Moody on The Market

Moody

One would suppose that with a fleet of 25 vehicles roaming the countryside bearing the name Ibid County Electric, natural curiosity would lead to the question, "Where is Ibid County?" You can check the maps repeatedly and not find Ibid County anywhere in Michigan, because it is not actually the name of a locale, it is the name of an electrical contractor based in Benton Harbor, and they're marking 50-years in business here in 2019. Pat Iliff, President of the company, says, "Everyone asks 'Where is Ibid County,' or 'What is Ibid County,' or makes the comment, 'That's a strange name, where did that come from.' Obviously, there is no county with the name Ibid. So, where did it come from?" Iliff solves the mystery by telling the Ibid County Electric story in this milestone year for the company. He says, "Fifty years ago in 1969 Clarence Mott and a partner started an electrical contracting business in Benton Harbor known as Inter City Electric. Clarence used the initials I.C.E. as his logo and he became known as the ICE Man." When he and his partner decided to part ways, Clarence opened his own shop, and since he had been known as the ICE Man he wanted to keep that logo. The word ibid is short for the Latin word ibidem, meaning "in the same place," so by combining Ibid and County he was able to keep his logo of the ice man alive and also have a unique name. Clarence retired in 2007 and the company was purchased by three long time employees, who were all, coincidentally also all Watervliet alumni. They were Pat Iliff, Rob Atherton and Brian Kniebes. Sadly, Brian passed away suddenly & unexpectedly in 2017. Pat & Rob, however, continue operation of the company today with vital support from a dedicated, knowledgeable and hardworking support staff. Here's an amazing story of growth over that 50-year time span. What began in 1969 as a one man shop, presently employs more than 130 workers. Iliff says, "That makes Ibid County Electric the largest and one of the oldest electrical contractors in Southwest Michigan," and adds, "You may have seen our trucks running around Southwest Michigan as we have a fleet of 25 vehicles." Iliff notes, other than home generator installations they do not do residential work, making their primary focus commercial, industrial and institutional electrical work. Ibid County Electric customers over the years include hospitals, casinos, Fortune 500 companies, factories, food processors, big box stores, restaurants, tool and die shops and many more. The company installs and services "all electrical systems from incoming high volt-

Hello November!!! I am sure like most of you...I can't believe it is already NOVEMBER!!! Time flies when you're having fun! It is hard to believe that the holiday season is quickly upon us again. I mean, Thanksgiving is in just a few short weeks. With that being said, let's talk about one of the most sought-after holiday gift-packs out there. People can't wait for this special release!

Rochester Mills:
The 12 Days of Milkshake Stout
For the past few years, Rochester Mills

(located in Auburn Hills) has put out their wildly popular stout varieties. The origin of this started in select restaurants/bars across the state. Starting the first of December, every day a new flavored stout would be tapped (stay tuned for more info for this year's selections). Each day, consumers got to enjoy a delicious mostly "holiday flavored" milkshake stout, which is the flagship brew of Rochester Mills. Every year they would come back with the prior year's favorites and have several new flavors for that given year also. It became so wildly successful that after a few years the gang at Rochester Mills decided to put it in a Sampler Pack!!! There are 12 different flavors that are released in this pack, and it is a GREAT gift idea for any beer lover for this holiday season!

What are the flavors?

Not so fast! I know you are eager to know this year's new and exciting flavors, or maybe some favorites of years past, but I would hate to ruin the surprise! However, I will tell you that I am SUPER excited to crack this open and try these delicious stouts. Make sure to grab yours starting on Sunday, November 3rd!

The 12 days of Milkshake Stout on Tap!

Starting December 1st, The Brass Eye (located in Niles) will be tapping a new flavor of stout each day until December 12! This is awesome, as it is always great to try these stouts on tap, as beer on tap and beer in package form can taste so different. There are only two of these events in the Western side of Michigan and we are so lucky to have one right here in Niles at The Brass Eye! Make sure to check it out! As always we encourage to enjoy responsibly! Until next time...

Don Going Way WAY Back to Way WAY-Away!

Stuart

You may recall that, in autumn 2017, I devoted a few columns to blabbering about the cross-country road trip No. 4 son and I took to get him to college. He matriculated to a school we'll call WWU, which stands for Way WAY-away University. As in, way WAY-away in Bellingham, Washington. We spent 11 days on America's scenic highways getting out to Way WAY-Away. This includes a couple days spent not driving our butts off. In fact, on Day Two, we waylaid in Indianapolis for a full day, to see No. 1 son and wife, No. 2 son and wife, and very importantly, the Most Beautiful and Intelligent Grandchild in Human History, my 21-month old No. 1 grandson!

