Councilman Mark Gjonaj

250 Broadway, Suite 1847
New York, NY 10007
(212) 788-7375

Last week, the City Council passed a three-part series of legislation that increased property taxes for homeowners and renters.

It is no exaggeration to declare that our city, and our Bronx community, has a crisis of affordability. As such, this was legislation I voted against and continue to oppose.

The cost of living in New York City is already high, and many individuals, families and small businesses are struggling to make ends meet under existing tax law. To increase this tax, in an environment already hostile to homeowners and renters, is unthinkable. Whatever revenue this increased tax generates is going to be offset and nullified by the losses of residents and small businesses, as they flee an inhospitable housing market.

New York City Council District 13, my Bronx community and yours, actually has the highest effective tax rate of any district in the five boroughs. This means that our residents tend to pay a higher tax rate relative to the actual market value of their house, than anyone else. Not only is that itself unacceptable and unfair, but it is an injustice that will be exacerbated further by this new tax legislation.

Also, it is important to note that it is a common misconception that increases in property taxes affects only homeowners and landlords. We can see in practice, however, that this is frequently not the case. Landlords generally respond to increases in real estate tax by shifting the added cost onto their renters. While the landlords may be able to deflect the added cost posed by raised real estate tax, the renters cannot, and this de-incentivizes prospective and existing renters from either signing a lease or renewing one. When people don't want to sign or renew leases, we lose residents of our community.

This is misguided legislation that will ultimately backfire on its proponents. Increased real estate tax in a city where we are literally amidst a housing crisis is irresponsible. As your elected official, committed to the homeowner and renters alike, I staunchly oppose this legislation, will oppose others like it in the future and will continue to fight to end this affordability crisis in our community.

HOME ENERGY ASSISTANCE PROGRAM (HEAP)

The NYS Home Energy Assistance Program Benefit (HEAP) application opened November 12! As you know, HEAP assists low-income people with their heating costs. Eligibility and benefits are based on income, household size, primary heating source and whether a household member is under six years of age or over 60. You may be eligible even if you own your home or pay for heat as part of your rent. To be sure, there are income guidelines. For example, a household size of four may not exceed a gross monthly income of $4,598. A household size of one may not exceed a monthly gross income of $2,391. If you think you are eligible and wish to apply, please visit 1932 Arthur Avenue, Ground Floor, Bronx, NY 10457 or contact my office so that we can schedule a time for you to pick-up an application.

CIVIL SERVICE EXAMS OPEN TO THE PUBLIC

I urge all to be mindful of the NYC Department of Citywide Administrative Services website about municipal employment opportunities. As you know, some jobs require an examination that is often open to the public. Employment opportunities such as being a police officer, school safety agent, traffic enforcement agent or a child protective specialist require an examination. I understand that most employment opportunities, if not all, are mostly applied for through the Internet. Therefore, I am making my office available to help any person interested in learning more about the application process in hopes of having the applicant land stable employment with the City of New York. If you wish to view upcoming examinations, please visit www.nyc.gov/html/work/exam_monthly.shtml.

NEW YORK STATE UNCLAIMED FUNDS

According to New York State Comptroller Thomas DiNapoli's office, the state of New York returned over $100 million to its rightful owners. The New York State Abandoned Property Law requires certain entities to return abandoned monies or securities to the New York State Comptroller's Office of Unclaimed Funds. The process is simple! All you have to do is search your name on www.osc.state.ny.us/ouf/index.htm and you will find out if you have any unclaimed funds. As always, I and my staff are available to check for you, but I encourage you to stop by so that we can assist. My office is open Monday through Friday from 9 A.M. to 5 P.M. Good luck on your search!
