At The Corral Gate

It's funny how so often, a strong undercurrent which is invisible to the eye can cause very visible effects in our world. First, there's the wind, which we all know is powerfully effective yet invisible, as in fallen tree limbs in the yard! And of course, ocean waves which are so inviting during summer vacation can become disastrous when strong invisible undercurrents are unleashed during hurricane season. Similarly, there's a powerful but beneficial undercurrent right here where we live. Let's examine that human undercurrent a little closer.

This lady is an officer in the Downtown Business Alliance. The DBA, a volunteer group of merchants, community leaders and individuals, has exerted a powerful force toward the renovation and revitalization of downtown Sulphur Springs, a delightful area we can enjoy today. Linda Galligher, Senior Vice President of Alliance Bank, is a force to be reckoned with in "getting things done from back stage". She is ever humble and gracious, and will insist that she is but one of a multitude, but don't believe her! Linda gets things done! And she not only assists the DBA, she is also a guiding force in the Northeast Texas Symphony League's cultural contributions to the town, and I don't know how many other causes she represents! Watch for her at the next DBA event, the Christmas Tree Lighting /Visit with Santa and Mrs. Claus on Celebration Plaza Friday, December 6, on the same night as the Lions Club Lighted Christmas Parade. See more of what DBA does by going to sulphurspringsdba.org.

Carol Allen of Northeast
Texas Choral Society

Talk about putting talents to work! Not only did Carol put her own formal training and impressive musical talent to work for Sulphur Springs and Northeast Texas when she launched her first 'choral music concert' for the public twenty years ago, she shines the spotlight on the talent around her. Carol Allen, Director of the Northeast Texas Choral Society, pours her heart and soul into the fifteen weeks of intensive rehearsals with her choir twice yearly for Concert season, with a Spring Concert on the last weekend of May and the Christmas Concert on the first weekend of December each year. The "Hearts Come Home for Christmas" concert will be staged on Saturday December 7 at 7pm and Sunday December 8 at 2pm, in the SSHS Auditorium. If you are a singer, she welcomes you to join the 2020 100-voice Choral Society! Find out more at singerscount.org.

Here's a lady who's a cowgirl at heart as well as a powerful force for good across the region. Linda Chase has been the UPRA Rodeo Queen Co-coordinator for the past several years, and she does her job with enthusiasm and good humor. The United Professional Rodeo Association is 40 years old, and annually stages the Cinch United Finals Rodeo performances in the Hopkins County Civic Center arena during November. Starting each Spring, the organization seeks a young lady to be "Queen" or Miss UPRA and they also seek a Junior Queen or Miss Teen UPRA to represent them throughout the months of the rodeo circuit. These candidates often have already achieved small-rodeo titles from the NE Texas region. For their course of instruction, Linda organizes the candidates, oversees them as they prepare for the horsemanship events as well as the crucial poise and personality judging, and prompts them for a successful Interview with Judges. And during the final weeks of preparation, Linda becomes like a 'second mom' as the girls work, travel and prepare themselves for the big Finals weekend. So, with their horse in tow and their changes of glittery cowgirl outfits, the ladies converge in Sulphur Springs to give radio interviews, have their photos made for newspaper, assist with the Handicapable Rodeo for disabled children, meet with Rodeo officials and in general become 'the face' of UPRA. On the last night of Finals, they will be horseback in the arena before the crowds as the honors are announced and crowns placed upon just two heads, or hats, actually! The two top-scoring girls who have blossomed under the tutelage of Linda Chase will begin their reign as "Rodeo Royalty"! Linda personifies the best of the cowgirl spirit as UPRA Queen Co-ordinator. And was she a cowgirl in her younger years? I'll have to find out next time I see her!

Enola Gay with Linda Chase,
UPRA Queen Coordinator

I hope your holidays are nourishing to your spirit and your table laden with not just food but the blessings of family and friends!
Til next week, I will watch for you at the Corral Gate.

THE ROCKER MAN

Tumbleweed Smith

Tumbleweed Smith

“Last time I checked I think we have furniture in almost every state in the US and 14 foreign countries. We’ve even shipped rocking chairs to Poland.”

Larry Dennis has TEXAS HILL COUNTRY FURNITURE AND MERCANTILE just south of the intersection of Interstate 20 and Highway 281. That’s near Stephenville. The place is easy to recognize because it has a giant rocking chair out front that’s 26 feet tall and is in the Guinness Book of World Records as the world’s biggest cedar rocking chair.

After graduating from high school in Roby 52 years ago, he worked in a cabinet shop and has been doing woodwork ever since. He became quite a craftsman and wanted to start something on his own. He decided on rocking chairs. He made them at his shop in Weatherford, loaded them on his truck and peddled them along the highway. “One day I sold 36 rockers,” says Larry. “That’s when I decided we could build our stuff and offer it for sale in one place. We bought this place here in 2001 and it’s been real good for us.”

He makes furniture from mesquite, pecan and mountain cedar trees that grow in his area. “Customers give us an idea of what they want and we’ll sit down and start making a sketch. We’ll work it until they see what they want then we’ll start making it. The wood dictates what we’re going to make and how it’s supposed to look. All our stuff is our design and made by hand. We make own dowels and everything. When we get an order for aromatic red cedar for a cedar chest or chest of drawers, we’ll bring in a truckload of red cedar logs from east Texas.”

He calls his look hill country. “It’s not rustic but more finished work. We have more requests for things made from pecan wood because it has so many different neutral tones. It’ll go with anything in the house. We make beds, desks, bars, doors, split log staircases, all kinds of things and we probably have the largest supply of mantles in the country.”

When I visited Larry, he showed me a load of merchandise all wrapped up on pallets. It was bound for Las Vegas and a satisfied customer there who had ordered big items from Larry before and wanted more. Jay Leno, Willie Nelson, ZZ Top and Ruth Buzzy are among his customers.

His place is not just a sawmill, warehouse and an old time general store. It’s a complete environment. People from the metroplex drop in on weekends with their families and spend the day there. Larry’s family members have a barbecue place, blacksmith shop and bakery just a few doors down from the store. It’s not unusual to hear several languages in the store. “People fly in to DFW from Europe and head this way. I guess they just want something from Texas. They love the general store. I have to confess that most of the stuff on the walls came from my garage. When I see something old and rusty I pick it up,”