The first thing one does to start a 3,000 mile drive is take a photo of the happy campers who will share the journey. Our photo, taken at 6:46 a.m., shows me, grimacing more than smiling, knowing I'll drive at least 2,897 of those miles. It shows my wife, grinning in anticipation of the nap she's about to take. And in the background of the pic, through the car windows, you may see the faint outline of No. 4's feet, propped up against the window - he's already begun his first 6-hour nap of the trip.

On Day One, we reached Indianapolis and promptly began spoiling No. 1 grandson. Our "off-day" included a trip to a local park, where No. 1 grandson led us on a merry chase through, around, over and under various playground structures, which sorely challenged my ability to avoid bonking my noggin on various playground structures. When I bonked, No. 2 son, my grandson's dad, gave me a look conveying "Ha-ha Dad, you're a total spaz!" In the afternoon, No. 1 grandson wisely slept, the "girls" went out for mani-pedis, and the "boys" played perhaps the dumbest fun game ever. It's called "Dude." Players simultaneously draw a card featuring the word "dude" on it, written in various ways and/or with various punctuation to guide you in how to say that specific variation of "dude." For example, one card reads "Dooooood," which you thus try to say in a long, drawn-out fashion. You work your way around the table saying "dude" in the manner depicted on your card, until you connect with another player saying it the same way, whereupon you both get a point.

We had great fun, and learned that No. 1 son is the dude-iest (he won every hand), and we learned a couple other things but I can't remember them because we laughed too hard, and anyway, this game reduces your IQ 5-7 points each time you play it.

Next, we went to an Irish Festival in downtown Indy, where No. 1 grandson led us on a merry chase through, around, over and under various inflatable "bounce house" structures, which sorely challenged my ability to avoid stumbling and falling on various inflatable "bounce house" structures. Every time I tumbled, No. 2 son was ready with an encouraging "Dude!", uttered in a way to convey "Ha-ha Dad, you're a total spaz!"

But I couldn't get mad at him, really. Especially after I huddled with No. 1 grandson and, together, while slyly eyeballing his dad, we confirmed our lifelong unity against "the common enemy."

Cling to the Credentials of Christ

If someone else thinks they have reasons to put confidence in the flesh, I have more . . . But whatever were gains to me I now consider loss for the sake of Christ. What is more, I consider everything a loss because of the surpassing worth of knowing Christ Jesus my Lord, for whose sake I have lost all things. I consider them garbage, that I may gain Christ and be found in him, not having a righteousness of my own that comes from the law, but that which is through faith in Christ. ~ Philippians 3:4,7-10

Five years ago, a former mayor of New York City made a bold claim. He pointed to all his accomplishments and said, "I am telling you if there is a God, when I get to heaven, I'm not stopping to be interviewed. I am heading straight in. I have earned my place in heaven."

The apostle Paul once made the same bold claim. He was an elite Jew from the tribe of Benjamin. At eight days old, he was circumcised according to Jewish law. He grew up in the strict Orthodox Jewish tradition. As a Pharisee, Paul followed their laws faultlessly. If anyone could earn his way into heaven, it was Paul.

But then Paul met Jesus. Jesus showed him that he is the only way to get into heaven. Jesus' credentials are flawless. His life conformed perfectly to God's will. His death on the cross paid fully for all the world's sin. He earned our salvation completely. Paul's credentials couldn't compare. So, he tore them up, tossed them out, and clung in faith to Christ's life-giving work.

Like the former mayor of New York City, we can lean heavily on our accomplishments. We may be good at living by the standards we set for heaven. But no matter how impressive our Christian credentials, they cannot get us into heaven. It's all garbage compared to trusting Christ our Savior.

Like Paul, those who are wise in Christ cling to him by faith. Christ by his life, death, and resurrection brings us God's forgiving love. He is the only way to get to heaven. Keep your eye on him, and don't look back.

Prayer: Your works, not mine, O Christ, speak gladness to this heart. To whom but you, who can alone for sin atone, Lord, shall I flee? Amen.

