DRAG QUEENS, LIBRARY BOOKS ON OC BALLOT

HAVE YOU HEARD?

"We just heard Democrat presidential candidate Beto O'Rourke threaten the tax-exempt status of churches if they do not support same-sex marriage. Democrats have attacked Christians over the issue of same-sex marriage for years. It is refreshing to see someone willing to stand up and defend basic Christian values as a mayoral candidate in Orange City." — Steve Scheffler, President of Iowa Faith & Freedom Coalition

"It is incumbent upon the city leadership, no matter who they are, to stand up and speak out publicly." — Coach Larry "Bubb" Korver, former NWC football coach

"A group of far-left activists plan to openly mock our Christian conservative beliefs in Orange City again this year... Homosexuality is a sin. This is a small group of people throwing this radical event... I would love to see (the city of Orange City) openly condemn it. As your state representative, I wholeheartedly condemn this radical event." — Rep. Skyler Wheeler "2018 comments"

"Research into Rapid-Onset Gender Dysphoria (ROGD) has shown that exposure to others who have adopted transgender identities creates an unacceptable risk for social contagion, with girls being the most vulnerable." — James Shupe, retired soldier who became first person in U.S. to obtain legal recognition of a non-binary gender. He has since returned to his birth sex of male.

"What I am writing to you is about (Korver's) character as a man of unwavering and devotion to God. In many instances, and one topic in particular, I believe he is 'the voice in the wilderness' for Orange City." — Dr. Terry Chi, former NWC professor who wrote petition about LGBT library books

"I am glad Dr. Korver has stepped up to the plate and is running for mayor. Trepidation and inaction at this time in our town's history cannot be tolerated. It is not the legacy we want to leave for our children." — Dr. Robert Hilbelink, former educator

"The legacy being left by Orange City's current leadership is that they were the ones in power when OC Pride took root in our town. And they refused to take a public stand against it. I trust that (Korver) will continue in his boldness as mayor, and that in addition to publicly standing for what is right he will use the power of the mayor's office to promote that which is just and good." — Alan De Young, Orange City resident

THOSE WHO OPPOSE KORVER SUPPORT OC PRIDE

- Martina Shakers, the head drag queen, wrote on Facebook that voters should support anybody but Kurt Korver.
- OC Pride attendees. During a peaceful prayer rally outside the Event Center during OC Pride, an OC Pride supporter shouted "Vote De Haan for mayor!"
- Former library director, Amanda Vazquez, who was responsible for the presence of homosexual/transgender books for children, gave the thumbs up to Deb De Haan's re-election announcement on Facebook.
- Former President Barack Obama, who wrote a letter commending OC Pride for its activism.
- One Iowa Action, the state's largest homosexual/transgender activist group.

Orange City voter: Consider who opposes Dr. Korver!

CITY STRIKES OUT!

As you can see on the timeline, Orange City leaders have had three years and have failed to take a moral stand on LGBT books aimed at children and drag queens dancing provocatively in front of children.

The city has refused to enforce laws that have been on the books for decades. The city put forth a last-ditch effort, likely for the sake of being able to say it "did something" just one day before OC Pride was slated to start in 2019!

OC Pride reserved the Event Center early last November. In early 2019, Orange City altered the conduct policy for the Event Center. One day before OC Pride 2019 was scheduled to start, the city sent OC Pride a letter asking for assurances it would honor the new conduct policy.

OC Pride swiftly filed for an emergency injunction. The city and OC Pride agreed on a few very minor points. The city restricted just a couple minor actions at the adult drag show, and even reneged on its position that children not attend the adult drag show. OC Pride said the show went on as planned.

The city didn't say a word in 2017 when OC Pride I happened. City Hall hosted the information fair and was the location for the showing of drag-queen glorifying movie "To Wong Foo, Thanks For Everything! Julie Newmar."

The city did NOTHING to address the library book situation after hundreds of residents signed a petition. In fact, they appointed someone who spoke in defense of those books to the library board after the Feb. 20, 2018 board meeting!

In 2018, the city again did NOTHING about OC Pride II. Drag queens read and danced with kids in the city-owned Event Center. Drag queens dressed and danced like strippers for dollar bills in the city-owned Event Center. The city did NOTHING!

Shortly after OC Pride II, though, the city put forth a statement about working together for the "greater good." Never was the "greater good" defined.

After changing the conduct policy of the Event Center, the city did NOT do what responsible leaders do and notify all parties who had previous contracts already signed. No, the city waited until the very last second to make an issue of it.

Why?

The city's attempt to "do something" failed miserably. The city offered ZERO OBJECTIONS to the "family" drag show for children. There were still scantily dressed drag queens dancing for dollar bills. Current city code was still not enforced.

And since the city had a presence in the Event Center that night, it is safe to say the city permitted EVERYTHING that took place at the drag show!

Here is what hasn't happened. No city leader has come out and plainly stated OC Pride is not reflective of Orange City or its values. That OC Pride is a thumb to the eye of our Christian heritage.

Meanwhile, children in town have these activities promoted to them by Hollywood, the media, culture and OC Pride itself. But who is speaking up for the children?

We know who will speak up for the children!

LACK OF LEADERSHIP

- Mayor Deb De Haan has refused to answer one basic question. She says growing up she was taught to make the community a better place for the next generation. Does she, and other city leaders, believe the activism of OC Pride makes Orange City a better community for the next generation?
- Has any city leader publicly denounced OC Pride's activism or the LGBT indoctrinating library books aimed at children? Has any city leader publicly stood up for our Christian heritage?
- The city's 2018 letter stated we should work together for the "greater good." What does the city believe is the "greater good?"
- That same 2018 letter stated the city did not endorse nor reject OC Pride's drag queen show. Why not?
- Why did the city allow a drag queen event targeting children?
- Has the city conducted background checks on all drag queens it has allowed to perform with children in the city-owned Event Center?
- In spite of the community uproar about library books, why did the city appoint someone to the library board who defended those same books?
- Why is the city refusing to enforce longstanding city code?

IF WE DON'T TAKE A STAND AGAINST OC PRIDE, WHERE WILL IT LEAD??

- Men competing in women's sports against our daughters and granddaughters.
- Our daughters and granddaughters forced to share a bathroom with men.
- A gay pride float in the Tulip Festival parade.
- Our school children being indoctrinated into the homosexual, transgender agenda.
- Higher rates of domestic abuse, STDs, HIV, suicide, mental illness, depression, drug use, alcohol abuse, certain cancers and promiscuity, according to studies on the effects of a homosexual/transgender lifestyle.
