Old Ammunition

A couple came to the police department, wanting to dispose of some ammunition. They handed the desk officer a wooden box and said that it contained two shells an uncle had given them as souvenirs from World War II.

"We didn't know what to do with them," the woman explained. "So all these years, we've kept the shells in the bottom drawer of the china cabinet, away from our children."

The officer assured the couple he'd dispose of the ammunition safely. But when he took one out of the box the top came off, revealing a strange black substance. His suspicions aroused, the officer removed the top of the other shell and found a hard white substance.

There was no doubt about it. They were souvenir salt and pepper shakers.

Offer of Help

One summer evening, a 3-year-old came in while his parents were setting the table for supper. Quite surprisingly, he asked if he could help. His mother said, "No, but I appreciate your asking."

The child responded, "Well, I appreciate your saying no."

ARIES (March 21 to April 19) Lots of choices could make it difficult to select what is best for your needs. Avoid snap judgments. Take the time to check them all out to find the one that really meets your goals.

TAURUS (April 20 to May 20) You could once again experience pressure from others who would like to see you move in another direction. But heed your Bovine instincts to stay on your own path.

GEMINI (May 21 to June 20) Taking charge of a project that seems to be about to stall or collapse altogether could be a challenge. But once everyone knows what you expect of him or her, things should go smoothly.

CANCER (June 21 to July 22) Avoid the pressures of the upcoming holiday period by setting a time right now to discuss how to divide up the responsibility of helping a loved one come through a difficult period.

LEO (July 23 to August 22) It's not too early for all you Leonas and Leos to start making long-distance travel plans. The sooner you stop procrastinating and start deciding where, when and how you're going, the better.

VIRGO (August 23 to September 22) Someone you've known for years might disappoint you, or even make you feel you've been betrayed. But check the facts carefully before you make charges that could backfire on you.

LIBRA (September 23 to October 22) A holiday plan might need to be revised to accommodate an unexpected complication. Come up with an alternative arrangement as soon as possible to avoid more problems down the line.

SCORPIO (October 23 to November 21) Don't accept halfway explanations for a situation that requires full disclosure. The more you know now, the better able you will be to handle any complications that might arise.

SAGITTARIUS (November 22 to December 21) The cooperation you relied upon might not be easy to get. Maybe there's an information gap. See if everyone understands the situation. If not, be sure to offer a full explanation.

CAPRICORN (December 22 to January 19) Problems caused by that recent workplace distraction should soon be easing, allowing you to resume working at a less frantic pace. That personal matter also begins to ease up.

AQUARIUS (January 20 to February 18) Changing your mind about a job decision isn't easy for the usually committed Aquarian. But once you check it out, you'll find facts you didn't know before. And facts don't lie.

PISCES (February 19 to March 20) Your unique way of sizing up a situation gives you an edge in resolving that upsetting workplace problem. Stay on your current course regardless of any attempts to distract you.

BORN THIS WEEK: You are emotionally attuned to what's going on around you, and you easily pick up on people's needs.

PIEDMONT PETS
 October 31, 2019
 By Paulette Dean

Campaigns to stop littering on the roads and highways started in 1953. Since working for the Danville Area Humane Society, I have a clearer understanding of what some of the consequences of littering can be for the animals.

Several years ago, a yogurt container came under criticism for the shape of their containers. Stray animals and small wildlife, attracted by the smell, would put their heads in the containers, and the narrow opening would not allow them to get their heads back out. Then, I saw a segment on a news show about a dog that had been seen for several days with his head in a glass jar. The dog, of course, was frightened and would not let anyone come near enough to help. Finally, the dog was so weak that a sheriff's deputy was able to remove the jar.

Those scenarios have happened in this area. We received a call from a woman who said that she had seen a cat at an apartment complex with a container over his head. April Hogan and I left immediately to try to help the cat, realizing that in most cases animal rescues are difficult at best and impossible at worst. We tried repeatedly for a couple of days to catch the cat; however, it took April's husband, Tony, chasing the cat through the woods one night until the cat was so weak, Tony was able to take his shirt off and capture the cat. We removed the container and it took a few days for the cat to regain enough strength to be considered for adoption. Since then, we have received several calls about raccoons and groundhogs with jars or plastic containers on their head. Sometimes, we have been successful in cornering the animal long enough to free the animal; in other cases, we assume the animal has died after a few days of not being spotted. A large dog with his head stuck in a container took several days to get weak enough to be captured. In other cases, cats came to us in the dangerous circumstances of having broken bottles or sharp-edged cans stuck on their heads.

Even throwing apple cores and other food can be dangerous for animals, as they go into the middle of the streets or too close to the sides as they try to reach the food. Hopefully, we all know that throwing out cigarette butts before they are completely cool have the ability to start fires.

Littering in Virginia is a Class 1 misdemeanor, punishable by confinement in jail for not more than 12 months and a fine of not less than $250 or more than $2,500, either or both. The judge may order the defendant convicted to perform a minimum of 10 hours of community service in litter abatement activities.

The consequences of littering can translate into the very real suffering of animals.

Strange BUT TRUE

By Samantha Weaver

* It was influential American theoretical physicist Richard Feynman who made the following sage observation: "It doesn't matter how beautiful your theory is, it doesn't matter how smart you are. If it doesn't agree with experiment, it's wrong."

* Those who study such things say that an eagle's feathers weigh twice as much as its bones.