Just as a beautiful floral display once began as merely a seed, so too every big business starts out as a small business enterprise. Yet, even a small business is an amazing way to serve and leave an impact on the world you live in. Recognizing, and even honoring, the small business community is what next week's Small Business Summit at Andrews University is all about. Focused directly on Growing Healthy Businesses, the Andrews University Enactus team has slated their 2nd Annual Small Business Summit for Friday, November 8th, 2019 from 7:30 in the morning until 4pm at Chan Shun Hall on the Berrien Springs Campus of Andrews University. Organizers encourage you to take part in the summit if you are looking to advance your business, establish some goals, and figure out how to achieve them. They have arranged for a lineup of 14 presentations and workshops, all based on practical applications that you can put into place right away at your own business venture. The speakers arranged for the Small Business Summit come to the table with extensive experience covering such topics as:

Social media...Marketing strategy...Business planning...Financial planning...Human resources...and Advertising. They will show you how to get more from your advertising dollar whether online or in print, how to establish yourself as an expert in your field and how to develop strategies that help you move your business forward to grow in 2020. Speakers for the Small Business Summit include: Lew Olsen from B&L Leadership Group...Wayne Buckhanan from Mercs, LLC... Kimberly Pichot from Complete Success, Inc....Julie Wuerfel from Mosquito Squad... Karol Berhle from Honor Credit Union... Jim Zobl from Lakeshore Accounting Services, LLC...Sheila Snyder from Website Design, Development & SEO...Dave Doetsch from Mid-West Family...and Sarah McHugh from Dash Digital Services. You will find Chan Shun Hall at 4185 E. Campus Circle Drive on the campus of Andrews University in Berrien Springs. The price of admission and participation is now $75.00 per person after early bird registration rates have passed, and lunch is included in the registration fee. Click the link below for specific details about the presentations and speakers as well as to register your attendance: www.completesuccessinc.com/summit. The 2nd Annual Small Business Summit is sponsored by: Honor Credit Union...Mid-West Family...Andrews University School of Business Administration... Andrews University Enactus...and Complete Success, Inc. Enactus is a community of student, acaademic and business leaders committed to using the power of entrepreneurial action to transform lives and shape a better, more sustainable world. They establish student programs on college campuses across the nation. Enactus students apply business concepts to develop community outreach projects, transform lives and shape a better, more sustainable world.

When pain and suffering keep you homebound, the last thing in the world you want to have to do is trundle off to a clinic, doctor's office or the hospital emergency room to seek relief and a little TLC. For years now, Lakeland Homecare has been bringing health care providers directly into the homes of patients who prefer to stay in the comfortable surroundings of home, wherever that may be. Now, the healthcare team is expanding services to South Haven, Allegan and their surrounding communities thanks to a new office in the region. Lakeland Homecare has expanded services to South Haven, Allegan, and beyond with that new office located at 05055 Blue Star Highway. Lakeland Homecare offers a wide range of services for those who are recovering, disabled, or chronically ill and in need of medical, nursing, social, or therapeutic treatment as well as assistance with the necessary activities of daily living. Skilled homecare nurses and home health aides work closely with physicians to ensure patients of all ages receive the care they need in home including bathing and hygiene, IV and catheter management, medication assistance, dressing changes, disease and treatment education, light meal preparation, and more. Joe Effa is

The combination of growing deposits and operating efficiencies from reduced expenses has fueled a strong third quarter performance for St. Joseph-based United Federal Credit Union. United Federal has announced third quarter results with net income reported at $9.3 million for the quarter ending September 30, 2019. That represents an 11.2-percent increase from the second quarter of 2019 and a 12.8-percent increase when compared to the third quarter of 2018. United's net income through the third quarter of 2019 is $24.7 million. Total assets were up slightly to $2.87 billion—a 0.1-percent increase compared to last quarter, and a 5.3-percent increase when compared to the third quarter of the prior year. Total deposits grew $26.8 million to $2.19 billion when compared to the second quarter 2019, and were up $255.4 million when compared to the third quarter of 2018 or a 13.2-percent increase. Total loans were largely unchanged at $2.46 billion. Membership for United now tops 176,100 a 1.8-percent increase over third quarter 2018. Operating expenses declined by 3-percent compared to the prior quarter, as United continues its practice of being efficient with members' money. Michael Ruchti is Chief Financial Officer at United Federal. He says, "We are proud of our team for positioning the credit union to have another great quarter," and adds, "United puts an emphasis on taking care of our Members and creating process excellence so that we are able to achieve healthy growth throughout the year. With a solid foundation in place, we are able to serve our membership and our communities for many years to come." United Federal Credit Union has served members since 1949 by helping them to build a sound financial future. United consists of more than 176,000 member/owners worldwide and manages assets in excess of $2.8 billion. Its corporate offices and main branch are in St. Joseph, with additional branches elsewhere in Michigan as well as in Arkansas, Indiana, Nevada, North Carolina, and Ohio. For more information you can visit online at www.unitedfcu.com.

