because I have diffuse idiopathic skeletal hyperostosis (DISH). I would like to know what this is and why nothing can be done for me. -- Anon.

ANSWER: DISH is essentially a disease of bone spurs. The ligaments and their attachments to bone themselves become calcified and bonelike. The cause is unknown. Symptoms are commonly back pain (more often, middle or upper back, not the lower back pain you have), but pain also may occur in the neck. Problems with walking are not common, but can happen if a nerve is being compressed. Surgery is not a usual treatment for DISH. It is occasionally necessary if the bone spurs press on nerves or if the bone spurs are so large that they interfere with eating. That doesn't mean nothing can be done for you. Physical therapy may be very beneficial; judicious pain medication and regular gentle exercise are the other effective treatments. If the difficulty standing straight and walking persist, you should get re-evaluated.

DEAR DR. ROACH: What is your take on the benefits versus risks of DMSO? -- W.R.

ANSWER: DMSO (dimethyl sulfoxide) has only one use approved by the Food and Drug Administration, in people with interstitial cystitis, where it is directly instilled into the bladder. It is also used (off-label, meaning without an official FDA indication) as a recovery treatment when the tube delivering some types of chemotherapy comes out of the vein. DMSO may have a pain-relieving effect, both topically when applied, as well as in the brain, though the mechanism for this is unclear. DMSO is an antioxidant and opens pores in lipid membranes, but again it's unclear how this relates to its possible effects on people's symptoms.

It is an interesting and difficult-to-study compound. It is exceedingly permeable: Within five minutes of being applied to skin, it is detectable in the blood. It has a distinct flavor and odor that can be noticed after application to the skin, which makes doing a controlled trial difficult; subjects in a study find it very easy to know whether or not they have been given DMSO.

It's estimated that people have spent billions of dollars on DMSO for other conditions, especially arthritis and inflammatory diseases. However, the evidence that it is effective is poor, largely because of the difficulty in doing good studies on this compound, but also because large-scale studies are very expensive and there is little enthusiasm on performing such studies on a cheap compound.

The risks appear to be small. Apart from the taste and smell changes, there are rare reports of allergies, discomfort in the bladder after instillation there and possible damage to the eye lens (at least in animals). You didn't tell me what condition you are considering DMSO for, but except in the case of interstitial cystitis (where there are other therapies more likely to be effective), given uncertain benefits, I don't recommend DMSO despite the low risk of harm.

Dr. Roach regrets that he is unable to answer individual questions, but will incorporate them in the column whenever possible. Readers may email questions to ToYourGoodHealth@med.cornell.edu.

Danville Community College Honors its Tutors

by Tyree Ferrante, Danville Community College Tutor

Danville, Va., October 18, 2019 — On Thursday, October 10, Danville Community College (DCC) celebrated National Tutor Appreciation Week by honoring its 26 peer and professional tutors.

The evening kicked off with Dr. Violeta Howard, the new tutoring center coordinator, welcoming the tutors, tutees, and friends who were in attendance.

Derik Ferrante played soulful tunes on his guitar throughout the evening. Before sitting down to dinner, Christopher Ford, director of learning resources and distance learning, described the importance of those being honored: "The Tutoring Center wouldn't be able to run without the tutors. You're the ones who make the face-to-face contact with the students. When the students think of the Tutoring Center, they associate it with the tutors."

Ford then took the time to honor two special guests: Letitia Lunsford and Linda Hudgins. Lunsford worked as the Tutoring Center Coordinator for seventeen years before recently accepting a position in the college's testing center.

The tutors gathered around the very humbled Lunsford, presented her with a plaque and card, and stood for pictures.

"She was the life blood of the Tutoring Center," stated Ford. "She took over, running the place by herself. She was really devoted to the Tutoring Center and helping students."

Dr. Howard presented Lunsford flowers and stated, "I'm extremely appreciative and very grateful for your immense support in my new role."

Linda Hudgins, a professional tutor employed by the tutoring center for 20 years, was also honored.

Hudgins, 71, worked with thousands of students and became an integral part of the tutoring center and community during her tenure at DCC.

"I was very happy to meet Linda because I had heard so much about her. I know that her services as a tutor are still impacting many lives," Howard said.

"She was the one person who has ever insisted the building be open on a Saturday to work with students," Ford added.

Lunsford took the time to read a few comments from Hudgins' former tutees. One particular comment summarized her tutees' sentiment towards her:

"Linda was very patient with me, even with things that I should have known. She was always on time and available to help me on my subject six days a week. Without her help, a lot of the accounting students would have failed the subject. We are fortunate to have her at DCC."

Linda Hudgins, seated, was recognized on October 10 for 20 years of service as a tutor at Danville Community College. Letitia Lunsford, standing, was also recognized during the event for her service as the Tutoring Center Coordinator for 17 years. Lunsford recently took on a new role as Testing Center Coordinator.