* You've probably read about the unprecedented casualties suffered on all sides in World War I. You probably didn't know, though, that 60,000 of those casualties were due to avalanches caused by gunfire in the Alps.

* In 1962, a group of oceanographers sailed off to watch an undersea volcano off the coast of Japan whose eruption seemed imminent. It seems that they got the timing right, but not the location; or, rather, they got the location [SET ITAL] too[END ITAL] right. The eruption occurred directly beneath their vessel, destroying it.

* If you ever visit the Alpine village of Saint Veran, take a good look at the construction of the early buildings -- none of the walls meet at a 90-degree angle. Why aren't they square? According to the beliefs of early townfolk, the devil lurks in square corners.

* Studies show a correlation between tight shoes and larger appetites.

* Do you find it attractive when you see a person with a point of skin attached to the underlying muscle? You might not realize it, but many people have this condition; that's what a dimple is.

Thought for the Day: "A premarital lovers' quarrel should never last more than three minutes. In the first year of marriage, a four-minute quarrel should be acceptable. After six years, and eight-minute quarrel is allowed. A 10-minute quarrel is permissible after a decade. Those married longer have more to quarrel about." -- E.V. Durling

HOLLYWOOD

by Tony Rizzo

HOLLYWOOD — Old guard Hollywood moviemaker Martin Scorsese struggled with Netflix to get legitimacy for "The Irishman." Netflix agreed to show "The Irishman" for three weeks in theaters before its Nov. 27 streaming. But the major movie chains balked at showing the film for only three weeks. Why should they spend a fortune publicizing a film destined for Netflix subscribers 21 days later? Scorsese had to settle for three weeks at Broadway's historic Belasco Theatre (being converted from a legitimate theater into a movie house). The Robert De Niro, Al Pacino and Joe Pesci starrer will still have to be booked into a Hollywood theater for one week prior to Dec. 31 to qualify for the Oscars.

When Ansel Elgort (Tony in Steven Spielberg's "West Side Story" remake) was quoted as saying he wanted "a nonsexual open relationship" and would "like to find a lot more love" beyond his relationship with his high school sweetheart, ballerina Violetta Komyschan, it set off a Twitter storm against his "West Side Story" Maria (Rachel Zegler), after her heartfelt message about Elgort when they completed filming. His Twitter fans were so incensed they called the 17-year-old a "homewrecker" and "heartbreaker," along with other unprintable things, and she shut down her Twitter account. Elgort, as of this writing, has yet to tell his fans to back off. "West Side Story" opens Dec. 18, 2020.

Apple was the top bidder among streaming services for a new musical version of "A Christmas Carol," starring Ryan Reynolds and Will Ferrell (who will also produce and share $60 million). George C. Scott starred in a musical version of "A Christmas Carol" for CBS in 1984, and now his son Campbell Scott will star in a Broadway production for eight weeks through Jan. 5, with the magical Andrea Martin. A new score will be mostly Christmas carols, so the audience will be able to sing along. At 58, Campbell is the same age as his father when he played Ebenezer Scrooge.

"The Big Bang Theory" cast have moved on. Jim Parsons (Sheldon) will be streaming in Netflix's "The Boys in the Band" film. Simon Helberg (Wolowitz) is starring in the Amazon musical "Annette," with Oscar-winner Marion Cotillard and Adam Driver. Kunal Nayyar (Raj) stars in "Think Like a Dog," with Megan Fox and Josh Duhamel. Mayim Bialik (Amy) toplines the new Fox TV series "Carla." Melissa Rauch (Bernadette) is currently streaming in the Meryl Streep/Gary Oldman film "The Laundromat."

Meanwhile, Kaley Cuoco (Penny) is worth $55 million and is spending her time building a dream house for her and new husband Karl Cook. Even though they've been married a year, they still don't live together, which has people all a-twitter. That's new ... live apart 'til you grow together.

* What's on sale in November? Try for good deals on shoes, boys clothing, blankets and pre-Christmas sales. They start earlier and earlier each year. Also, look for deals on cooking and serving pieces just before and after Thanksgiving.

* Clean your coffee carafe regularly by scrubbing with soap and water. Run a descaler or a mix of vinegar and water through the brewer to clean out the reserve tank. Follow with a plain water rinse.

* Need an egg substitute in a pinch? Mix a teaspoon of vinegar with a teaspoon of cornstarch. Making a recipe with rise? You could also use baking soda in place of the cornstarch.

* Use aluminum foil on the back side of your radiator coils to reflect heat back into the room. One easy way to do this is to measure a piece of cardboard to fit the space behind the radiator. Then wrap the cardboard with aluminum foil and place behind the coils.

* "Great gravy is only a plastic bag away! This is my great tip for separating the fat from pan drippings to make gravy. I take a quart-size plastic bag and set it in a glass measuring cup. Pour the pan drippings through a strainer, right into the bag. Let it sit for 15-20 minutes, and the fat will separate to the top. Seal the bag, and snip a small hole in a bottom corner, drain the liquid into a saucepan to make gravy. It's that easy." -- T.C. in Idaho

* Give your loose tea a boost of flavor by adding a dried orange or lemon peel to the tea tin. It will impart a delightful citrus flavor the longer it's in the tin.

Send your tips to Now Here's a Tip, 628 Virginia Drive, Orlando, FL 32803.