What are you doing November 9? Chances are, you will want to break out the lederhosen and dimdls for a brand new celebration at Froehlich's in Three Oaks when you hear about Oktoberfest. This family friendly Oktoberfest-in-November will feature German food and drinks, dancing and hands-on fun for the kids brought by Curious Kids' Museum. Music for the evening is provided by live German Band, Ein Prosit. This is the first event open to the public at 19 North by Froehlich's. Festivities will start at 6:00pm and continue to 10:00pm. A portion of the evening's proceeds will benefit Curious Kids' Museum and Curious Kids' Discovery Zone. Tickets are only $40 per person and kids under 10 are free. Tickets may be purchased online at www.shopfroehlich.com or in person at Froehlich's Bakery or Kitchen and Pantry. Froehlich's is located at 19 North Elm Street in Three Oaks.

That's it for this week, folks. Have a great week and we'll see you next Saturday right here at MailMax, or online 24/7 at www.MoodyOnTheMarket.com.

Dave Says

Teaching the value of work...and money

Dear Dave,
Is it okay to give very young children an allowance?

Christie
Dear Christie,

Teaching kids there's an emotional connection between work and money is one of the best things you can do as a parent. Once your kids are old enough to do a few simple chores around the house, they're old enough to earn a little money doing them.

In my mind, there's absolutely nothing wrong with putting kids who are three or four on a basic commission system. If they do the jobs you assign them, they get paid. If they don't do the jobs, they don't get paid. We put a little dry-erase board on the refrigerator, and listed the jobs they had to do during the week with a dollar amount next to each one.

Keep in mind, kids shouldn't get paid for every little thing they do around the house. Some jobs are just a necessary component of being part of a family. And there are some things kids should do simply because mom or dad asked them to. Some jobs should have a higher purpose in mind, too, because as a parent, you should want to find as many teachable moments for your kids as possible.

Once they've earned their money, sit down with them and divide it into three separate envelopes—saving, spending, and giving. That way, they get to learn about the uses for money while they're learning how to work!

-Dave

As safe as a neighborhood bank?

Dear Dave,

What are your thoughts about online banks? Are they as safe as traditional, neighborhood banks?

Jeanna

Dear Jeanna,

Sure, if they're guaranteed by the Federal Deposit Insurance Corporation. The FDIC is one of two agencies that provide deposit insurance to customers in America's depository institutions. The other is the National Credit Union Administration, or NCUA, which insures and regulates credit unions.

If you're seriously considering using an online bank, there are a few things I'd advise checking out before making the move. Look into the bank's track record, and see how long it has been open. Also, if the bank you're considering doesn't have a name-brand you recognize, find out the amount of its deposits.

Online banks don't worry me today like they did 10 years ago. And almost everyone does some form of online banking these days, anyway. If the bank in question has a good reputation, and sufficient deposits to have some strength in its FDIC guarantee, I wouldn't worry about it.

Erick Fisher & Friends in Concert at Box Factory for the Arts

November 8th featuring Sankofa, Kecia Deroly & Sarah Giramia

Doors 6:30 // Show 7:00 • $8 in advance // $10 at the door

Erick Fisher, a native of Benton Harbor Michigan, has been playing the saxophone for over 20 years. Erick, who is a self-taught saxophonist, started perfecting his sound while playing in local venues, churches, and at weddings. He has since then received multiple invitations and has performed in some of the most popular events in Southwest Michigan and the midwest. With his humble spirit and friendly personality, he became locally known as "the artist who could shift the atmosphere". With his unique ear for music, and ability to blend Gospel, Jazz, and R&B, he creates divinely inspired music that has a smooth sound and relaxes the soul.

Erick Fisher performs at the Box Factory for the Arts November 8th.

Erick Fisher & Friends includes some very special friends indeed! Erick will be joined by Sankofa! Sankofa an eclectic soul band, whose members are passionate about creating and performing good music! Their motto is "Reclaiming The Past For A Better Future!" In addition to Erick Fisher, this high energy ensemble includes Beth Haire-Lewis, Steve Parker, Audrey S. Peoples, Tamika Seawood, Falconetti Petty and Anthony Alexander.

