

What Can Regenerative Medicine Do For You?

Are you considering knee, hip, shoulder, ankle, or wrist surgery or just having severe pain?

Regenerative Medicine - I had tennis elbow and had cortisone injections to help the pain - wrong - it burned half the elbow tissue and I went to the orthopedic surgeons and was told that it was inoperable and was prescribed an anti-inflammatory - I thought all hope was lost until I met Doc Kanan - been over a month since I had the stem cell injection and Cold K laser therapy and my elbow is like new no pain and I can actually lift things with my arm now - so happy would do it again if something else breaks down! The best!

JANEY, WILLIAM "BUTCH" HOWARD, Belvidere, TN. Funeral service, 2 p.m., Sunday, November 10, 2019, conducted by Rev. Warren Swenson, Trinity Episcopal Church, Winchester, TN with internment following in Willow Mount Cemetery, Shelbyville, TN. Mr. Janey passed away November 5, 2019. William was born in Newport News, VA, to Ernest Howard Janey of Sewanee, TN, and Frances Elizabeth Knott Janey of Cowan, TN. William had a special connection to American Indian and Civil War history, caving, and researching old mills. He was renowned as a Master Miller, working in numerous mills over the years including Boiling Fork Mill, Ketner's Mill, Prater's Mill, and Falls Mill. He was famous for his skills in milling, and had been the subject of many articles in various books and magazines including the Smithsonian, National Geographic, Southern Living, and Better Homes and Gardens. in Robin Smith's book, Tennessee Worker, and in an exhibit at the Hunter Museum in Chattanooga. He was an avid caver, exploring many caves of the local area. He was a member of the National Speleological Society and the Sewanee Grotto. He also appeared in many travelogues featuring caves, mills, Indian burial grounds, meteor strikes, and bird sanctuaries. He worked hard on his genealogy, tracing his family back to the 1400's. His grandparents, the Knotts and the Janey's of Sewanee, helped to build the University of the South. They also worked with Duck River and the TVA to install electricity to the area. William was very proud of his pioneer heritage. In his youth he travelled the world with his Air Force father, living all over the continental United States and many foreign countries. His favorite was the Philippine Islands, where his sister, Rebecca, was born. His dad, Ernest Howard Janey, served in three theaters of action in WWII-Europe, Africa, and the South Pacific, and his mother was a wonderful homemaker and nurse. William also enjoyed spending time with his friends hunting, horseback riding, and floating the rivers. His love, humor, hard work, adventurous spirit, and devotion to God was mighty. William was a 1972 graduate of Franklin County High School. He was a self taught artist

The family would like to thank his dear friend, Laura Lowndes, for her precious Christian end of life care and companionship.