City of Danville Police Department and Pittsylvania County Sheriff's Department in Partnership with Regional Alliance for Substance Abuse Prevention (RASAP) taking back unwanted prescription drugs.

October 26, 2019, from 10 am - 2 pm

Locations:

Walmart Super Store, 515 Mt. Cross Road, Danville

Food Lion, 4089 Franklin Turnpike, Danville

Pittsylvania County Sheriff's Office, 21 North Main Street, Chatham

Danville, VA - On Saturday, October 26, 2019, from 10 a.m. to 2 p.m. the City of Danville Police Department, Pittsylvania County Sheriff's Department, Regional Alliance for Substance Abuse Prevention (RASAP) and the U.S. Drug Enforcement Administration will give the public its 18th opportunity in nine years to prevent pill abuse and theft by ridding their homes of potentially dangerous expired, unused, and unwanted prescription drugs. Bring your pills for disposal Walmart Super Store, 515 Mt. Cross Road, Danville; Food Lion, 4049 Franklin Turnpike, Danville; or Pittsylvania County Sheriff's Office, 21 North Main Street, Chatham. (Sites cannot accept liquids or needles or sharps, only pills or patches.) The service is free and anonymous, no questions asked.

Last fall Americans turned in nearly 469 tons (more than 937,000 pounds) of prescription drugs at nearly 6,300 sites operated by the DEA and almost 5,000 of its state and local law enforcement partners. Overall, in its 17 previous Take Back events, DEA and its partners have taken in more than 11.8 million pounds—approximately 5,900 tons—of pills.

This initiative addresses a vital public safety and public health issue. Medicines that languish in home cabinets are highly susceptible to diversion, misuse and abuse. Rates of prescription drug abuse in the United States are alarmingly high, as are the number of accidental poisonings and overdoses due to these drugs. The Substance Abuse and Mental Health Services Administration's National Survey on Drug Use and Health shows year after year that the majority of misused and abused prescription drugs are obtained from family and friends, including someone else's medication being stolen from the home medicine cabinet. In addition, Americans are now advised that their usual methods for disposing of unused medicines—flushing them down the toilet or throwing them in the trash—both pose potential safety and health hazards.

For more information about the disposal of prescription drugs or about the October 26 Take Back Day event, go to www.DEATakeBack.com, or Amanda Oakes, President, RASAP, (434) 799-0456 Ext 3071, aoakes@dpcs.org

Blended Mushroom Nachos

Recipe courtesy of Chef Evan Robinson
Servings: 4

- 5 shitake mushrooms
- 5 white button mushrooms
- 1 clove garlic
- 1/4 cup chopped onions
- 1 tablespoon Mexican meat seasoning
- 10 ounces ground turkey

Cheese Sauce:

- 1 tablespoon butter
- 1 tablespoon flour
- 1 cup milk
- 1 1/4 cups Mexican blend shredded cheese

- tortilla chips
- salsa (optional)
- guacamole (optional)
- kale (optional)
- romaine lettuce (optional)
- tomatoes (optional)
- cilantro (optional)
- diced red bell peppers (optional)

In blender or food processor, pulse mushrooms, garlic and onions. In large saute pan over medium-high heat, mix finely chopped mushroom mixture with seasoning and cook 2 minutes. Add ground turkey, breaking into fine crumbles until completely cooked through. Set aside.

To make cheese sauce: In medium saucepan over medium-high heat, melt butter then add flour and whisk constantly, breaking up lumps. Stir 2 minutes then add milk and continuously whisk. Stir in cheese and mix with wooden spoon.

Assemble chips on serving platter; spread mushroom-meat crumble on top. Add cheese sauce and toppings like salsa, guacamole, kale, romaine lettuce, tomatoes, cilantro and diced red bell peppers, if desired.

Family Favorites with a BLENDED TWIST

FAMILY FEATURES

If you are raising picky eaters, there's a cooking technique that makes some of kids' favorite foods – like burgers and nachos – more nutritious while still tasting delicious.

Mushrooms, with their inherent umami flavor, are a perfect addition to blend into meals to increase both flavor and nutrition. Chefs kicked off the trend by blending finely chopped mushrooms with meat for burgers that are flavorful, healthy and Earth-friendly, and now blended burgers are showing up in school cafeterias, supermarket meat counters and fast food drive-thrus.

"Blended entrees like burgers are a win-win-win for families wanting to eat better," said Dayle Hayes, registered dietitian and founder of School Meals

That Rock. "Mushrooms add delicious umami flavor, reduce fat and sodium in many popular dishes and kids love them."