Also joining Erick Fisher & Friends for the evening is the fabulous Kecia Deroly! Kecia is a theater veteran and world traveled concert performer. Some of her major accomplishments include The Yoke, A Christmas Carol, Fiddler on the Roof, A Chorus Line, A Christmas Story, State Fair, AIDA, Dreamgirls, Cinderella and The Lion King on Broadway. She performed two concert series at Carnegie Hall under the direction of the esteemed Tony Regina. She has been performing with several bands all over the world since the age of 14, lending her voice to several of NYC's iconic performance stages, including The Iguana Lounge, Don't Tell Mama Cabaret, Jelsomino, Lee Bergman Theater, TOSHI's Living Room, and URBO 'Lights Out On Broadway' to name a few.

Kecia is also known for her many solo concert performances throughout the United States including "Broadway Past and Present" (a one woman tribute to Broadway) and "Make Them Laugh, Make Them Cry, Bring Them Hope" (a tribute to female performers who have paved the way for other female artists). She performed as backup singer to Brandy Norwood during her world tour in 2012, as well as performing private events for Queen Latifah, Idina Menzel, Sean "Puffy" Combs, Jim Carrey, and B.B. King. She's finished a three-year contract as a soloist and show band performer traveling the world on several Carnival and Norwegian cruise ships. Kecia moved from New York City to Michigan in the past year and is excited to make her mark.

Sarah Giramia will also be performing with Erick. Sarah is a singer songwriter who is currently a student at WMU pursuing a degree in education. Sarah is a lover of all types of music who plays a combination of acoustic alternative sounds with elements of R&B.

This will be a night to remember! Do not miss!

The Box Factory for the Arts is located at 1101 Broad Street, St. Joseph, MI 49085.

The Mendel Center Receives State Grant for Cultural Programming

The Mendel Center at Lake Michigan College has been awarded a $8,166 grant from the Michigan Council for Arts and Cultural Affairs (MCACA). The Mendel Center is using the grant to support its presentation of the Winter Delights Festival at The Mendel Center on Saturday, February 29, 2020.

The Mendel Center grant was awarded through a peer review process and was one of eight Berrien County arts organizations to be awarded funding. Organizations receiving an MCACA grant are required to match those funds with other public and private dollars.

"We are thrilled to receive funding support for the Winter Delights Festival from Michigan Council for Arts and Cultural Affairs. This event celebrates the performing, visual, and culinary arts that are so important to our region," states Grace Kelmer, director of The Mendel Center Mainstage. "We thank the State of Michigan and our elected government officials for valuing the arts and the resulting connections that enhance the quality of life in southwestern Michigan."

Winter Delights Festival will feature two music stages, local visual artists, and craft beverage and food makers from Michigan – all indoors at The Mendel Center on the Lake Michigan College campus in Benton Harbor, Michigan. Planned activities are:

Three concerts by nationally touring musical acts in the 1,559-seat Mainstage theatre. Musical acts will be The Reminders, JigJam, and Six Appeal Vocal Band.

Master class workshops led by two of the Mainstage acts

Taste Faire & Music Stage in newly renovated Grand Upton Hall. The Taste Stage headliner is local favorite Bryan Lubeck.

Up to 20 visual artists with their art on display and for sale throughout the building

The Southwestern Michigan Tourist Council, The Boulevard Inn & Bistro, and 98.3 The Coast are sponsoring Winter Delights Festival.

The MCACA peer review process allows for each grant application to be competitively considered by a panel of in-state and out-of-state arts and cultural professionals. This ensures the taxpayers, who support this project through legislative appropriations, and all other visitors and residents in Michigan will have access to the highest quality arts and cultural experiences.

A complete list of grant awards around the state is available by contacting MCACA at (517) 241-4011, or by visiting the MCACA website at www.michiganbusiness.org.

Tickets for the Winter Delights Festival and all other Mendel Center Mainstage season performances are available at www.TheMendelCenter.com.

About The Mendel Center at Lake Michigan College
The 1,559-seat Mendel Center Mainstage Theatre offers state-of-the-art acoustics and comfortable seating in elegant surroundings. Amenities include free parking, handicap accessibility, and an array of services including catering and bar service for private pre- and post-show events, child booster seats, assistive listening devices, non-spill cups for beverages inside the theatre, and premium seats in the Stage Side section.

The Mendel Center is 30 minutes from Niles and 40 minutes from the Kalamazoo and South Bend areas. It is located on the Lake Michigan College campus at 2755 E. Napier Avenue, Benton Harbor, Michigan, one mile east of I-94 (Exit 30) and one mile west of the US 31 Bypass (exit 24). Its GPS mapping address is 1100 Yore Avenue, Benton Harbor, MI.
