November is National Adoption Month

Each November, during the annual observance of Adoption Awareness Month, Livingston County recognizes that our citizens have a compassionate tradition for opening their hearts to children in need of a permanent home. In New York State, of the 16,385 children in foster care, 4,239 have a goal of adoption, and approximately 2,039 are legally freed and waiting for an adoptive family. Fifty eight percent of these children in New York State's foster care system reside in New York City and forty two percent in upstate counties. Few waiting children are three years old or younger; many are between the ages of 6 and 13; and over one third are teens, ages 14 and over.

The children remaining in care have experienced some neglect and/or abuse in their lives. They not only need but want the stability and unconditional love of a family so that they can learn to trust while also working towards reestablishing their own self-confidence. Families are also needed to teach things some may take for granted such as how to ride bikes, make cookies, read, dance, or play basketball to name a few.

Diane Deane, Commissioner of the Livingston County Department of Social Services (DSS), said, "This special observance reminds us of the important role DSS fills by supporting children and families through adoption." Deane added, "The Department celebrates adoptive families and works toward finding a permanent and loving family for every child awaiting adoption."

For information on becoming a foster/adoptive parent please contact Livingston County Department of Social Services at (585) 243-7300.

would like to say thank you to our family and friends who extended kindness and compassion to us during this difficult time.

We are deeply grateful to the nurses and staff of the Skilled Nursing Facility in Mount Morris for the years of love and kindness they showed. A sincere thank you to Nurse Terri for her special care and love, and also to dear friends Evelyn, Ellen and Connie for their faithful Thursday visits that were so looked forward to. Guidance and kindness were extended by the Mann Funeral Home during this difficult time and were much appreciated as were the lovely flowers we received, the food that was brought in and all the warm words of comfort.

A special thank you to Pastor Ann Robinson for a lovely celebration of Irene's life and also to Pastor Lauren Turner for the special touch he added to the service. The women of the Nunda United Methodist Church provided a wonderful meal for our family and friends . . . Irene would have loved the home cooking, the time of fellowship and the love that was shown.

May happiness touch your life today as warmly as you all have touched ours.

SPEAK OUT

Dear "Speakout,"

As Thanksgiving 2019 quickly approaches, I believe that we need to examine how we view Thanksgiving Day and what it means to each of us.

As has been my desire in past Speakout articles, I continue to wish to maintain a positive and not a negative slant on my article. However, sometimes we need to look at both sides of an issue to see the entire spectrum of that subject.

The Pilgrims held their Thanksgiving celebration in the Fall of 1621 to thank God for bringing them to a new land where they could worship freely, for bringing them through their first winter and allowing them to establish a new country in which they could live in freedom. Their thankfulness to the Indians and a desire for prosperity were secondary to their primary thankfulness.

Today the great majority of Americans view Thanksgiving Day as just another holiday from work. We often fail to thank God for providing us with a wonderful nation in which we can live in safety and worship freely without fear of persecution. In a broader sense we need to be thankful for many things in our lives which we often take for granted.

Some of these blessings are thankfulness for good health and the ability to see, speak, hear, breathe, walk, and to live as a citizen in the United States of America.

We should be thankful for our immediate and extended families by staying in contact with them. Too often we forget what our parents and grandparents have done for us and don't thank them as we should. Brothers and sisters and their children often don't communicate with one another which is leading to the destruction of our family units and the eventual decline and demise of our country.

We have freedoms for which we should be thankful: 1. the freedom of religion that allows us to worship as we please; 2. the freedom of speech to express ourselves in a responsible manner as a good citizen; 3. the freedom of the press which allows for free access of information to us as American citizens; 4. the freedom of assembly which many countries do not allow; 5. the freedom of petition for grievances in court; 6. the freedom to bear arms to protect ourselves; 7. the right to vote for whomever we wish; 8. the freedom of interstate travel almost anywhere we wish to travel without restrictions, and many, many more blessings for which we often take for granted.

Gratitude is a word that has mostly been lost in our modern day culture. Being grateful for our blessings is sadly missing in most of our lives today.

The words "thank you" are infrequently used because so often we are truly not thankful. When someone does something nice for us, we should use those words to express gratitude to that other person instead of ignoring their thoughtfulness. We are blest in having that person.

As we celebrate Thanksgiving Day this year, I would encourage everyone to give some thought and contemplation of the reasons for our celebration.

The blessings which we often take for granted could be removed so quickly if we don't appreciate them.

I would encourage the readers of this article to respond to my views as that is your right as an American citizen.

Have a wonderful Thanksgiving Day and a blessed Christmas season.

Ronald Powell

According to the American Diabetes Association, "21 million people in the United States have diabetes, and 8.1 million people are undiagnosed." Diabetes is a disease that occurs from defects in insulin production, insulin action, or both. Diabetes can be associated with serious complications, and even death. To help protect yourself and your family from developing diabetes it is important to maintain a healthy diet, exercise, and see your doctor regularly. For more information please contact the Livingston County Department of Health at 243-7299.

Thank you....

People are amazing! You never think you might be the family that needs help and then life takes an unexpected turn and there you are without a choice. Our family wants to take the time to thank friends, family, businesses, the entire community, and anyone else that was involved in going above and beyond to make Lucas Provorse's Benefit such a success. We are forever grateful and always Sharky Strong.

KESHEQUA BOYS SOCCER

We wanted to take this opportunity to thank everyone for the support they showed to our boys' soccer team throughout the season and especially during our run into the state tournament. The amount of people and support we got at the games was amazing to see. The way people turned out to our spaghetti dinner fundraiser and the money that was donated to our team was incredible. We received numerous messages and even people not at the games found a way to see how we were doing. We will never forget the parades through town and the memories we created during this remarkable run. A special thanks to the parents, coaches, Laura Green, athletic director Brad Lehman and the school administration and teachers for their various roles over the past week for making this trip to the state tournament run more smoothly. It's moments like these that make us realize how special it is living in a small community and how lucky we are when a community like ours comes together.

Thanks again.

GOD IS A GOOD, GOOD GOD

The nature, character and love of Father God are best demonstrated in the life of His Son, Jesus. Jesus healed, delivered and loved everyone who came to Him. He was doing the will of the One Who sent Him to earth (see John 6:38).

God has not changed. He is still the same. Father God continues to heal, deliver and love people. James 1:17 tells us that in Him, "every good and perfect gift is from above, and comes down from the Father of lights, with Whom there is no variation, or shadow of turning."

At Healing Rooms on the Genesee, our desire is to do the will of Father God by ministering to the sick. Give us a call and we'll come pray for you.