Another fan of blending is MasterChef Junior finalist and teen chef, Evan Robinson. Robinson likes to blend with multiple varieties of mushrooms in family favorites such as tacos, burgers and stuffed peppers.

"I find that blending mushrooms into some of my go-to recipes helps increase the flavor while reducing the amount of fat and sodium," Robinson said.

If you're ready to start blending at home, it can be a simple process for introducing foods to even the pickiest of eaters. Recruit kids as kitchen helpers to tackle tasks such as wiping mushrooms clean and using their hands to blend the meat and mushrooms together.

A Cooking Technique You Need to Know: BLENDED

Blending involves mixing finely chopped mushrooms with ground meat for more nutritious, but still delicious, burgers, tacos, meatballs and more.

1. Chop your favorite mushroom variety to match the consistency of the ground meat. This can be done with a knife or food processor.
2. Blend the chopped mushrooms with the ground meat.
3. Cook with Mexican seasoning mix for tacos, marinara sauce for meaty ragu or salt and pepper for juicy, flavorful burgers.

Pizza Burgers

Recipe courtesy of Chef Evan Robinson
Servings: 4

- 1 tablespoon extra-virgin olive oil
- 1 medium portabella mushroom, finely chopped
- 2-3 white button mushrooms, finely chopped
- 1/2 small onion
- 1/2 clove garlic
- 2 teaspoons Italian-style herb seasoning
- 8 ounces ground beef
- salt, to taste
- pizza or marinara sauce

shredded mozzarella cheese hamburger buns

In large pan over medium-high heat, saute extra-virgin olive oil, mushrooms, onions, garlic and herb seasoning approximately 5 minutes until vegetables are soft. Set aside and let cool to room temperature.

Blend mushroom mixture with ground beef. Season with salt, to taste.

Form into four patties and cook in same pan as mushroom mixture to preferred doneness. Top with dollop pizza sauce and mozzarella cheese. Cover pan to melt cheese then carefully transfer to buns.

Strange BUT TRUE

By Samantha Weaver

* It was Marquette University basketball coach and beloved national basketball commentator Al McGuire who made the following sage observation: "The world is run by C students."

* There were no armadillos in Texas until the 1840s.

* Many people think that adding cream to coffee makes it colder, but that's only partially correct. As it turns out, after cooling the coffee a little bit, the cream forms a layer of fat molecules across the surface, insulating the coffee and keeping it warmer longer.

* Those who study such things say that only about half the French-speaking people in the world actually live in France.

* After the Civil War, Varina Davis -- widow of Jefferson Davis, president of the Confederacy -- and Julia Grant -- widow of Ulysses S. Grant, famed Union general and later president of the United States -- ended up living near each other. According to historians, they became very close friends.

* On average, twins arrive 24 days earlier than babies from single births.

* It's been claimed that it was customary in Austria at one time for women to wear small dogs draped about their shoulders for warmth.

* You might be surprised to learn that the hula hoop was banned in some Indonesian cities. Why, you might ask? According to officials, the toy "awakens sensuality."

* In China, it is traditional for men do the knitting.

* According to anthropologists, if you'd never worn shoes, there would be a larger gap between your big toe and the rest of your toes.

Thought for the Day: "Four be the things I am wiser to know: idleness, sorrow, a friend and a foe. Four be the things I'd be better without: love, curiosity, freckles and doubt." -- Dorothy Parker

RECIPES

HALLOWEEN COOKIES

- INGREDIENTS:
- 1/4 cup butter
  - 1/4 cup oil
  - 1/2 cup brown sugar; packed
  - 1/2 cup granulated sugar
  - 1/2 tsp. vanilla
  - 1 egg
  - 1 1/2 cups flour
  - 1/2 tsp. baking powder
  - 1/2 tsp. baking soda
  - 1/2 tsp. salt
  - 2/3 cup Reese Pieces
  - 2/3 cup milk chocolate chips

- INSTRUCTIONS:
- Preheat oven to 350°. Line a cookie sheet with parchment paper and set aside.
  - Add the butter, oil and both sugars to a medium mixing bowl. With an electric mixer, cream together until smooth and creamy.
  - Add the egg and beat until incorporated. Then add the vanilla.
  - Combine the flour, baking soda, baking powder and salt together in a bowl.
  - Add half of the dry ingredients to the creamed mixture and stir until just combined. Add the remaining half and stir until all of the ingredients are wet.
  - Add the chocolate chips and Reeses Pieces and combine. Cover and chill dough for 15 minutes.
  - Once chilled, remove from refrigerator. Using a cookie scoop, add the cookie dough on the lined cookie sheet, 2 inches apart.
  - Bake for 10 to 12 minutes (depending on oven temperatures). Remove from oven and allow the cookies to cool on the pan for 2-3 minutes.
  - Transfer the cookies to a wire rack to completely cool before serving.
